HISTORICAL SESSIONS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCES

Rio Grande Conference

El ministerio de La Iglesia Metodista Unida a través de la Conferencia Río Grande, tuvo sus precursores ya desde 1815, tanto en ministros de las fronteras como en los Colportores de las Sociedades Bíblicas y en algunas de las comunidades de fe de los Colonos de Texas. Los esfuerzos ya más instituidos, empero, trazan su historial a dos de los ramos del metodismo: La Iglesia Metodista Episcopal y La Iglesia Metodista Episcopal del Sur.

La Iglesia Metodista Episcopal principia en 1850 con nombramientos a Nuevo México, a través de la Conferencia de Oregon y California y de la Sociedad Misionera, y posteriormente, a través de varias otras Conferencias. Estos primeros esfuerzos, si bien terminan en 1856, darán como fruto una Misión en Peralta. Dicha Misión continuaría por sí misma, bajo liderazgo fiel de algunos laicos, hasta 1871 que es cuando se prosigue ya en forma de un Distrito parte de la Conferencia de Colorado. En 1876 este Distrito, bilingüe por cierto, se constituye en la Misión de Nuevo México la cual continúa siendo parte, hasta 1884, de la Conferencia de Colorado. La obra toma nuevo curso, manteniendo aún su relación con la Conferencia de Colorado hasta 1891, pero reorganizándose en 1885 para dar lugar a la Misión Española de Nuevo México la cual posteriormente, al verse fortalecida se convierte, en 1892, en Conferencia Misionera Española de Nuevo México. En 1915 y hasta 1924, las obras de habla española y habla inglesa se vuelven a unir, formándose la bilingüe Conferencia de Nuevo México. En 1924 otra reorganización se hace necesaria y de ella nos viene la Misión Española del Suroeste la cual, en 1932, se hace Misión Latino Americana, continuando así hasta 1936. Finalmente, de 1937 a 1939, la obra se organiza como Misión de Nuevo México. Durante este periodo la mayoría de los obreros mantienen su membresía clerical en la Conferencia de Nuevo México de 1924 a 1927, en la Conferencia Misionera de Nuevo México en 1928 y en varias otras Conferencias, hasta la unificación de los metodismos de 1939.

La Iglesia Metodista Episcopal del Sur, por su parte, principia en 1859 con nombramientos a El Paso y a San Antonio, a través de la Conferencia Misionera del Río Grande, los que durarían uno y dos años respectivamente. En 1871 se reanudan los esfuerzos con un nombramiento a Corpus Christi, a través de la Conferencia del Oeste de Texas, que da como fruto un Distrito. La obra crece y en 1885 se establece como Conferencia Fronteriza Misionera Mexicana. En 1890 dicha Conferencia se divide en dos, naciendo la Conferencia Noroeste Misionera Mexicana. En los años 1914-1915 se da la primera reorganización en base a obra en Estados Unidos y obra en México, por lo que se forma la Misión Mexicana de Texas en 1914 y al Conferencia Fronteriza Mexicana en 1915. La Misión Mexicana de Texas, sin embargo, mantiene la mayoría de su membresía clerical en México en la Conferencia Fronteriza Misionera Mexicana en 1914 y en la Conferencia Fronteriza Mexicana hasta 1918. Por otro lado, en 1918 se da la reorganización de la obra occidental y se forma, con ello, la Conferencia Mexicana y la Misión Mexicana del Occidente Es así que a partir de 1918 y hasta 1930 la Misión Mexicana de Texas y la Misión Mexicana del Occidente mantiene la mayoría de su membresía clerical en la Conferencia Mexicana. En 1930 se da la separación definitiva de la obra mexicana y estadounidense y ambas Misiones pasan a ser Conferencia Mexicana de Texas y Conferencia Mexicana del Occidente, respectivamente, continuando así hasta la mencionada unificación del 1939.

En 1939, con la formación de La Iglesia Metodista, se dio también la unificación de la Misión de Nuevo México, la Conferencia Mexicana de Texas y la Conferencia Mexicana del Occidente, formándose la Conferencia Mexicana del Suroeste, la cual cambia de nombre en 1947 a Conferencia del Río Grande.

El Primero de Enero del 2015, La Conferencia Río Grande de la Iglesia Unida Metodista y La Conferencia Southwest Texas de la Iglesia Metodista Unida se unificaron para formar un sola conferencia; La Conferencia Rio Texas de la Iglesia Metodista Unida.

SOUTHWEST TEXAS CONFERENCE

The History of the Southwest Texas Annual Conference began in 1858, when the Rio Grande Mission Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South was organized. This became the Rio Grande Annual Conference in 1864, and the name was changed to the West Texas Conference in 1866. In 1918, the German Mission Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South (all except three charges in East Bernard and Houston) merged with the West Texas Conference. The German Mission Conference had been organized in 1874, when the German Charges, which had been at one time or another in the Louisiana, Texas and Rio Grande Conference, were organized into a Conference.

In 1874, the Southern German Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized, and this became the Southern Conference (German) in 1918. The Gulf Mission, which held its first session in 1893, became the Gulf Mission Conference in 1897, and the Gulf Annual Conference in 1904. In 1912, the Southern Swedish Mission Conference was organized. In 1926, the three Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Gulf Annual Conference, the Southern Swedish Mission Conference, and the Southern Conference (German), were united in the Southern Conference.

In 1939, the Southwest Texas Conference boundaries were established and all of the charges of the former West Texas Conference and of the Southern Conference within its boundaries were united into the Southwest Texas Conference.

On May 27, 1970, a certain portion of the West Texas Conference of the former Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church and the Southwest Texas Conference merged into one new conference now know as the Southwest Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church.

On January 1, 2015, The Rio Grande Conference of the United Methodist Church and The Southwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church unified into one conference to become The Rio Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

AGENCIES, MEMBERS, & CHURCHES

Rev. Colleen Haley opened the first Plenary Session with Worship Music

6th Rio Texas Annual Conference
October 3, 2020
Minutes of the Daily Proceedings
Bishop Robert Schnase, Presiding Bishop

FIRST PLENARY SESSION

Welcome

Call to Order: Bishop Robert Schnase presiding. Music provided by Rev. Colleen Haley. Theme “Even So It is Well with My Soul.”

Conference opens with Remembrance of Baptism Service at 8:00 am. Scripture Reading Isaiah 61:1-4; read in Spanish by Rev. Robert Ortiz and in English by Rev. Janet Larson. Bishop Robert Schnase introduces a series of videos sharing reflections of experiences during these past few months: “What is breaking your heart and what gives you hope”. (Gabriela Lopez, Stan Whites, Robert Elizondo and Pamela Benson Owens). Music provided by Simpson UMC, Valley Praise UMC and Alamo Heights UMC.

Bishop Robert Schnase welcomes all attendees to the first virtual Rio Texas Annual Conference.

Introductions

Bishop Schnase introduces the persons assisting him:

Ralph Thompson-Conference Lay Leader

Jay Brim-Conference Chancellor

Dalia Del Pozo Trevino-Executive Assistant to the Bishop

Rev. Mickey McCandless-Conference Secretary

Ruth Lopez-Associate Secretary of Daily Proceedings

Rev. Diana Phillips-Director of Connectional Ministries

Bishop Schnase outlines the processes for conducting the Plenary Sessions of the 2020 Rio Texas Annual Conference Special Called Session: Rio Texas Standing Rules, Robert’s Rules of Order and the 2016 United Methodist Book of Discipline. Can business be conducted online even though Rio Texas Conference Standing Rules do not explicitly mention it? The legal counsel of the General Council on Finance & Administration and the National Association of Chancellors have agreed that this is in order. To assure that we comply with State law, the actions taken at this Special Session will be confirmed at the next in-person physical gathering of the Rio Texas Annual Conference by the adoption of a statement of affirmation.

Bishop Schnase calls the virtual Special Session to order. He invites Rev. Mickey McCandless, Conference Secretary, to present the organization of the Conference. Jozlin Parker, Director of Communications and Technical Ministries, shares how the Conference will be conducted electronically, how to be recognized for questions, the voting process and a test vote takes place.

Bishop’s Message

Bishop Robert Schnase lifts up three challenges that those in the Rio Texas Conference have faced together this year as United Methodists: the pandemic; the urgency to address systemic racism in all aspects of our society including in our churches and our conference; the postponement of General Conference and how this has delayed resolution about the future of our denomination.

It has never been more important to offer witness to the power of God’s grace than now. The persistence of God’s love, the unceasing quality of God’s call for justice and for peace. Bishop Schnase prays that this will become a season of constructive discomfort for the Rio Texas Conference. This is a time to follow Christ into those difficult places. This is the work of the Holy Spirit nudging us. This is a season for each of us to ask ourselves: What kind of disciple of Christ will I be? What kind of a church are we? What witness will we bear? Where will we find the courage and the energy to remain faithful? We will find that courage and that hope because on the other side of the cross is the resurrection.

Just as we see the resilience of our churches, we continue to see signs of new life, new ways to offer our best and our highest to a world that is hurting and stands in need of healing. We rely not on our own strength but on the promise revealed to us in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Life is worth living; people are worth loving; and God is worth trusting even in these difficult times. This is a time to pour into the task with every ounce of energy that we have to stay in relationship with the one who said, "I came that they might have life and have it abundantly." Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me for I am gentle and humble of heart and you will find rest for your souls." We face significant challenges, even so, it is well with my soul.

Lay Leader Message

Conference Lay Leader Ralph Thompson, Grape Creek UMC, San Angelo, addresses the Annual Conference.

Establishing the Bar, Organization of the Conference and Adoption of the Agenda

Rev. Mickey McCandless, Conference Secretary, explains that those who were named and elected by their churches or districts are credentialed to vote as delegates using Election Buddy. Normally delegate names are due in the conference office by February. This year as conference was postponed, delays and changes have been accommodated through mid-September, giving us time to enter the information into the system and send out the proper links. That credential system is what allows us to have an effective voting system with links provided only to delegates.

Jozlin Parker states that Ralph Thompson's address was cut short; the full address will be posted on the website.

Several practice votes take place through Election Buddy. It is decided that Zoom Polling will be used instead of Election Buddy. A Zoom practice poll is launched.

Rev. Mickey McCandless made the following motions:

Motion to adopt Consent Agenda I which is to receive all reports that are For Information Only in the Pre-Conference Report to be published in the 2020 Rio Texas Journal VOTE Results: Approved by poll

Motion to accept Consent Agenda II which is all those reports in the Pre-Conference Report that are For Conference Action but are expected to be passed easily by the body; this includes the first part of the errata which concerns Harvest Sunday and Rural Initiative VOTE Results: Approved by poll (593 Yes, 11 No)

Motion to confirm the agenda as presented and establish the bar. VOTE Results: Approved by poll (575 Yes, 10 No)

Report on the Postponed 2020 General Conference

Rio Texas General Conference Delegates Rev. Laura Merrill, Assistant to the Bishop; Mr. Jay Brim, Conference Chancellor; Rev. James Amerson, Senior Pastor of St. Paul UMC, San Antonio; and Ms. Rachel Wright, member of Tarrytown UMC, report on the postponed General Conference. General Conference was scheduled to take place in May of 2020; it was postponed and is now scheduled to take place August 29 through September 7, 2021 in Minneapolis, MN. The work of the postponed General Conference will be the same as it was before it was postponed. This includes consideration of the agreement called the Protocol of Reconciliation and Grace through Separation. General Conference is a global gathering. There are many considerations for a global gathering that need to be resolved including travel access, Internet access, and time zones. The Commission on General Conference is looking at options for meeting in ways that will allow the business of the church to go forward even in the midst of this pandemic. Jurisdictional Conference is scheduled for November 10 through 12, 2021 in The Woodlands, TX. Three bishops who would have retired in 2020 have been extended to the next Jurisdictional Conference meeting.

Rev. Laura Merrill sums up requesting prayers for the delegation and for the church; prayer for the church to act in ways that put our hands and our feet and our hearts into action. That is the commitment of the delegation to the Rio Texas Conference.

Report of Standing Rules

Bishop Schnase introduces Mrs. Barbara Mobley, Chair of the Committee on Standing Rules, member of First UMC in Portland. Mrs. Mobley presents two changes to the Standing Rules. The first change is eliminating all references to the Administration Team and instead having each of those persons who were a part of the Administration Team listed in Rule 6, be members of the Uniting Table. The second change involves further simplifying the section of the Standing Rules on the conference staff and resources. This allows flexibility to develop creative ministry in this continually changing environment. It also eliminates the need for a change in Standing Rules every time conference leadership positions change in order to support our mission.

Motion is brought to the floor by Mrs. Mobley on behalf of the Committee on Standing Rules to adopt Report II as amended in the Pre-Conference Report. VOTE Results: Approved by poll

Report of the Board of Ordained Ministry

Bishop Schnase introduces Rev. Adam Knight, Chair of Board of Ordained Ministry, Senior Pastor of Coker UMC, San Antonio. The Board adapted its interview processes to better reflect certain things sought in future clergy leaders; ethnic and cultural proficiency, a heart for evangelism, faith in the calling from God, ability to develop and equip missional leaders and catalytic capacity.

Nominations Report

Bishop Schnase introduces Rev. Diana Phillips, Director of Connectional Ministries. Rev. Phillips reports that the Book of Discipline requires that the nomination and election of several conference teams and officers take place after General Conference which has now been postponed to the fall of 2021. Therefore, Bishop Schnase has asked the current leadership to remain in place until our first Annual Conference after the postponed 2020 General Conference. The Rio Texas Conference is committed to excellence and diversity in leadership. The goal of the Committee on Nominations is to build a pool of qualified, spiritually grounded and committed leaders. To assist in achieving these important goals, a new nomination process was announced and initiated earlier this year. This Leadership Pool is open to everyone and the application is ongoing. The Leadership Pool application and process can be found under the Resources heading on the Annual Conference website. The intent of the pool is not only to find a slate of missionally minded nominees to prepare for quadrennial elections, but for use as needs arise throughout the year. Rev. Phillips anticipates beginning the process of developing this quadrennial slate somewhere around September/October 2021.

Introducciones

Ralph Thompson-Líder Laico de la Conferencia

Jay Brim-Canciller de la Conferencia

Dalia Del Pozo Treviño-Asistente ejecutiva del Obispo

Rdo. Mickey McCandless-Secretario de la Conferencia

Ruth López-Secretaria asociada de Procedimientos Diarios

Rda. Diana Phillips-Directora de Ministerios Conexionales

El Obispo Schnase describe los procesos para llevar a cabo las Sesiones Plenarias de la Conferencia Anual Río Texas 2020: Reglas Permanentes de Río Texas, Reglas de Orden de Robert y el Libro de Disciplina Metodista Unida 2016. ¿Se permite llevar a cabo negocios en línea aunque las Reglas Permanentes de la Conferencia Río Texas no lo mencionen explícitamente? El asesor legal del Consejo General de Finanzas y Administración y la Asociación Nacional de Cancilleres han acordado que esto está en orden. Para asegurar que cumplimos con la ley estatal, las acciones tomadas en esta Sesión Especial serán confirmadas en la próxima reunión en persona física de la Conferencia Anual Río Texas mediante la adopción de una declaración de afirmación.

El Obispo Schnase llama al orden la Sesión Especial virtual. Invita al Rdo. Mickey McCandless, Secretario de la Conferencia, a presentar la organización de la Conferencia. Jozlin Parker, Directora de Comunicaciones y Ministerios Técnicos, comparte cómo se llevará a cabo la Conferencia de manera electrónica, cómo ser uno reconocido para hacer preguntas, el proceso de votación y se lleva a cabo una votación de prueba.

Mensaje del Obispo

El Obispo Robert Schnase menciona tres desafíos que aquellos en la Conferencia Río Texas han enfrentado juntos este año como metodistas unidos: la pandemia; la urgencia de abordar el racismo sistémico en todos los aspectos de nuestra sociedad, inclusive nuestras iglesias y nuestra conferencia; el aplazamiento de la Conferencia General y cómo esto ha retrasado la resolución sobre el futuro de nuestra denominación.

Nunca ha sido más importante que ahora dar testimonio del poder de la gracia de Dios. La persistencia del amor de Dios, la cualidad incesante del llamado de Dios a la justicia y la paz. El Obispo Schnase ora para que esta se convierta en una temporada de inquietud constructiva en la Conferencia Río Texas. Este es el momento de seguir a Cristo a esos lugares difíciles. Esta es la obra del Espíritu Santo empujándonos. Esta es una temporada en la cual cada uno de nosotros nos preguntemos: ¿Qué clase de discípulo de Cristo seré? ¿Qué tipo de iglesia somos? ¿Qué testimonio daremos? ¿Dónde encontraremos el valor y la energía para permanecer fieles? Encontraremos ese valor y esa esperanza porque del otro lado de la cruz está la resurrección.

Así cual vemos la capacidad de recuperación de nuestras iglesias, continuamos viendo señales de vida nueva, nuevas formas de ofrecer lo mejor y lo mejor de nosotros a un mundo que está sufriendo y necesita sanidad. No confiamos en nuestras propias fuerzas, sino en la promesa que se nos revela en la vida, muerte y resurrección de Jesucristo. Vale la pena vivir la vida; vale la pena amar a la gente; y vale la pena confiar en Dios incluso en estos tiempos difíciles. Este es un momento para dedicarnos a la tarea con cada gramo de energía que tenemos para mantenernos en relación con el que dijo: "Yo vine para que tengan vida y la tengan en abundancia". Jesús dijo: "Venid a mí todos los que estáis trabajados y cansados, y yo os haré descansar. Carguen mi yugo y aprendan de mí, porque soy manso y humilde de corazón y encontrarán descanso para sus almas ". Nos enfrentamos a retos importantes, aun así, descansa bien nuestra alma.

Mensaje del Líder Laico

Ralph Thompson, líder laico de la conferencia, IMU de Grape Creek, San Angelo, se dirige a la Conferencia Anual.

Establecimiento de la Barra, Organización de la Conferencia y Aprobación de la Agenda del Día

El Rdo. Mickey McCandless, Secretario de la Conferencia, explica que aquellos que fueron nombrados y elegidos por sus iglesias o distritos tienen credenciales para votar como delegados utilizando el medio Election Buddy. Normalmente, los nombres de los delegados deben entregarse en la oficina de la Conferencia en febrero. Este año, dado que la conferencia se pospuso, las demoras y los cambios se han pospuesto hasta mediados de septiembre, para dar tiempo para ingresar la información en el sistema y enviar los enlaces adecuados. Ese sistema de credenciales es lo que nos permite tener un sistema de votación eficaz con enlaces proporcionados solamente a los delegados.

Jozlin Parker afirma que la dirección de Ralph Thompson fue interrumpida; la dirección completa se publicará en el sitio web.

Varias votaciones de práctica se llevan a cabo a través de Election Buddy. Se decide que se utilizará Zoom Polling en lugar de Election Buddy. Se lanza una encuesta de práctica de Zoom.

El Rdo. Mickey McCandless hizo las siguientes mociones:

Moción para adoptar la Agenda de Consentimiento I que debe recibir todos los informes que son solo para información en el informe previo a la Conferencia el cual se publicará en el diario Rio Texas Journal 2020

Resultados de la VOTACIÓN: Aprobado por encuesta

Moción para aceptar la Agenda de Consentimiento II, que son todos los informes del Informe Previo a la Conferencia que están Para Acción de la Conferencia pero que se espera que sean aprobados fácilmente por el cuerpo; esto incluye la primera parte de la errata que se refiere al Domingo de la Cosecha y la Iniciativa Rural

VOTO Resultados: Aprobado por encuesta (593 Sí, 11 No)

Moción para confirmar la agenda tal como se presentó y establecer la barra. VOTO Resultados: Aprobado por encuesta (575 Sí, 10 No)

Informe sobre la Pospuesta Conferencia General de 2020

Delegados de la Conferencia General Rio Texas: La Rda. Laura Merrill, Asistente del Obispo; El Sr. Jay Brim, Canciller de la Conferencia; El Rdo. James Amerson, Pastor Principal de St. Paul IMU, San Antonio; y la Sra. Rachel Wright, miembro de Tarrytown IMU, informan sobre la Conferencia General Pospuesta. La Conferencia General estaba programada para tomar lugar en mayo de 2020; fue pospuesta y ahora está programada para llevarse a cabo del 29 de agosto al 7 de septiembre de 2021 en Minneapolis, MN. El trabajo de la Conferencia General Pospuesta será el mismo que era antes de que se pospusiera. Esto incluye la consideración del acuerdo llamado Protocolo de Reconciliación y Gracia por Separación. La Conferencia General es una reunión mundial. Hay muchas consideraciones para una reunión global que deben resolverse, inclusive el acceso a los viajes, el acceso a Internet y las zonas horarias. La Comisión de la Conferencia General está buscando opciones para reunirse de manera que permitan que los negocios de la iglesia sigan adelante incluso en medio de esta pandemia. La Conferencia

Jurisdiccional está programada del 10 al 12 de noviembre de 2021 en The Woodlands, TX. La función de tres Obispos que se habrían jubilado en 2020 se ha extendido a la próxima reunión de la Conferencia Jurisdiccional. La Rda. Laura Merrill resume pidiendo oraciones por la delegación y por la iglesia; Oración para que la iglesia actúe de manera que ponga nuestras manos, nuestros pies y nuestro corazón en acción. Ese es el compromiso de la delegación a la Conferencia Río Texas.

Informe de las Normas Permanentes

El Obispo Schnase presenta a la Sra. Barbara Mobley, Presidenta del Comité de Reglas Permanentes, miembro del First IMU en Portland. La Sra. Mobley presenta dos cambios a las Reglas Permanentes. El primer cambio es eliminar todas las referencias al Equipo de Administración y, en su lugar, hacer que cada una de las personas que formaban parte del Equipo de Administración enumeradas en la Regla 6 sean miembros de la Mesa Unida. El segundo cambio implica simplificar aún más la sección del Reglamento Permanente sobre el personal y los recursos de la Conferencia. Esto permite flexibilidad para desarrollar un ministerio creativo en este entorno de constante cambio. También elimina la necesidad de un cambio en las Reglas Permanentes cada vez que cambian las posiciones de liderazgo de la Conferencia para apoyar nuestra misión.

La Sra. Mobley presenta la moción en nombre del Comité de Reglas Permanentes para adoptar el Informe II en su forma enmendada en el Informe Pre-Conferencia. Resultados de VOTO: Aprobado por encuesta

Informe de la Junta de Ministerio Ordenado

El Obispo Schnase presenta al Rdo. Adam Knight, Presidente de la Junta de Ministerio Ordenado, Pastor Principal de Coker IMU, San Antonio. La Junta adaptó sus procesos de entrevistas para reflejar mejor ciertas cosas deseadas en los futuros líderes del clero; competencia étnica y cultural, corazón para la evangelización, fe en el llamado de Dios, habilidad para desarrollar y equipar líderes misionales y capacidad catalizadora.

Informe de Nominaciones

El Obispo Schnase presenta a la Rda. Diana Phillips, Directora de Ministerios Conexionales. La Rda. Phillips informa que el Libro de Disciplina requiere que la nominación y elección de varios equipos y oficiales de la conferencia se lleve a cabo después de la Conferencia General, que ahora se pospuso para el otoño de 2021. Por lo tanto, el Obispo Schnase ha pedido al liderazgo actual que permanezca en su lugar hasta nuestra primera Conferencia Anual después de la pospuesta Conferencia General de 2020. La Conferencia Río Texas está comprometida con la excelencia y la diversidad en el liderazgo. El objetivo del Comité de Nominaciones es crear un grupo de líderes calificados, con una base espiritual y comprometidos. Para ayudar a lograr estos importantes objetivos, a principios de este año se anunció e inició un nuevo proceso de nominación. Este Fondo de Liderazgo está abierto a todos y la aplicación está en curso. La solicitud y el proceso del Fondo de Liderazgo se pueden encontrar bajo el encabezado Recursos en el sitio web de la Conferencia Anual. La intención del grupo no es solo encontrar una lista de nominados con mentalidad misional para prepararse para las elecciones cuatrienales, sino también para usarlos cuando surjan necesidades durante todo el año. La Rda. Phillips anticipa comenzar el proceso de desarrollo de esta lista cuatrienal alrededor de septiembre y octubre de 2021.

STANDING RULES

REPORT I CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT FOR INFORMATION ONLY

This year two changes are being proposed to the Standing Rules.

The first change involves elimination of all references to the Administration Team, and instead having a representative from each of the administrative agencies listed in Rule #6 be a member of the Uniting Table. Rationale: This change lets the Uniting Table be the coordinating body for dialogue among the administrative agencies, the vision teams and the missional bodies of the annual conference. The Administration Team has no function which cannot be done within the Uniting Table structure.

The second change involves further simplification of the Conference Staff and Resources section by eliminating Rule #15, re-numbering Rules #16 and #17, and adding Rule #17. Rationale: This allows the flexibility needed to develop creative ministry in an ever-changing environment, and eliminates the need for a change to the Standing Rules every time the conference leadership positions change to support our mission.

Thank you for the opportunity to be of service to you.

REPORT V
FINANCE TABLE (CF&A) OPERATIONS
FOR INFORMATION ONLY

The purpose of the Finance Table (CF&A) is "to develop, maintain, and administer a comprehensive and coordinated plan of fiscal and administrative policies, procedures, and management services for the Annual Conference" (§1612.1 2016 Book of Discipline).

In keeping with the Disciplinary purpose, the Finance Table (CF&A) sees itself as an integral part of the mission and ministry of the Conference.

We are working to improve communications with the other agencies of the Conference to ensure that our work is supportive of the ministries and goals of the Uniting Table and the Mission Field Ministry Offices.

Receipts on all funds for 2019 by the Río Texas Conference were $9,267,260.99 or 88.90% of the apportioned amount. The Finance Table (CF&A) is proposing the budget for 2021. The overall apportioned budget for all funds totals $8,439,072.

The Finance Table (CF&A) sees itself as joining with the local church in the work of the financial ministry of the Annual Conference. We commend the 2021 budget to the Conference. It represents the uniqueness and depth of ministries and missions provided by our church and economic realities of our Conference. The Finance Table (CF&A), along with the Conference Treasurer, has been monitoring membership and economic trends within the Conference, the Global Church, and society at large. We believe that the future health and vitality of our ministry will require that the amounts apportioned to the local churches will need to be significantly reduced over the next few years. As the goals and direction of the Conference become clearer, we will be working with the Bishop, the Uniting Table, and Mission Field Ministries to ensure that the budget and apportionments accurately reflect those goals and support those ministries. At the same time, we will continue to work with our Conference Treasurer, the Personnel Committee and other Conference leaders to improve communications, systems and efficiency.

Operating Policies of the Finance Table (CF&A):

1. The compensation (including housing and utilities) for District Superintendents shall be recommended to the Annual Conference by the Finance Table (CF&A), using a guideline formula adopted by the Personnel Committee of 1.85 times the Conference Average Compensation (CAC). The purpose of the formula is to relate DS Compensation to Full Time Clergy Compensation. We recommend that the salary computation should also be applied to other clergy appointed to the conference staff at Cabinet level. For the year 2021, the Cabinet has requested that this formula be set aside leaving their salaries frozen at the lower 2020 rate

The decimal formula shall be based on the two year average of local church operating expenses divided by two years of conference-wide local church operating expenses times each apportioned fund. Operating expenses include only these line items from the Local Church Report to the Annual Conference:

- Line 41 – Pastor(s) Compensation
- Line 42 – Utilities and Housing Paid to Pastor(s)
- Line 43 – Accountable Reimbursement Paid to Pastor(s)
- Line 44 – Non-Accountable Cash Allowances Paid to Pastor(s)
- Line 45 – Staff & Diaconal Ministers Salary
- Line 46 – Program Expenses
- Line 47 – Current Operating Expenses other than Program

| $\frac{\text{2 years of Local Church Operating Expenses}}{\text{2 Years of Conference-Wide Local Church Operating Expenses}} \times \text{Each Conference Apportioned Fund}$ |
|--|

If there are separate district apportionments determined by each district, they will be allocated according to the following formula.

| $\frac{\text{2 years of Local Church Operating Expenses}}{\text{2 Years of District-Wide Local Church Operating Expenses}} \times \text{Each District Apportioned Fund}$ |
|--|

2. At the beginning of the calendar year, the Finance Table (CF&A) shall determine which portions of the Conference Ministries and Administrative Ministries are “fixed costs” (salaries, benefits, etc.) and shall thus be authorized to be paid at 100% of the approved budget. On the basis of prior-year receipts to these funds, the Finance Table (CF&A) shall then determine a percentage of the approved budget to be authorized for expenditures in the remaining items of each budget, so that expenditures shall not exceed income.
 - a. Each church is expected to support all funds at 100% of the apportioned amount. (¶247.14 2016 Book of Discipline)
 - b. The churches are requested to make payments thereon aggregately, with the understanding that the Conference Treasurer will allocate such payments according to the appropriate percentage due the fund according to the Conference Budget.
3. An Unrestricted Fund Balance Account will be maintained by the Annual Conference at a minimum level of 20% of the current total of the Conference Funds. Any undesignated interest income will be transferred to the undesignated fund balance at the end of the fiscal year.
4. All apportioned funds, pension and health benefits costs both receipts and disbursements, will be managed through the office of the Conference Treasurer. All boards, agencies, committees, and commissions shall use the Conference Treasurer as the fiscal agent.
5. The compensation (including housing and utilities) for District Superintendents shall be recommended to the Annual Conference by the Finance Table (CF&A), using a guideline formula adopted by the Personnel Committee of 1.85 times the Conference Average Compensation (CAC). Calculate the cash portion as follows: 2021 CAC x 1.85 = DS Plan Compensation. Then, (DS Plan Comp – utilities) / 1.25 = Cash Salary. Example: Where utilities are $5,000 and housing is 25% of Cash Salary; $71,791 x 1.85 = $132,813. Then, ($132,813 – $5,000) / 1.25 = $102,250. The purpose of the formula is to relate DS Compensation to Full Time Clergy Compensation. We recommend that the salary computation should also be applied to other clergy appointed to the conference staff at Cabinet level.
6. All agencies receiving funds from the Conference budget shall affirm that funds will not be expended for uses not consistent with ¶613.18-19 2016 Book of Discipline.
7. The amount of compensation designated as housing allowance for ordained staff members and district superintendents of the Conference will be set by an annual resolution of the Conference Finance Table (CF&A) after consideration of a statement of amounts to be used during the year.
8. The governing boards of United Methodist related entities must apply to the Finance Table (CF&A) to be granted the privilege of soliciting and receiving funds from churches, individuals, and other sources (but not from conference-wide offerings except as indicated in the list which follows) in keeping with ¶262 2016 Book of Discipline; no capital campaigns have been approved for 2020; and the following, and only the following, conference-wide offerings are approved for 2021:

9. The Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson, and Secretary of the Conference Finance Table (CF&A), the Chairperson of the Audit Committee, the Chairperson of Equitable Compensation and the Conference Treasurer/Director of Administrative Ministries constitute the executive committee of the Conference Finance Table (CF&A).
10. The Finance Table (CF&A) is authorized to appoint a Conference auditor.
11. A Conference Fund will not be permitted to carry over unobligated budget allocations from one conference year to another unless specifically authorized by the Finance Table (CF&A). Agencies receiving funds from sources other than apportioned funds may carry over such unspent funds into the next year. Any unobligated budget allocations not authorized for carryover will be added to the undesignated Fund Balance of the Annual Conference.
12. Each year, the Conference Comptroller shall set a cutoff date for all apportionment payments to the Conference Treasurer to be applied to the preceding year. The cutoff date will be communicated to the local churches no later than December 1 each year.
13. Each Conference board, agency, or institution receiving or disbursing funds not managed by the Conference Treasurer shall maintain adequate financial records and prepare and submit annual audit reports to the Conference Treasurer and the Finance Table (CF&A). All treasurers shall be properly bonded.
14. The Conference fiscal year shall begin on January 1 each year, and end on December 31 each year.
15. The Conference Finance Table (CF&A) is responsible for designating depositories for Conference funds.
16. The Conference will include in each annual budget an appropriate line for each “shall” ministry as defined by The Book of Discipline

MEETING EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT
FOR INFORMATION ONLY

All boards and agencies are urged to schedule meetings, as far as possible, on dates and places coinciding with other groups in order to affect economy in travel expenses. Travel Expense shall be paid to members going to official in-conference meetings (between Annual Conference Sessions) at the rate of 40¢ per mile. The allowance for meals shall be $3.00 for breakfast; $7.00 each for lunch and dinner necessitated by the meetings. Reimbursement of 100% of lodging expenses necessitated by meetings at contracted hotels through the Annual Conference will be made. Those who choose to stay elsewhere will be reimbursed at the lowest contracted rate. The Conference meeting organizer will provide contracted hotel information to participants. Original lodging receipts must accompany the Disbursement Request. These allowances are not to cover full cost at all times, simply to assist in the additional expense of attending meetings.

Childcare expenses per meeting day not to exceed $30.00 for the first child, not to exceed $20.00 for each additional child, shall be allowed and included in the meeting expense of the board or agency.

Travel for duly elected delegates or representatives of the Conference to meetings of other organizations or connectional agencies shall be paid as stated above. However, actual air travel, lodging, and other expenses may be paid if funds are available from the board or agency concerned.

When it is necessary to fly to a meeting, flight must be booked at least 14 days prior to the meeting. If flights are not booked 14 days prior to the meeting, the member booking the flight must pay the difference in the cost of the flight. This does not apply in the rare instances when the meeting is an emergency meeting that is not announced prior to 14 days.

Each local church is encouraged to undergird the meal, transportation, and lodging expenses of Annual Conference members in attending Annual Conference by adding a minimum of $100 to the church budget for each lay and clergy delegate. The district superintendents are asked to encourage such support at each Charge Conference.

BOARD OF PENSIONS

PAST SERVICE RATE 2021
FOR CONFERENCE ACTION

The Past Service Rate for 2021 will be $682 per year of annuity credit. This reflects an increase of $10.00 or 1.5% over the 2020 Past Service Rate.

In 2016, the Board of Pensions adopted a long-term PSR strategy based on increases of 70% of the reported St. Louis Federal Reserve Cost of Living Index-Urban South Region to set the past service rate each year. The Board believes that this policy provides for the honor, support, and appreciation of our retired clergy while maintaining a sustainable plan to meet benefit liabilities.

Any change in the PSR also increases the Plan's liabilities and must be funded in the year adopted if necessary per the Plan asset level and Wespath funding requirements.

REPORT II
RESOLUTIONS RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED CLERGY PERSONS OF THE RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE
FOR CONFERENCE ACTION

The Río Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergypersons:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the church ("clergy persons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and this Conference was and is to provide active clergy persons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled clergy persons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, terminated, and disabled clergy persons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for clergy persons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension, severance, or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespeth Benefits and Investments, during the years 2020 and 2021 by each active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergy person who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such clergy person; and that the pension severance, or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension, severance, or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from Wespeth Benefits and Investments "Wespeth" and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespeth plan, pension, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a clergy person rendered to this Conference or that an active, retired, terminated, or disabled clergy person of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conferences of the church, general agency of the church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the church, or any other employer that employed the clergy person to perform services related to the ministry of the church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired, or disabled clergy person's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a clergy person's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations hereunder to the least of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the clergy person's employer or other appropriate body of the church (such as this Conference in the preceding resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount expended by the clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the house, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

REPORT IV
REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT
FOR INFORMATION ONLY

The Río Texas Conference Board of Pensions' mission is to "care for those who serve" by providing for the honor, support and appreciation of our clergy and lay participants. Our focus includes the administration of conference benefit plans both in the present and decades into the future for all plan beneficiaries. We endeavor to be good stewards of the resources we are entrusted with to implement denominational and Conference benefit policy in collaboration with our ministry partner Wespeth Benefits and Investments.

For the first time in our history, the COVID-19 pandemic has brought an unprecedented time of challenge, suffering, and economic calamity in the world and our nation. Amid the crisis, we have seen resilience in the church and our communities as we continue to navigate and adjust to these uncertain times in ministry. The Board is adapting and remains devoted to its mission in serving the Conference and participants. Since the early days of the pandemic in March, Wespeth in collaboration with GCFA has been providing and pandemic guidance on COVID-19 legislation, including the "CARES" Act – Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act and the FFCRA or Families First Coronavirus Response Act. This information can be found on the Conference website at www.riotexas.org/covidhrtoolkit and www.wespeth.org. Prior to the pandemic, we awaited the outcome and impact of denominational changes to the United Methodist Church and our Conference. Along with the postponement of General Conference, the previously proposed pension legislation has been delayed for the next General Conference session in 2021. At the start of 2020, the Pre-82 Plan, Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP), and Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP-DB) had no unfunded liabilities and we will continue to monitor market volatility to maintain a long term sustainable asset plan to meet benefit liabilities for all beneficiaries.

HealthFlex October Credit and 2021 Update

To assist churches with COVID-19 pandemic relief, churches with eligible full-time clergy and lay participants in Healthflex not in a delinquent status will receive a one-time HealthFlex credit in October resulting in no HealthFlex balance due for the month of October. This credit does not apply to any personal reimbursement accounts or pension plans.

To provide additional stability as a result of the apportionment phase-out and changes to the Healthflex Exchange multi Plan model:

- The 2021 CRSP-DB flat rate contribution of $511 per month will remain the same as 2020.
- The 2021 HealthFlex Premium Credit (PC) will remain at $900 per month the same as 2020.
- Effective January 1, 2021, we are pleased to announce the Rio Texas HealthFlex provider network will be the Blue Cross Blue Shield (BCBS) national network. With this transition, will have a reduction in the 2021 medical rates with an average decrease of 2%. These savings will be passed along to our plan participants in their 2021 plan selections. Remaining in the United Healthcare Network would have resulted in an increase on average across all six plans of 4%.

After a difficult HealthFlex plan year 2018 with 23% higher claims, the plan stabilized in 2019 and we are monitoring any COVID related impact to the plan in 2020 claims and renewal for 2022. HealthFlex plan participants continue to utilize the various plan offerings in the Healthflex Exchange, selecting between six medical, three dental and vision plan offerings and participation in personal reimbursement accounts have increased since the transition to Exchange. This multi-plan model allows greater flexibility in choosing a plan combination that will better fit a participant's needs.

I would like to thank all of our churches, clergy and lay members in adapting and moving ahead with perseverance and hope in continuing to share the gospel. Our churches have remained committed in their contributions for benefits despite many new trials and we will continue to in our mission to care for you.

Respectfully Submitted

Tony LoBasso, President

REPORT V PENSION PLANS FOR INFORMATION ONLY

2021 PENSION PLAN CHURCH DIRECT BILLING

Effective January 1, 2021, church direct invoicing by the Conference for clergy participants under appointment for current active service will include:

- Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) Defined Benefit required annual contribution of $6,132 for each eligible full-time clergy invoiced monthly.

- Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) required contribution 3% Plan Compensation for each eligible full-time clergy to a maximum of two times the 2021 denominational average compensation or DAC of $74,199 in 2021 invoiced monthly.
- United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP-PT) required Contribution of 9% for each eligible part-time clergy (3/4 time appointment or less) invoiced monthly.
- United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) optional contributions as elected by clergy as a payroll deduction invoiced monthly.
- The Rio Grande Legacy Fund will continue to provide contributions to eligible legacy churches for full-time clergy in the CRSP-Defined Benefit Plan, CRSP-Defined Contribution Plan, and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP).
- The Rio Grande Legacy Fund will continue to provide a 9% contributions to eligible part-time clergy appointed to a legacy church in the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan UMPIP-PT.

PRE-82 PENSION PLAN

The Pre-82 Pension Plan also known as Supplement One to the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP) is a defined benefit pension plan administered by Wespeth and provides eligible clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church before 1982. The Pre-82 Pension Plan was replaced by the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) effective January 1, 1982. One of the responsibilities of the Board of Pensions is to recommend to the annual Conference the Past Service Rate or (PSR) to clergy for each year of eligible service in the Pre-82 Pension Plan.

As the need to provide adequate clergy pension benefits evolved with the establishment of the Pre-82 Pension Plan, contributions were not adequate to provide the benefits required for many participants during years of active service. Therefore, it became the responsibility of the Conference to ensure benefit obligations required by the plan would be provided by annual contributions in an amortization schedule through 2021. The goal for each Conference is for the Pre-82 Pension Plan is to be fully funded until all benefit obligations have been met. However, the assets of the Plan are not fixed with the potential of additional liabilities due to market volatility, Wespeth policies, and the number of eligible beneficiaries. Further, any increase in the Past Service Rate (PSR) adopted by the Conference also increases the plan's liabilities.

In 2016, the Board of Pensions adopted a long-term PSR strategy based on increases of 70% of the reported St. Louis Federal Reserve Cost of Living Index-Urban South Region to set the past service rate each year. The Board believes that this policy provides for the honor, support, and appreciation to our retired clergy while maintaining a sustainable plan to meet benefit liabilities. Any change in the PSR also increases the Plan's liabilities and must be funded in the year adopted if necessary in accordance with the Plan asset level and funding requirements. As of December 31, 2019, no additional Pre-82 liabilities or Advance Contribution for 2021 to fund the Past Service Rate increase is due.

MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP)

The Ministerial Pension Plan, also known as Supplement Three to the Clergy Security Retirement Plan (CRSP), provides clergy with a pension benefit for their years of ministry with The United Methodist Church from 1982 through 2006. The MPP is an Internal Revenue Code Section 403(b) retirement plan. The Conference is required to fund any liability attributable to MPP annuities due to market fluctuations, mortality/demographic assumptions, and Wespath Plan policies. As of the January 1, 2019, actuarial valuation for 2021, the MPP and CRSP annuities funded ratio for the Rio Texas Conference is approximately 107.3%. No additional MPP contributions are required in 2020 and 2021 under Wespath's Corridor Funding methodology.

CLERGY SECURITY RETIREMENT PLAN (CRSP)

The current pension plan required for eligible full-time clergy is the Clergy Security Retirement Plan or CRSP administered by Wespath. This plan was effective January 1, 2007, and is comprised of both a defined contribution (DC) and defined benefit (DB) component.

DEFINED CONTRIBUTION (DC)

Provides a defined amount that is deposited into an active full-time clergyperson's account with monthly contributions. This benefit distributed at retirement is the accumulated amount plus earnings (or losses) in the individual's account. The defined contribution (DC) component of CRSP is 2% of Plan Compensation with a match for participant contributions to the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) – up to 1% of Plan Compensation. Therefore, if a participant contributes at least 1% of compensation to UMPIP, the CRSP DC contributions will be 3%.

DEFINED BENEFIT (DB)

Provides a specific dollar amount at retirement regardless of market conditions or investment performance. The amount is based on a formula that specifies a monthly retirement benefit to eligible clergy and 70% for eligible contingent annuitants for the remainder of their lives. The CRSP-DB provides a monthly retirement benefit using 1.25% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) at retirement multiplied by years of service from January 1, 2007, to December 31, 2013. The multiplier is reduced to 1% for years of service beginning January 1, 2014.

Both components are direct billed to each church for all eligible full-time clergy. The defined contribution (DC) billing is based on 3% of Plan Compensation. The annual defined benefit (DB) direct billing in 2020 to churches for each clergy appointed to full-time service is $6,132. The annual defined benefit (DB) direct billing in 2021 to churches for each clergy appointed to full-time service will remain at $6,132.

The annual DB contribution to Wespath is based on the number of eligible full-time clergy, clergy on Medical leave with CPP benefits on the actuarial valuation provided by Wespath. The contribution amount due in 2020 for the DB component is $1,618,824 and $1,559,225 in 2021. Any clergy serving less than full-time not eligible for the CRSP DB are eligible to participate in the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan with a required church contribution of 9% of Plan Compensation.

COMPREHENSIVE PROTECTION PLAN (CPP)

The Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) is a welfare benefit plan administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments. The CPP includes long-term disability, death and other welfare benefits for eligible full-time clergy. The CPP plan is an Internal Revenue Code 414(e) "church plan" funded by plan sponsor contributions. The CPP required direct billing to churches is 3% of Plan Compensation for eligible full-time clergy up to two times the 2020 denominational average compensation or DAC of $72,648 and $74,199 in 2021.

UNITED METHODIST PERSONAL INVESTMENT PLAN (UMPIP) FOR LAY AND CLERGY

The United Methodist Investment Plan (UMPIP) is an Internal Revenue Code section 403(b) defined contribution retirement savings plan administered by Wespath for clergy and lay employees of The United Methodist Church and affiliated organizations. Eligible participants may make personal contributions through payroll deductions for before-tax, Roth or after-tax contributions in a flat dollar amount or percentage of eligible compensation, up to Internal Revenue Code limits. Churches are encouraged to offer the UMPIP to lay employees and may contact Wespath for additional plan provisions and sponsorship.

Any clergy appointed to a church for less than full-time service is eligible to participate in the UMPIP and receive a required church contribution of 9% of Plan Compensation. Also, all active clergy are encouraged to participate in the UMPIP with personal contributions. For clergy to receive the maximum church funded pension benefits in the CRSP (DC) Defined Contribution plan of 3%, they will need to contribute a minimum 1% match into the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP).

REPORT VI
2021 HEALTHFLEX
FOR INFORMATION ONLY

HEALTHFLEX BENEFITS

The Rio Texas Conference participates in the HealthFlex Plan administered by Wespath Benefits and Investments for eligible full-time clergy and Conference lay employees. The HealthFlex plan is also available to lay employees of churches who have adopted a HealthFlex Salary-Paying Unit Sub-Adoption Agreement meeting the eligibility requirements of the Plan. HealthFlex is an integrated, wellness-driven health program that supports healthier lifestyles. The HealthFlex plan is designed to provide eligible participants with a comprehensive plan including medical, prescription, and wellness benefits. HealthFlex uses incentives as part of its strategy to promote engagement in healthy behaviors and wellness programs. The 2021 strategy continues the focus on rewards both for measuring risks through Blueprint for Wellness Screening and Health Quotient (HQ), Diabetes Prevention program and for taking action toward better health and well-being. Rewards emphasize participating in programs that have shown to have a positive impact on health risk, including health coaching and the Virgin Pulse activity program. In addition, to the HealthFlex wellness benefits, the Conference also provides additional holistic wellness benefits for clergy and Conference lay employees including spiritual, mental, emotional and physical care components funded by grants from Methodist Healthcare Ministries of South Texas. Effective 2021 the HealthFlex provider will be Blue Cross Blue Shield (BCBS) National Network.

ESTABLISHMENT OF A HEALTH CARE ASSISTANCE FUND

The Board of Pensions recognizes that affordable health care coverage is an essential component of an attractive employee benefits package. In the current health care environment, it is evident that some clergy's health care premiums make up a significant portion of their salaries. To assist with this, the Board of Pensions will establish an endowment fund using the 2016 HealthFlex dividend to assist clergy whose salaries are near the minimum threshold with providing healthcare for their families. This fund will provide grants to align health care cost for the clergy with the 2020 current P+1 tier cost (up to $6,000 in 2020). These grants will be coordinated through the District Superintendents.

2020 HEALTHFLEX PRIVATE EXCHANGE

To align with the changing health care landscape and significant increases in healthcare costs, the Board of Pensions adopted the HealthFlex Private Exchange multi-plan option effective January 1, 2019. The HealthFlex Private Exchange multi-plan option gives participants a greater choice across several HealthFlex plans with varying plan designs and the flexibility to choose the coverage that best fits the participant's health, financial and family needs. The multi-plan approach encourages greater accountability by participants for health care costs and utilization while retaining the valued HealthFlex Benefits and wellness opportunities that participants have come to expect from Wespath.

The current HealthFlex Private Exchange Multi-Plan offers six distinct plan choices for participants. Although HealthFlex has the discretion to modify the plan offerings in 2021, the 2020 plan design options include:

HRA – Health Reimbursement Account

HSA - Health Savings Account

2021 HEALTHFLEX EXCHANGE INDIVIDUAL PREMIUM CREDIT (PC)

The 2021 HealthFlex Exchange design includes a non-taxable premium credit of $900. The DC is a fixed dollar amount provided to each HealthFlex full-time clergy and Conference lay employee participant. Participants will use the allocated PC amount to select a health plan in the HealthFlex Exchange and pay for some or all premiums for the plan of their choice.

- The 2021 PC amount will be $900 per month and direct invoiced.
- The PC will appear as a “credit toward purchase” when choosing a HealthFlex plan from all available HealthFlex Exchange plan options.
- Participants who choose plans costing less than their PC credit amount will “bank” the excess. The unspent PC balance will then be credited by HealthFlex to the participant’s Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) or Health Savings Account (HSA), depending on the health plan selected or be used to offset dependent premiums. The excess annual amount (unspent PC balance) is not credited in a lump sum; rather it is available on a prorated, monthly basis over the plan year. Internal Revenue Code (IRC) limits for annual HSA contributions will apply.
- Participants who choose a plan costing more than the PC credit amount including the cost to cover dependents will contribute the additional amount by a payroll deduction from their church to cover the cost difference between the PC amount they receive and their higher cost for monthly premiums (the participant’s share of the premium cost).

HEALTHFLEX DIRECT INVOICING FOR ALL FULL-TIME CLERGY

To ensure the Plan is efficient and sustainable for the benefit of all participants and churches with clergy appointed full-time, any church where a clergy has chosen to not participate in HealthFlex will continue to be invoiced the Premium Credit (PC) of $900 per month through direct billing effective January 1, 2019 and will continue in 2021. The Board of Pensions believes that Health Benefits should not be a hindering factor on equipping a congregation with the excellent clergy it needs for ministry. The Board will establish a grant program with funds received from churches who have non HealthFlex participating clergy to help clergy with families’ transition between churches. We recognize that this can be a financial burden for both the church and clergy and believe this assistance will help ease the transition. The program would, upon District Superintendent’s approval, provide grants of up to $5,000 for clergy assistance with six months of health care coverage as part of a clergy’s transition to a new church when the sending and receiving church have adopted differing contributions for dependent coverage.

2021 CHURCH HEALTH BENEFITS DIRECT BILLING

Effective January 1, 2020, churches will be direct invoiced for eligible active clergy participants under full-time appointment and eligible enrolled lay employees:

- The HealthFlex 2021 Premium Credit (PC) of $900 for each eligible full-time enrolled clergy or enrolled lay employee.
- The Rio Grande Legacy Fund will continue to provide contributions to eligible legacy churches for full-time clergy enrolled in the HealthFlex Plan (individual clergy premium).
- Additional contributions will be direct invoiced for benefits including any election above than the $900 Premium Credit (PC), the cost of dependent coverage, Optional Term Life Insurance, Health Saving Account (HSA) personal contributions and the Flexible Benefits Plan funded by payroll deduction

2021 HEALTHFLEX INDIVIDUAL PREMIUM CREDIT

| | Monthly Contribution | Annual Direct Bill |
|---|-----------------------------|---------------------------|
| Active Clergy | $ 900 | $ 10,800 |
| Pre-65 Retiree or Spouse | $ 900 | $ 10,800 |
| Medical Leave with CPP (Max 24 Months) | $ 900 | $ 10,800 |
| Conference Lay Employees | $ 900 | $ 10,800 |

Each eligible active full-time clergy will receive a monthly individual Premium Credit in the HealthFlex plan of $900 (funded through their Rio Texas Conference church) and will choose from the six HealthFlex plan options.

Participants who choose a plan costing more than the PC credit amount or who choose to cover dependents will contribute the additional amount by a payroll deduction from their church to cover the cost difference between the PC amount they receive and their higher cost for monthly premiums (the participant’s share of the premium cost). Covered dependents will be enrolled in the same plan selections chosen by the primary clergy or lay participant.

Full-time clergy and Conference lay employees who are new to the Conference will be enrolled in the following default plans for all of 2021 if no elections are made. All participants are encouraged to annually evaluate their current and anticipated health care needs and enroll in the plan choices that best match their individual requirements.

HEALTHFLEX FLEXIBLE SPENDING ACCOUNTS

Eligible full-time HealthFlex participants may participate in the optional Medical Reimbursement Account (MRA) and Dependent Care Reimbursement Account (DCA) offered as a benefit funded by participant payroll deductions and administered by HealthFlex and Wage Works.

ANCILLARY BENEFITS

Optional Term Life Insurance

The Conference provides an Optional Term Life Insurance for full-time clergy and conference lay employees subject to the underwriting guidelines of the Prudential Life Insurance Company. Eligible participants may elect group term life coverage as a payroll deduction.

Retiree Health Reimbursement Account (HRA)

A Retiree Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) is provided by One Exchange for eligible retirees and funded by apportionments. The HRA is based on the stipend amount received by eligible retirees before December 31, 2013. As of January 1, 2018, there are 71 retirees eligible for an HRA. Eligible retirees must be enrolled in a Medicare Supplement or Advantage plan through Via Benefits (Formerly One Exchange) to receive the HRA. In order to provide sustainability of the HRA benefit and not increase conference benefit plan liabilities and apportionments, the HRA is a fixed amount per eligible retiree and does not increase from year to year.

Per the policy of the 2014 Unification Plan, the HRA stipend will not be offered to any other retiree not currently receiving an HRA. The HRA provides reimbursement for IRS eligible health care expenses such as Medicare Part B premiums, Medicare supplement plan premiums, and out of pocket expenses such as co-pay and deductibles. To receive HRA funds, eligible retirees must submit a claim form to Via Benefits annually for premium reimbursement or as needed for other IRS eligible expenses.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

REPORT I PRESIDENT'S REPORT FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Christ,

I am pleased to report to you on behalf of the Board of Trustees of the Rio Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church. In accordance with Section 2512 of the Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church 2016, the Conference Board of Trustees has the responsibility to receive and hold in trust for the benefit of the Conference, donations, personal property and real property. In addition, the Board has the power to invest, transfer or convey the properties that it holds in trust. The Board takes its responsibility for the oversight of Conference assets very seriously.

Real estate assets held by the Board of Trustees include closed churches, unused parsonages and undeveloped land. The Board works closely with the Conference staff and with recommendations from the Districts to oversee and manage the property entrusted to it. In the event a church property is no longer in use for a local church and the District believes there is no future worship or missional use for the property, it may be sold.

The Board of Trustees have 10 to 20 properties under its review and management at any given time. These are both urban and rural and include properties with some value and others in material disrepair. The Conference Staff under the direction of Kendall Waller and Tina Witaker do an excellent job of managing the properties in transition. Many of these properties have limited value, either due to location or condition, and take some time to sell. The intervening time between the Trustees taking control of the property and a sale can be months or even years and the Conference can incur substantial costs maintaining and securing property prior to sale. The Board of Trustees and Conference staff work diligently to minimize those costs and to maximize the return to the Conference from the sale of real property.

During the period May 2019 through April 2020, a total of $525,661.46 was received directly related to the sale of real property. In addition, the Board of Trustees had expenses related to both sold and unsold properties for the calendar year 2019 in the amount of $17,832.17 and for January through July 2020 the amount of $85,813.05.

During 2020, the following church closures have occurred:

- Austwell - March 25, 2020 discontinued
- Rock Island UMC – April 30, 2020 discontinued
- Divine Grace – August 31, 2020 discontinued
- Bishop – El Redentor abandoned August 13, 2020

In the furtherance of its role, the Board of Trustees has begun to review options with particular attention to urban properties with potential economic value. The Trustees recognize that due to rising real estate values, a decision by the Conference to sell property in certain urban locations may hinder the Conference's ability to have a presence in that location in the future. One example is the former Parker Lane United Methodist Church location in Austin. The Conference has worked closely with the Capital District to structure an innovative long-term lease of the Parker Lane property. The Conference currently has an option agreement in place with Foundation Communities, a major provider of affordable housing in the Austin area. Upon closing, the agreement will result in a major new affordable housing addition, a material financial return to the Conference and provide the Capital District with permanent offices and multiuse space in the new structure at no material cost to the District. The Board of Trustees is committed to continuing to identify innovative options for the use of available real estate.

The Board of Trustees also continues to provide oversight over the Light on the Hill, formerly Mount Wesley in Kerrville, Texas in association with Kerrville First United Methodist. Under the leadership and vision of Kerrville FUMC, Light on the Hill has transformed into a vital community resource for the hill country with much needed food assistance and a variety of other community-based programs.

Yours in Christ,

Kevin Reed

President, Board of Trustees

1001 Texas Conference, United Methodist Church

REPORT II BOARD OF TRUSTEE'S FUND FOR CONFERENCE ACTION

The Board of Trustees comes to the Annual Conference with one action item. The Board is currently authorized to withhold 20% of the net proceeds of any real property sale, up to a maximum of 250,000 for the purpose of maintaining and securing property held by the Board. The Board is requesting that this be changed to increase the maximum withhold from $250,000 to $400,000.00 effective January 1, 2019. The purpose of this request is to allow the Trustees to have sufficient funds to adequately manage the properties under its control. Past experience has revealed the increasing cost of maintaining and securing property in the control of the Trustees. We believe that this change will enable us to better manage the properties entrusted to us and is prudent planning as we anticipate our future needs.

The Board of Trustees is composed of an excellent group of pastors and lay leaders from a variety of backgrounds and from all over the Conference. We gather with one goal, to be good stewards of the assets of the Conference as it works to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Yours in Christ,

Kevin Reed

President, Board of Trustees

CABINET REPORT

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Over the past year, the Cabinet has enjoyed the continuation of our work as a consistent team, with no changes of personnel from last year. District superintendents carried the 2019 Annual Conference theme, “Walking Together,” into the charge conference season, as local churches navigated the space following General Conference 2019. The bishop, superintendents, and directors alike worked actively to help leaders manage anxiety and focus on the local mission of the church in the midst of denominational discernment and decision-making. Also, over the course of the year, the Cabinet was grateful for generous contributions by churches across the conference to the capital campaign for Lydia Patterson Institute.

Since the spring of this year, the COVID-19 pandemic has marked the lives of our ministries and our people in a profound and extraordinary way. Lay and clergy leaders learned new technological skills for celebrating worship, maintaining relationships, and making new connections. Congregations stretched their understanding of purpose and identity, boldly claiming that while the building was closed, the church’s ministry continued. Many found new participants and new vitality, no longer bound by geography. Others expanded their commitment to serving people hardest hit by the economic downturn.

Many laity and clergy from across the conference have also struggled to respond in faith and courage to the unrest that resulted from the killings of unarmed Black people, including Ahmaud Arbury, George Floyd, and Breonna Taylor. We encourage all Rio Texas United Methodists to find ways to engage in conversation, education, and action to address long-standing racial injustice in our communities and our church. We seek to respond faithfully to this crisis in light of the suffering and giftedness of Black Americans; the life of our majority Hispanic population and other people of color within conference bounds; and our current conference reality, five years into our life together as Rio Texas.

The Cabinet looks with anticipation and hope toward the future God is holding before the church. We serve with deep gratitude for the people of the Rio Texas Conference and for their creativity and faithfulness.

Respectfully submitted,

Laura Merrill

Assistant to the Bishop and Dean of the Cabinet

FOR CONFERENCE ACTION

Transfer of Star and Center City UMCs to Central Texas Conference – West District Superintendent Andy Smith reports that the congregations of Star UMC and Center City UMC have requested to transfer from the Rio Texas Annual Conference (RTC) to the Central Texas Annual Conference (CTC) under the provisions of ¶1260 of the 2016 Book of Discipline.

The two churches are located in Mills County, on the extreme eastern end of the RTC West District. Parts of Mills County, including one church, are within the CTC. Both congregations state that they are oriented toward communities in the CTC and are located much closer to the CTC West District office in Stephenville (72 miles) than to the RTC West District office in San Angelo (140 miles). Both congregations have met the disciplinary requirements of a two-thirds charge conference vote, held on February 16, 2020, and individual congregational meetings held on November 17, 2019.

All votes to transfer have been approved unanimously by all members present. ¶1260 also requires that each of the two annual conferences approve the transfer by a two-thirds majority. If both vote to approve, the transfer would become effective on January 1, 2021.

- Discontinuation of Austwell UMC – On March 25, 2020, the Cabinet approved this discontinuation, effective March 8, 2020.
- Discontinuation of Rock Island UMC – On April 30, 2020, the Cabinet voted to approve the discontinuation of this congregation, effective on that date.

- Discontinuation of Divine Grace UMC in San Antonio – On May 19, 2020, Cabinet approved this congregation’s vote to discontinue, effective August 31, 2020.
- El Redentor UMC, Bishop – The Cabinet voted to declare this church abandoned, effective August 13, 2020, given that the congregation no longer gathers for worship or ministry activities.

We give thanks to God for the faithful servants in these places and the legacy these churches have shared with the world.

Respectfully submitted,

Laura Merrill

Assistant to the Bishop and Dean of the Cabinet

RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE HARVEST SUNDAY 2020

FOR CONFERENCE ACTION

The Harvest Sunday Initiative Group recommends the following for approval by the 2020 Annual Conference:

That, Sunday, November 1, 2020, be recognized as the date of participation by local congregations in the Harvest Sunday Offering.

That, acknowledgement be given to congregations for their action toward meeting United Methodist goals of “engaging in ministry with the poor” and “combating the diseases of poverty by improving health globally.”

The Bible is clear. Galatians 6:2, NRSV says, “Bear one another’s burdens, and in this way, you will fulfill the law of Christ.” Jesus says it this way, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” (Matthew 19:19b). United Methodist Church Website <https://www.umc.org/en/how-we-serve/giving-opportunities>

That, distribution of 2019 Harvest Sunday offering funds shall be as follows:

1/3 of totals collected, will be allocated for hunger initiative projects along the Texas-Mexico border areas that are situated, and served within the El Valle, Hill Country, Las Misiones, and West Districts.

1/3 of totals collected will be returned to participating districts. Funds would be distributed, in consultation with district mission committees. Projects that seek ministry with, and, address root causes of poverty, would be of priority.

1/3 of totals collected, will be equally allocated among 5 Global Ministry Advance Projects with focus on food security and economic empowerment to be determined by the Harvest Sunday Initiative Group with concurrence by The Transforming Communities Vision Team

The Harvest Sunday Initiative Group, under guidance by The Transforming Communities Vision Team, will coordinate promotion and publicity for the 2020 Harvest Sunday offering.

RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE RURAL INITIATIVE 2020 – 2024

FOR CONFERENCE ACTION

The Rio Texas Conference Transforming Communities Vision Team (TCVT), working through the process of seeking the SHALOM and the transformation of congregations and communities, recommends the following for approval by the 2020 Annual Conference:

- Recognizing that 67% to 75% of the 83 Texas counties comprising the Rio Texas Conference are considered to be rural or frontier by various state classification systems;
- Recognizing that the gifts and challenges of rural and frontier communities, congregations, and United Methodist leadership serving in rural and frontier contexts are in many respects qualitatively as well as quantitatively unique;
- Recognizing that the vitality and wholistic well-being of the Rio Texas Conference are inextricably connected to the vitality and wholistic well-being of every member of the body of Christ and the communities it serves;

Therefore, the Rio Texas Conference, under the guidance of the Transforming Communities Vision Team, will inaugurate a Rural Initiative for the coming quadrennium. The purpose of the initiative is deeper discovery of the rural and frontier experience within the Rio Texas Conference and the development of strategic responses for the sake of a shared mission within the Rio Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church, which is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Bishop, sisters and brothers of the Rio Texas Annual Conference greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Since last we met The Board of Ordained Ministry has been hard at work on behalf of the conference, discerning, developing and equipping our clergy leaders. This year our work has added challenges of dealing with our new realities in the midst of covid-19 and the crisis we are enduring. However, despite this, the Board of Ordained Ministry has created guidelines for handing our work in this time as well as guidelines for our District Committees on Ministry. We thank God for the grace and guidance to be able to continue our work.

As always, it is our aim to credential people who have demonstrated a strong capacity for our 5 qualities of a missional leader: Ethnic and Cultural Proficiency, A heart for evangelism, Faith in their calling from God, Ability to develop and equip missional leaders, and Catalytic capacity. In order to better hit this target, we reorganized our ordination interview process this year around our stated goals of credentialing clergy that represent the highest standards of our 5 missional qualities of effective leaders. We found the new process to be both a blessing and a wonderful time of intentional spiritual discernment. We press on into the work that is ahead of us and we covet your prayers in the work we do on behalf of the annual conference.

This year we are proud to present the following candidates for commissioning as provisional Elders: Aaron M. Carter, Thomas A. Johnson and, Patrick J. Melton

We are proud to present the following for commissioning as Deacons:

William C. Johnson, Rebecca B. McNitzky and Victoria L. Schwarz

We are proud to present the following for full membership and ordination:

Deacon: Lori M. Balensiefen

Elders: Forrest M. Deviney, Reese A. Henry, III, Janet K. Larson, Michele M. Lott and Susan K. Rang

Blessings,

Rev. Adam Knight, Chairperson

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

This year, the Commission on Archives and History is submitting an application for the Jackson Ranch Church (JRC) and Cemetery; and the Eli Jackson Cemetery (EJC) to become a United Methodist Historic Site with the General Commission on Archives and History. To initiate the application process the Commission will be presenting its resolution at this year's annual conference. Both sites have deep roots that contribute to the rich history of Methodism and American history in South Texas.

Founders of the Jackson Ranch, Nathaniel Jackson and Matilda Hicks along with their adult children were an interracial family that fled the racism of the South to find freedom in Mexico. Stopping just short of the Mexican border, the family settled in Hidalgo County in 1857. It is now believed that the Jackson Ranch was part of the Underground Railroad that assisted escaped slaves in search of their freedom.

At his ranch, Nathaniel Jackson built an adobe chapel that was the predecessor of the JRC. In 1874, Rev. A.H. Sutherland formally organized the JRC's congregation. Juan de la Viña, owner of the neighboring El Capote Ranch, became one of the first Methodist missionaries of Mexican descent for the JRC and MECS. His two sons later founded El Buen Pastor in Edinburg, which remains active today. In 1884, Nathaniel Jackson's son, Martin, donated one-fifth of an acre of the Jackson Ranch to the MECS and built a wooden church for regular worship. JRC and its members were the catalysts for several churches still active today. These include El Divino Redentor UMC in McAllen (1910), El Mesias UMC in Mission (1912), and La Trinidad UMC in Pharr (1913). The JRC has made a long lasting and significant contribution to these and other Spanish-speaking Methodist churches in deep South Texas.

The EJC was established as the first of two family cemeteries after Nathaniel Jackson's death in 1865. The EJC, as well as the cemetery on the JRC's grounds, are the final resting place for multicultural people, most prominently Mexican- Americans and African Americans. These cemeteries reflect the border's rich history.

The Texas Historical Commission has recognized both locations as historic sites. We hope to continue in the preservation of the Methodist history present at the Jackson Ranch Church and Cemetery and the Eli Jackson Cemetery for generations to come with a United Methodist historic site designation from the General Commission on Archive and History.

The conference archive continues to accept donated historical documents related to Methodist history. Items that are being received are church membership records that include baptism, marriage and death certificates. Local church records are very sought after especially those once belonging to the Rio Grande Conference.

Regular research requests are being conducted weekly by the conference archivist for church historians, retired clergy, and lay persons interested in the Methodist history of South Texas. These research requests have contributed to the local church and pastoral files in the conference archive to provide more historical information for future research.

Do you have historical documents you think the conference archives should have? Visit our website www.riotexas.org/archives to see a list of items the archives will accept.

REPORT II

JACKSON RANCH CHURCH AND CEMETERY AND THE ELI JACKSON CEMETERY

FOR CONFERENCE ACTION

Jackson Ranch Church and Cemetery and the Eli Jackson Cemetery

Whereas: In 1874, an interracial couple Nathaniel Jackson and Matilda Hicks, along with their adult children fled the racism in the South to find freedom. They stopped at the Rio Grande River in Hidalgo County where they established the Jackson Ranch.

Whereas: The Jackson Ranch was 5,535 acres purchased at a cost of 36¢ from E.D. Smith of Hidalgo, Texas. The Ranch is located five miles east of Hidalgo with a Rio Grande River frontage of 0.7 miles and extending north 13 miles between the present cities of Pharr, San Juan and Edinburg, Texas.

Whereas: The Jackson Ranch became a paradigm of Christian hospitality. There, Nathaniel developed a culture of complete acceptance of the stranger. The Jackson Ranch welcomed former slaves, Mexican natives, Anglo immigrants and all who came seeking freedom and belonging.

Whereas: The Jackson Ranch is now believed to have been a part of the Underground Railroad.

Whereas: In 1874, Rev. A.H. Sutherland formally organized the Jackson Ranch Church congregation on the El Capote Ranch.

Whereas: The owner of the neighboring El Capote Ranch, Juan Manuel de la Viña, became one of the first Methodist missionaries of Mexican descent for the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Whereas: In, 1913 de la Viña's son's, Juan and Plutarco, founded El Buen Pastor Methodist Church in Edinburg.

Whereas: In 1884, Martin Jackson donated one-fifth of an acre of the Jackson Ranch to the MECS and built a wooden church for regular worship. This congregation was the first Spanish speaking, congregation in Hidalgo county. This was recognized by the State of Texas with an Historical Marker in 1982.

Whereas: The wooden church became known as the Jackson Ranch Church which was the catalyst to establishing several MECS churches still active today, including El Divino Redentor UMC in McAllen (1910), El Mesias UMC in Mission (1912), and La Trinidad UMC in Pharr (1913). Thus, making a long lasting and significant contribution to establishing these and other Spanish speaking Methodist churches in deep South Texas.

Whereas: The Eli Jackson Cemetery located on the Jackson Ranch grounds was established as the first of two family cemeteries after Nathaniel Jackson's death in 1865. The cemetery is the final resting place for multicultural people, most prominently Mexican Americans and African Americans. In these cemeteries rest the remains of many persons who were buried without charge and were denied other resting places because of race or creed or poverty. These cemeteries reflect the border's rich cultural history.

Whereas: The upper west section of the Eli Jackson Cemetery is distinguished by a unique wooden cross near a tree. The cross is believed to have been carved in a military style dissimilar to other hand carved wooden crosses in the cemetery.

Documentation of graves before 1896 does not exist, but possibly are the final resting place of soldiers.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Jackson Ranch Church and Cemetery and the Eli Jackson Cemetery be recognized for its significant place in the history of the Methodist Movement in the Rio Grande Valley as well as its significant place in the history of the development of interracial and intercultural ministry in the United Methodist Church. Both sites deserve to be recognized by the General Commission on Archives and History and designated as United Methodist Historic Sites.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE YEAR 2020
FOR INFORMATION ONLY

The Office of Connectional Ministries has continued to expand in its resource capacities for the Rio Texas Conference and United Methodist connection over the last several years. As Director, I have found it important to continue to listen, discern, and build relationships within our annual conference as well as with our ecumenical partners and neighbors. In addition to strategically planning small and large scale events that support, educate and provides important and timely resources for our clergy, laity, local congregations and their mission fields, in 2018 this office acquired the supervisory oversight of the Rio Texas Disaster/Recovery Team. As we come to the three-year anniversary of Hurricane Harvey, and the close of this project, our conference celebrates the excellent work of this team and its partners. You will learn more of the work, dedication and celebrations in this team's pre-annual conference report as well as the video and magazine prepared for the AC 2020 called session scheduled for October 3, 2020.

Clergy Convocation – Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic (CDC and local government recommendations i.e. social distancing and reduced number of those who could gather) this year's in-person Convocation with guest speaker Rev. Susan Beaumont has been rescheduled for March 2021. Although postponing was a disappointment, the restrictions provided an opportunity to gather and support one another in new and creative ways through "Clergy Conversations", reflection, prayer and resources by utilizing a wide-range of technology i.e. Facebook Live, Webinars and Zoom Conferencing. Attendees left the conversations feeling heard, supported, encouraged and more hopeful during this difficult times.

Annual Conference (AC) Meeting – As with the Clergy Convocation, due to the COVID-19 Pandemic (CDC and local government recommendations i.e. social distancing and reduced number of those who could gather and decisions made by both the Rio Texas Conference and the City of Corpus Christi) the in-person AC Conference scheduled for June 10-13 was cancelled in its traditional format. After much discernment in moving forward, essential components of the Business of the Annual Conference (BAC) were either conducted via the use of technology i.e. the Clergy Session or will be conducted at a special called session of the AC scheduled for October 3, 2020.

The format of the October 3rd meeting has gone through several transitions as conference leadership continues to monitor the course of the pandemic and the recommendations offered by state and local government as well as the CDC.

At the time of this writing, the current format of the October 3rd gathering will be conducted virtually out of the Rio Texas Conference Office. Those individuals determined necessary to report and/or conduct business in person will be asked to follow all the safety protocol as established by the local government and our Rio Texas policies. A letter will be sent to conference delegates via the Bishop's office by September 3, 2020, outlining the essential business to be conducted as well as an opportunity for worship, reporting and celebration. In addition, registration will open following the release of this letter as well as instructions important to the accessing the meeting.

Nominations – The Rio Texas Annual Conference is deeply committed to excellence and diversity in leadership. Therefore the goal of the application-based Leadership Pool introduced early in 2020, is to build a pool of qualified, spiritually grounded, committed leaders who through the conference's nomination process will be matched with all leadership needs of the annual conference. As a note, although this is a quadrennial election year, per procedural guidelines presented in the UMC Book of Discipline, quadrennial nominations have been postponed until General Conference is able to meet and a special 2021 AC special called session is announced. Therefore, annual conference committee and team members have been asked to stay on in their positions if available to do so, until quadrennial voting can take place. In the meantime, the leadership pool nomination process, available on the conference website will remain open. Further questions on this process can be addressed to the Office of Connectional Ministries Rio Texas Conference.

THE OFFICE OF CREATING/VITALIZING CONGREGATIONS AND DEVELOPING LEADERS

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

What a joy this last year has been to work with so many congregations, pastors, laity, seminaries and Campus Ministers who love Jesus, those they serve and their community/mission field.

With the continued focus on fruitfulness both in congregational vitality and leadership development, it has been a busy year. Rio Texas has started 4 new faith communities and activating new ways to empower leadership development. I had the joy of walking and working with many congregational leaders and pastors, teaching at many of the District Professional's meetings, District Leadership workshops for laity, with the vitalized Lay Servant Conference and District Directors, as well as helping District Strategy teams think about how they could help encourage, teach, and lead congregations to be bold in reaching out into the community they serve. All of these are strategies so that churches can learn, grow, and reach new people for Christ.

Of course, at the writing of this pre-conference journal report, we have had "shelter in place" for just over 4 weeks and the ways we reach and connect with people have had to change. I am so proud of how many of the pastors and leaders of the church have taken some of the innovative exercises and put them into action. Congregations and pastors are trying new things boldly. Some are working really well and others are adapting, ideating and trying again. We have found the agility of learning and boldness we didn't have prior to this pandemic. God is moving and people both within the zip code of the church and beyond are hearing the Good News of Jesus from you. Thanks be to God!

Creating Congregations: the world is changing, and the church needs to look beyond the "traditional" ways of reaching new people for Christ and the attractational models of only expecting people to come to them. While traditional church starts and multi-site/satellite church plants are still very important (and we need more of them), they are also expensive and clergy centric as they start. We have begun teaching and dreaming about newer, more organic and less cost prohibitive ways to connect with those not attending local congregations like Fresh Expressions, Focused Worship in the community, and Intentional Faith Communities; while also leaving room for newer, not-yet-known ways we can join God in creative ways of reaching people. In October 2019, 24 of our clergy and laity teams attended the Exponential Conference in Houston, followed by a two day "Texas Planters" event co-sponsored by four UMC conferences in Texas. Out of that event, many of the churches are seeking new ways to collaborate and start new churches or new ministries in the community. The creating congregations office also held a Church Planting Discernment event where 10 folks explored their gifting and grit to start new congregations. I believe God will bless this time of discernment and we will see more seeking to plant in the future.

On a similar theme, Rev. Karen Horan was invited to teach a New Church Planting class in the fall at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. This class was open to all APTS students and they allowed any clergy to audit the class. This time helps promote the need for planters to hear the call no matter the denomination.

I am excited that the 4 new church starts pastors appointed in June 2019 have now become 5 new congregations! FUMC Pflugerville will create a new congregation multiplying the Methodist witness in the East Pflugerville area. Rev. Aaron Carter will begin weekly worship for Assurance Church in the fall of 2020. Valley Praise UMC will also be launching a new satellite in McAllen in the fall of 2020 under the campus pastor, Rev. Kevin Hardin. This will be the third campus for Valley Praise UMC. Rev. Ray Altman (not pictured here) continues to do the deep work of creating intentional faith communities with New Wineskins in Leander. He is completing his first year of doing this ministry full time and has not only deepened AND expanded this work, but he has also found ways of sharing this edge ministry creatively across multiple platforms. Crestview UMC voted to become our first Legacy Church relinquishing responsibilities of leadership, property, and assets so that a church planter and team can transform the property, send an influx of people, reach the immediate community of the prior declining congregation, and start a new community. Rev. Jay Cooper and his team from Violet Crown City Church have begun both weekly worship (on-line) in April as well as the construction of the physical property. It is our prayer that most if not all of the legacy church faith community will choose to remain connected to the new faith community.

Finally, Austin New Church is also launching a new Hispanic Community called Amor Original with Pastor Cesar Soto. Cesar and his family moved here from Chile where had helped start new faith communities. We are excited that he began gathering so many people in February and started on line preview services in April.

Two more churches have chartered this annual Conference year: Hope Arise UMC in San Antonio chartered in June 2019 and Austin New Church chartered in February 2020.

Leadership Development:

There have been 4 seminaries visited to recruit interns to the Rio Texas Conference, followed by visits from the Bishop in many cases: Candler School of Theology, Wesley Theological Seminary, Perkins School of Theology and Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. From these continued relationships, we are planning (unless disrupted by covid19) to have 5 seminary interns: 1 from Perkins, 1 from Duke, 2 from Candler and 1 from Wesley Theological Seminary. These relationships have also produced short term classes (January term or spring break) being taught by Bishop Schnase and others from the Rio Texas Conference mainly at the border. Candler sent 24 in January 2020, APTS had a spring break trip planned, and Wesley and Perkins are planning a joint January 2021 class at the border. All of these connections help shape and develop future leaders of the United Methodist Church.

We also had 50 attend a preaching event in August 2019 with a second event scheduled in May 2020. These events were co-sponsored with Perkins School of Theology and Drs. Wes Allen and Alyce McKenzie. These events were open to all pastors as well as Lay Speakers/Servants and CLMs. Rio Texas also had two preaching cohorts who met for 10 months working on the craft of preaching. Dr. McKenzie worked with the bilingual cohort – both native Spanish speakers wanting to practice preaching more in English as well as native English speakers wanting to preach more in Spanish. Dr. Allen worked with the other cohort. Both groups studied together, preached for each other and shared life together. We hope to continue this model with Perkins next year (August-May).

Lay Servant Ministries: Scott Maderer is the Conference Lay Servant Ministry Director and offers this report.

Over the past several years the Lay Servant Ministries (LSM) program has, like so many of our church programs, had challenges and successes. Our current LSM conference committee has been active this year trying to identify new and different ways to work together so they can be the most effective and best laity training program in the Rio Texas Conference.

The Book of Discipline recognizes that to have effective ministry within our conference we must develop and encourage leadership from the laity; this is the explicit goal of LSM. The current district directors and conference lay director are working together with a focus on: Increasing communication and cooperation across all districts within the conference; Building effective tools that we can all utilize; Identifying new classes in both online and offline methodology; and Encouraging Lay Ministry, both in Lay Servants and Certified Lay Ministers, to be creative in identifying their own mission fields.

The District Directors are meeting regularly now via Zoom for a quarterly update so we can share effective methodology and information about upcoming courses and what we are all trying in our own districts. In this way we are seeing directors share information, learn best practices, and encourage and allow experimentation and new visions to arise in each district. We are still early in the process and have had many challenges and changes, but the team is committed to continuing in regular communication.

Each District continues to hold their own courses, but we are also working together to try to bring back effective conference lay ministry courses. At the same time, we are looking for what the needs of the laity are and identifying resources from a variety of sources that would fill those needs effectively. The focus is on building effective lay leadership, rather than just getting a “certification.”

Within this larger picture we are anticipating an increased need for effective lay leadership within the conference. So, we are attempting to proactively work with those called to unique mission fields to provide the tools and resources that they need to be effective. This includes being more involved in the Certified Lay Ministry program and working closely across districts to effectively use limited resources to provide the needed support across the entire conference. In this way, districts don't have to reinvent the wheel or provide resources for a limited number of laity while they can still encourage the laity with support and training by working across districts within the full conference.

May God continue to bless and grow the lay leadership across the Rio Texas Conference.

College / Campus Ministry: Campus Ministry continues to thrive in the Rio Texas Conference. Eleven Campus Ministries are on ten campuses reaching almost one thousand students! Rev. Lizzie Wright and Rev. Wes Cain are coordinating the campus ministries along with Rev. Karen Horan in the conference center. Campus Ministers are connecting more regularly with each other, with their District Strategy Teams and submitting regular reports to the conference office. While this spring semester, with Covid19, threw all universities to online learning, your campus pastors have done a fantastic job staying connected in worship, prayer, study and even outreach as college students who don't all attend the same school can gather virtually to be connected to each other and Jesus Christ. There is still a need for individual churches to connect with students especially as they are home and going to school; so please stay connected to the campus ministers in your area. Rio Texas has campus ministry leadership at UT Austin – The Texas Wesley and University UMC Austin, UTSA via University UMC San Antonio, SAC and Trinity University via SA Campus Ministry staff and Rev. Valerie Vogt, TLU via FUMC Seguin, UTRGV Wesley Center, Texas State – United Campus Ministry, U of H Victoria, and Huston-Tillotson University. A slide show will be created and shared as we gather for Annual Conference.

Vitalizing Congregations:

Most of the work of vitalization has been via larger learning events at the district level as well as one-on-one work with congregations following up on what they learned in the last year or so. For example, after the initial Fresh Expressions Vision Day (Jan. 2019) and the Dinner Church Encounter (Oct. 2019) we have had some wonderful examples of new ways of reaching new people! While churches don't always report, the Las Misiones District has been gathering numbers and 20 churches have reported doing regular gatherings to connect relationally with new people in the last year. This includes Pub Theology, “Street Choir” gatherings (like a flash mob but of singers who invite others to sing and pray with them), soccer camps for the community, and a variety of other events. FUMC Victoria started a dinner church and is rocking it.

Kyle UMC is also doing a great job with their dinner church.

Many other churches have also called upon Rev. Diana Phillips and Rev. Kendall Waller, in the conference office, to receive training on the Simplified Structure model of governance, on strategic planning for their boards, as well as having Rev. Karen Horan come and talk about how to reach new people.

Rev. Ray Altman started a cohort in the Capital District on reaching your neighbors and connecting in deep relational ways.

The Unstuck Group has also been working with some of our churches. To date we have had one church complete their Unstuck process (Pflugerville UMC) and one church in the midst of their process (Asbury UMC Corpus Christi) with one more church who will begin their process in August 2020 (St. John UMC Corpus Christi). The Unstuck Group does an intensive evaluation on why the church is “stuck” in a plateau or decline. Then they conduct a weekend training “on steroids” with clergy and 12 to 15 lay leaders. A quick paced timeline is created to jump start the church and move it over the next year into a church reaching new people in their immediate neighborhoods.

Finally, since Annual Conference last year, 11 churches were granted “New People, New Places” grants for a total of $84,689. Of these 11 grants, 3 of the grants were for specifically reaching Latino Hispanic communities totaling $31,000. Some of the grants were to reach new ways to serve the underserved; others were to reach apartment complexes and teach English. One grant was to a campus ministry teaching college students about leading worship in local congregations and on campus, others are bringing entire towns together ecumenically to start a new worshipping community, while others reached out to the children in their mission field. What a joy to partner with this many churches as they reach new people to become more vital in their area! These grants are offered 3 times a year, we pray the funds can be used to the fullest.

RIO TEXAS UNITING TABLE

CHAIRPERSON'S REPORT FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Over 20 years ago Ron Heifetz and Donald Laurie wrote an article in Harvard Business Review titled “The Work of Leadership.” I keep a one-page summary of this article posted near my desk as a reminder of “Technical Problems vs. Adaptive Challenges.” It begins by saying that the single biggest failure of leadership is to treat adaptive challenges like technical problems. Let me repeat that: The single biggest failure of leadership is to treat adaptive challenges like technical problems. This, my friends, is one of the dangers we are facing in the world today. Let me explain.

Technical problems have these characteristics: 1) Easy to identify, 2) Often lend themselves to quick and easy solutions, 3) Often can be solved by an authority or expert, 4) Require change in just one or a few places – usually within organizational boundaries, 5) People are generally receptive to technical solutions, and 6) Solutions can often be implemented quickly – even by edict. However, on the other hand, Adaptive Challenges are a little more complex, with these characteristics: 1) Difficult to identify, yet easy to deny, 2) Requires changes in values, beliefs, roles, relationships, and approaches to work, 3) People with the problems do the work of solving it, 4) Require change in numerous places, usually crossing organizational boundaries, 5) People often resist even acknowledging adaptive challenges, and 6) “Solutions” require experiments and new discoveries; they can take a long time to implement and cannot be implemented by edict.

Yes, adaptive challenges take work, and cannot be treated like a technical problem. This year has been a year of adaptive challenges. COVID-19 shut down the world as it attacked our very soul. We mourn the loss of those that have died from this dreaded virus. We pray with those that have gotten sick and with families that are still grieving a loss because of the continued struggles with this pandemic. Addressing this situation is not a technical problem. It is one of the most complex adaptive challenges the church has ever faced. It has postponed Annual Conference meetings, General Conference, and Jurisdictional Conferences. Luckily it has not postponed ministry – for ministry has and will continue to happen – even flourish. Congregations have discovered new and innovative ways to worship and to reach out with the love of God. It has created new ways for congregations and the annual conference to conduct meetings. ZOOM meetings have become the norm, not the exception. I am encouraged at the various ways that ministries across our conference have expanded during this time. We had to become technically proficient almost overnight. Many congregations have adapted in how they live-stream their worship services. I am concerned that with all these changes some pastors are working in such a way that they are not taking time to recharge their soul. After all – “Dealing with a Pandemic 101” is not a seminary course. One of our adaptive challenges is finding new ways to care for and encourage each other – to reach out in love and ask Wesley’s question “How is it with your soul?”

The Uniting Table met at the conference center on November 23, 2019, and via ZOOM on March 28, 2020 and May 6, 2020. At our November meeting we discussed and shared ways that Annual Conference would have a theme of “In Mission - In Loving: We Become the Word.” We also wanted to do an on-site mission project. Well, one of our adaptive challenges is that those events were not able to happen as we had hoped, but we have still found ways throughout the conference to be in mission and to be loving, and in those actions we have become the Word. As our meetings progressed through the year, we discovered that we as an annual conference were finding new ways to do and to be in ministry, and we were finding new ways to define faithfulness. Our congregations have remained faithful during this trying time.

As we continue to lead through this pandemic, I find the church to truly be loving and finding innovative ways to be in mission. During a time when we are divided on so many issues, from sexuality to race to politics, perhaps we can take an adaptive sigh or pause and remember these words in Jesus' prayer in John: "I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name – the name you gave me – so that they may be one as we are one." (John 17:11, NIV) May we be one, that is my prayer.

God bless each and every one of you,

Rev. Ralph D. Mann, D.Min.

DEPARTMENT OF TECHNICAL MINISTRIES

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

After years of dedicated service, Rev. Will Rice and Austin Newton left the Department of Communications and Media Ministries and the Rio Texas Conference office. Their dedication and service created the foundation of this department. It is a foundation that is respected, appreciated, and has allowed new staff members (supported by Sylvia Trevino) to pick up the important work that comes out of this department.

The conference office, like many churches, has departments focused on different areas of ministry and service. Each department serves an important purpose, connected to the overall mission of the conference, and yet working towards a specific aspect of that mission as defined by the department's scope of ministry. The Department of Communications and Media Ministries is unique in that a large part of its mission is to serve the departments within the conference office. This gives the department the privilege of being part of ministry done throughout the conference. The work done by the Department of Communications and Media ministries goes beyond communications work. To help share the full scope of the work done by this department, the department was renamed to the Department of Technical Ministries. The work of the department can be broken down into four sections. Communications, Technology, Design, & Audio/Video/Lighting (AVL).

In July of 2019, Jozlin Parker accepted the position of the Director of Communications and Media Ministries. This position was later renamed to Director of Technical Ministries. Andrew Bradley joined the department as the Assistant Director in October 2019. With two out of three Technical Ministries (TechMin) team members new to the conference office, a lot of time has been spent learning the ins and outs of conference work, but in the midst of getting settled, there have been various projects that have made significant contributions to the conference.

Technical Ministries has been tasked with the long-term goal of helping to consolidate and simplify the conference's hard and soft technological infrastructure. This long-term goal has been combined with movement towards a more collaborative environment both inside the conference office and with districts and churches. These goals have begun to touch everything from emails, to communications policy, to workflows, websites, databases, onsite hardware, user experience, and so on. Collaborative technologies allow churches to move their services online during a pandemic, allow clergy from all over the conference to join together and plan Annual Conference worship, and can help give a place at the table for people who might not have been heard before. While this work is just getting started, the TechMin Team has already saved thousands of dollars and countless hours of staff time.

The Technical Ministries Department has continued to maintain and facilitate the use of the Media Center, worked to help churches develop an online presence, and continues to run communications for the conference office. COVID-19 shifted 2020 plans for organizations all over the world. As the world returns to some semblance of normal, the TechMin Team hopes to create a network of Technical Ministers throughout the conference. This network's purpose would be to give space to technical ministers throughout the conference to share the creative ways they are using technology to serve their mission field. With connection and collaboration, technology can be used to further the mission of this conference.

RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE DISASTER RESPONSE COMMITTEE

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

The Disaster Response Committee continues to support the massive recovery effort remaining from Hurricane Harvey as well as flooding in the Rio Grande Valley but is committed to responding to new disasters that occur in the Conference. The past year has been relatively quiet but there was a major flood, for the second consecutive year, in the Rio Grande Valley and a small tornado in San Angelo.

When disaster hits, Early Response Teams (ERT) are called to help with clean up. All ERT members are certified by UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief) and must complete a day long training. This year 70 were trained bringing the total to 707. Many of these team members have received additional special training. These include: 78 chain saw operators, 43 skid steer operators, 83 site assessors, 45 team leaders, 12 advanced clean-up specialists and 15 on-site managers. The Rio Texas Conference is a national leader in on-line training making it more convenient for team members to get recertified (every three years) and to get specialized advanced training.

The Martinez Disaster Response Center continues to serve as a collection center for UMCOR kits assembled by churches in the Conference as well as storage for disaster response equipment. UMCOR now receives only school kits, hygiene kits, and cleaning kits (flood buckets). The center serves as a collection site for all kits, but the main inventory is cleaning kits along with a small number of hygiene kits. In a turnaround from previous years, UMCOR shipped cleaning kits to the Kerrville facility because they were overstocked and we had space following shipments made to the valley flooding mentioned above. Limited volunteer opportunities are available at the center in Kerrville for groups to verify cleaning kits before they are delivered to flood survivors. Contact warehouse manager Jack Clarke at jack@jdc3.com for information about volunteer opportunities.

The Rio Grande Valley experienced major flooding in June 2018 and 2019. Through a $500,000 grant from UMCOR, the Rio Texas Conference focused recovery efforts on mitigation for survivors of repeated flooding in colonias. Many homes have been flooded multiple times in the past ten years. Through the support of Roland Pecina, construction project manager, and Stephanie Villareal Gonzalez, disaster case manager, 57 survivors have been assisted, with ten survivors receiving commitments of financial support resulting in complete rebuilds of new homes that are raised above potential flood zones.

Through partnerships with AmeriCorps NCCC, Nomads RV Group, Mennonite Disaster Services, FUMC McAllen, the El Valle District and other volunteer groups significant rebuild progress has been made on nine of the ten homes. The Rio Texas Conference was also recognized as "Sponsor of the Round" by AmeriCorps due to the leadership and mentoring provided by Roland Pecina and the RTC staff. The impact of the Corona virus has severely impacted volunteer efforts and will impact the results of this grant scheduled to close in August 2020.

The Highland Lakes area of Burnet and Llano Counties experienced major flooding in October 2018. UMCOR made a $100,000 grant to the Rio Texas Conference which allowed us to provide Case management services and financial support for repairs to damaged homes along the Llano and Colorado Rivers. This grant ended in January of 2020, impacting 63 survivors.

Hurricane Harvey recovery has been far and away the center piece of the Disaster Response Ministry since it struck in August 2017. Thanks to nearly five million dollars from UMCOR and participation in the FEMA funded Disaster Case Management Program (DCMP), the Conference has worked with over 1000 families living in 14 impacted counties in the Crossroads and Coastal Bend Districts. We are very proud and grateful for the locally hired case management and construction staff who have played a key role in serving and assisting so many hurricane survivors. As of April 1, 2020, the Conference has completed approximately 270 construction projects valued at $5.6M that have included home repairs and replacements (mobile home, RV and complete rebuilds). It is noteworthy that Rio Texas Conference case managers have leveraged funding for repairs and home replacements from other funders for their clients in addition to the support provided by Rio Texas. Repairs and home replacements would not be possible if it were not for funds made available through Unmet Needs Tables sponsored by local long term recovery groups.

To date, the Rio Texas Conference has provided approximately $4.6 Million dollars of financial assistance to meet the needs of Hurricane Harvey survivors case managed by Rio Texas, The Society of St Vincent De Paul, Victoria County Long Term Recovery Group, Coastal Bend Disaster Recovery Group, Catholic Charities, Lutheran Social Services and BCFS. Funds available at the tables are provided by gifts made to the Disaster Response Fund by individuals, churches, and UM Conferences. In addition, major gifts from UMCOR have been supplemented by grants to the Conference by the American Red Cross, Rebuild Texas, Bonneville Inc., and Kronkosky Foundation. Rio Texas case management and construction services will end May 31 with complete close out of the program by August 2020.

All of this work would not be possible without you and your churches. To learn more go to www.riotexasresponse.org to reach out to your District Disaster Response coordinator, or contact us through the conference office!

MISSIONARIES AND MISSIONARY SUPPORT 2019

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

The Rio Texas Conference is well-represented by people responding to God's call to serve in mission. The conference is also well-represented in missionary support:

in 2019, congregations gave $45,885.10 to support mission personnel who are bringing the Good News across the country and around the world.

Currently, there are six active deaconesses from and serving in the Rio Texas Conference. They are

Kristen Bowdre, Youth Justice Performance & Evaluation Coordinator, Southwest Key Programs, Austin

Tara Carnesi; Direct Care, Sunnyglenn Children's Home, San Benito

Sonia Cruz; Coordinator, Rethink Mercy, Westlawn UMC, San Antonio

Cindy Johnson; Consultant for Discernment, Office of Deaconess and Home Missioner,

National Office of United Methodist Women

Julie Smith; Children's and Outreach Director, First UMC, Bastrop

Diana Woods; Site Manager, Community Partner Program, Buda UMC

Deaconesses and Home Missioners are laywomen and laymen who are called by God to be in a lifetime relationship in The United Methodist Church in full-time ministries of love, justice, and service. After commissioning, each person finds his or her own place of employment.

The Office of Deaconess has been part of our tradition as a church since 1888. The Office of Home Missioner was established at the 2004 General Conference. Currently, the Deaconess and Home Missioner program is administered by the National Office of United Methodist Women.

Many Rio Texas congregations support one of the nearly 300 Global Ministries missionaries serving in over 60 countries. One of those 300 missionaries is from the Rio Texas Conference: Rev. Anna Troy, serving as Director of Open Heart Ministries in Clarksburg, WV (<http://openheartwv.weebly.com/>).

We anticipate hosting missionary Emily Everett during her itineration in the annual conference in late November 2020, and we hope to host other missionaries when their itineraries are finalized.

If you feel called to become a missionary yourself, please explore the various categories of short-term and long-term adult and young adult mission service opportunities that are described on the Global Ministries web site (<https://www.umcmission.org/serve-with-us/missionaries>)

UMCOR SUNDAY 2019

FOR INFORMATION

UMCOR Sunday (formerly called One Great Hour of Sharing) is one of the six recognized church-wide Special Sundays with offerings of the United Methodist Church. Participation in the UMCOR Sunday offering is one of two basic requirements for Rio Texas Conference congregations wanting to achieve Five Star church status. (The other requirement is 100% payment of apportionments.) In 2019, the total UMCOR Sunday offering from Rio Texas churches was $53,000.87, a decrease of $14,594.66 from the amount collected in 2018.

Capital District – 19 churches; $11,635.75
 Coastal Bend District – 28 churches; $7,820.76
 Crossroads District – 45 churches; $10,550.30
 El Valle District – 12 churches; $3,583.26
 Hill Country District – 26 churches; $7,622.42
 Las Misiones District – 35 churches; $7,972.32
 West District – 16 churches; $3,816.06

Special thanks to First UMC Gonzales for giving the largest single congregational offering: $4,686.

The Methodist Committee on Relief (now UMCOR, the United Methodist Committee on Relief) was founded in 1940s to respond to suffering after the onset of World War II.

For 80 years it has been the global humanitarian aid and development organization of The United Methodist Church.

All UMCOR Sunday receipts help support the small but impactful UMCOR staff who are specialists in disaster response and recovery. Funds also ensure adequate training for emergency response coordinators, construction volunteers, case managers who assist victims of disasters, chain saw gangs, and sheetrock installers. UMCOR's broad scope of work includes disaster response, refugee ministries, hunger and poverty programs, and sustainable global development projects.

Because we in Rio Texas join our church's offerings with those of United Methodist congregations around the world, UMCOR remains strong in its day-to-day operations. When needs are immediate, UMCOR can respond quickly and efficiently with signs of extravagant grace and expert assistance.

Thanks to all the congregations that supported this vital offering in 2019 and made it possible for the United Methodist Church to reach out in caring to our neighbors in need.

TRANSFORMING COMMUNITIES VISION TEAM / OFFICE OF MISSION, SERVICE, AND JUSTICE MINISTRIES

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Since 2015, the Transforming Communities Vision Team has gathered twice annually striving to remember and rehearse the vision of the church's opportunity to transform communities. The vision team's charge is to support and learn from the ministries of mission, service, and justice within the Rio Texas Conference and as expressed through the UMC's 2016 Book of Discipline ministry portfolios of Global Ministries and Church & Society – paragraphs 629, 633, 654, 656, and 657 and outlined per Rule 5 RTC Standing Rules.

The vision team fosters relationships and dialogue with various entities reflecting the realms and ministries of mission such as Methodist Healthcare Ministries, Justice for Our Neighbors, Texas Impact, and Methodist Federation for Social Action.

Likewise, the Vision Team and the Office of Mission, Service, and Justice Ministries works with task teams and coordinators in the areas of:

- Processing of Mission Personnel and Itineration

CONNECTING TO THE MISSION FIELD

The conference 2019 statistical report reflects indicators of mission, service and justice ministries flowing from the local church. Below is reflection of these ministries conference-wide over the life of the Rio Texas Conference’s five-year history.

Self-reported local church activity data reveal significant increase in the number of persons served by community ministries for outreach, justice, and mercy [Line 23] over the past five years from 677,004 in 2015 to 986,992 in 2019. This possibly reflects the increased needs discovered in communities served through these critical ministries. To understand this specifically, the type of ministries and needs addressed would need to be qualified.

Regarding the number of persons from congregations serving in mission / community ministries [Line 22], we show an increase of 11,027 persons involved over five years. In 2017, 42,059 persons were involved, which is an increase of 16,801 persons from the prior year. Though not fully substantiated, it is believed that this dramatic spike in involvement could be due to volunteer response in various forms to Hurricane Harvey.

Increasingly, we are aware of the importance of being in ministry “with” the community versus carrying out ministry “to” the community and the importance of fostering ministry out of mutual relationships to transform communities and congregations respectively.

TRANSFORMATIONAL COMMUNITIES OF PRAXIS

Through continued funding from Methodist Healthcare Ministries of South Texas, Inc., the Transformational Communities of Praxis [TCOP] program, now in year 4, has trained ten church / community teams to engage in new methods and approaches for missional outreach leading to the development of community and congregation. During 2020, three more teams are being trained. TCOP is based on discovering, connecting, and building upon the gifts and assets that flow out of the relationships the church builds with its community neighbors – residents, organizations, and institutions; all working towards mutual transformation. For an overview of the program, go to www.tcopraxis.org.

Strategic learnings and early outcomes of TCOP garnered from interviews with 2017 and 2018 cohort participants indicated three early outcomes: 1.) changes within individuals, 2.) changes within congregations or partner ministries, and 3.) changes within the congregations' ministry context.

Regarding changes within individuals, several clergy reported changes in their own leadership that included an openness to partnerships with organizations outside the church, a mindset shift from seeing people-in-need as objects of mission work to seeing people as partners in mission, a new and deeper awareness of their ministry context, and a shift from a command-and-control style of leadership to a leader-as-facilitator style that releases gifts of congregants and community members and nurtures call. Several teams reported that new leaders have emerged as a result of TCOP participation. Most teams shared stories of connecting with new individuals and families in the community and providing concrete support. Story examples include: providing assistance with deferred yard maintenance and home painting, removal of head lice that was infesting a family and impacting the children's attendance at school, and hosting regularly scheduled times for the community to submit prayer requests. Most teams reported seeing an increase in the engagement of citizens in the well-being of their community. In one case, a person who had been the object of the church's charity was invited to join the mission team as a paid outreach person and now is the paid leader of a new project that grew out of TCOP participation called the Free Store.

Regarding changes within congregations or partner ministries, in several examples, the methods, practices and approaches of TCOP are being shared with others beyond the team that participated in the Learning Sessions. There are early efforts to equip congregants to be more relational, and less transactional, with neighbors of the church. An asset-based, relational approach is being shared with non-UMC churches, government, schools and nonprofits. In the large church setting, TCOP has been a catalyst for connecting the dots across ministries within the congregation, expanding existing ministries, and rethinking participation in community ministries that provide relief without a commitment to also address root causes. One church reported that the congregation had added members as a direct result of TCOP and the ways in which they have shifted from a needs-based mission approach to an assets-based approach in engaging with the community.

Regarding changes within the congregations' ministry context, every team reported a growing network of partnerships, an important driver of community well-being, that formed as a result of TCOP. The network of partners vary depending on context but include schools, police, health institutions, other churches, and social service agencies. Teams reported that their church is increasingly seen as a resource to the community. And, as the church is being called upon to be a partner in responding to local issues and concerns, the church is becoming more deeply imbedded in its community. Teams are seeing the behavior of some of their community partners change in positive and life-giving ways. For example, one small town reports that the police no longer issue citations to homeowners for blighted properties as their first response. Instead, they look to the church and its growing network of community partners to offer the homeowner assistance and a more restorative solution. In another town, a truant officer is connecting families to the church and its network of community partners to address some of the underlying household issues that prevent a child's attendance at school.

In summary, the key strategic learnings and outcomes are: identification of new leaders, new leadership skills and mindset shift for current leaders, existing transactional ministries are making efforts to become more relational, increased awareness of the church's ministry context that includes not just issues but also includes untapped community strengths, assets and resources, awareness of common ground (and a new common language) from which to build local partnerships for the well-being of the community.

Highlighted outcomes from Year 3 describes the findings from an end-of-year (2019) qualitative evaluation with TCOP Teams. The qualitative method used is based on the Most Significant Change story process. Members of the TCOP Design Team facilitated the interviews and analyzed the data. This same method was used in 2018 and results were noted across three domains: changes within individuals, changes within congregations, and changes within the community. The results of the 2018 evaluation led to the development of the Theory of Change. This Theory of Change is useful to for understanding the results of the 2019 evaluation. Much like 2018 and through the stories shared by the TCOP Teams in 2019, there continues to be evidence of the following outcomes: 1.) leadership capacity, 2.) relationships and collaborations, 3.) mindset shifts, and 4.) holistic care of neighbors.

Regarding leadership capacity, Bethel UMC - San Antonio (2019 Cohort) members reported growth in their own leadership abilities as a result of the TCOP core training. As they took their new skills and knowledge back to their church, they identified new leaders from within the congregation (approximately 20) that had yet to be engaged with their church outside of Sunday morning worship. By the end of the year, these new individuals were participating in community outreach initiatives, and even starting a new one.

Regarding relationships and collaborations, First UMC - Poteet (2018 Cohort) reports a growing relationship with the City of Poteet. Monthly meetings have moved from church-sites to publicly owned spaces. The Mayor has participated in the meetings and one Asset-Based Community Development (ABCD) training. This has prompted the Mayor's interest in hosting a city-wide ABCD initiative in collaboration with the local TCOP Team. The city's new communications coordinator is actively building upon the assets and resources that the TCOP Team has been discovering and connecting by highlighting these in regular city-wide communications. Finally, several members of the growing TCOP initiative in Poteet have been asked to serve by the school superintendent on a school district committee.

Regarding mindset shifts, Gruene UMC - Gruene (2019 Cohort) reports a growing understanding of the difference between "doing ministry for" and "doing ministry with." They made a small change to an existing outreach ministry that has led to participants helping to deliver and shape the ministry in ways that are building community and creating a deeper sense of ownership in the ministry among the participants.

The fourth outcome that the TCOP initiative expects to see is holistic care of neighbors. Evidence of this outcome is strongest in stories shared by TCOP Teams that were part of the first cohort. It is perhaps because the first three outcomes (listed above) need to be in place before this fourth one is realized. First UMC - Eagle Pass (2017 Cohort) reports that in 2019 they were able to build upon their application of the principles and practices of TCOP during 2017-18. Using the assets they discovered, the gifts of the people in their community, and the relationships that they had nurtured, they built a holistic system of support and care for the asylum seekers coming to and through their community.

The TCOP Design Team expects to see evidence of the Impacts from the Theory of Change diagram (below) approximately 5-10 years after a team begins the TCOP core training. The stories shared in this year's evaluation show evidence that the first cohort is experiencing a more connected and cohesive community. "Connected" refers to social connections among residents, collaborating connections among institutions, and access to services that promote well-being. "Community Cohesion" refers to the social ties and community commitments that bind people together. The community feels a sense of interdependence and solidarity.

Regarding connected and cohesive communities, First UMC - Eagle Pass (2017 Cohort) cited as an example of holistic care of neighbors (above) was also a result of the cohesive community that is emerging in Eagle Pass as a result of responding to the rapidly growing need to care for the sojourning neighbors among them. This community used its strong social ties, its commitments to each other, and its shared commitment to a common goal to care for the sojourner and build the system of support mentioned above. Another example is First UMC - Brackettville (2017 Cohort) that shares stories of a growing neighborliness in the community. It is a neighborliness that grows out of the profound change in the quality of relationships in the community. The change in the quality of the relationships has been shifting alongside the growing sense of ownership the community has for a "third space" called Hope Center that is at the heart of the TCOP Team's work. The fact that the most significant change being recognized by this team is described as neighborliness is congruent with descriptions of a cohesive community.

Looking ahead to more impact, this year's evaluation illuminates a readiness among several of the teams to bring more intentionality to: 1.) more of the community in decision-making and 2.) creating a shared vision and plan for collective community action. In late 2019, the TCOP Design Team began to develop a new offering that will be used to support these teams in 2020 as they journey toward deeper community transformation. At the same time, the TCOP Design Team will continue to develop new TCOP Teams, coach existing teams, and offer customized on-site support as needed. In concluding year 3, the TCOP program elements are in place, tested and refined. There is much excitement to move into the next phase of TCOP, supporting the TCOP Teams for greater impact in their communities.

Kinney County Coalition Initiative Emerges

Kinney County, Texas is a border county with 3,800 residents. Brackettville, the county seat town has 1,740 residents. Over the past six years or so, Hope Outreach Center, a community extension ministry of First UMC Brackettville has served as a connector of various social services to the needs of residents.

Prior to the birth of Hope Outreach, the church connected and worked with residents on improving and weatherizing their homes. It was through those interactions that the church began to hear their neighbors' and new-found friends' concerns. Over time, understanding the socio-economic, health, education, and employment concerns of the community, it has become increasingly apparent and pressing to work towards adequate responses.

In 2017, a team from FUMC / Hope Outreach became part of the initial learning cohort in the conference's community development program – Transformational Communities of Praxis www.tcopraxis.org. The deeper community development work is now in motion. Through the convening of the church, community residents, local government officials, and people of faith, residents are coming together to envision the transformational development of Kinney County.

In November 2019, about 30 residents came together to envision some actions they could take over time to strengthen their community as well as reflecting on what the holistic well-being of the community might look like [Shalom – Jeremiah 29:7]. The gathering was also a means of measuring the will of the community to embrace the development of a county-wide coalition to embrace the long-term sustainability of the vision.

Now in 2020, the Kinney County Coalition began gathering in January to garner the skill-set and mind-set of organizing and mobilizing the community for sustainable and measurable change. The coalition is conducting one to one listening conversations with 10% of the county's residents. The data gathered will determine the priorities, projects, immediate and long-term goals, and resident interests and commitments in participating and collaborating in seeking the Shalom of Kinney County.

IMMIGRATION RESPONSE AND BORDER MINISTRIES – 450 Miles of Border

2019 was a pivotal year for immigration response and border ministries within the Rio Texas Conference. Global migration and various push factors is an ever-present reality. Our mission context calls us to ministries of presence and relationships along 450 miles of the U.S. / Mexico border, and not solely as U.S. Methodist, but bi-nationally working with the Methodist Church of Mexico.

Migrants seeking asylum has been a growing reality in our midst since the arrival of unaccompanied minors in 2014 and our hospitality responses to Cubanos in Nuevo Laredo in 2017. During 2019, our humanitarian response and systems of support have grown sharper as the flow of migration increases. Ministries on the border are in conversation and in coordination with one another and with the ministry responses in San Antonio, the point of departure for migrants travelling to unite with family members in various parts of the country, where they will stay awaiting their asylum petition court date.

As the Remain in Mexico migrant response policy, also known as Migrant Protection Protocols [MPP], has now become fully enacted, this requires those seeking asylum to be in a holding pattern in makeshift camps on the Mexican side of the border. As this has resulted in low numbers of asylum seekers crossing into the U.S., the response and support systems that have evolved and strengthened throughout this year responding to and receiving migrants arriving in the U.S. is now finding ways to be supportive to response ministries on the border in Mexico providing food, clothing, and medical support there.

Now, COVID-19 poses another level of concern. U.S. persons helping in Mexican border migrant camps such as in Matamoros are now unable to cross over daily or weekly as doing so is considered to be non-essential.

Border Convocation...Continuing the Conversation

September 20 & 21, 2019, approximately 115 persons participated in this pivotal event designed as time and space for practitioners and learners involved in offering migrant humanitarian response and asylum seeker and immigration advocacy to connect and share concerns and practices.

Practitioners involved in direct responses to arriving migrants provided updates to what is happening at points of the 450 miles of border in our dual mission field – Acuña / Del Rio, Piedras Negras / Eagle Pass, Nuevo Laredo / Laredo, Reynosa / McAllen, and Matamoros / Brownsville. The legal challenges were presented by the Justice for Our Neighbors community, particularly the impacts of the Remain in Mexico policy on the asylum-seeking community. Church and Society mobilized the gathering community to on-the-spot writing of letters to be presented to legislators in Washington, D.C. expressing concerns for current policies impacting asylum-seekers seeking refuge from harsh and violent circumstances faced in their countries of origin.

The points of the border stories shared reflected how the roll out of the Remain in Mexico policy implementation took effect earlier in Brownsville, McAllen, and Laredo and later in Eagle Pass and Del Rio throughout 2019. The reports of response in the lower Rio Grande border points reflected ministry responding to migrant community needs in Matamoros and Nuevo Laredo, whereas in Eagle Pass and Del Rio, migrant / asylum seekers were still coming across having been processed by Customs and Border Patrol (CBP). Therefore, crossing numbers in the lower Rio Grande valley sector were dropping while the numbers in the Eagle Pass / Del Rio area were increasing.

In late March, a large influx of migrants / asylum seekers began arriving steadily to San Antonio, many coming from various countries other than Honduras, El Salvador, and Guatemala as the norm. This moved the City of San Antonio to establish the Migrant Resource Center to process the high increase of arriving sojourners. The resource center coordinated connections and travel fares for those processed by CBP while the Interfaith Welcome Coalition continued to offer hospitality and travel orientation to persons released by ICE from the Dilley, Pearsall, and Karnes detention centers. Travis Park provided overnight sheltering for persons needing more time to coordinate travel to their sponsoring destinations within the U.S. A well-coordinated threefold response emerged within two square blocks in downtown San Antonio.

During 2019, the Interfaith Welcome Coalition distributed 25,577 travelling backpacks. Over eight months, 22,053 persons slept at Travis Park Church. The Migrant Resource Center through coordinated city resources facilitated 83,336 meals served and 2,536 medical assessments. Likewise, countless resources have been expended through our hospitality points in Del Rio, Eagle Pass, Laredo, McAllen, and Brownsville.

The gathering diversely reflected the presence and input of various Rio Texas Conference leaders, direct response practitioners through the Methodist Border Friendship Commission reflecting leaders from the Rio Texas Conference and the Eastern Conference of the Methodist Church of Mexico, the Justice for Our Neighbors community, representatives from neighboring UMC conferences, and various agencies - Texas Methodist Foundation, Methodist Healthcare Ministries, Interfaith Welcome Coalition, City of San Antonio, Texas Impact, Texas American Civil Liberties Union, General Board of Global Ministries / UMCOR Global Migration, General Board of Church & Society, and National JFON.

Since the Border Convocation, the conversation has continued via monthly webinars and border update sessions conducted via ZOOM on the 3rd Tuesday monthly at 10:45 am Central. Go to <https://riotexas.org/immigrationresponse> for summary of the Border Convocation presentations and monthly webinar recordings.

Next Steps

In December the Texas Border Collaboration Network was born out the Interfaith Welcome Coalition, Texas Impact, Rio Texas Conference border ministry leaders, Justice for Our Neighbors, and various ecumenical and community partners engaged in border responses coming together in conversation to envision a network that coalesces the efforts of ministries and organizations on both sides of the border from El Paso / Juarez to Brownsville / Matamoros supporting migrant / asylum seeker communities. The newly formed network seeks to coordinate efforts bi-nationally in the areas of direct services, legal support, hospitality connections, and advocacy for the migrant / asylum seeking community. Immediate goals are to develop a database of organizations connected to coordinate support responses.

GOLDEN AGE HOME CELEBRATES ITS 60TH ANNIVERSARY IN 2020*FOR INFORMATION ONLY*

On November 15, 1960, Golden Age Home opened its doors to accept senior adults into the home. The home was a dream turned into reality for a group of men and women of the Methodist Churches of the Austin District. For four years this dedicated group worked to establish Golden Age Home not only as a physical structure and legal corporation but also as "the place for companionship, peace and comfort with independence."

Golden Age Home was one of many homes that were part of the Methodist program, Homes for Older Persons. To develop these homes, responsible, devoted individuals in church and community gave freely of their time and energy, through creative leadership, talent and money to these buildings and operations. Some were only lightly related to the Church but sponsorship by the Church assured stability, integrity, permanence, and responsible trusteeship.

One original brochure stated, "those without families will come and find those who care for them as though they were their own. Those who have few friends, are lonely or in sorrow, will find here sympathy and love." And so, more than 5,000 people have become part of the Golden Age Home family during the past 60 years. Some of those members were employees while others resided within the walls, but all found a place that has stayed true to its mission "to provide excellent, quality service to older adults in a Christian environment."

At the beginning of 2020, we began a program an intergenerational program. This program included hosting a Music Together class with preschool children, a reading mentorship program at one of the local elementary schools and volunteering at the local food pantry along with many more events planned. While those programs are currently on hold, they brought great joy to all involved and we look forward to restarting them in the fall.

Already this year of 2020, there have been increased costs and a decreased ability for normal resident activities. Social activity is very important for individuals who are isolated from friends and family. We have implemented 'outside the box' visitation procedures that not only provide protection, but also help our residents combat the added loneliness that has come with the current health crisis. It is always our goal to provide our residents with comfort and peace of mind. Our dedicated team has stepped-up to ensure our residents are receiving the extra care physically, mentally, socially and spiritually needed to de-stress during this time of decreased outings and visitation.

From Golden Age Home's conception, there was a giving fund set up to minister to people who are unable to pay the full cost of living in the Home. Golden Age Home received its nonprofit status in 1964 which it continues to operate under today. Golden Age Home is dedicated to keeping its cost affordable. In the late 90's, a grant from TDCHA was secured allowing GAH to designate 16 rooms of the Assisted Living to those needing subsidized housing. 20 years later, GAH continues to seek grants and donations through private foundations, churches, businesses and individuals to keep this program in operation.

Currently, the Board of Directors is comprised of 10 members. These members are men and women from Lockhart, Luling, Seguin, Kyle and Elgin area. This diverse group remains 90% from the Methodist churches. Our generous board members continually provide time, expertise, advice, and available donations to further our mission.

This fall, Golden Age Home will host a public celebration for its 60th anniversary. At this time, we are seeking stories, photos and other general information from the public of those who have been involved in any way with this ministry during the last 60 years. Did you volunteer as a child? Did your loved one reside in the home? Were you an employee at Golden Age Home? Do you have a newspaper clipping that highlights an activity at Golden Age Home? You are encouraged to submit these things by mail Attn: 60th Anniversary, 1505 S. Main St., Lockhart, TX 78644 or by email to nburnett@goldenagehome.com.

Now more than ever, nonprofits need your support. There have been tough times in the past 60 years. Those times have drawn us closer to the Lord as we relied on Him to provide for the needs of the home, its' occupants and team members. We are committed to staying the course and excited to see how God uses this time to prepare us for the next 60 years.

HOW can you be involved with Golden Age Home?

METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Greetings from Methodist Children's Home (MCH) and the more than 5,000 children, youth and families we serve across Texas and New Mexico. I am honored to report MCH continues to be in compliance with and exceed best practice standards for childcare established by the states of Texas and New Mexico and the Council on Accreditation (COA, an international accrediting organization of child welfare, behavioral health and community-based social services).

I invite each member of the annual conference to visit our website at MCH.org. There you can explore in more detail the services we offer. You can also download stories, identify resources to help educate your congregation on our ministry, view a transparent listing of our financial resources and services delivered, find out how you can refer a child for placement, or learn more about a call to join our ministry as a home parent, foster parent or in another capacity.

This summer will mark the end of my first year as president of this wonderful ministry. I reflect often on the amazing opportunity given to me when I was named the 11th president of MCH in July 2019. At that time, I received the privilege of leading an agency that was already strong in its governance, financial practices, outcome measurements, and overall transparency and accountability. Based on my experiences overseeing the MCH fundraising efforts for the past 17 years before becoming president, I know how important these things are for benefactors and supporting churches as they evaluate potential beneficiaries of their financial support.

As you read this report, our hope is that you will celebrate the proven ways MCH has positively influenced lives this past year. We also ask you to join with us in thinking about how we can continue to expand the impact of our ministry throughout Texas and New Mexico. I am grateful for the many prayers, gifts and actions that brought about these great accomplishments for those in our care.

These areas of strength speak to the current health of the organization and also provide MCH with the foundation to immediately begin exploring ways to increase the effectiveness and reach of services and programs that can make a difference in the lives of children, youth and families. I see the task of leading this effort as a personal calling and a responsibility of this ministry based on the level of faithful support we receive from our supporters. I commit to you that this endeavor will receive my best effort and involve many diverse voices, all of which will be committed to reaching the high standards of our legacy and mission.

This year, we launched a new strategic plan that is appropriately named, "Building on a Strong Foundation." I look forward to how this plan will affirm, challenge and move us forward. I know that it is possible because of the great work that has occurred at MCH since 1890 and because of the promise God offers to equip MCH to do more for those we serve in Texas and New Mexico.

Guided by our core values of Christian Principles, Relationships, Responsibility, Growth, Service, and Hope, MCH provides the care, programs and talented individuals needed to positively impact the lives of children, youth and families. This is happening every day in residential programs as well as through 13 MCH Family Outreach offices, including San Antonio and Corpus Christi.

Here are some of the things you helped MCH accomplish for God's glory and those we serve:

- Completed construction of the fourth and fifth new homes on our Waco campus as part of the Building Hope campaign. The Nancy R. Bowen and B.R. & Helen Greathouse homes are new state-of-the-art homes designed with the unique needs of the children we serve today in mind coupled with our trauma-informed research and modern efficiencies. Additionally, we have completed funding that will build the sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth homes.
- Served 205 children and youth through our campus programs in Waco; 5,684 children and their families through MCH Family Outreach programs; and 174 young adults through Transition Services.
- Students participated in multiple mission trips, including U.M. ARMY, leadership camps and other community service projects.
- Achieved designations of the Gold Seal of Transparency from Guidestar and a four-star charity rating from Charity Navigator. Less than 1 percent of nonprofits listed on Guidestar have achieved the Gold level. These designations recognize our commitment to excellence and efforts to conduct our work with the utmost integrity and transparency.
- Graduated 25 seniors from high school and supported 85 MCH alumni pursuing higher education at community colleges, trade schools or four-year institutions. At the writing of this report, we are preparing for seven MCH Alumni to graduate with a degree or certificate from an institute of higher learning in the spring of 2020.

Our achievements in the past and those yet to come are directly related to the men and women who give their time, talents and resources to bless our children. The following from the Rio Texas Annual Conference serve on the MCH Board of Directors:

Mr. Bill Bingham, Austin

Mrs. Candy Mallonee, San Antonio

Mr. Mario Olivarez, Corpus Christi

Thank you in advance for your ongoing prayers, gifts and actions that empower MCH to find effective and innovative ways to fulfill our mission to offer hope to children, youth and families through a nurturing, Christian community. I am excited for what is next for MCH and trust that the future for our ministry is bright. May God continue to bless MCH and the ministries of the Rio Texas Annual Conference.

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Africa University's story was one of resourcefulness, steadfast investment and ministry growth in 2019.

Thank you, Bishop Robert Schnase, the Cabinet and the many gifted lay and clergy leaders at the local church level for all that you do to affirm the United Methodist connection and global mission. The gracious support of the Rio Texas Conference resulted in an 87.52 percent investment of the asking to the Africa University Fund apportionment in 2019. Thank you for your ongoing prayers and gifts. They are seeds of hope and abundance sown close to home, in sub-Saharan Africa and around the world.

The generosity of the Rio Texas Conference enables Africa University to educate and nurture leaders who think for themselves, are contextually relevant and have a passion to serve. Since opening in 1992, Africa University has equipped more than 9,000 graduates who lead and serve across sub-Saharan Africa and beyond. These young people are creative and responsive in serving the needs of their communities.

Institutional Update:

- Africa University has an annual enrollment of more than 2,800 students, with 25-30 African nations represented in the student body each year.
- The university's three colleges operate as centers for teaching, research, innovation, community engagement and enterprise development. Africa University leads as the only university in Zimbabwe accredited to offer online degree programs.
- Students, faculty and alumni contribute ground-breaking solutions to Africa's current challenges with interventions that include graduate programs in migrant and refugee protection, articulated by refugee students, as well as doctoral level training for military chaplains in Africa.
- Infrastructure improvements include increasing the use of solar energy on the university's main campus with the support of the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church. A residence hall for women and a new wing of the student union building will be the first solar-powered facilities on the campus. Both buildings are gifts to Africa University from the Dallas, Texas-based Highland Park United Methodist Church.

Africa University affirms its commitment to The United Methodist Church, the Cross and Flame, and the denomination's global mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Through its faithfulness, the Rio Texas Conference invites and encourages new partners to join in the mission and change the world. Thanks to your stewardship of God's blessings, Africa University has gone beyond what some thought was possible. "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God." Luke 18:27 NKJV

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Since our founding in 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated more than 10,000 students, shaping thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders who are dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current shifts in our denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to our community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes, and others have worked, worshiped, learned, and prayed alongside United Methodists, and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and our mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As we move forward, we will continue to invite and welcome those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition. Indeed, we will continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

This year, Candler has continued to strengthen our deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018-2019, we awarded $6.3 million in financial aid, with 100 percent of master of divinity (MDiv) students receiving support and financial coaching.

In fall 2019, we announced a major expansion of our financial aid program to include full-tuition scholarships for all MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in The United Methodist Church, and new merit scholarships covering 75% of tuition for qualifying MDiv students who identify as pan-Wesleyan, and those pursuing chaplaincy through Candler's new chaplaincy concentration. In addition, all incoming students in the master of divinity, master of theological studies, and master of religious leadership programs will receive awards covering at least 50% of tuition.

This year also saw the launch of two pilot "formation communities," off-campus student housing that focuses on intentional living and spiritual formation. Students from multiple degree programs applied to take part in these pilot groups. At the start of the year, the housemates created a "rule of life" to guide their days together, emphasizing prayer, fellowship, and celebration. A house chaplain—a Candler faculty member or church leader—supports them and shares in the journey. The ten students who took part this year describe feeling a richer sense of community and deeper connections to God and one another in the midst of their busy lives. It is clear that this fulfills a need for our seminarians, and we eagerly anticipate the program's growth in the coming years.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 470 from 12 countries and 38 states, with 40 percent people of color (U.S.) and a median age of 27 among MDivs. Students represent 42 denominations, with 45% of all students and 50% of MDivs coming from the Methodist family.

We offer six single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while completing their degrees.

Candler draws strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us in person or online at candler.emory.edu.

PRESIDENTIAL AND INSTITUTIONAL ADVANCEMENT ACTIVITIES

Huston-Tillotson University's success is a result of discoveries, visions, and insights made 145 years ago. When George W. Richardson founded Samuel Huston College in Dallas, Texas, at St. Paul's Methodist Church with six scholars; and Jeffrey Tillotson founded Tillotson Collegiate and Normal Institute in Austin, Texas, they could only imagine the possibilities. Today, Huston-Tillotson University takes pride in several accomplishments, including its leadership in sustainability efforts.

Huston-Tillotson University celebrated 145 years of providing access to higher education during the Charter Day Convocation celebrating the merger of Samuel Huston College and Tillotson College into Huston-Tillotson University. The program included alumnus Rev. G. V. Clark, the HT Concert Choir, the Elite Combo, and the recognition of top-ranking students.

Huston-Tillotson University Day at Wesley United Methodist Church was a day of discovery, recognition, and celebration for Huston-Tillotson University with music provided by the HT gospel choir. Members of Wesley United Methodist Church invited the community to their annual Huston-Tillotson University Day. The HT Concert Choir joined with the Church choir. Huston-Tillotson University was once housed in the basement of Wesley.

The HT student may be the first in his or her family to attend college, part of a legacy family with more than five generations of graduates, a local Austin resident, or a student who has traveled thousands of miles to reach the campus. That HT student was likely referred by alumni and had several college acceptances letters from which to choose. Internships or overseas travel are just two of the opportunities afforded students. Whether attending HT as part of the William Edward Burghardt DuBois Honors Program, Freshmen First Year Experience, as an athlete in one of the sports programs, or recruited as a musician for the jazz ensemble or vocalist with the concert choir, the HT experience is uniquely highlighted for success. Accountability, responsibility, spiritual development, service-learning and supportive relationships are the hallmarks of the HT experience.

Institutional Advancement

The Institutional Advancement Department has been actively involved in the following:

- Building a development plan that aligns with the transitions associated with COVID19 and filling the donor pipeline to eliminate the funding gap.
- Implemented a billboard campaign to promote and support student enrollment
- Creation of a Virtual Book Club model for our major corporate donors to build community and create a shared responsibility model around social justice.
- Launching of a COVID19 Support Fund to encourage the community, stakeholders, and donor base to invest in the university whilst navigating a pandemic
- Creating a technology support campaign with the COVID19 Support Fund to obtain computers for new and returning students

- Hiring new staff in key departmental positions to carry out the work the work of the department

Campus Improvements

Over the past five years, Huston-Tillotson University worked aggressively to achieve the goals of its Master Plan and to manage deferred maintenance issues throughout the campus. Specifically, the plan called for ensuring the safety, security, accessibility, and appeal of the campus and its facilities. The campus has completed the fencing project to ensure safety and security for faculty, staff, and students. New lighting and signage throughout the campus helps with the identification of the campus and its interior structures. Classrooms buildings have been painted, floors stripped and polished, seating and desk replaced and new whiteboards and audio-visual instructional equipment. Faculty have been equipped with 21st Century technology and instructional tools to manage the teaching and learning environment both face to face and online.

Classroom space and offices in the Branch Memorial Gymnasium has been renovated along with new fitness and instructional equipment. The main gymnasium floor was replaced, and a new roof has been installed on the building. New entrance doors and bathrooms along with a new score board and protective padding has given the building an updated presence on the campus.

There are two residential halls on the Huston-Tillotson campus. Both facilities had significant needs relative to repairs. Thanks to GHEMB funding, we were able to repair and upgrade showers and bathroom facilities in both buildings. These improvements lead to the Universities ability to fill both facilities for the first time in many years with student occupancy.

The King-Seabrook Chapel has been equipped with a state-of-the-art audio-visual system and furniture replaced on the stage. We are aggressively seeking support to replace seating in the chapel. Several buildings have been power-washed on the campus.

The student parking lot has been paved, painted and security gates installed. Numerous other upgrades to the campus including the student union, admissions office, and Institutional Technology Center. Entrance gates have been installed at all campus entrances. And a new marker identifying the campus has been built on the front side of the campus to increase recognition and visibility.

COVID-19 Impact

The University was and continues to manage the impact of COVID-19 on its students, faculty, staff, and overall operations. We have aggressively sort and received funds from various sources. We are particularly grateful for the support provided by the United Methodist Church, Division of Higher Education, Black College Fund, for the generous Emergency funds provided. We are so grateful and be it known that they were the first to step up to the plate to support the University.

Our administration, faculty and staff have worked diligently to seek out funding opportunities and make personal contributions to assist the university in this extremely critical period in our history. We were able to secure funds to provide laptops for each of our students enrolled in the Fall 2020 and all who indicated that they needed assistance during the Spring 2020. Not only were we able to provide laptops, but for those who had needs for Wi-Fi connections, we were able to assist. We continue to raise funds and to seek funding for continued needs as we are still operating remotely during the Fall 2020 academic semester.

Apple Partnership

The Office of the President and CEO has established a partnership with Apple, Inc. This partnership had generated significant resources for the University and is facilitated by Dr. Jennifer Miles, as the Grant Manager and Project Lead through the University's Center for Academic Innovation and Transformation (CAIT). The initiative consists of several components which are outlined below.

Professional Development

The HT Golden Apple Teachers initiative is a robust enrichment program, that aims to enhance the research, professional development, and innovative performance of forward-thinking undergraduate students. This program is designed to inspire and support innovation in teaching and learning, through the incorporation of Apple Teacher resources that impact instructional technology, research, service, and improvement in student engagement.

Nine faculty members were selected for the first cohort of Golden Apple Teachers. They are Mr. Tommy Mouton (English), Dr. Samuel Rowley (Music), Ms. Eileen Slaton (Mathematics), Ms. Shawanda Stewart (English), Mrs. Hoda Tavakoli (Mathematics), Dr. Wenxian Tan (biology). Eight of these Golden Apple Teachers had earned their Apple Teacher Certification.

Seven faculty submitted proposals and were accepted into the CAIT2 Coding Academy. The goal is to engage faculty to bring coding, creativity, and community connected learning experiences to Huston-Tillotson University. Through multiple training academies, these educators will receive support to guide a small student-group team to develop an app prototype to help solve a real-world issue. Each team will present their work during the CAIT2 Coding Academy Community App Showcase scheduled for April 8, 2021. Faculty will also work to implement a plan to integrate coding into their academic programs using Everyone Can Create and Everyone Can Code, and build curriculum based on iOS Intro to App Development and iOS App development with SWIFT. Faculty currently involved in this initiative are Mr. Dayron Bowers (Business), Dr. Carlos Cervantes (Kinesiology), Dr. Farzana Hussain (Mathematics), Dr. Amanda Masino (Biology) Dr. Karen Magid (Sustainability), Dr. Samuel Rowley (Music), Mrs. Shawanda Stewart (English), and Dr. Jennifer Miles, Director.

Technology & Innovation

Working to transform state-of-the-art technology both in and out of the classroom, Apple has provided hardware to support the creation of two new MAC Labs. This includes over 50 iMacs, 2 Apple TV's, and 60 iPads. These labs serve all students, with emphasis placed on two new academic programs: The African American Male Techer Initiative (Education reparation) and Green Apple Fellows Program (Environmental Justice). In addition, Apple donated Apple Watches and iPhone SE to support student research efforts housed within the Green Apple Fellows Program.

Capital Improvement

Through Apple's global initiative, MLK Day of Service, the company supported the renovation of five spaces on campus: The Business Office Suite, The Center for Academic Excellence (CAE Main Office, CAE Writer's Studio, CAE Math Lab, and the new Green Apple Fellows Lab. On January 20, over 121 Apple employee volunteers. Under the direction of Give to Get, made improvements to facilities, and installed new furniture.

Scholarships

Huston-Tillotson University has recently been awarded a Certificate of Commendation from the Texas Education Agency (TEA) for Exemplary Performance. This commendation from TEA highlights specifically the work the University has done related to preparing African American teacher candidates. African American males comprise less than 2% of all educators nationally. HT has a goal to certify at least 25 African American males as classroom teachers by the year 2025. This Apple partnership provides funding to support the institutions desire to achieve this goal with Scholarship to cover tuition, fees, room and board for these scholars.

The Apple Diversity & Inclusion Scholarship program was established to empower student of color to reach their career goals in the business, computer science, and mathematics fields. Selected HT students will receive up to $5,000 in scholarship money from Apple, Inc. for the 2020-21 academic year. These awards are granted based on the strength of each candidate's impact on diversity, demonstrated leadership, financial need. And academic background.

LYDIA PATTERSON INSTITUTE

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Lydia Patterson Institute, better known as “La Lydia”, is an institution that has encountered and survived numerous challenges throughout its 107 years of its existence. In 1913, the school was established in part by Methodist ministers and missionaries fleeing from a Mexican revolution and answering their call to ministry on the US-Mexico border. Since its origin, the school has suffered the effects of two world wars, the great depression, numerous peso devaluations, and presently, the violence and drug wars on the border. La Lydia has survived and flourished in the midst of all.

On August 3, 2019, our faith was challenged when an outsider traveled more than 600 miles to El Paso to eradicate Mexicans in the worst massacre in modern history. El Paso is a city with a population of more than 80% Hispanics. That is not to mention the number of Mexicans that cross daily from our sister city of Juarez, Mexico. In the shooting, we lost the father of three of our former students.

For generations, Lydia Patterson has been committed to teach English to non-English speaking students predominately of Hispanic background. Obviously, the incident caused panic and stress in El Paso and Lydia Patterson was no exception. We were to start school the Monday following, and parents were apprehensive and scared. For the first time in the history of La Lydia, we were forced to hire security to patrol our campus. It was heartbreaking, but students and parents were assured that the evil actions of a demented racist would not define us. We reminded them that the power of prayer and the hand of God would not forsake us.

In a positive note, Lydia Patterson moves forward with its commitment to provide a quality education to its students and provide opportunities otherwise nonexistent. My appreciation goes out to the colleges and universities of the United Methodist Church for continuing our ministry by providing scholarships so that 100% of our students attend college.

As the church struggles with certain identities, Lydia Patterson remains faithful to all in its principles and journey to change lives regardless of color, national origin, economic positions, and any other God given preferences. We aim to be the bridge that unites all Methodists in ministry as mandated by our God and make disciples of every one of its students for the transformation of the world.

We appeal to every church in your conference and this jurisdiction to remain faithful to the ministry of Lydia Patterson, and continue to partner with us in doing the work of God at its best. Every day, the lives of young men and women are being changed. Perhaps in one of our classrooms is sitting that one person who will make the difference in our world.

In Christ,

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Perkins celebrates our vital connections with the Rio Texas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church:

- Seven (7) students affiliated with the Rio Texas Annual Conference are enrolled at Perkins and all are in the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program.
- Three (3) students from the Rio Texas Conference received funding from the PACE (Perkins Annual Conference Endowment) grant, with the average overall financial aid award per student totaling $7,530.

Overall enrollment for 2019-20 at Perkins School of Theology reflects a 6.6% increase from 2018-19. The Office of Enrollment Management also reported three consecutive years of significant growth in new student totals—with 2019 reflecting a more than doubled increase over 2016—contrasting with the trend of decline in schools of theology nationally.

Enrollment at Perkins for the 2019-20 academic year totaled 343 students, including 27 enrolled in the Ph.D. program. Fall 2019 statistics reflect the following: 63.3% of the entire student population are United Methodist and 37% are ethnic minority students.

Master's degree programs comprise approximately 46% male and 54% female students. The Doctor of Pastoral Music (D.P.M.) program includes students from southern Asia taking classes in Dallas.

The hybrid Houston-Galveston Extension Program, in its third year of providing a combination of online and residential classes leading to the M.Div. and M.A.M. degrees, totaled 94 students during the 2019-20 academic year.

2019-20 Highlights

- "Reboot: The Congregation as Youth Worker," an initiative of Perkins School of Theology designed to equip entire congregations to serve in ministry with youth, held its first retreat in September 2019 with representatives of the 18 diverse congregations selected to form its initial (starter) cohort. They include two African Methodist Episcopal churches, three Baptist churches, two Presbyterian (PC USA) churches, an Episcopal church, and 10 United Methodist churches of varying ethnic backgrounds—including First United Methodist Church of Mont Belvieu, Texas (Texas Annual Conference)—all without a full-time, paid youth worker and within a 300-mile radius of Dallas. The initiative co-directed by the Rev. Bart Patton, Director of Youth and Young Adult Ministry Education and Dr. Priscilla Pope-Levison, Associate Dean, Office of External Programs, is funded by a five-year, $1 million grant awarded to Perkins School of Theology in late 2018 by the Lilly Endowment Inc.
- The Certification in Spiritual Direction Program at Perkins, launched in 2010, welcomed its largest cohort to-date in August 2019. The 26th cohort, with 17 members, includes clergy and laity from across the U.S. During the three-year, noncredit continuing education course, participants are trained in the art of accompanying and guiding others in their spiritual journeys.
- In 2019, Perkins opened its new Baptist House of Studies (BHS) which fosters community for ministerial students, faculty and staff who identify with the Baptist and Free Church traditions. The BHS is a spiritual, rather than a physical, house that especially supports and encourages students as they pursue their academic and ecclesial training in an ecumenical and university-based seminary. In October of 2019, BHS hosted Amanda Tyler, Executive Director of the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty, for two events on the Perkins campus. And in March 2020, BHS—with the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty—co-sponsored the Walter B. and Kay W. Shurden Lectures on Religious Liberty and Separation of Church and State with keynote speaker and national interfaith leader Eboo Patel.
- More than 200 theologians, artists, musicians, scholars and community members gathered for a two-day conference Sept. 20-21, 2019, entitled "The Art of Resilience – Latinx Public Witness in Troubled Times." The sold-out event, sponsored by The Center for the Study of Latino/a Christianity and Religions at Perkins, Ignite/Arts Dallas: A Center for People, Purpose, Place at SMU Meadows School of the Arts and the SMU Meadows Division of Theatre, gave participants the opportunity to interact with outstanding Latinx scholars, local artists, and religious and community leaders to reflect deeply on race, gender and immigration as matters of moral and faith concerns. As part of the program, the Meadows School of the Arts hosted an art exhibit and a performance by New York Latina playwright Jessica Carmona of her original work, "Elvira: The Immigration Play." Special music performed during the weekend was composed by Ars Iubilorum, a Latin-American collective of composers—including Marcell Silva Steuernagel, director of Perkins' Master of Sacred Music Program—who research the intersection of Christian liturgical traditions and new music.
- "Hong Kong Protests: A Messianic Movement?," a panel discussion focused on the 2019 Hong Kong student protests, drew participants from across SMU and the Dallas area on Oct. 22, 2019. Sponsored by SMU Perkins School of Theology, the Tower Center's Sun & Star Program on Japan and East Asia and SMU's Center for Faith and Learning and the Embrey Human Rights Program, the event—one of the first of its kind in the U.S. to examine the protests—featured Dr. Lap Yan Kung, professor of Theology, The Divinity School, The Chinese University of Hong Kong as the keynote speaker. A panel discussion—which examined the religious and secular issues underlying the protests and the implications for religious communities in Hong Kong and around the world—followed. The panel moderator was Dr. Sze-kar Wan, Professor of New Testament at Perkins, who organized the event.
- The globe came to Perkins during the 2019 Fall Convocation, held Nov. 12. "Mission Quest: Finding Your Place in God's World," featured travel guide and activist Rick Steves, who headlined an opening event with 1,200 participants at SMU's McFarlin Auditorium. Sharing the stage with Steves during the two-day event, also held at Highland Park United Methodist Church, were the Rev. Dr. Samira Izadi Page, a native of Iran who leads a ministry to refugees in Dallas, and the Reverend Dr. Célestin Musekura, a Rwandan and founder of African Leadership and Reconciliation Ministries (ALARM). In addition to hearing speakers from three continents, attendees heard praise music in 17 different languages and human stories of hope and struggle from around the world.
- The 2019 Advent Worship Service, held Dec. 5, marked three milestones: the 60th anniversary of Perkins' Master of Sacred Music (MSM) program, the 80th anniversary of the Seminary Singers, and the 60th anniversary of the Advent service itself. Advent was first celebrated in Perkins Chapel in 1959, a tradition continued every year since. Three guest choirs from Dallas-area churches, led by alumni of the M.S.M. program, performed an anthem, and all three choirs performed Jane Marshall's "Song of Simeon." Worship followed the classic "Lessons and Carols" format, plus a reading by Dr. Ted Campbell, Professor of Church History, of one of Martin Luther's sermons.
- Thanks to a partnership initiated with Cliff College in the U.K. and the Methodist Church of Great Britain, a Perkins intern was placed in England for the 2019-20 academic year. Third-year student Cori Clevenger—whose home church is First UMC in Liberty, Texas—interned in a three-point charge of Methodist churches in the Midlands area. Her internship is part of a pilot program that organizers hope will become ongoing. Internships give M.Div. students at Perkins an opportunity to integrate coursework of Bible, theology and ethics with ministry practice in the real world. Now, Perkins students have the chance to do this in another culture, broadening their understanding of Christian expressions from those found in the U.S.
- Two new Memoranda of Understanding (MOUs) were signed during 2019-20, including the first with an international school of theology, as part of the ongoing initiative to deepen relationships between Perkins and undergraduate colleges, universities and international seminaries. A formal agreement was reached with Project Transformation National, which sponsors a summer intensive for undergraduate college students who lead summer day camp programs for children and youth at urban United Methodist churches across the U.S. and who also explore vocations in ministry and service. In addition, the agreement with Bishop Han Theological School (BHTS) in Mindanao, Philippines, will promote collaboration and intercultural activities among theology faculty and students from the two institutions. Previous MOUs have been formalized with historically United Methodist institutions including Centenary College in Shreveport, Louisiana; Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas; McMurry University in Abilene, Texas; Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas; Huston-Tillotson University in Austin, Texas; Philander Smith College in Little Rock, Arkansas; Texas Wesleyan University in Fort Worth, Texas; Wylie College in Marshall, Texas; and Presbyterian-related Austin College in Sherman, Texas.

- The Bolin Family 2020 Perkins Scholarship Luncheon was held Wednesday, February 5, 2020, with New York Times columnist and best-selling author, David Brooks as guest speaker. The luncheon, inaugurated in 2010, serves as a major fundraiser for student scholarships. This year's luncheon, which highlighted the 2019-20 Perkins Scholars, netted approximately $75,000 for new scholarships.
- A two-day conference, "In the Face of Barbarism: Dietrich Bonhoeffer on Culture, Humanity and the Importance of Ordinary Life," was held Feb. 13-14, 2020, and included noted lecturers Victoria Barnett, Michael DeJonge, and Natalie Carnes. Supported by the Robinson Fund at Perkins, which encourages work at the intersection of theology and the arts, the event focused on the importance of everyday life in Bonhoeffer's theology and ethics. The conference concluded with a one-person play on the legacy of Dietrich Bonhoeffer as adapted and performed by Al Staggs.
- Dr. Theodore Walker, Associate Professor of Ethics and Society at Perkins, discovered a lost manuscript—written 77 years ago—by Ernest E. Just, with an important message for modern readers. The unpublished book presents a cell biology-rooted theory of the origin and evolution of ethical behaviors. Dr. Walker and his team are now in the process of editing the manuscript to submit for publication.
- Dr. Evelyn Parker, Susanna Wesley Centennial Professor of Practical Theology, was in South Africa as a 2019-2020 U.S. Fulbright Scholar. Based at the Desmond Tutu Centre for Religion and Social Justice and the Department of Theology and Religion at the University of Western Cape in Cape Town, she worked on a project titled "Role of Religious Leaders in Preventing and Intervening in Teen Dating Violence in South Africa."
- The Rev. Dr. Rebekah Miles, Professor of Ethics and Practical Theology at Perkins, was named one of three Odyssey Medal Recipients by Hendrix College in Conway, Arkansas. The medals are presented annually by the Hendrix College Board of Trustees to individuals whose life achievements exemplify the Hendrix Odyssey Program. Miles, a 1982 Hendrix graduate, was honored for her research. A reception and medal presentation with Hendrix President William M. Tsutsui took place on November 14 in the Great Hall of the Clinton Presidential Center in Little Rock.
- Dr. Ángel J. Gallardo joined the Perkins faculty and staff as Associate Director of the Intern Program in summer 2019. Dr. Gallardo, who earned the Doctor of Philosophy degree from the Graduate Program in Religious Studies at SMU in 2018, previously served as a teaching assistant at Perkins and taught in the Regional Course of Study School. He holds leadership positions in various professional and Latino/a organizations, and has worked with faith-leaders, activists, and scholars both locally and internationally, including during an internship in Brazil.
- The Rev. Katherine Glaze Lyle of Dallas was named recipient of the 2019 Perkins Distinguished Alumnus/a Award by the Perkins School of Theology Alumni/ae Council. She was honored during a special banquet held Nov. 12 at Perkins for her effectiveness and integrity in service to the church, continuing support for the goals of Perkins and Southern Methodist University, outstanding service to the community and exemplary character.
- The Houston-Galveston Extension Program will celebrate its 25th anniversary in 2020. The original program, which launched in fall 1995, enabled students to take initial portions of their work toward Perkins degrees in Houston-Galveston and to complete their work on the Dallas campus. Key leadership (in their roles at that time) included Perkins Dean Robin Lovin, Dr. James Moore, pastor of St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Houston and Dr. Charles Millikan, pastor of Moody Memorial United Methodist Church in Galveston, in addition to other leaders within the Texas Annual Conference. Over the years, many outstanding students, including Bishop Cynthia Fierro Harvey, have attended Perkins through the Houston-Galveston Extension Program—also known as "Perkins South."

The highlights listed above are reflective of the vibrant engagement of Perkins faculty, staff and students during the 2019-20 academic year.

Perkins School of Theology is committed to those called to serve so that they might be empowered to lead. We thank our many colleagues, friends and alumni/ae in the Rio Texas Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church for your generous support, including referrals of prospective students, as we continue our vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

Grace and peace,

Craig C. Hill, Dean and Professor of New Testament

2019 Highlights

Significant Gifts and Grants

$100 Million Gift Establishes New Graduate School

In 2019 SMU celebrated the largest gift in its history – an unprecedented investment of $100 million from the Moody Foundation to create the eighth named school at SMU: the Moody School of Graduate and Advanced Studies. This new school supports the University's graduate programs in education, engineering, the arts, humanities, sciences and social studies, as well as faculty research and interdisciplinary programs across the University. It will enable SMU to graduate higher numbers of doctoral students and strengthen collaborations with other universities, major corporations and other entities in producing high-impact research projects.

Visionary Impact With Miller Family $50 Million Gift

Carolyn and David Miller '72, '73 made the largest single gift by an alumnus and his family in SMU's 108-year history. The Millers' latest $50 million commitment will support the Edwin L. Cox School of Business' strategic plan to modernize its curriculum; offer more and broader scholarships to attract the world's best business students; collaborate across the SMU campus on new interdisciplinary programs and enhance the school's facilities. It also aspires for the school to extend community outreach to develop corporate partnerships and expand inclusivity.

Owen Arts Center Renovation Kickoff Inspires a New Challenge and Additional Gifts

Last fall, as the Meadows School of the Arts celebrated the 50th anniversary of its naming, we kicked off the renovation of Owen Arts Center, a $34 million initiative to improve academic spaces in the north wing for visual arts, art history and creative computation, while creating welcoming and accessible entrances to the building. During the celebration, we announced a new $1.8 million challenge gift from Indianapolis philanthropist and former Meadows School parent G. Marlyne Sexton. This latest gift brings her total commitment to OAC to $5 million and creates an incentive for others to join in and help the Meadows School reach the remaining $4 million needed to revitalize the arts hub.

A $5 million gift from Dallas art collectors and patrons Nancy C. and Richard R. Rogers extends their long-standing support of artists by establishing a vibrant hub for the visual arts at SMU. The new Nancy C. and Richard R. Rogers Center for Visual Arts in the Owen Arts Center will provide a physical space that expands academic and artistic opportunities for students and faculty to propel them to the forefront of their fields. It is part of a $34 million initiative to modernize the 250,000-square-foot building's north wing. Gifts to the project are supported by a grant from The Meadows Foundation.

Game Changer Opens on the Boulevard

Last year, we celebrated the dedication of the Indoor Performance Center, featuring Armstrong Fieldhouse, which marked a new era in athletics preparation and training for SMU Mustangs. The technologically equipped, multiuse facility also offers a significant expansion of possibilities for campus and community participation. Many generous donors made the Indoor Performance Center possible. In addition to Liz Armstrong '82 and Bill Armstrong '82, donors of more than $1 million are Gary T. Crum '69 and Sylvie P. Crum; Paul B. Loyd, Jr. '68 and Penny R. Loyd; David B. Miller '72, '73 and Carolyn L. Miller and the David B. Miller Family Foundation; and Garry A. Weber '58. There were also 17 donors of $100,000 and higher, with eight making gifts of $1 million each and nine making six-figure commitments.

New Home For Digital Explorers

SMU took a giant leap forward in the rapidly shifting digital frontier with the groundbreaking of the Gerald J. Ford Hall for Research and Innovation at the corner of McFarlin Boulevard and Airline Road. SMU Trustee Gerald J. Ford '66, '69, his wife, Kelli O. Ford, and the Gerald J. Ford Family Foundation provided a $15 million lead gift to help fund construction of the building. The new 50,000-square-foot interdisciplinary research hub will serve as home to SMU's AT&T Center for Virtualization, the Dedman College Interdisciplinary Institute, high-performance computing and data science, the new Visualization Lab and the Guildhall, the Hart eCenter's top-ranked digital game-design program.

High Tech, High Impact from Bobby B. Lyle

Dallas entrepreneur, industry leader and educator Bobby B. Lyle '67 built on the farsighted generosity that named the Lyle School of Engineering 11 years ago by designating $10 million to power a new strategic vision for the school. The future-focused model will combine innovation, agility and swift responses to shifts in technological capabilities with enduring institutional support. His investment will support the school's Future Fund by establishing endowments for Accelerating Emerging Research and Accelerating High Tech Business Innovations. The fund also will support two additional strategic portfolios: Transforming the Engineering Education Experience and Transformative Technology for Social Good.

Linda and Mitch Hart Institute for Technology, Innovation and Entrepreneurship

Prominent Dallas business leaders Linda Wertheimer Hart '65 and Milledge (Mitch) A. Hart, III are among SMU's most generous donors, and they made another major investment. The Linda and Mitch Hart Institute for Technology, Innovation and Entrepreneurship merges the wisdom of the Cox School of Business with the knowledge of the Lyle School of Engineering to develop the tools entrepreneurs need to bring their concepts to life. In addition, Mrs. Hart honored her husband on his 85th birthday with the Milledge A. Hart, III Scholarship Fund for Veterans of the U.S. Marine Corps.

Program Highlights

Elizabeth Loba named Provost

Elizabeth Loba, appointed as SMU's provost and vice president for academic affairs in December, will join the University on July 6, 2020. As chief academic officer for SMU, she will be responsible for the overall quality of teaching, scholarship and research and all aspects of academic life, ranging from admissions and faculty development to supervision of SMU's eight schools, library system, and international programs. Loba, a biomedical engineer, is currently vice chancellor for strategic partnerships and dean and Ketchum Professor of the College of Engineering at the University of Missouri. She brings to SMU a distinguished academic record and broad university leadership experience.

Academic Deans Reappointed

The academic deans leading SMU's Lyle School of Engineering, Dedman School of Law and Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences have been reappointed to serve in their positions for an additional five years: Marc Christensen, dean of the Lyle School and Lyle Professor of Engineering Innovation, who has served as dean since 2013; Jennifer Collins, Judge James Noel Dean and professor of law at Dedman Law, who has served as dean since 2014; and Thomas DiPiero, dean of Dedman College and professor in the departments of English and World Languages and Literatures, who has served as dean since 2014.

Meadows School of the Arts celebrates 50th Anniversary

Meadows School kicked off a yearlong celebration of the 50th anniversary of its naming, staging three premieres by internationally recognized choreographers at its 26th annual benefit concert, "Meadows at the Winspear." The concert featured the critically acclaimed Meadows Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of conductor Paul Phillips, and the students of the Meadows Dance Ensemble. It also honored community leader The Meadows Foundation, which has supported SMU and Dallas for more than five decades. It was in 1969 that SMU's School of the Arts was renamed Meadows School of the Arts in honor of Algor H. Meadows.

Gift Expands Dedman Law's Tsai Center for Law, Science and Innovation

The Tsai Center for Law, Science and Innovation, launched in 2015 in Dedman Law, received an additional $2 million gift to expand its profile as a leader in multidisciplinary research and scholarly debate surrounding new technologies. The academic center brings together experts from the legal, scientific and business communities to explore the complex challenges presented by the evolving innovation ecosystem. Current research projects supported by the Tsai Center include studies of fingerprint technology and tax implications of artificial intelligence, as well as a digital tool for keeping track of litigation involving government watch lists.

The Tsai Center also has funded new courses, including one in which law students create web-based legal apps for Texas legal-aid organizations.

$1.5 Million NSF Grant Helps Fund Minecraft

SMU's Lyle School, Guildhall and the Simmons School of Education and Human Development will use a $1,521,615 grant from the National Science Foundation to research teaching computer science and computational thinking through the popular video game Minecraft. Research will span the fields of game design, human-computer interaction, machine learning, curriculum design and education assessment by integrating STEM+C (computing) curriculum directly into Minecraft. The game and infrastructure produced through the research will serve as a vital computing resource for middle and high school educators. The grant was awarded to Corey Clark, deputy director of research at SMU Guildhall and an assistant professor of Computer Science at Lyle School; Eric Larson, associate professor in Computer Science at Lyle School; and Leanne Ketterlin Geller, professor and Texas Instrument Endowed Chair in Education at Simmons School.

Professor Brings People Together for Conversations on Tough Topics

Jill DeTemple, associate professor of religious studies in Dedman College, has developed a discussion tool – reflective structured dialogue – that she is using in her own classrooms and sharing with professors at SMU and nationwide. The idea is to take topics that drive people apart – gun rights, abortion, the death penalty, the existence of God – and reframe the conversation around personal experiences. At its core is curiosity about another person’s life and values.

SMU Scientists Identify New Texas Dinosaur

SMU postdoctoral fellow Kate Andrzejewski, along with University paleontologists Dale Winkler and Louis Jacobs, have identified Convolosaurus marri from fossils collected at Proctor Lake, southwest of Fort Worth. Remnants of several dinosaurs were first found at the Comanche County lake site in 1985, and most of the fossils had been stored for years in the Shuler Museum of Paleontology at SMU. But it wasn’t until Andrzejewski, Winkler and Jacobs examined the fossils more recently that the new dinosaur was identified. Convolosaurus marri is on view at the Perot Museum of Nature and Science in the T. Boone Pickens Life Then and Now Hall as “Proctor Lake Ornithopod.” The newly identified dinosaur was named in honor of Ray H. Marr ’51, an SMU alumnus who is president of Marr Oil & Gas LTD and a strong supporter of SMU students.

SMU Study Finds Possible New Way to Treat Virus “Cousin” of HIV

A study led by SMU suggests that oleandrin – a drug derived from the Nerium oleander plant – could prevent the HTLV-1 virus from spreading by targeting a stage of the reproduction process that is not currently targeted by existing drugs. That is significant because there is currently no cure or treatment for the virus – a lesser-known “cousin” of HIV that affects an estimated 10 to 15 million people worldwide. “Our research findings suggest that oleandrin could possibly limit the transmission and spread of HTLV-1 by targeting a unique stage in the retroviral life cycle,” said Robert Harrod, associate professor and director of graduate studies in SMU’s Department of Biological Sciences. Harrod is a co-author of the study, published in the Journal of Antivirals & Antiretrovirals.

DART Station Renamed SMU/Mockingbird Station

Dallas Area Rapid Transit’s (DART) Mockingbird Station was renamed SMU/Mockingbird Station after the DART Board approved a naming-rights agreement with SMU, making it easier for visitors to find the campus and cementing the rail station’s role as a gateway to the University. Opened in 1997, Mockingbird Station quickly became an important transportation resource for SMU students, faculty, staff and visitors. The Mustang Express shuttle service connects the DART station to the University campus a short distance away.

We are excited about the impact our University and its programs continue to have on the world around us, and we are grateful to continue our work through the Perkins School of Theology in the education and training of all branches of the Wesleyan Tradition. We request your continued prayers and support.

Warm regards,

R. Gerald Turner, President

SAINT PAUL SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Saint Paul School of Theology, a seminary of the United Methodist Church, is committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry. We are one institution with campuses in Kansas and Oklahoma. During the 2019-2020 academic year, the seminary enrollment in master and doctoral degree programs increased by 11%.

Saint Paul School of Theology began the 2019-2020 academic year with the addition of Dr. Casey Sigmon in her new role as Assistant Professor of Preaching and Worship, and Director of Contextual Education. Dr. Sigmon has also made innovative changes to the weekly worship service as Chapel Coordinator. Saint Paul also welcomed Dr. Anne Walker as the new Executive Director of the Oklahoma Campus.

With the addition of Dr. Walker to Saint Paul came a new webinar offering titled, “Explore Calling: A Guide to Helping Others Answer the Call.” Offered complimentary, the webinar provides a resource for anyone looking to nurture a culture of call in their congregation; including meeting one-on-one with congregations looking to reach out to their community. Dr. Walker also launched the Vision OK Advisory Committee to serve the purpose of gaining support for and assisting in the development of the Oklahoma Campus. Similarly new this year, Dr. Melissa Pearce along with Dr. Walker hosted Listening Sessions to learn more about the challenges pastoral leaders face and dream together about how theological education might meet the changing demands of their ministry.

This March, Saint Paul marked its 60th anniversary with a celebration featuring keynote speaker Past President Dr. Lovett H. Weems, Jr. honoring 60+ years of theological education. Students, alumni, faculty, and the entire Saint Paul community came together for dinner, reminiscing and looking towards the future. During the celebration, Rev. Dr. Lois V. Glory-Neal was recognized as the 2020 Distinguished Graduate Award winner. In 1989, Rev. Dr. Glory-Neal of the Oklahoma Indian Missionary Conference became the first Native American woman to be ordained elder. She became the first Native American district superintendent in 1992. Saint Paul also presented Ms. Sally Firestone with the Board Lifetime Achievement award for her years of service.

Saint Paul’s staff and faculty continue to contribute to the academy, church, and society. Dr. Anne Walker worked along with co-writer Dori Grinenko Baker on Tru Colors, a guide for assisting young adults in exploring ministry as a career. Tru Colors, from Discipleship Ministry, was published in March 2020. Dr. Casey Sigmon wrote the sermon “The Fruit of Self-Control” in the published book, Preaching to Teach: Inspire People to Think and Act. Additionally, as part of the 2019 Lectionary Commentaries on the website workingpreacher.org, Dr. Sigmon and Dr. Israel Kamudzandu contributed commentaries. In September 2019, Saint Paul Board of Trustees added four new members to their ranks: alumna Rev. Jennifer Ahrens-Sims of St. Stephen's UMC, Mrs. Dana Aldridge of SS&C Technologies, Mrs. Linda Shipman with Dairy Farmers of America Inc., and alumnus Rev. David Wiggs with Boston Avenue UMC. In addition, earlier in the year faculty emeritus Rev. Dr. Tex Sample became Board Chair. Saint Paul is financially sound and is operating with a balanced budget. The changes made throughout the past few years have established a solid financial foundation for years of sustainability. With the Board's assistance, the seminary continues to focus on its mission and works to continuously enhance and evaluate the strategic plans in place to guide us into the future.

Saint Paul held several events and forums this year beginning with hosting an Overland Park Chamber of Commerce Wednesday Wake-up where Overland Park business members and community leaders started their day on the Kansas Campus with coffee, networking, and learning more about the seminary's mission. In November, Saint Paul was the host location for the Metro Organization for Racial and Economic Equity (MORE²) Faith and Democracy Prayer Breakfast. MORE² and Church of the Resurrection are partnering with Saint Paul in the recently launched Doctor of Ministry focus, "Spiritual Leadership in Unsettled Times." Throughout the year, students on both campuses participated in educational forums with discussions on a myriad of topics such as, "Sustaining Pastoral Leadership Through Personal Wellness", "Transgender Day of Remembrance", and "The Enneagram and Your Spiritual Growth." Saint Paul was blessed to have many alumni return to lead worship in the weekly chapel services. Rev. Shannon Hancock, alumna and Director of Admissions, brought the message on the Kansas Campus during the MLK Jr Worship Celebration while alumnus Rev. Bryan Lampkins preached on the Oklahoma Campus. This past January, Saint Paul was proud to host the United Methodist Theological Field Educators Meeting on the Kansas Campus. This year's theme was "Vicissitude: Navigating Call and Mission as Contextual Educators in 2020. In April, the Evangelical Society hosted a lecture featuring Dr. Kimberly Alexander, author of Pentecostal Healing: Models of Theology and Practice and co-author of Women in Leadership: A Pentecostal Perspective and What Women Want: Pentecostal Women Ministers Speak for Themselves.

Honoring Saint Paul's longstanding commitment to praxis learning and ministry, part of the 2019-2020 curriculum included practicums which are workshop-style seminars that teach ministry skills. For Spring 2020 FOCUS Week, Alumnus Rev. Dr. Emanuel Cleaver III, Senior Pastor of St. James UMC, taught the course Urban Church in the 21st century which explores the Urban Church and its context in relation to ministerial practices and theological understandings.

For the 2019-2020 fiscal year, Saint Paul Course of Study (COS) School educated 265 individual students with a total registration of 650 classes; offering a total of 53 courses located in Leawood, KS; Hays, KS; Oklahoma City, OK; Columbia, MO; and Springfield, MO. Saint Paul is in the second year of offering a hybrid (online and on-campus) schedule for six courses during the Winter term. Plans to increase the number of hybrid course offerings are in development. Saint Paul launched a part-time, accelerated pilot COS satellite program (PML) in Columbia, MO in 2018 and added a second track in 2019. Comprised of nine courses in practical theology, this COS option is designed specifically for part-time local pastors or certified lay ministers entering ministry following completion of the Missouri Conference Licensing School. The PML satellite program is a collaborative program of Saint Paul Course of Study Regional School with the Missouri Conference. Since September 2018, COS has offered six courses and enrolled 30 individual students in the PML satellite program.

Saint Paul School of Theology is blessed to be in ministry in the name of Jesus Christ and to help others respond to God's call. We are a seminary that offers classes and experiences to folks from many denominations and faith walks. Our work as faculty and staff is to provide excellence in theological and practical education for ALL persons called and capable to attend. Remember: "Where two or more are gathered" Christ is there with us. President Neil Blair, Saint Paul trustees, faculty, staff, alumni, and students thank you for your interest, prayers, and support.

TEXAS UNITED METHODIST COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

FOR INFORMATION ONLY

During this time of significant change in our church, the Texas United Methodist College Association continues on its more than seventy-year course of serving the scholarship needs of Methodist students who wish to attend one of our Methodist institutions of higher learning in Texas. We continue to believe that the support of our churches and conferences is essential in continuing the Wesleyan tradition of education. It is an education well suited to the challenges and changes in modern life.

The TUMCA funds granted to Southwestern University, Southern Methodist University, McMurry University, and Texas Wesleyan University are restricted to scholarships for deserving students from United Methodist congregations in Texas. During the fall of their academic year, students representing all five of the Texas United Methodist Conferences have received TUMCA scholarships this academic year (2019-2020). They join thousands of others who have been helped through the years by the support of our United Methodist family. As always, funds cannot be used for endowment or capital projects. All support goes to fund scholarships at our Texas United Methodist colleges.

TUMCA scholars, both past and present, receive both intellectual and spiritual development that prepares them to address the important issues of both church and society. We believe that those who become clergy, laity, teachers and societal leaders will help chart the course of our church.

We are both proud and humbled by our partnership that reflects the great commission and helps create disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

We thank God for the ministry we share with the Rio Texas Conference. Together, in service to future generations, we keep open the doors of learning to many students that make up our diverse church family. We appreciate this opportunity to serve.

Respectfully,

Dr. Darrell M. Loyless, President

TEXAS METHODIST FOUNDATION FOR INFORMATION ONLY

Relationships are at the center of TMF's ministry. Whether we are gathering resources through philanthropy and investments or stewarding resources through loans, grants, leadership ministry, or Holy Conversations discernment, we believe the relationships we form are transformational for all involved – and lead to purposeful change. During 2019, TMF continued to build relationships with former Heartspring constituents, United Methodist Development Fund constituents, and new clergy and lay leaders participating in our Courageous Leadership Imperative initiative. We are committed to building new partnerships, collaborations, and connections to support our goal of helping congregations unite their leadership and financial resources into a purposeful plan for living out God's unique call for them to serve their communities

Tom Stanton, TMF Senior Area Representative for the Rio Texas Conference, is the primary point of engagement between congregations (clergy and laity) and TMF. He connects Rio Texas Conference constituents to resources relevant to their unique goals for missional growth in their congregations and communities.

TMF, headquartered in Austin, serves United Methodist individuals, churches and agencies within the six annual conferences in Texas and New Mexico. We appreciate the opportunity to report some of the ways we served United Methodists last year.

Within the Rio Texas Conference:

- Loans to churches in the Rio Texas Conference totaled $52.5 million at the end of 2019.
- Churches and agencies, not including individuals, within the Rio Texas Conference had $49.8 million invested in the Methodist Loan Fund.

Throughout Texas and New Mexico:

- As of December 31, 2019, total assets under management by TMF were $672.9 million.
- Methodist Loan Fund investments ended the year at $340.1 million, and our loan portfolio at $317.7 million.
- TMF's Undesignated Endowment ended the year at $58.1 million.
- Our Leadership Ministry Endowment was $9.1 million at the close of 2019.
- Highlighting a significant year of financial support for TMF was a gift of $6 million from the Estate of Lemuel Richard Keller: $500,000 of the estate gift was directed to TMF's Leadership Ministry Endowment, a portion fully funded Launch 2.0, a joint clergy and laity learning forum in Little Rock, AR, and the balance was directed to TMF's Undesignated Endowment. Additionally, TMF received a $250,000 challenge grant to endow the John Thornburg Innovation Fund. The fund was created to help launch new ministries emerging from the hearts and minds of clergy participating in TMF's Leadership Ministry. As of 12/31/19, TMF had received $225K in gifts and pledges towards the challenge grant.
- During 2019, the TMF Grants Ministry awarded $1.4 million in support of 28 churches and not-for-profits. Of that total, an estimated $704,000 came from restricted endowments, and $725,000 from TMF operations. We awarded approximately $125,000 to churches and non-profits providing relief to those impacted by Tropical Storm Imelda, immigration and fires. The Grants Committee of the TMF Board of Directors determines distribution decisions for the discretionary funds. In 2019, grant funds were distributed as follows: 48% to outreach ministries and evangelism targeting systemic change; 37% to ministries which systemically benefit families living in poverty; 15% for scholarships.
- TMF continued its work with individuals and families to support their philanthropic goals. In 2019, TMF received $4.2 million in gifts (endowments, donor-advised funds, charitable gift annuities, and trusts) to support ministries and causes.
- TMF distributed approximately $2.4 million from 405 permanent endowments during 2019.
- During 2019, TMF's Leadership Ministry hosted 14 peer-learning groups and a large innovation gathering, involving nearly 300 clergy and lay leaders from across Texas and New Mexico as well as drawing from the other conferences of the South Central Jurisdiction and beyond. TMF remains deeply committed to creating space for leaders to discover, explore, question and learn with peers so that they might expand their capacity to lead in this time of deep change. Among those groups were two new cohorts launched through the Courageous Leadership Imperative (CLI). CLI seeks to gather courageous leaders from throughout the SCJ for the sake of networking these courageous leaders, strengthening their leadership, and building on their capacity for courage, resilience, adaptive leadership, learning agility and innovation. CLI also hosted Launch 2.0 in Little Rock which offered teams of leaders, lay and clergy, the space and tools to take an idea from the brainstorm stage to an actual prototype which had form and plans for initial steps to implementation.
- Throughout this year of change in the denomination, the TMF Area Representative team maintained focus on their central purpose: empowering congregations to claim and live into their distinctive, God-appointed missions. The eight representatives traveled Texas and New Mexico, making over 2500 visits. The team does the work of both improvement and innovation. The improvement work includes financial best practices, developing year-round stewardship plans, and end-of-life generosity planning. The innovation work centers on the question, "God, what difference are you calling us to make in the coming season of the church's life?" They explore that question with clergy and lay leaders, both in informal conversation, and in contracted services called Holy Conversations (6-9 months with a team of 7-9) and Holy Excavations (one-day workshop with 20-25 people).

TMF has submitted the following candidates for election and re-election to the TMF Board of Directors from the Rio Texas Conference:

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Finance Table (CF&A)
Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church
San Antonio, Texas

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church (the Conference), a non-profit organization, which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the related statements of activities (with comparative totals for 2018), functional expenses (with comparative totals for 2018), and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

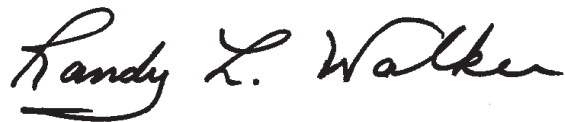

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other MattersOther Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards on page 21, as required by Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated May 20, 2020, on pages 23-24 on our consideration of the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of their compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

The Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church (the Conference) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization associated with the General Council on Finance and Administration of the United Methodist Church. The mission of the Conference is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The Conference is empowered by the Holy Spirit to reach out, in the name of God, to the people of South Texas in the name of Jesus Christ. The Conference is committed to providing vital missions, vital congregations, and strong leaders to connect their churches to the people within their area. The Conference's mission field spans South Texas, with churches in large cities and small towns from Austin to McAllen, from San Angelo to Victoria, in vibrant cities, historic small towns and struggling communities.

All assets of the Conference reported in the accompanying financial statements are held in trust by the United Methodist Rio Texas Conference Board of Trustees (the Board) incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas effective January 1, 2015.

The Conference is affiliated with The United Methodist Rio Texas Conference Board of Pensions, The United Methodist Church Rio Texas Conference Las Misiones District, and United Methodist Mission Board of Metropolitan San Antonio. Each of these organizations are separately incorporated with their own governing boards but share office space, office-related expenses, and accounting functions.

BASIS OF ACCOUNTING

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis. The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader. To ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is a procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified into each fund. Each fund is established by a separate trust as designated by the donors.

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The Conference is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets:

- Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets available for use in the general operations and not subject to donor restrictions. Grants and contributions gifted for recurring programs of the Conference generally are not considered “restricted” under GAAP, though for internal reporting the Conference tracks grants and contributions to verify the disbursements match the intent. Assets restricted solely through the actions of the Board are reported as net assets without donor restrictions, board-designated.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions that are more restrictive than the Conference’s mission and purpose. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Donor-imposed restrictions are released when a restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity.

CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows and the statements of financial position, the Conference considers all investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are recorded at cost when acquired by purchase and at fair market value when acquired by gifts. The Conference capitalizes property and equipment with a cost or fair market value over $2,500. Cost and associated reserve are written off when the asset is fully depreciated.

Automobiles - recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation computed on a straight-line basis over 3 to 5 years.

Furnishings and Equipment - recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation computed on a straight-line basis over 3 to 5 years.

Mt. Wesley Buildings - where historical cost or fair market value at the date of the gift was not available, the assets were recorded at 50% of their insured value as of December 31, 1985. These assets are being depreciated on a straight-line basis over 40 years.

Mt. Wesley land is recorded at the appraised value based on a 1985 appraisal by a firm of real estate appraisers.

CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions and other support that are restricted by the donor are recorded as an increase in net assets with donor restrictions until the restriction expires or the Conference disburses the funds in accordance with the restriction. Designated funds are internally restricted by the Conference and have no external legal restrictions.

ESTIMATES

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses.

GRANTS AND CONTRACTS

The Conference considers all grants and contracts as contributions based upon the terms of the grant. The Conference recognizes revenue and related receivables from reimbursement grants as services are rendered and eligible expenditures incurred. The Conference recognizes revenue and related receivables from non-reimbursement grants upon execution of the grant. The Conference considers all grant receivables to be fully collectible; therefore, no allowance is considered necessary.

FUNCTIONAL ALLOCATION OF EXPENSE

The costs of providing the services and other activities of the Conference have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited. These expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include payroll expenses which are allocated on the basis of estimates of time and effort, as well as utilities, rent, and repairs and maintenance which are allocated on the basis of square footage or some other reasonable basis.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In February 2016, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued a new accounting pronouncement regarding lease accounting for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2020. A lessee will be required to recognize on the statement of financial position the assets and liabilities for leases with terms of more than twelve months. Management is currently evaluating the effect this pronouncement will have on the financial statements and related disclosures.

RECENTLY ADOPTED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In 2016, the FASB issued Accounting Standard Update (ASU) 2016-01, Financial Instruments—Overall (Subtopic 825-10): Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities. This update was followed up in 2018 by ASU 2018-03, Technical Corrections and Improvements to Financial Instruments—Overall (Subtopic 825-10): Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities and ASU 2018-09, Codification Improvements. These pronouncements provide guidance regarding the reporting and disclosure requirements of investments, effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2018. The Conference adopted these new pronouncements effective January 1, 2019. The change was applied retrospectively, but there is no cumulative effect on beginning net assets as of this date.

In 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-08, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Clarifying the Scope and the Accounting Guidance for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. This pronouncement clarifies and improves the scope and the accounting guidance for contributions received and contributions made in order to assist entities in (1) evaluating whether transactions should be accounted for as contributions (nonreciprocal transactions) within the scope of Topic 958, Not-for-Profit Entities, or as exchange (reciprocal) transactions subject to other guidance and (2) determining whether a contribution is conditional. The Conference adopted this new pronouncement effective January 1, 2019. The change was applied retrospectively, but there is no cumulative effect on beginning net assets as of this date.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). This pronouncement provides guidance regarding revenue recognition effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018. The pronouncement affects contracts with customers to transfer goods or services and contracts for the transfer of non-financial assets. The core principle of this update is that an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for the goods or services. The Conference adopted this new pronouncement effective January 1, 2019. The change was applied retrospectively, but there is no cumulative effect on beginning net assets as of this date.

EXCHANGE TRANSACTIONS

The Conference records revenues from exchange transactions as increases in net assets without donor restrictions to the extent that the earnings process is complete. These transactions primarily include property sales and participation fees for programs and events, and are classified as other special causes support and service fee income in the statement of activities. These types of revenues are reported on an accrual basis in the period in which the sale occurs and fees are earned. Property sales amounts are variable depending on the value of the property. Participant fees are variable depending on the event. Performance obligations are satisfied when the sale, event, or program occurs, at which time the revenue is recognized. There are no amounts in excess of the benefit provided. Additionally, there are no receivables, contract assets, or contract liabilities related to these exchange transactions at December 31, 2019 and 2018.

INCOME TAX STATUS

The Conference qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, therefore, has no provision for federal income taxes.

NOTE 2 - ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE - APPORTIONMENTS AND OTHER GIVING

The accounts receivable for apportionments and other giving are adjusted to reflect the amounts actually received by the second week of January of the following year; therefore, an allowance for doubtful accounts is not required. The accounts receivable - apportionments and other giving balance was $739,937 and $852,519 at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

NOTE 3 - GRANTS RECEIVABLE

The Conference has several program-related and disaster recovery grants receivable at December 31, 2019 and 2018. These grants receivable are due from various organizations and will be distributed in the coming year. The Conference considers these receivables to be fully collectible. Therefore, no allowance for doubtful accounts is deemed necessary by management. The grants receivable balance was $1,185,848 and $4,461,110 at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE

NOTE 4 - ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE - OTHER, NET

Accounts receivable - other, net consist of amounts due to the Conference from churches and other entities related to insurance billings and other miscellaneous charges. An allowance for doubtful accounts has been determined based upon a review of outstanding insurance billings and totaled $118,000 and $-0- at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively. The accounts receivable - other, net balance was $50,876 and $62,512 at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

NOTE 5 - INVESTMENTS

The Conference holds investments with the TMF. These investments are measured at net asset value. There were no investment fees for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. All dividends, interest, realized and unrealized gains and losses, and other investment income are reported in the statement of activities as increases or decreases in net assets without donor restrictions, unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulations. These funds had $52,160 in gains and $23,061 in losses for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

NOTE 6 - OTHER ASSETS

The Conference has had numerous churches close or combine with other congregations in the last few years. The Conference has assumed responsibility for the churches' properties pending their sale. These churches were recorded at estimated fair market value on the date of receipt. At December 31, 2019 and 2018, the remaining churches assumed by the Conference totaled $10,390,161 and $7,786,888, respectively, and are included in other assets in the statements of financial position.

NOTE 8 - NOTE PAYABLE

In October 2016, the Conference entered into a note agreement with the Texas Methodist Foundation for the purchase of a caretaker's house for the Mt. Wesley Retreat Center. Under the loan agreement, monthly payments of $815, including accrued interest at prime plus .25%, were due and payable commencing December 7, 2016 through November 7, 2021, with the remaining principal and unpaid interest due at that time. In September 2019, the Conference sold the caretaker's house and paid off the note. The note payable was $-0- and $100,108 as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

Interest expense was $3,113 and $3,875 for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

NOTE 9 - PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment were as follows at December 31:

| | 2019 | 2018 |
|-------------------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| Building | $ 19,142 | $ 19,142 |

NOTE 10 - ACCOUNTS PAYABLE - APPORTIONMENTS AND OTHER GIVING

The accounts payable for apportionments and other giving are amounts due to various agencies for the amounts received from the churches for apportionments and other giving. The Conference acts as a pass through for these items. The accounts payable - apportionments and other giving balance was $912,797 and $958,477 at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

NOTE 11 - ACCRUED BENEFITS

The Conference entered into a settlement agreement in 2018 and made the second of three $250,000 payments as of December 31, 2019. The remaining amount will be paid in 2020. Additionally, the Conference received grants of $90,000 and $235,000 for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively, to assist in the payment of this settlement.

RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 12 - PENSION PLAN

The Conference is responsible for pensions for two classes of persons - clergy appointed to the Conference and lay employees.

The Pension Plan for clergy appointed to the Conference is administered by the United Methodist Rio Texas Conference Board of Pensions (the Board of Pensions). The Conference's contribution to the cost of that plan for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 was $137,508 and $144,933, respectively.

The Pension Plan for lay employees is funded through the purchase of annuity contracts. Employee contributions are voluntary and are made on a pre-tax basis. Employer contributions are a percentage of wages and are defined in the Master Agreement between the Conference and the Board of Pensions. The contribution for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 was $126,326 and $73,881, respectively.

The above plans are both "church plans" as that term is defined in section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code and are administered pursuant to the retirement income account provisions of section 403(b)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code.

NOTE 13 - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The requirements of Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification apply to all financial instruments and all nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities that are being measured and reported on a fair value basis. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in the principal or most advantageous market of the investment at the measurement date. The Conference has elected to report the fair value of certain net asset value instruments, those included in investments, using the practical expedient. The practical expedient allows for the use of NAV, either as reported by the investee fund based upon various factors, to be used to determine fair value, under certain conditions. The fair value of the investment is based on a combination of audited financial statements of the investees and monthly or quarterly statements received by the investee. In accordance with the guidance, the Conference has categorized its assets, based on the priority of inputs to the valuation technique, which give the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs, into a three-level fair value hierarchy. These levels are as follows:

- Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities and have the highest priority.
- Level 2 valuations are based on quoted prices in markets that are not active.
- Level 3 valuations are based on inputs that are unobservable and supported by little or no market activity.

The Conference's current assets and liabilities as presented in the statements of financial position are Level 1. The Conference has no Level 2 or Level 3 assets or liabilities. The carrying amounts reported in the statements of financial position approximate fair values because of the short maturities of those instruments.

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 14 - CONTINGENT LIABILITY FOR UNFUNDED POST-RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Prior to 1982, the Southwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church and the Rio Grande Conference of the United Methodist Church (Conference's predecessor organizations) participated in a defined benefit program for clergy appointed to the local churches of the Conference. The financial liability for that service still exists for the Conference and will for several decades. In 2019 and 2018, the Board of Pensions had assets in excess of its liabilities, and, therefore, no unrecorded liability exists for that fiscal year. The plan is fully funded according to the terms and conditions of the program, and the Board of Pensions has fully reserved an amount greater than the current actuarial obligation.

NOTE 15 - LEASES

The Conference leases copiers and other office equipment under various operating leases. The leases vary in expiration dates from July 2020 to January 2023. In addition, the Conference has a support agreement for IT services related to equipment and software. This agreement expires in December 2020. Equipment lease expenses and IT service agreement expenses amounted to $136,017 and $98,207 for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

The following is a schedule of the operating lease obligations subsequent to December 31, 2019:

| Years Ended December 31, | | |
|-----------------------------|----|----------------|
| 2020 | $ | 131,706 |
| 2021 | | 128,796 |
| 2022 | | 126,219 |
| Total | $ | 386,721 |

NOTE 16 - CONTINGENT LIABILITY ENERGY CONTRACT

In May 2017, the Conference entered into a contract to purchase a set amount of electricity at a fixed rate price from an energy company for 48 months. The Conference is contingently liable to purchase the full amount of electricity agreed to in the contract and is also contingently liable if one of the churches is unable to pay for the electricity used. It is the opinion of management that all electricity will be fully utilized and the participating churches will be able to pay their bills; therefore, no amounts have been accrued for related to this contract.

NOTE 17 - ENDOWMENT

The Conference's endowment consists of an individual fund established by the former Rio Grande Conference. The Endowment Fund (the Fund) was established to help meet the challenge to become self-sufficient in ministerial support, program, and administration; focusing on the areas of evangelism, stewardship, and leadership development. As required by GAAP, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Board to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Interpretation of Relevant Law

The Board of the Conference has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as net assets with restrictions (a) the original value of gifts donated to the endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the endowment, and (c) accumulations to the endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the Fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund is released when the time restriction has expired or when those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Conference in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA.

In accordance with UPMIFA, the Conference considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the Fund;
2. The purpose of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund;
3. General economic conditions;
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation;
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
6. Other resources of the Conference; and
7. The investment policies of the Conference.

All endowment net assets are comprised of donor funds without restrictions. Total donor endowment funds without restrictions were $179,760 and $177,204 at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

Changes in endowment net assets were as follows for the years ended December 31:

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters

The Board has adopted investment and spending policies for the Endowment Fund assets that attempt to fulfill the purpose of the Fund and also protect the principal of the Fund.

The objectives of the Fund's investment policy are:

1. To conserve principal for the effective maintenance of purchasing power.
2. To provide regular income at a reasonable rate.
3. To expand income and principal over and above that necessary to offset rises in the cost of living.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through current yield (interest and dividends). The Fund is designed to offer a portfolio balanced through a diversified group of quality securities.

NOTE 18 - LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY OF FINANCIAL RESOURCES

The following reflects the Conference's financial assets as of the statement of financial position date, reduced by amounts not available for general use because of contractual or donor-imposed restrictions or internal designations that are amounts set aside for operating and other reserves that could be drawn upon if the Conference Committees/Tables approve that action.

The Conference has multiple sources of cash flows during the year from church remittances, insurance program income, other special causes support, and grants. These revenue sources provide the Conference with a consistent inflow of cash throughout the year to cover normal operating expenses.

NOTE 19 - CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Conference maintains cash accounts at several financial institutions. The Conference also maintains multiple cash accounts and an investment account with the Texas Methodist Foundation (the TMF). The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC) insures the balances in the cash accounts up to $250,000. The funds at the TMF are not insured by the FDIC or the Securities Investor Protection Corporation. At December 2019 and 2018, the Conference had uninsured cash balances of $12,170,632 and $13,572,417, respectively, without consideration for reconciling items. At December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Conference had uninsured investment balances of $304,250 and $252,090, respectively, without consideration for reconciling items.

NOTE 20 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Since March 2020, the COVID-19 outbreak in the United States has caused business disruption through mandated closings of churches within the Rio Texas Conference region. While the disruption is currently expected to be temporary, there is considerable uncertainty around the duration of the closings. Therefore, the Conference expects this matter to negatively impact its operating results for the year ended December 31, 2020. However, the related financial impact and duration cannot be reasonably estimated at this time.

On April 17, 2020, the Conference was granted a loan from Frost Bank in the aggregate amount of $432,100 pursuant to the Paycheck Protection Program loan (the PPP) under Division A, Title 1 of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Securities Act (the CARES Act), which was enacted March 27, 2020. Funds from the PPP may only be used for payroll costs, costs used to continue group health care benefits, mortgage payments, rent, utilities, and interest on other debt obligations incurred before February 15, 2020. The Conference intends to use the entire PPP amount for qualifying expenses. Under the terms of the PPP, certain amounts of the loan may be forgiven if they are used for qualifying expenses as described in the CARES Act.

The Conference evaluates subsequent events in accordance with ASC Topic No. 855, "Subsequent Events" (formally SFAS No. 165). The guidance requires an entity to disclose the date through which subsequent events have been evaluated, as well as whether that date is the date the financial statements were issued or the date the financial statements were available to be issued. In preparing these financial statements, the Conference has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through May 20, 2020, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTES TO SCHEDULE OF EXPENDITURES OF FEDERAL AWARDS

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards includes the federal grant activity of Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church (the Conference) and is presented on the accrual basis of accounting. The information in this schedule is presented in accordance with the requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. Because the schedule presents only a selected portion of the operations of the Conference, it is not intended to and does not present the financial position, changes in net assets, or cash flows of the Conference.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Expenditures reflected on the schedule are reported on the accrual basis of accounting. Such expenditures are recognized following the cost principles contained in the Uniform Guidance, Cost Principles for Non-Profit Organizations, wherein certain types of expenditures are not allowable or are limited as to reimbursement.

NOTE 3 - OTHER DISCLOSURES

No insurance is carried specifically to cover equipment purchased with federal funds. Any equipment purchased with federal funds is covered by the Conference's casualty insurance policies.

There were no loans or loan guarantees outstanding at year-end.

The Conference has elected not to use the 10 percent de minimis indirect cost rate.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

Finance Table (CF&A)
San Antonio, Texas

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church (the Conference), a nonprofit organization, which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2019, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated May 20, 2020.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Conference’s internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Conference’s internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Conference’s internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity’s financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Conference's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Conference's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.

Report on Compliance for Each Major Federal Program

We have audited the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the OMB Compliance Supplement that could have a direct and material effect on Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's major federal program for the year ended December 31, 2019. The Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's major federal program is identified in the summary of auditor's results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs.

Management's Responsibility

Management is responsible for compliance with the requirements of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants applicable to its federal program.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on compliance for the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's major federal program based on our audit of the types of compliance requirements referred to above. We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and the audit requirements of Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). Those standards and the Uniform Guidance require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion on compliance for the major federal program. However, our audit does not provide a legal determination of the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's compliance.

Uniform Guidance Compliance Report, Page 2

Opinion on Each Major Federal Program

In our opinion, the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on its major federal program for the year ended December 31, 2019.

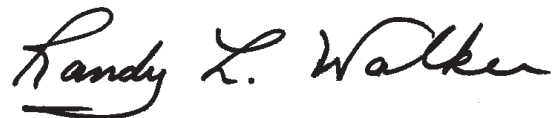

Report on Internal Control Over Compliance

Management of the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control over compliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above. In planning and performing our audit of compliance, we considered the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's internal control over compliance with the types of requirements that could have a direct and material effect on the major federal program to determine the auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing an opinion on compliance for the major federal program and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with the Uniform Guidance, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Rio Texas Conference United Methodist Church's internal control over compliance.

A deficiency in internal control over compliance exists when the design or operation of a control over compliance does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program on a timely basis. A material weakness in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance, such that there is a reasonable possibility that material noncompliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency in internal control over compliance is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over compliance with a type of compliance requirement of a federal program that is less severe than a material weakness in internal control over compliance, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control over compliance was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control over compliance that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that we consider to be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that have not been identified.

The purpose of this report on internal control over compliance is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over compliance and the results of that testing based on the requirements of the Uniform Guidance. Accordingly, this report is not suitable for any other purpose.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors
United Methodist Rio Texas Conference
San Antonio, Texas

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the United Methodist Rio Texas Conference Board of Pensions, a non-profit organization, which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the related statements of activities (with comparative totals for 2018), functional expenses (with comparative totals for 2018), and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the United Methodist Rio Texas Conference Board of Pensions as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

BOARD OF PENSIONS
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSE

The United Methodist Rio Texas Conference Board of Pensions (the Board) is a Texas 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation. The Board began operations as the United Methodist Rio Texas Conference Board of Pensions on January 1, 2015, resulting from unification of the Board of Pensions of the Southwest Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and the Rio Grande Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The Board's purpose is to determine and report to the Annual Conference the names of retired ministers and the widows and children of the deceased ministers of the Rio Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church (the Conference) who are entitled to annuities, pensions, or special relief; to set, subject to the approval of the Annual Conference, the appropriation necessary to be made to meet such charges; and to perform such other acts and discharge such other duties as may be prescribed by the Discipline of the United Methodist Church.

The Board is not involved in the actual administration of the pension program which is the responsibility of Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath). The Board is responsible for collecting and remitting the pension funds to Wespath. The Board also administers other funds that have been contributed to provide income that is to be used for funding pension and health insurance benefits. The Board can direct Wespath as to which type of investment account it wants the funds invested in, but Wespath selects the individual investments to be made from each investment account. The Board has the authority to select investments outside of Wespath. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, approximately 98% and 97%, respectively, of all the Board's investment assets were placed with Wespath. Wespath maintains all members' accounts related to balances and vesting.

BASIS OF ACCOUNTING

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis. The significant accounting policies followed are described below to enhance the usefulness of the financial statements to the reader. To ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Board, the accounts of the Board are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into each fund; each fund being established by separate trusts as designated by the donors.

CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows and the statements of financial position, the Board considers all investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INVESTMENTS

Investments are carried at market, and realized and unrealized gains and losses are reflected in the statement of activities. Investments acquired by gift are valued at amounts representing estimated fair market value at the date of the gift. No investment fees were incurred for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

BOARD OF PENSIONS
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are recorded at cost when acquired by purchase and at fair market value when acquired by gifts. The Board capitalizes property and equipment with a cost or fair market value over $2,500. Cost and associated reserve are written off when the asset is fully depreciated.

Operating assets consist of furniture and equipment, stated at cost less allowances for depreciation. Provisions for depreciation of these fixed assets are computed on the straight-line method over five years.

The retirees house was donated to the Board in 2015 and held by the Conference until its transfer to the Board in 2017. The house is to be used by a retired minister per the donor's stipulation. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method over fifteen years.

CONTRIBUTIONS

The Board reports gifts of cash and other assets as donor restricted support if they are received with donor restrictions as to period of availability or use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is fulfilled, donor restricted net assets are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restriction.

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The Board is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets:

- Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets available for use in the general operations and not subject to donor restrictions. Grants and contributions gifted for recurring programs of the Board generally are not considered “restricted” under GAAP, though for internal reporting the Board tracks grants and contributions to verify the disbursements match the intent. Assets restricted solely through the actions of the Board are reported as net assets without donor restrictions, designated.
- Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions that are more restrictive than the Board's mission and purpose. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Donor-imposed restrictions are released when a restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity.

ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Board administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

FUNCTIONAL ALLOCATION OF EXPENSE

The costs of providing the services and other activities of the Board have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited. These expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. The expenses that are allocated include staff expenses which are allocated on the basis of estimates of time and effort, as well as office expenses, maintenance expenses, and travel and meeting expenses which are allocated on the basis of square footage or some other reasonable basis.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued a new accounting pronouncement regarding revenue recognition, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (ASC 606), effective for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2019. Management is currently evaluating the effect this new standard will have on its financial position, results of operations and related disclosures.

In February 2016, the FASB issued a new accounting pronouncement regarding lease accounting for reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2021. A lessee will be required to recognize on the statement of financial position the assets and liabilities for leases with terms of more than twelve months. Management is currently evaluating the effect this pronouncement will have on the financial statements and related disclosures.

RECENTLY ADOPTED ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In 2016, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2016-01, Financial Instruments—Overall (Subtopic 825-10): Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities. This update was followed up in 2018 by ASU 2018-03, Technical Corrections and Improvements to Financial Instruments—Overall (Subtopic 825-10): Recognition and Measurement of Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities and ASU 2018-09, Codification Improvements. These pronouncements provide guidance regarding the reporting and disclosure requirements of investments, effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2018. The Board adopted these new pronouncements effective January 1, 2019. The change was applied retrospectively, but there is no cumulative effect on beginning net assets as of this date.

In 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-08, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Clarifying the Scope and the Accounting Guidance for Contributions Received and Contributions Made, effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2018. This pronouncement clarifies and improves the scope and the accounting guidance for contributions received and contributions made in order to assist entities in (1) evaluating whether transactions should be accounted for as contributions (nonreciprocal transactions) within the scope of Topic 958, Not-for-Profit Entities, or as exchange (reciprocal) transactions subject to other guidance and (2) determining whether a contribution is conditional. The Board adopted this new pronouncement effective January 1, 2019. The change was applied retrospectively, but there is no cumulative effect on beginning net assets as of this date.

INCOME TAX STATUS

The Board qualifies as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, therefore, has no provision for federal income taxes. The Board's management believes it has no material uncertain tax positions, and, accordingly, it will not recognize any liabilities.

NOTE 3 - DESCRIPTION OF PLANS

The following description of the Board's health insurance and pension plans provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreements for a complete description of provisions. The Pension Plan is a separate entity maintained by Wespath, and the results of its financial activities are reported on by other auditors.

The Board administers the following plans provided by the Conference:

- Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) - effective January 1, 2007, and restated as of January 1, 2017, reflecting revisions approved at General Conference 2016, the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) was converted over to the CRSP plan. The plan is funded by a 3% contribution to the CRSP Defined Contribution Plan (DC) made by the Board. In addition to the 3% contribution, the Board will also fund the CRSP Defined Benefit Plan (DB). The DB contribution will equal the amount it takes to fund the employees' retirement benefit. The CRSP payment made based upon actuarial cost for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 was $1,642,443 and $1,635,344, respectively.
- Defined Contribution Pension Plan - Post 1982 service, fully funded each year by deposits from employer (church) and employee to Wespath. Retirement benefits are dependent on the balance in the individual's account on date of retirement.
- Defined Benefit Pension Plan - Prior to 1982, the Conference participated in a defined benefit program for clergy appointed to the local churches of the Conference. The financial liability for that service still exists for the Conference and will for several decades. The cost of providing the defined benefits earned prior to 1982 is viewed by the Conference as an annual expense and is funded each year by the local churches through the Board.
- Health Insurance Plan - Clergy and lay employees are eligible to participate in this plan if they are regular, full-time employees of the Conference or one of the local churches of the Conference. All full-time employees must be regularly scheduled to work a minimum of 30 hours per week. Also, eligible to participate in this plan are full, probationary, associate members, and full-time local pastors.

For the year ended December 31, 2013, the retired pastors were covered under the Health Insurance Plan described above by the Board's predecessor organization, the Board of Pensions of the Southwest Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. This coverage was discontinued effective March 31, 2014, and the retired pastors previously in the Conference's Health Insurance Plan were transitioned to one of the health benefit plans offered by a third party, Towers Watson (Note 9).

UNITED METHODIST RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE
BOARD OF PENSIONS
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 3 - DESCRIPTION OF PLANS (continued)

The pension plans are considered church plans as defined in section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code and are administered pursuant to the retirement income account provisions of section 403(b)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code.

NOTE 4 - CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Board maintains cash and investment accounts at various financial institutions and investment companies. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC) insures the balances in the cash accounts up to $250,000, while the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (the SIPC) insures the balances in investment accounts up to $500,000. The Board also has investment accounts that are not insured by the FDIC or the SIPC. At December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Board's uninsured cash balances totaled $949,847 and $913,026, respectively, without regard to reconciling items. At December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Board's uninsured investment balances totaled $14,750,682 and $11,790,471, respectively.

NOTE 5 - INVESTMENTS

At December 31, 2019 and 2018, investments consisted primarily of units in Wespath Investment Management, which are pooled investment accounts. Dividends and gains (losses) are allocated to the Board based on its interest in the unitized value of its investments on a monthly basis.

The fair value of investments held at December 31 is summarized as follows:

| | 2019 | 2018 |
|----------------------------------|----------------------|----------------------|
| Wespath Investments | $ 14,432,837 | $ 11,472,626 |
| Texas Methodist Foundation Funds | 317,845 | 317,845 |
| Other Investments | 1,146 | 1,146 |
| Total | $ 14,751,828 | $ 11,791,617 |

The funds had gains of $2,443,481 and losses of $724,430 for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively. Dividends and interest earned and reinvested in these funds were $22,410 and $14,183 for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

NOTE 6 - ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Accounts receivable consists primarily of amounts due from churches and individuals for pension and health insurance billings. The Board considers all of these receivables to be fully collectible; therefore, an allowance for doubtful accounts is not required. Accounts receivable was $101,872 and $127,352 at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

UNITED METHODIST RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE
BOARD OF PENSIONS
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 7 - PRE-82 PENSION ASSET

The Pension Plan with Wespath was changed effective January 1, 1982. The Plan has separate pension assets available of $2,817,412 and $1,747,590 as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively, which is adequate to fully fund the past service liability. The actuary has projected that the past service liability is fully funded with a surplus of $2,374,048 and $531,578 at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively. There were no past service funding deposits for the years ending December 31, 2019 and 2018. The fair value of the plan assets was $2,405,077 and $3,033,390 at December 31, 2019 and 2018, respectively.

NOTE 8 - PRE-82 POST-RETIREMENT PENSION BENEFITS

The post-retirement benefit obligation represents the actuarial present value of those estimated future benefits that are attributed to employee service rendered prior to January 1, 1982. Post-retirement benefits include future benefits expected to be paid to or for 1) currently retired employees and their spouse and 2) active employees and their spouse after retirement from service.

The actuarial present value of the expected post-retirement benefit obligation is determined by an actuary of Wespath and is the amount that results from applying actuarial assumptions to historical data to estimate the present value of future annual incurred benefits. The significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations were:

- a) Mortality will occur in accordance with RP-2014 White Collar Mortality Table with generational projection using Scale MP-2014 for calculating impact on pension plans due to increased longevity.
- b) Contributions for increases in Past Service Rate or Contingent Annuitant % benefit increases are required to be made in advance of the increase's effective date.
- c) The actuarial reserve and accumulations before retirement will be credited with interest at the rate of 6.625%.
- d) Surviving spouses receive 70% of the ministerial pension rate.
- e) Retirement has been assumed to occur at the age of 65 or in one year, if age 65 or older.

The valuations included assume average rates of return of 6.625% in 2019 and 2018 for the pension plan and expected benefit increases of 2.00% for 2019 and 2018. The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption the plan will continue. Were the plan to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits.

The Pre-82 Funding Plan is under review by the Actuarial Department at Wespath.

NOTE 9 - POST-RETIREMENT HEALTH BENEFITS

The post-retirement health benefit plan of the United Methodist Rio Texas Conference Board of Pensions is a closed plan. Participants in the plan are limited to those who were participating in the post-retirement health benefit plans of the Southwest Texas Conference and the Rio Grande Conference. No new participants can be added. The annual benefit amount is fixed at the dollar value of the annualized benefit paid during December 2014.

UNITED METHODIST RIO TEXAS CONFERENCE
BOARD OF PENSIONS
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

This benefit is only available with participation in one of the health benefit plans offered by a third party, Towers Watson. The benefit is provided in the form of funding a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA). Upon the death of the participant, the termination of the plan, or the decision of the participant to no longer continue to participate in the plan, the benefit ends. The health reimbursement benefit amount is fixed and will not increase regardless of the cost of the health benefit plan. This plan is funded by apportionments collected by the Board; as such, the plan participants do not make contributions to this plan.

The actuarial present value of the expected post-retirement benefit obligation at December 31, 2019 and 2018 was $641,093 and $722,548, respectively, and is the amount that results from applying actuarial assumptions to a census of participants on December 31, 2014.

The expected future benefit payments related to these benefits are as follows:

| Years Ended December 31, | | |
|-----------------------------|----|-----------------------|
| 2020 | $ | 75,719 |
| 2021 | | 70,125 |
| 2022 | | 64,701 |
| 2023 | | 59,467 |
| Thereafter | | 371,081 |
| Total | $ | 641,093 |

NOTE 10 - PENSION PARTICIPANT CONTRIBUTIONS AND PAYMENTS

The Board is the plan sponsor for several qualified benefit plans of Wespath. These plans are the Clergy Retirement Security Program – Defined Contribution (CRSP-DC), Clergy Retirement Security Program – Defined Benefit (CRSP-DB), Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP), and United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP). NOTE 15 - FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Board adopted the provisions of ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures" (formerly SFAS 157). ASC 820 defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market, and establishes a framework for measuring fair value in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Board has elected to report the fair value of certain net asset value (NAV) instruments, primarily those included in investments and mutual funds, using the practical expedient. The practical expedient allows for the use of NAV, either as reported by the investee fund or as adjusted by the Board based on various factors, to be used to determine fair value, under certain conditions. The fair value of the investment is based on a combination of audited financial statements of the investees and monthly or quarterly statements received from the investees. In accordance with the guidance, the Board has categorized its investments based upon the priority of inputs to the valuation technique, which gives the highest priority to quoted prices in active markets and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs, into a three-level fair value hierarchy.

NOTE 16 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Board is located in the building owned by the Conference. The accounting department of the Conference performs some of the accounting functions of the Board; therefore, certain expense allocations have been made for office-related expenses incurred in the normal course of business operations. For the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, these expenses totaled $38,000 and $43,302, respectively.

NOTE 17 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Since March 2020, the COVID-19 outbreak in the United States has caused business disruption through mandated closings of organizations within the state of Texas. While the disruption is currently expected to be temporary, there is considerable uncertainty around the duration of the closings. Therefore, the Board expects this matter to negatively impact its operating results for the year ended December 31, 2020. However, the related financial impact and duration cannot be reasonably estimated at this time.

The guidance requires an entity to disclose the date through which subsequent events have been evaluated, as well as whether that date is the date the financial statements were issued or the date the financial statements were available to be issued. In preparing these financial statements, the Board has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through August 11, 2020, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. The Board has determined there are no additional subsequent events requiring disclosure.

INFORME COMITÉ DE REGLAS PERMANENTES

INFORME I INFORME DEL PRESIDENTE UNICAMENTE PARA INFORMACIÓN

Este año se proponen dos cambios a las Reglas Permanentes.

El primer cambio implica la eliminación de todas referencias al Equipo de Administración, y en su lugar tener un representante de cada una de las agencias administrativas enumerada en la Regla #6 para ser miembro de la Mesa Unida. Justificación: Este cambio permite que la Mesa Unida sea el organismo coordinador para el diálogo entre las agencias administrativas, los equipos de visión y la misión de la conferencia anual. El Equipo de Administración no tiene ninguna función que no se pueda realizar dentro de la estructura de la Mesa Unida.

El segundo cambio involucra más simplificación de la sección del Personal y Recursos Conferencia eliminando de la Regla #15, renumerando las Reglas #16 y #17, y agregando la Regla #17. Justificación: Esto permite la flexibilidad necesaria para desarrollar un ministerio creativo en un ambiente cambiante, y elimina la necesidad de un cambio en las Reglas Permanentes cada vez que cambian las posiciones de liderazgo de la conferencia para apoyar nuestra misión. Gracias por la oportunidad de servir a ustedes.

INFORME V
PARA INFORMACIÓN SOLAMENTE

El propósito de la Mesa de Finanzas (CF&A) es "desarrollar, mantener y administrar un plan integral y coordinado de servicios de políticas, procedimientos y gestión fiscales y administrativas para la Conferencia Anual" (¶1611.1 El Libro de Disciplina 2016).

De acuerdo con el propósito disciplinario, la Mesa de Finanzas (CF&A) se ve propiamente como una parte integral de la misión y el ministerio de la Conferencia. Estamos trabajando para mejorar las comunicaciones con las otras agencias de la Conferencia para asegurarnos de que nuestro trabajo respalde los ministerios y las metas de La Mesa Unida y el Mission Field Ministry office.

Los recibos de todos los fondos para el año 2019 por la Conferencia Río Texas fueron de $9,267,260.99 o 88.90% de la cantidad asignada. La Mesa de Finanzas propone el presupuesto para 2021. El presupuesto total asignado para todos los fondos asciende a $8,439,072.

La Mesa de Finanzas (CF&A) se considera ser socio de la iglesia local en el trabajo del ministerio financiero de la Conferencia Anual. Alagamos el presupuesto de 2021 a la Conferencia. Representa la originalidad y la profundidad de los ministerios y misiones de nuestra iglesia y realidades económicas de nuestra Conferencia. La Mesa de Finanzas (CF&A), junto con el Tesorero de la Conferencia, ha estado monitoreando la membresía y las tendencias económicas dentro de la Conferencia, la Iglesia Global y la sociedad en general. Creemos que la salud y la vitalidad futuras de nuestro ministerio requerirán que las cantidades asignadas a las iglesias locales se reduzcan significativamente en los próximos años. A medida que las metas y la dirección de la Conferencia se vuelvan más claras, trabajaremos con el Obispo, la Mesa Unida y el Mission Field Ministry office para garantizar que el presupuesto y las asignaciones reflejen con precisión esos objetivos y apoyen a esos ministerios. Al mismo tiempo, continuaremos trabajando con nuestro Tesorero de la Conferencia, el Comité de Personal y otros líderes de la Conferencia para mejorar las comunicaciones, los sistemas y la eficiencia.

Políticas de funcionamiento de la Mesa de Finanzas (CF&A):

- El salario (incluida la vivienda y los servicios públicos) para los superintendentes de los distritos será recomienda a la Conferencia Anual por la Meza de Finanzas (CF&A), utilizando una fórmula directriz adoptada por el Comité de Personal de 1.85 veces la media de Compensación Conferencia (CAC). El propósito de la fórmula es de relacionar la Compensación del SD a la Compensación Clero de Tiempo Completo. Recomendamos que el cálculo del salario también se aplique a otros miembros del clero nombrados al personal de la conferencia a nivel de Gabinete. Para el año 2021, el gabinete a solicitado que esta formula se ponga a un lado dejando sus salarios congelados a la taza mas baja del 2020.

La fórmula decimal se basa en el promedio de dos años los gastos de operación de la iglesia local dividido por dos años a nivel gastos de la iglesia local a lo largo de la conferencia por cada fondo prorrateado. Los gastos de eoperación incluyen sólo estos elementos de línea del informe de la Iglesia Local a la Conferencia Anual:

- Línea 41 – Compensación de Pastor(es)
- Línea 42 – Servicios Públicos y Casa(s) Pastoral(es)
- Línea 43 – Reembolso de cuentas pagadas al(os) Pastor(es)
- Línea 44 – Subvenciones en efectivo no contables pagados al(os) Pastor(es)
- Línea 45 – Salario del Personal y de los Ministros Diáconos
- Línea 46 – Gastos de Programas
- Línea 47 – Gastos Corrientes de Funcionamiento aparte de Gastos de Programas

|--|
| $\frac{\text{2 Años de Gastos Operativos de la Iglesia Local}}{\text{2 Años de Gastos Operativos- Iglesia Local a Nivel Conferencial}} \times \text{Cada Fondo de Conferencia Asignado}$ |
|--|

Si hay asignaciones de distrito por separado determinadas por cada distrito, tales serán asignadas de acuerdo a la siguiente fórmula:

|--|
|--|

a. Cada iglesia se espera apoyar todos los fondos al 100% de la cantidad asignada. (¶247.14 Libro de Disciplina 2016)

b. Las iglesias deberán someter los pagos respectivamente, con el entendimiento que el Tesorero de la Conferencia destinará dichos pagos según el porcentaje correspondiente al fondo según el presupuesto de la Conferencia.

3. Una Cuenta de Balance de Fondos sin Restricción se mantendrá por la Conferencia Anual a un nivel mínimo del 20% del total actual de los fondos de la Conferencia. Cualquier ingreso de interés no designado se transferirá al saldo del fondo no designado al final del año fiscal.

4. Todos los costos asignados a fondos, pensiones y beneficios de salud, ambos ingresos y desembolsos, se gestionarán a través de la oficina del Tesorero de la Conferencia. Todas las juntas, agencias, comités y comisiones utilizarán el Tesorero de la Conferencia como agente fiscal.

5. El salario (incluida la vivienda y los servicios públicos) para los superintendentes de los distritos será recomienda a la Conferencia Anual por la Meza de Finanzas (CF&A), utilizando una fórmula directriz adoptada por el Comité de Personal de 1.85 veces la media de Compensación Conferencia (CAC). Calcular la parte en efectivo de la siguiente manera: 2021 CAC x 1.85 = Plan de Compensación del SD. Entonces, (Plan de Compensaciones del SD - utilidades) / 1.25 = Salario Efectivo. Ejemplo: Cuando los servicios públicos son $5,000 y la casa pastoral es el 25% del salario en efectivo; $71,791 x 1.85 = $132,813. Entonces, ($32,813 – $5,000) / 1.25 = $102,250. El propósito de la fórmula es de relacionar la Compensación del SD a la Compensación Clero de Tiempo Completo. Recomendamos que el cálculo del salario también se aplique a otros miembros del clero nombrados al personal de la conferencia a nivel de Gabinete.

6. Todas las agencias que reciben fondos del presupuesto de la Conferencia afirmararán que los fondos no serán gastados para usos no compatibles con ¶613.18-19 del Libro de Disciplina 2016.

7. El importe de compensación señalado como subsidio de vivienda para miembros ordenados y superintendentes de distrito de la Conferencia se establecerá por medio de una resolución anual de la Mesa de Finanzas de la Conferencia (CF&A) después de la consideración de una declaración de las cantidades que se utilizarán durante el año.

8. Las juntas directivas de entidades Metodistas Unidas relacionadas deben aplicar a la Mesa de Finanzas (CF&A) la cual concederá el privilegio de solicitar y recibir fondos de las iglesias, individuos y otras fuentes (pero no de todas las ofrendas de la Conferencia, excepto como se indica en la lista que sigue) en conformidad con ¶262 Libro de Disciplina 2016; no hay campañas de capital que han sido aprobadas para el año 2018; y solamente las siguientes ofrendas de toda la Conferencia se aprueban para 2019:

9. El Presidente, el Vicepresidente y el Secretario de la Mesa de Finanzas de la Conferencia (CF&A), el Presidente del Comité de Auditoría y el Tesorero de la Conferencia y el Director de Servicios Administrativos constituyen el Comité Ejecutivo de la Mesa de Finanzas de la Conferencia.

10. La Mesa de Finanzas (CF&A) está autorizada a nombrar a un Auditor de la Conferencia.

12. Cada año, el Contador de la Conferencia establecerá una fecha de corte para todos los pagos del presupuesto al Tesorero de la Conferencia que se aplicará al año anterior. Esta fecha se comunicará a las iglesias locales a no más tardar del 1 de diciembre de cada año.

14. El Año de la Conferencia principia el 1 de enero de cada año y termina el 31 de diciembre de cada año.

15. La Mesa de Finanzas de la Conferencia (CF&A) es responsable de designar depositarios de fondos de la Conferencia.

16. La Conferencia incluirá en cada presupuesto anual una línea apropiada para cada Ministerio autorizado como se define en el Libro de Disciplina.

El proceso involucra varias entidades locales, distritales, y conferenciales para proveer el mejor uso estratégico de estos fondos limitados. La Comisión será responsable por lo siguiente:

INFORME VIII
REEMBOLSO DE GASTOS DE REUNIÓN
PARA INFORMACIÓN SOLAMENTE

A todas las juntas y agencias se les insta a programar sus reuniones, en lo que sea posible, en fechas y lugares coincidiendo con otros grupos para afectar la economía de gastos de viaje. Los gastos de viaje se pagarán a los miembros que asisten a reuniones oficiales de la Conferencia (entre períodos de sesiones anuales de la conferencia) a base de 40 centavos por milla. La asignación para las comidas será de $3.00 para el desayuno; $7.00 para ambos el almuerzo y la cena por las reuniones. Se hará el reembolso del 100% de gastos de alojamiento durante reuniones en hoteles contratados a través de la Conferencia Anual. Quienes optan por quedarse en otros lugares se les reembolsarán a la tarifa contratada más baja. El organizador de la reunión de conferencia proporcionará información de hoteles contratados a los participantes. Los recibos de alojamiento deberán acompañar la solicitud de desembolso. Estos subsidios no cubrirán el costo completo en cada caso, pues son simplemente para ayudar en el gasto adicional de asistir a reuniones.

Gastos de cuidado de niños por día de la reunión no deben exceder $30.00 por el primer niño y $20.00 por cada niño adicional, y estos gastos serán permitidos e incluidos en el costo de la reunión de la Junta o la Agencia.

Viajes de delegados debidamente elegidos o representantes de la Conferencia a las reuniones de otras organizaciones o agencias de conexión se pagarán como se indicó anteriormente. Sin embargo, gastos de viaje aéreo, hospedaje y otros gastos pueden pagarse si los fondos están disponibles por la junta o agencia correspondiente.

Cuando sea necesario volar a una reunión, el vuelo debe ser reservado al menos 14 días antes de la reunión. Si los vuelos no se reservan 14 días antes de la reunión, el miembro que reserva el vuelo deberá pagar la diferencia del costo del vuelo. Esto no se aplica en los casos raros cuando la reunión es una reunión de emergencia que no se anuncia antes de 14 días.

A cada iglesia local se le sugiere que respalde los gastos de la comida, el transporte, y el alojamiento de Conferencia Anual de los miembros asistiendo a la Conferencia Anual por medio de la adición de un mínimo de $100 al presupuesto de la iglesia para delegados laicos y del clero. Los superintendentes de distrito deberán fomentar este apoyo en cada Conferencia de Cargo.

INFORME I
TARIFA DE SERVICIO ANTERIOR A 2021
PARA LA ACCIÓN DE LA CONFERENCIA

La Tasa de Servicios Anteriores para 2021 será de $ 682 por año de crédito de anualidad. Esto refleja un aumento de $ 10,00 o 1,5% sobre la tarifa de servicio anterior de 2020.

En 2016, la Junta de Pensiones adoptó una estrategia de PSR a largo plazo basada en aumentos del 70% del índice de costo de vida de la Reserva Federal de St. Louis Región Sur Urbana para establecer la tasa de servicio anterior cada año. La Junta cree que esta política brinda honor, apoyo y aprecio a nuestro clero jubilado mientras mantiene un plan sostenible para cumplir con las obligaciones por beneficios. Cualquier cambio en el PSR también aumenta las responsabilidades del Plan y debe ser financiado en el año adoptado si es necesario de acuerdo con el nivel de activos del Plan y los requisitos de financiamiento de Wespeth.

INFORME II
RESOLUCIONES RELATIVAS A SUBSIDIOS DE ALQUILER / VIVIENDA PARA CLERES JUBILADOS
O DISCAPACITADOS DE LA CONFERENCIA RIO TEXAS
PARA LA ACCIÓN DE LA CONFERENCIA

La Conferencia Río Texas de la Iglesia Metodista Unida adopta las siguientes resoluciones relacionadas con las asignaciones de alquiler / vivienda para clérigos activos, jubilados, despedidos o discapacitados:

CONSIDERANDO QUE, la denominación religiosa conocida como La Iglesia Metodista Unida (de aquí, la "Iglesia"), de la cual esta Conferencia es parte, ha funcionado en el anterior y continúa funcionando a través de ministros del evangelio (dentro del significado de la sección 107 del Código de Rentas Internas) que fueron o son ministros de la Iglesia debidamente ordenados, comisionados o autorizados ("clérigos");

CONSIDERANDO que la práctica de la Iglesia y esta Conferencia fue y es de proporcionar a los clérigos activos una casa pastoral o un subsidio de alquiler / vivienda como parte de su compensación bruta;

CONSIDERANDO QUE, las pensiones u otras cantidades pagadas a clérigos activos, jubilados, cesados y discapacitados se consideran compensación diferida y se pagan a clérigos activos, jubilados, cesados y discapacitados en consideración del servicio activo anterior; y

CONSIDERANDO que el Servicio de Impuestos Internos (IRS) ha reconocido a la Conferencia (o sus predecesoras) como la organización apropiada para designar un subsidio de alquiler / vivienda para las personas del clero que son o fueron miembros de esta Conferencia y son elegibles para recibir dicha compensación diferida;

AHORA, POR LO TANTO, SE RESUELVE QUE una cantidad equivalente al 100% de los pagos de pensión, indemnización o discapacidad recibidos de planes autorizados bajo el Libro de Disciplina de la Iglesia Metodista Unida (de aquí, la "Disciplina"), que incluye todos los pagos de Los Beneficios e Inversiones de Wespeth, durante los años 2020 y 2021 por cada clérigo activo, jubilado, despedido o discapacitado que sea o haya sido miembro de la Conferencia, o sus predecesores, se designe y por la presente se designa como una asignación de alquiler / vivienda para cada tal clérigo; y que los pagos de pensión por despido o discapacidad a los que se aplica este subsidio de alquiler / vivienda serán cualquier pago de pensión, despido o discapacidad de planes, anualidades o fondos autorizados por la Disciplina, incluidos dichos pagos de Wespeth Benefits and Investments "Wespeth" y de una compañía de anualidades comerciales que proporcione una anualidad que surja de beneficios acumulados bajo un plan, anualidad o fondo Wespeth autorizado bajo la Disciplina, que resulten de cualquier servicio que un clérigo prestó a esta Conferencia o que un miembro activo, jubilado, terminado o clérigo discapacitado de esta Conferencia prestado a cualquier iglesia local, conferencias anuales de la Iglesia, agencia general de la Iglesia, otra institución de la Iglesia, denominación anterior que ahora es parte de la Iglesia, o cualquier otro empleador que empleara al clérigo para realizar servicios relacionados con el ministerio de la Iglesia, o sus predecesores, y que eligió hacer contribuciones o acumular un beneficio bajo, dicho plan, anualidad o fondo para la pensión o discapacidad de dicho clérigo activo, jubilado o discapacitado como parte de su compensación bruta.

NOTA: La asignación de alquiler / vivienda que puede excluirse de los ingresos brutos de una persona del clero en cualquier año para fines de impuestos federales sobre la renta está limitada según la sección 107 (2) del Código de Rentas Internas y las regulaciones a continuación al mínimo de: (1) la cantidad de el subsidio de alquiler / vivienda designado por el empleador del clérigo u otro organismo apropiado de la Iglesia (como esta Conferencia en las resoluciones anteriores) para ese año; (2) la cantidad realmente gastada por el clérigo para alquilar o proporcionar una vivienda en dicho año; o (3) el valor justo de alquiler de la casa, incluidos los muebles y accesorios (como un garaje), más el costo de los servicios públicos en dicho año.

INFORME III
PLAN INTEGRAL DE FINANCIACIÓN 2020
SOLO PARA INFORMACIÓN

El Plan Integral de Financiamiento está siendo revisado por Wespeth Benefits and Investments y estará disponible en la sesión anual de la conferencia y se incluirá en el Diario de la Conferencia Río Texas 2020.

INFORME IV
INFORME DEL PRESIDENTE
SOLO PARA INFORMACIÓN

La misión de la Junta de Pensiones de la Conferencia de Río Texas es “cuidar a los que sirven” proporcionando el honor, el apoyo y el aprecio de nuestro clero y participantes laicos. Nuestro enfoque incluye la administración de planes de beneficios de conferencias tanto en el presente como en las décadas futuras para todos los beneficiarios del plan. Nos esforzamos por ser buenos administradores de los recursos que se nos han confiado para implementar la política de beneficios denominacionales y de la Conferencia en colaboración con nuestro socio ministerial Wespeth Beneficios e Inversiones.

Por primera vez en nuestra historia, la pandemia de COVID-19 ha traído una época de desafíos, sufrimiento y calamidad económica sin precedentes en el mundo y en nuestra nación. En medio de la crisis, hemos visto resiliencia en la iglesia y nuestras comunidades a medida que continuamos navegando y ajustándonos a estos tiempos inciertos en el ministerio. La Junta se está adaptando y sigue dedicada a su misión de servir a la Conferencia y a los participantes. Desde los primeros días de la pandemia en marzo, Wespeth, en colaboración con GCFA, ha estado proporcionando una guía pandémica sobre la legislación COVID-19, incluida la Ley “CARES” - Ley de Ayuda, Alivio y Seguridad Económica por Coronavirus y la FFCRA o Respuesta de Familias Primero al Coronavirus. Actuar. Esta información se puede encontrar en el sitio web de la Conferencia en www.riotexas.org/covidhrtoolkit y www.wespeth.org. Antes de la pandemia, esperábamos el resultado y el impacto de los cambios denominacionales en la Iglesia Metodista Unida y nuestra Conferencia. Junto con el aplazamiento de la Conferencia General, la legislación de pensiones propuesta anteriormente se retrasó para la próxima sesión de la Conferencia General en 2021. A principios de 2020, el Plan Pre-82, el Plan de Pensión Ministerial (MPP) y el Plan de Seguridad de Jubilación del Clero (CRSP-DB) no tenía pasivos no financiados y continuaremos monitoreando la volatilidad del mercado para mantener un plan de activos sostenible a largo plazo para cumplir con los pasivos por beneficios para todos los beneficiarios.

Crédito de octubre de HealthFlex y actualización de 2021

Para ayudar a las iglesias con el alivio de la pandemia de COVID-19, las iglesias con clérigos elegibles de tiempo completo y participantes laicos en Healthflex que no se encuentren en situación de morosidad recibirán un crédito único de HealthFlex en octubre, lo que dará como resultado que no se adeude el saldo de HealthFlex para el mes de octubre. Este crédito no se aplica a ninguna cuenta de reembolso personal ni a planes de pensión.

Para proporcionar estabilidad adicional como resultado de la eliminación gradual de la distribución y los cambios en el modelo de planes múltiples de Healthflex Exchange:

- La contribución de tasa fija de CRSP-DB de 2021 de $ 511 por mes seguirá siendo la misma que en 2020.
- El Crédito Premium HealthFlex (PC) 2021 permanecerá en $ 900 por mes al igual que en 2020.
- A partir del 1 de enero de 2021, nos complace anunciar que la red de proveedores de Río Texas HealthFlex será la red nacional de Blue Cross Blue Shield (BCBS). Con esta transición, habrá una reducción en las tarifas médicas de 2021 con una disminución promedio del 2%. Estos ahorros se transferirán a los participantes de nuestro plan en sus selecciones de planes 2021. Permanecer en United Healthcare Network habría resultado en un aumento promedio del 4% en los seis planes.

Después de un difícil año del plan HealthFlex 2018 con reclamos un 23% más altos, el plan se estabilizó en 2019 y estamos monitoreando cualquier impacto relacionado con COVID en el plan en los reclamos de 2020 y la renovación para 2022. Los participantes del plan HealthFlex continúan utilizando las diversas ofertas de planes en Healthflex El intercambio, la selección entre seis ofertas de planes médicos, tres dentales y de la vista y la participación en cuentas de reembolso personal han aumentado desde la transición a Exchange. Este modelo de planes múltiples permite una mayor flexibilidad para elegir una combinación de planes que se adapte mejor a las necesidades de un participante.

Me gustaría agradecer a todas nuestras iglesias, clérigos y miembros laicos por adaptarse y seguir adelante con perseverancia y esperanza para continuar compartiendo el evangelio. Nuestras iglesias se han mantenido comprometidas en sus contribuciones para los beneficios a pesar de muchas pruebas nuevas y continuaremos en nuestra misión de cuidar de usted.

Respetuosamente,

Tony LoBoasso, President

- El Fondo de Legacía Río Grande continuará proporcionando contribuciones del 9% al clero elegible a tiempo parcial designado para una iglesia heredada en el Plan de Inversión Personal Metodista Unido UMPIP-PT.

PLAN DE PENSIONES PRE-82

El Plan de Pensión Pre-82, también conocido como Suplemento Uno del Plan de Seguridad de Jubilación para Clérigos (CRSP), es un plan de pensión de beneficios definidos administrado por Wespeth y proporciona al clero elegible un beneficio de pensión por sus años de ministerio con la Iglesia Metodista Unida antes de 1982. El Plan de Pensión Pre-82 fue reemplazado por el Plan de Pensión Ministerial (MPP) a partir del 1 de enero de 1982. Una de las responsabilidades de la Junta de Pensiones es recomendar a la conferencia anual la Tasa de Servicios Anteriores o (PSR) al clero para cada año de servicio elegible en el Plan de Pensión Pre-82.

A medida que la necesidad de proporcionar beneficios de pensión al clero adecuados evolucionó con el establecimiento del Plan de Pensión Pre-82, las contribuciones no fueron suficientes para proporcionar los beneficios requeridos para muchos participantes durante los años de servicio activo. Por lo tanto, se convirtió en responsabilidad de la conferencia garantizar que las obligaciones de beneficios requeridas por el plan se proporcionen mediante contribuciones anuales en un calendario de amortización hasta el 2021. El objetivo de cada conferencia es que el Plan de Pensiones Pre-82 esté completamente financiado hasta que se hayan cumplido las obligaciones de beneficios. Sin embargo, los activos del Plan no están fijos con el potencial de pasivos adicionales debido a la volatilidad del mercado, las políticas de Wespeth y el número de beneficiarios elegibles. Además, cualquier aumento en la Tasa de Servicios Anteriores (PSR) adoptada por la Conferencia también aumenta las obligaciones del plan.

En 2016, la Junta de Pensiones adoptó una estrategia de PSR a largo plazo basada en aumentos del 70% del índice de costo de vida de la Reserva Federal de St. Louis en la Región Sur Urbana para establecer la tasa de servicio anterior cada año. La Junta cree que esta política brinda honor, apoyo y aprecio a nuestro clero jubilado mientras mantiene un plan sostenible para cumplir con las obligaciones por beneficios. Cualquier cambio en el PSR también aumenta las responsabilidades del Plan y debe financiarse en el año adoptado si es necesario de acuerdo con el nivel de activos del Plan y los requisitos de financiamiento. Al 31 de diciembre de 2019, no se adeuda ningún pasivo Pre-82 adicional o Contribución Anticipada para 2021 para financiar el aumento de la Tasa de Servicios Anteriores.

PLAN MINISTERIAL DE PENSIONES (MPP)

El Plan de Pensión Ministerial, también conocido como Suplemento Tres del Plan de Jubilación de la Seguridad del Clero (CRSP), proporciona al clero un beneficio de pensión por sus años de ministerio con la Iglesia Metodista Unida desde 1982 hasta 2006. El MPP es un Código de Rentas Internas Sección 403 (b) plan de jubilación. Se requiere que la Conferencia respalde cualquier responsabilidad atribuible a las anualidades del MPP debido a las fluctuaciones del mercado, supuestos demográficos / de mortalidad y las políticas del Plan Wespeth. A partir del 1 de enero de 2019, la valoración actuarial para 2021, el índice de fondos de anualidades MPP y CRSP para la Conferencia de Río Texas es de aproximadamente 107,3%. No se requieren contribuciones adicionales al MPP en 2020 y 2021 bajo la metodología de Financiamiento del Corredor de Wespeth.

PLAN DE JUBILACIÓN DE SEGURIDAD CLERGY (CRSP)

El plan de pensión actual requerido para los clérigos elegibles de tiempo completo es el Plan de Jubilación de Seguridad del Clero o CRSP administrado por Wespeth. Este plan entró en vigencia el 1 de enero de 2007 y se compone de un componente de contribución definida (CD) y de beneficio definido (DB).

CONTRIBUCIÓN DEFINIDA (DC)

proporciona una cantidad definida que se deposita en la cuenta de un clérigo activo a tiempo completo con contribuciones mensuales. Este beneficio distribuido al jubilarse es el monto acumulado más las ganancias (o pérdidas) en la cuenta del individuo. El componente de contribución definida (DC) de CRSP es el 2% de la Compensación del Plan con una igualación de las contribuciones de los participantes al Plan de Inversión Personal Metodista Unido (UMPIP) - hasta el 1% de la Compensación del Plan. Por lo tanto, si un participante aporta al menos el 1% de la compensación a UMPIP, las contribuciones de CRSP DC serán del 3%.

BENEFICIO DEFINIDO (DB)

proporciona una cantidad específica en dólares al momento de la jubilación, independientemente de las condiciones del mercado o el rendimiento de la inversión. La cantidad se basa en una fórmula que especifica un beneficio de jubilación mensual para el clero elegible y el 70% para los pensionistas contingentes elegibles por el resto de sus vidas. El CRSP-DB proporciona un beneficio de jubilación mensual utilizando el 1.25% de la Compensación Promedio Denominacional (DAC) al momento de la jubilación multiplicado por los años de servicio desde el 1 de enero de 2007 hasta el 31 de diciembre de 2013. El multiplicador se reduce al 1% por años de servicio a partir del 1 de enero de 2014.

Ambos componentes se facturan directamente a cada iglesia para todos los clérigos elegibles de tiempo completo. La facturación de contribución definida (DC) se basa en el 3% de la compensación del plan. La facturación directa anual de beneficios definidos (DB) en 2020 a las iglesias por cada clérigo designado para el servicio de tiempo completo es de $ 6,132. La facturación directa anual del beneficio definido (DB) en 2021 a las iglesias por cada clérigo designado para el servicio de tiempo completo se mantendrá en $ 6,132.

La contribución anual de DB a Wespeth se basa en el número de clérigos de tiempo completo elegibles, clérigos con ausencia médica con beneficios de CPP en la valoración actuarial proporcionada por Wespeth. El monto de la contribución adeudado en 2020 para el componente DB es $ 1,618,824 y $ 1,559,225 en 2021. Cualquier clérigo que sirva menos de tiempo completo que no sea elegible para el CRSP DB es elegible para participar en el Plan de Inversión Personal Metodista Unido con una contribución de la iglesia requerida del 9% de la compensación del plan.

PLAN DE PROTECCIÓN INTEGRAL (CPP)

El Plan de Protección Integral (CPP) es un plan de beneficios sociales administrado por Wespeth Benefits and Investments. El CPP incluye beneficios por discapacidad a largo plazo, muerte y otros beneficios sociales para el clero elegible a tiempo completo. El plan CPP es un "plan de iglesia" del Código de Rentas Internas 414 (e) financiado por las contribuciones de los patrocinadores del plan. El CPP exige que la facturación directa a las iglesias sea el 3% de la Compensación del Plan para el clero elegible a tiempo completo hasta dos veces de la compensación del promedio denominacional de 2020 o DAC de $ 72,648 y $ 74,199 en 2021.

PLAN DE INVERSIÓN PERSONAL METODISTA UNIDO (UMPIP) PARA LAICOS Y CLERO

El Plan de Inversión Metodista Unida (UMPIP) es un plan de ahorros para la jubilación de contribución definida, sección 403 (b), del Código de Rentas Internas administrado por Wespeth para el clero y empleados laicos de la Iglesia Metodista Unida y organizaciones afiliadas. Los participantes elegibles pueden hacer contribuciones personales a través de deducciones de nómina para contribuciones antes de impuestos, Roth o después de impuestos en una cantidad fija en dólares o un porcentaje de la compensación elegible, hasta los límites del Código de Rentas Internas. Se anima a las iglesias a ofrecer el UMPIP a los empleados laicos y pueden comunicarse con Wespeth para obtener disposiciones adicionales del plan y patrocinio.

Cualquier clérigo designado a una iglesia por menos de un servicio de tiempo completo es elegible para participar en el UMPIP y recibir una contribución de la iglesia requerida del 9% de la Compensación del Plan. Además, se anima a todo el clero activo a participar en el UMPIP con contribuciones personales. Para que el clero reciba los beneficios máximos de pensión financiada por la iglesia en el plan de contribución definida de CRSP (DC) del 3%, tal deberá contribuir con un mínimo del 1% al Plan de Inversión Personal Metodista Unido (UMPIP).

INFORME VI 2021 HEALTHFLEX SOLO PARA INFORMACIÓN

BENEFICIOS HEALTHFLEX

La Conferencia Río Texas participa en el Plan HealthFlex administrado por Wespeth Benefits and Investments para clérigos elegibles de tiempo completo y empleados laicos de la Conferencia. El plan HealthFlex también está disponible para los empleados laicos de las iglesias que han adoptado un Acuerdo de subadopción de unidad de pago de salario de HealthFlex que cumple con los requisitos de elegibilidad del Plan. HealthFlex es un programa de salud integrado y orientado al bienestar que respalda estilos de vida más saludables. El plan HealthFlex está diseñado para brindar a los participantes elegibles un plan integral que incluye beneficios médicos, de medicamentos recetados y de bienestar. HealthFlex utiliza incentivos como parte de su estrategia para promover la participación en conductas saludables y programas de bienestar. La estrategia 2021 continúa enfocándose en las recompensas tanto por medir los riesgos a través de Blueprint for Wellness Screening and Health Quotient (HQ), el programa de prevención de la diabetes como por tomar en cuenta medidas para mejorar la salud y el bienestar. Las recompensas enfatizan la participación en programas que han demostrado tener un impacto positivo en los riesgos de salud, incluido el asesoramiento sobre salud y el programa de actividades Virgin Pulse. Además, de los beneficios de bienestar de HealthFlex, la Conferencia también ofrece beneficios de bienestar holísticos adicionales para el clero y los empleados laicos de la Conferencia, incluidos componentes de atención espiritual, mental, emocional y física financiados por subvenciones de los Ministerios Metodistas de Salud del Sur de Texas. A partir de 2021, el proveedor de HealthFlex será la Red Nacional de Blue Cross Blue Shield (BCBS).

ESTABLECIMIENTO DE UN FONDO DE ASISTENCIA DE ATENCIÓN MÉDICA

La Junta de Pensiones reconoce que la cobertura de atención médica asequible es un componente esencial de un paquete atractivo de beneficios para empleados. En el entorno actual de la atención médica, es evidente que las primas de atención médica de algunos clérigos constituyen una parte importante de sus salarios. Para ayudar con esto, la Junta de Pensiones establecerá un fondo de dotación utilizando el dividendo de HealthFlex de 2016 para ayudar al clero cuyos salarios estén cerca del umbral mínimo a brindar atención médica a sus familias. Este fondo proporcionará subvenciones para alinear el costo de la atención médica para el clero con el costo del nivel P + 1 actual de 2020 (hasta $ 6,000 en 2020). Estas subvenciones se coordinarán a través de los superintendentes de distrito.

INTERCAMBIO PRIVADO HEALTHFLEX 2020

Para alinearse con el panorama cambiante de la atención médica y los aumentos significativos en los costos de atención médica, la Junta de Pensiones adoptó la opción de planes múltiples de HealthFlex Private Exchange a partir del 1 de enero de 2019. La opción de planes múltiples de HealthFlex Private Exchange les brinda a los participantes una mayor elección en varios HealthFlex planes con diferentes diseños de planes y la flexibilidad para elegir la cobertura que mejor se adapte a las necesidades familiares, financieras y de salud del participante. El enfoque de planes múltiples fomenta una mayor responsabilidad de los participantes por los costos y la utilización de la atención médica, al tiempo que conserva los valiosos beneficios de HealthFlex y las oportunidades de bienestar que los participantes esperan de Wespath.

El Multi-Plan de Intercambio Privado de HealthFlex actual ofrece seis opciones de planes distintos para los participantes. Aunque HealthFlex tiene la discreción de modificar las ofertas del plan en 2021, las opciones de diseño del plan 2020 incluyen:

HRA – Cuenta de Re-embolso de Salud

HSA - Cuenta de Ahorros de Salud

CONTRIBUCIÓN INDIVIDUAL DEFINIDA DEL INTERCAMBIO HEALTHFLEX 2021 (PC)

El diseño de HealthFlex Exchange 2021 incluye una contribución definida no imponible de $ 900. El DC es una cantidad fija en dólares que se proporciona a cada miembro del clero de tiempo completo y empleado laico de la Conferencia de HealthFlex. Los participantes utilizarán la cantidad de DC asignada para seleccionar un plan de salud en HealthFlex Exchange y pagarán algunas o todas las primas del plan de su elección.

- El monto de 2021 DC será de $ 900 por mes y se facturará directamente.
- El DC aparecerá como un "crédito hacia la compra" al elegir un plan HealthFlex entre todas las opciones de planes HealthFlex Exchange disponibles.
- Los participantes que elijan planes que cuesten menos que el monto de su crédito de DC "depositarán" el exceso. HealthFlex acreditará el saldo de DC no utilizado en la Cuenta de reembolso de gastos médicos (HRA) o Cuenta de ahorros para gastos médicos (HSA) del participante, según el plan de salud seleccionado. La cantidad anual excedente (saldo de CD no gastado) no se acredita en una suma global; más bien, está disponible de forma prorrateada y mensual durante el año del plan. Se aplicarán los límites del Código de Rentas Internas (IRC) para las contribuciones anuales a la HSA.

- Los participantes que elijan un plan que cueste más que el monto del crédito de DC, incluido el costo para cubrir a los dependientes, contribuirán con el monto adicional mediante una deducción de nómina de su iglesia para cubrir la diferencia de costo entre el monto de DC que reciben y su costo más alto por las primas mensuales (la participación del participante en el costo de la prima).

FACTURACIÓN DIRECTA HEALTHFLEX PARA TODO EL CLERO DE TIEMPO COMPLETO

Para garantizar que el Plan sea eficiente y sostenible para el beneficio de todos los participantes e iglesias con clérigos designados a tiempo completo, cualquier iglesia en la que un clérigo haya elegido no participar en HealthFlex se seguirá facturando la Contribución definida (DC) de $ 900 por mes a través de facturación directa a partir del 1 de enero de 2019 y continuará en 2021. La Junta de Pensiones cree que los Beneficios de Salud no deberían ser un factor que obstaculice el equipamiento de una congregación con un clero excelente que se necesita para el ministerio. La Junta establecerá un programa de subvenciones con fondos recibidos de iglesias que tienen clérigos que no participan en HealthFlex para ayudar al clero con familias en la transición entre iglesias. Reconocemos que esto puede ser una carga financiera tanto para la iglesia como para el clero y creemos que esta asistencia ayudará a facilitar la transición. El programa, con la aprobación del superintendente de distrito, otorgará subvenciones de hasta $ 5,000 para asistencia del clero con seis meses de cobertura de atención médica como parte de la transición del clero a una nueva iglesia cuando la iglesia remitente y receptora hayan adoptado contribuciones diferentes para la cobertura de dependientes.

BENEFICIOS DE SALUD DE LA IGLESIA 2021 FACTURACIÓN DIRECTA

A partir del 1 de enero de 2020, se facturará directamente a las iglesias para los clérigos activos participantes elegibles con nombramiento de tiempo completo y empleados laicos inscritos elegibles:

- La contribución definida (DC) de HealthFlex 2021 de $ 900 por cada clérigo inscrito a tiempo completo o empleado laico inscrito elegible.
- El Río Grande Legacy Fund continuará brindando contribuciones a las iglesias heredadas elegibles para el clero de tiempo completo inscrito en el Plan HealthFlex (prima individual para el clero).
- Las contribuciones adicionales se facturarán directamente para los beneficios, incluida cualquier elección por encima de la Contribución definida (DC) de $ 900, el costo de la cobertura de dependientes, el seguro de vida a término opcional, las contribuciones personales de la Cuenta de ahorro de salud (HSA) y el Plan de beneficios flexibles financiado por deducción de nómina

2021 HEALTHFLEX CONTRIBUCIÓN INDIVIDUAL DEFINIDA O "CRÉDITO"

| | Monthly Contribution | Annual Direct Bill |
|--|----------------------|--------------------|
| Active Clergy | $ 900 | $ 10,800 |
| Pre-65 Retiree or Spouse | $ 900 | $ 10,800 |
| Medical Leave with CPP (Max 24 Months) | $ 900 | $ 10,800 |
| Conference Lay Employees | $ 900 | $ 10,800 |

Cada clérigo activo elegible recibirá una Contribución Definida o "Crédito" individual mensual en el plan HealthFlex de $ 900 (financiado por su iglesia de la anterior Conferencia Río Grande) y elegirá entre las seis opciones del plan HealthFlex.

Los participantes que elijan un plan que cueste más que el monto del crédito de DC o que elijan cubrir a sus dependientes contribuirán con el monto adicional mediante una deducción de nómina de su iglesia para cubrir la diferencia de costo entre el monto de DC que reciben y su costo más alto por las primas mensuales (el participación del participante en el costo de la prima). Los dependientes cubiertos se inscribirán en las mismas selecciones de planes elegidas por el clérigo principal o el participante laico.

El intercambio HealthFlex es una inscripción pasiva. Los participantes que actualmente están inscritos en el intercambio HealthFlex para 2020 se inscribirán automáticamente en el mismo plan y coberturas para 2021 si no se efectúan elecciones durante el Período de elección anual. Los clérigos de tiempo completo y los empleados laicos de la Conferencia que sean nuevos en la Conferencia se inscribirán en los siguientes planes predeterminados para todo el año 2021 si no se realizan elecciones. Se anima a todos los participantes a evaluar anualmente sus necesidades de atención médica actuales y previstas y a inscribirse en las opciones de planes que mejor se adapten a sus requisitos individuales.

CUENTAS DE GASTOS FLEXIBLES HEALTHFLEX

Los participantes elegibles de HealthFlex de tiempo completo pueden participar en la Cuenta de Reembolso Médico (MRA) y la Cuenta de Reembolso de Cuidado de Dependientes (DCA) opcionales que se ofrecen como un beneficio financiado por las deducciones de nómina del participante y administrado por HealthFlex y Wage Works.

BENEFICIOS ADICIONALES

Seguro de vida a término opcional

La Conferencia ofrece un seguro de vida a término opcional para clérigos a tiempo completo y empleados laicos de conferencias sujetos a las pautas de suscripción de Prudential Life Insurance Company. Los participantes elegibles pueden elegir la cobertura de vida a término grupal como una deducción de nómina.

Cuenta de reembolso de salud para jubilados (HRA)

One Exchange proporciona una Cuenta de Reembolso de Salud para Jubilados (HRA) para jubilados elegibles y se financia mediante asignaciones. La HRA se basa en el monto del estipendio recibido por los jubilados elegibles antes del 31 de diciembre de 2013. Al 1 de enero de 2018, hay 71 jubilados elegibles para una HRA. Los jubilados elegibles deben estar inscritos en un plan Advantage o Suplementario de Medicare a través de Via Benefits (anteriormente One Exchange) para recibir la HRA. Con el fin de brindar sostenibilidad al beneficio de la HRA y no aumentar las obligaciones y distribuciones del plan de beneficios de la conferencia, la HRA es una cantidad fija por jubilado elegible y no aumenta de un año a otro.

De acuerdo con la política del Plan de Unificación de 2014, el estipendio de la HRA no se ofrecerá a ningún otro jubilado que actualmente no reciba una HRA. La HRA proporciona reembolso por los gastos de atención médica elegibles del IRS, como las primas de la Parte B de Medicare, las primas de los planes complementarios de Medicare y los gastos de bolsillo, como copagos y deducibles. Para recibir fondos de la HRA, los jubilados elegibles deben enviar un formulario de reclamo a Via Benefits anualmente para el reembolso de la prima o según sea necesario para otros gastos elegibles del IRS.

INFORME DE LA JUNTA DE SÍNDICOS

INFORME NO. I INFORME DEL PRESIDENTE SOLO PARA INFORMACIÓN

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

Me complace informarles en nombre de la Junta de Síndicos de la Conferencia Río Texas de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. De acuerdo con la Sección 2512 del Libro de Disciplina de la Iglesia Metodista Unida 2016, la Junta de Síndicos de la Conferencia tiene la responsabilidad de recibir y mantener en fideicomiso para el beneficio de la Conferencia, donaciones, propiedad personal y bienes inmuebles. Además, la Junta tiene la facultad de invertir, transferir o traspasar las propiedades que tiene en fideicomiso. La Junta se toma muy en serio su responsabilidad de supervisar los activos de la Conferencia.

Los activos que posee la Junta de Síndicos incluyen iglesias cerradas, casas parroquiales no utilizadas y terrenos sin urbanizar. La Junta trabaja en estrecha colaboración con el personal de la Conferencia y con las recomendaciones de los Distritos para supervisar y administrar la propiedad que se le ha confiado. En el caso de que la propiedad de la iglesia ya no esté en uso para una iglesia local y el Distrito crea que no habrá un culto de adoración o uso misional futuro para la propiedad, puede venderse.

Los Síndicos tienen de 10 a 20 propiedades bajo su revisión y administración en un momento dado. Estos son tanto urbanos como rurales e incluyen estructuras con algún valor y otras en mal estado material. El personal de la conferencia, bajo la dirección de Kendall Waller y Tina Whitaker, hace un excelente trabajo administrando las propiedades en transición. Muchas de estas propiedades tienen un valor limitado, ya sea debido a su ubicación o condición, y tardan algún tiempo en venderse. El tiempo que transcurre entre que los Síndicos toman el control de la propiedad y su venta puede ser de meses o incluso años y la Conferencia puede incurrir costos sustanciales para mantener y asegurar la propiedad antes de la venta. La Junta de Síndicos y el personal de la Conferencia trabajan diligentemente para minimizar esos costos y maximizar el retorno a la Conferencia de la venta de bienes inmuebles.

Para el período de mayo de 2019 a abril de 2020, se recibió un total de $ 525,661.46 directamente relacionados con la venta de bienes inmuebles. Además, la Junta de Síndicos tuvo gastos relacionados con propiedades vendidas y no vendidas para el año calendario 2019 por la cantidad de $ 217,832.17 y de enero a julio de 2020 la cantidad de $ 85,813.05.

Durante 2020, se han producido los siguientes cierres de iglesias:

- Austwell – discontinuada el 25 de marzo de 2020
- Rock Island IMU – discontinuada el 30 de abril de 2020
- Divine Grace - discontinuada el 31 de agosto de 2020
- Bishop - El Redentor IMU, abandonada el 13 de agosto de 2020

En cumplimiento de su función, la Junta de Síndicos ha comenzado a revisar opciones con especial atención a las propiedades urbanas con potencial valor económico. Los Síndicos reconocen que debido al aumento de los valores inmobiliarios, la decisión de la Conferencia de vender una propiedad en determinadas ubicaciones urbanas puede obstaculizar la capacidad de la Conferencia de tener presencia en esa ubicación en el futuro. Un ejemplo es la antigua ubicación de la Iglesia Metodista Unida Parker Lane en Austin. La Conferencia ha trabajado en estrecha colaboración con el Distrito Capital para estructurar un arrendamiento innovador a largo plazo de la propiedad de Parker Lane. Actualmente, la Conferencia tiene un acuerdo de opción con Foundation Communities, un importante proveedor de viviendas asequibles en el área de Austin. Una vez cerrado, el acuerdo resultará en una nueva adición importante de viviendas asequibles, un retorno financiero material para la Conferencia y proporcionará al Distrito Capital oficinas permanentes y espacio de usos múltiples en la nueva estructura sin costo material para el Distrito. La Junta de Síndicos se compromete a seguir identificando opciones innovadoras para el uso de los bienes inmuebles disponibles.

La Junta de Síndicos también continúa supervisando Light on the Hill, anteriormente Mount Wesley en Kerrville, Texas, en asociación con Kerrville First United Methodist. Bajo el liderazgo y la visión de Kerrville FUMC, Light on the Hill se ha transformado en un recurso comunitario vital para la región montañosa con asistencia alimentaria muy necesaria y una variedad de otros programas comunitarios.

Yours in Christ,

Kevin Reed

President, Board of Trustees

INFORME II FONDO DE LA JUNTA DE FIDEICOMISARIOS PARA LA ACCIÓN DE LA CONFERENCIA

La Junta de Síndicos llega a la Conferencia Anual con un elemento de acción. Actualmente, la Junta está autorizada a retener el 20% de cada venta de propiedad, hasta un máximo de $ 250.000 con el fin de mantener y asegurar la propiedad en poder de la Junta. La Junta solicita que esto se cambie para aumentar la retención máxima de $ 250,000 a $ 400,000.00 a partir del 1 de enero de 2019. El propósito de esta solicitud es permitir que los Síndicos tengan fondos suficientes para administrar adecuadamente las propiedades bajo su control. La experiencia pasada ha revelado el costo creciente de mantener y asegurar la propiedad bajo el control de los Síndicos. Creemos que este cambio nos permitirá administrar mejor las propiedades que se nos confían y es una planificación prudente al anticipar a nuestras necesidades futuras.

La Junta de Síndicos está compuesta por un excelente grupo de pastores y líderes laicos de una variedad de antecedentes y de toda la Conferencia. Nos reunimos con la meta de ser buenos administradores de los activos de la Conferencia mientras trabajamos para hacer discípulos de Jesucristo para la transformación del mundo.

Un Servidor en Cristo,

Kevin Reed

Presidente, Junta de Síndicos

CABINET REPORT

INFORME DEL GABINETE DE LA CONFERENCIA RÍO TEXAS A LA CONFERENCIA ANUAL 2020 REPORT I

Durante el año pasado, el Gabinete disfrutó de la continuación de nuestro trabajo como un equipo consistente, sin cambios de personal con respecto al año pasado. Los superintendentes de distrito llevaron el tema de la Conferencia Anual de 2019, "Caminando Juntos", hasta la temporada de conferencias de cargo, mientras las iglesias locales navegaban adelante después de la Conferencia General de 2019. El obispo, los superintendentes y los directores trabajaron activamente para ayudar a los líderes a manejar la ansiedad y enfocarse en la misión local de la iglesia durante el discernimiento denominacional y la toma de decisiones. También en el transcurso del año, el Gabinete agradeció a las iglesias de toda la conferencia por sus generosas contribuciones a la campaña capital del Instituto Lydia Patterson.

Desde la primavera de este año, la pandemia de COVID-19 ha marcado la vida de nuestros ministerios y de nuestra gente de manera profunda y extraordinaria. Los líderes laicos y clérigos utilizaron nuevas habilidades tecnológicas para celebrar la adoración, mantener relaciones, y crear nuevas conexiones. Las congregaciones ampliaron su comprensión del propósito y la identidad propio, afirmando audazmente que aunque el edificio estaba cerrado, el ministerio de la iglesia continuaba. Muchos encontraron nuevos participantes y nueva vitalidad, no atados ya por la geografía. Otros ampliaron su compromiso de servir a las personas más afectadas por la recesión económica.

Muchos laicos y clérigos de toda la conferencia también han luchado por responder con fe y valor ante las agitaciones públicas que resultaron de los asesinatos de personas afroamericanas desarmadas, incluyendo a Ahmaud Arbury, George Floyd y Breonna Taylor. Animamos a todos los metodistas unidos de Río Texas a encontrar formas de participar en la conversación, la educación y la acción para abordar la injusticia racial de largo plazo en nuestras comunidades y nuestra iglesia. Buscamos responder fielmente a esta crisis a la luz del sufrimiento y el talento de los ciudadanos afroamericanos; la vida de nuestra población mayormente hispana y otras personas de color dentro los límites de la conferencia, y nuestra realidad actual de la conferencia, después de cinco años de nuestra vida como Conferencia Río Texas.

Respetuosamente,

Laura Merrill

Asistente del Obispo y Decano del Gabinete

INFORME II PARA LA ACCIÓN DE LA CONFERENCIA

Transferencia de las Iglesias MU Star y Center City a la Conferencia Central de Texas - El superintendente del Distrito Oeste Andy Smith informa que las congregaciones de Star IMU y Center City IMU han solicitado la transferencia de la Conferencia Anual de Río Texas (RTC) a la Conferencia Anual de Central Texas (CTC)) según las disposiciones del ¶260 del Libro de Disciplina de 2016.

Las dos iglesias están ubicadas en el condado de Mills, en el extremo este del Distrito Oeste de RTC. Partes del condado de Mills, inclusive una iglesia, están dentro del CTC. Ambas congregaciones afirman que están orientadas hacia las comunidades en el CTC y están ubicadas mucho más cerca de la oficina del Distrito Oeste de CTC en Stephenville (a 72 millas) que de la oficina del Distrito Oeste de RTC en San Angelo (a 140 millas). Ambas congregaciones han cumplido con los requisitos disciplinarios de dos tercios de votación de la conferencia de cargo, celebrada el 16 de febrero de 2020, y en las reuniones congregacionales individuales celebradas el 17 de noviembre de 2019. Todos los votos para transferir han sido aprobados por unanimidad por todos los miembros presentes. ¶260 también requiere que cada una de las dos conferencias anuales apruebe la transferencia por una mayoría de voto de dos tercios. Si ambas votan para aprobar, la transferencia entraría en efecto el 1 de enero de 2021.

- Discontinuación de Austwell IMU: el 25 de marzo de 2020, el Gabinete aprobó esta suspensión, efectiva a partir del 8 de marzo de 2020.
- Discontinuación de Rock Island IMU - El 30 de abril de 2020, el Gabinete votó para aprobar la discontinuación de esta congregación, efectiva a partir de esa fecha.
- Discontinuación de Divine Grace IMU en San Antonio: el 19 de mayo de 2020, el Gabinete aprobó el voto de esta congregación para discontinuar, efectiva a partir del 31 de agosto de 2020.
- El Redentor IMU – El Gabinete votó a favor de abandonar el uso de esta iglesia, efectivo el 13 de agosto de 2020, ya que la congregación ha dejado de reunirse o conducir actividades de ministerio.

Damos gracias a Dios por los siervos fieles en estos lugares y el legado que estas iglesias han compartido con el mundo.

El Gabinete con anticipación y esperanza mira hacia el futuro que Dios tiene para la iglesia. Servimos con profunda gratitud por la gente de la Conferencia Río Texas y por su creatividad y fidelidad.

Respetuosamente,

Laura Merrill

Asistente del Obispo y Decano del Gabinete

DOMINGO DE COSECHA 2020 DE LA CONFERENCIA RÍO TEXAS
PARA ACCIÓN DE LA CONFERENCIA

El Grupo de Iniciativa del Domingo de Cosecha recomienda lo siguiente para su aprobación por la Conferencia Anual 2020:

Que el domingo 1 de noviembre de 2020 se reconozca como la fecha de participación de las congregaciones locales en la Ofrenda del Domingo de Cosecha.

Que se reconozca a las congregaciones por su acción para cumplir con los objetivos metodistas unidos de "participar en el ministerio con los pobres" y "combatir las enfermedades de la pobreza, mejorando la salud a nivel mundial".

La Biblia es clara. Gálatas 6: 2, NRSV dice: "Sobrelleven los unos las cargas de los otros, y cumplir así la ley de Cristo". Jesús lo dice así: "Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo". (Mateo 19: 19b). Sitio web de la Iglesia Metodista Unida <https://www.umc.org/en/how-we-serve/giving-opportunities>

Que la distribución de los fondos de oferta del Domingo de Cosecha 2020 será la siguiente:

- 1/3 de los totales recaudados se destinarán a proyectos de iniciativas contra el hambre a lo largo de las áreas fronterizas entre Texas y México que se encuentran, y se prestarán servicios en los distritos de El Valle, Hill Country, Las Misiones y West.
- 1/3 de los totales recaudados serán devueltos a los distritos participantes. Los fondos se distribuirán, en consulta con los comités de misión del distrito. Los proyectos que buscan ministerio y abordan las causas profundas de la pobreza serán prioritarios.
- 1/3 de los totales recaudados, se asignarán por igual entre 5 proyectos de avance del Ministerio Global con enfoque en la seguridad alimentaria y el empoderamiento económico que determinará el Grupo de Iniciativa del Domingo de Cosecha con la aprobación del Equipo de Visión de Comunidades Transformadoras

El Grupo de Iniciativa del Domingo de Cosecha, bajo la guía del Equipo de Visión de Comunidades Transformadoras, coordinará la promoción y publicidad de la oferta del Domingo de Cosecha 2020.

CONFERENCIA RÍO TEXAS INICIATIVA RURAL 2020 – 2024

PARA ACCIÓN DE LA CONFERENCIA

El Equipo de Visión de Comunidades Transformadoras de la Conferencia de Río Texas (aquí, TCVT), trabajando en el proceso de búsqueda del SHALOM y la transformación de congregaciones y comunidades, recomienda lo siguiente para su aprobación por la Conferencia Anual 2020:

- Reconociendo que 67% a 75% de los 83 condados de Texas que comprenden la Conferencia Río Texas son considerados rurales o fronterizos por varios sistemas de clasificación estatales;
- Reconociendo que los dones y desafíos de las comunidades rurales y fronterizas, las congregaciones y el liderazgo metodista unido que sirven en contextos rurales y fronterizos son, en muchos aspectos, tanto cualitativamente como cuantitativamente únicos;
- Reconociendo que la vitalidad y el bienestar holístico de la Conferencia Río Texas están inextricablemente conectados con la vitalidad y el bienestar holístico de cada miembro del cuerpo de Cristo y las comunidades a las que sirve;

Por lo tanto, la Conferencia Río Texas, bajo la dirección del Equipo de Visión de Comunidades Transformadoras, inaugurará una Iniciativa Rural para el próximo cuatrienio. El propósito de la iniciativa es un descubrimiento más profundo de la experiencia rural y fronteriza dentro de la Conferencia de Río Texas y el desarrollo de respuestas estratégicas en aras de una misión compartida dentro de la Conferencia Río Texas de la Iglesia Metodista Unida, que es hacer discípulos de Jesús Cristo para la transformación del mundo.

Afirmado en febrero de 2020 y presentado por la

Conferencia Río Texas Equipo de Visión de Comunidades Transformadoras

INFORME DE LA JUNTA ANUAL DEL MINISTERIO ORDENADO DE RÍO TEXAS

PARA INFORMACIÓN SOLAMENTE

Obispo, hermanas y hermanos de la Conferencia Anual de Río Texas, saludos en el nombre de nuestro Señor y Salvador Jesucristo. Desde la última vez que nos reunimos, la Junta del Ministerio Ordenado ha trabajado arduamente en nombre de la conferencia, discerniendo, desarrollando y equipando a nuestros líderes clérigos. Este año, nuestro trabajo ha agregado desafíos para enfrentar nuestras nuevas realidades en medio de covid-19 y la crisis que estamos soportando. Sin embargo, a pesar de esto, la Junta del Ministerio Ordenado ha creado pautas para entregar nuestro trabajo en este momento, así como pautas para nuestros Comités de Distrito en el Ministerio. Agradecemos a Dios por la gracia y la guía para poder continuar nuestro trabajo.

Como siempre, nuestro objetivo es acreditar a personas que hayan demostrado una gran capacidad para nuestras 5 cualidades de un líder misional: Competencia Étnica y Cultural, un corazón para la Evangelización, fe en su llamado de Dios, capacidad para desarrollar y equipar líderes misionales, y Capacidad Catalítica. Para alcanzar mejor este objetivo, reorganizamos nuestro proceso de entrevista de ordenación este año en torno a nuestros objetivos declarados de acreditar al clérigo que representan los más altos estándares de nuestras 5 cualidades misionales de líderes efectivos. Descubrimos que el nuevo proceso es tanto una bendición como un tiempo maravilloso de discernimiento espiritual intencional. Seguimos adelante con el trabajo que tenemos por delante y codiciamos sus oraciones en el trabajo que hacemos en nombre de la conferencia anual.

Este año estamos orgullosos de presentar a los siguientes candidatos para comisionarlos como presbíteros: Aaron M. Carter, Thomas A. Johnson y Patrick J. Melton.

Estamos orgullosos de presentar lo siguiente para plena membresía y ordenación:

Diácono: Lori M. Balensiefen

Presbíteros: Forrest M. Deviney, Reese A. Henry, III, Janet K. Larson, Michele M. Lott y Susan K. Rang.

Bendiciones,

Rev. Adam Knight

COMISIÓN EN ARCHIVOS E HISTORIA

INFORME I

PARA INFORMACIÓN SOLAMENTE

Este año, la Comisión de Archivos e Historia presenta una solicitud para la Iglesia Jackson Ranch (JRC) y el Cementerio; y el cementerio Eli Jackson (EJC) para convertirse en un sitio histórico metodista unido con la Comisión General de Archivos e Historia. Para iniciar el proceso de solicitud, la Comisión presentará su resolución en la conferencia anual de este año. Ambos sitios tienen raíces profundas que contribuyen a la rica historia del metodismo y la historia estadounidense en el sur de Texas.

Los fundadores de Jackson Ranch, Nathaniel Jackson y Matilda Hicks junto con sus hijos adultos fueron una familia interracial que huyó del racismo del Sur para encontrar la libertad en México. Al detenerse justo antes de la frontera mexicana, la familia se estableció en el condado de Hidalgo en 1857. Ahora se cree que Jackson Ranch era parte del ferrocarril subterráneo que ayudaba a los esclavos escapados en busca de su libertad.

En su rancho, Nathaniel Jackson construyó una capilla de adobe que fue la predecesora del JRC. En 1874, el reverendo A.H. Sutherland organizó formalmente la congregación del JRC. Juan de la Viña, propietario del vecino Rancho El Capote, se convirtió en uno de los primeros misioneros metodistas de ascendencia mexicana para el JRC y el MECS. Más tarde, sus dos hijos fundaron la Iglesia El Buen Pastor en Edinburg, que permanece activa hoy. En 1884, el hijo de Nathaniel Jackson, Martin, donó una quinta parte de un acre del rancho Jackson al MECS y construyó una iglesia de madera para el culto regular. El JRC y sus miembros fueron los catalizadores de varias iglesias aún activas hoy. Estos incluyen El Divino Redentor IMU en McAllen (1910), El Mesías IMU en Mission (1912) y La Trinidad UMC en Pharr (1913). El JRC ha hecho una contribución duradera y significativa a estas y otras iglesias metodistas de habla hispana en el sur de Texas.

El EJC se estableció como el primero de los dos cementerios familiares después de la muerte de Nathaniel Jackson en 1865. El EJC, así como el cementerio en los terrenos del JRC, son el lugar de descanso final para las personas multiculturales, principalmente los mexicanoamericanos y los afroamericanos. Estos cementerios reflejan la rica historia de la frontera.

La Comisión Histórica de Texas ha reconocido ambos lugares como sitios históricos. Esperamos continuar preservando la historia metodista presente en la Iglesia y Cementerio Jackson Ranch y el Cementerio Eli Jackson para las generaciones venideras con una designación de sitio histórico Metodista Unido por parte de la Comisión General de Archivo e Historia.

El archivo de la conferencia continúa aceptando documentos históricos donados relacionados con la historia metodista. Los artículos que se reciben son registros de membresía de la iglesia que incluyen certificados de bautismo, matrimonio y defunción. Los registros de la iglesia local son muy buscados, especialmente aquellos que alguna vez pertenecieron a la Conferencia de Río Grande.

El archivo de la conferencia periódicamente lleva a cabo solicitudes de investigación para historiadores de la iglesia, clérigos retirados y laicos interesados en la historia metodista del sur de Texas. Estas solicitudes de investigación han contribuido a la iglesia local y a los archivos pastorales en el archivo de la conferencia para proporcionar más información histórica para futuras investigaciones.

IGLESIA Y CEMENTERIO RANCHO JACKSON Y EL CEMENTERIO ELI JACKSON INFORME II PARA ACCIÓN DE LA CONFERENCIA

Iglesia y Cementerio Rancho Jackson y el Cementerio Eli Jackson

Considerando que: en 1874, la pareja interracial de Nathaniel Jackson y Matilda Hicks, junto con sus hijos adultos, huyeron del racismo en el Sur en busca de la libertad. Se detuvieron en el Río Grande en el condado de Hidalgo, donde establecieron el Rancho Jackson.

Considerando que: el Rancho Jackson de 5,535 acres fue comprado a un costo de 36¢ de E.D. Smith de Hidalgo, Texas. El rancho está ubicado a cinco millas al este de Hidalgo con una fachada de 0.7 millas al Río Grande de y se extiende al norte 13 millas entre las ciudades actuales de Pharr, San Juan y Edinburg, Texas.

Considerando que: El Rancho Jackson se convirtió en un paradigma de hospitalidad cristiana. Allí, Nathaniel desarrolló una cultura de aceptación completa al extranjero. Rancho Jackson dio la bienvenida a ex esclavos, nativos mexicanos, inmigrantes anglos y todos los que vinieron en busca de libertad y pertenencia.

Considerando que: ahora se cree que Rancho Jackson fue parte del Ferrocarril Subterráneo.

Considerando que: en 1874, el Reverendo A.H. Sutherland organizó formalmente la congregación de la Iglesia Rancho Jackson en Rancho El Capote.

Considerando que: El dueño del vecino Rancho El Capote, Juan Manuel de la Viña, se convirtió en uno de los primeros misioneros metodistas de ascendencia mexicana en la Iglesia Metodista Episcopal del Sur.

Considerando que: en 1913, los hijos del Sr. de la Viña, Juan y Plutarco, fundaron la Iglesia Metodista El Buen Pastor en Edinburg.

Considerando que: en 1884, Martin Jackson donó una quinta parte de un acre del Rancho Jackson al IMES y construyó una iglesia de madera para el culto regular. Esta congregación fue la primera congregación de habla hispana en el condado de Hidalgo. Esto fue reconocido por el Estado de Texas con un marcador histórico en 1982.

Considerando que: La iglesia de madera se hizo conocida como la Iglesia Rancho Jackson, que fue el catalizador para establecer varias iglesias IMES que todavía están activas hoy, incluyendo El Divino Redentor IMU en McAllen (1910), El Mesías IMU en Mission (1912) y La Trinidad IMU en Pharr (1913). Por lo tanto, creando una contribución duradera y significativa para establecer estas y otras iglesias metodistas de habla hispana en el sur de Texas.

Considerando que: El cementerio Eli Jackson, ubicado en los terrenos de Rancho Jackson se estableció como el primero de los dos cementerios familiares después de la muerte de Nathaniel Jackson en 1865. El cementerio es el lugar de descanso final para personas multiculturales, principalmente mexicanoamericanos y afroamericanos. En estos cementerios descansan los restos de muchas personas que fueron enterradas sin cargos y a quien se les había negado otros lugares de descanso debido a su raza, su credo o su pobreza. Estos cementerios reflejan la rica historia cultural de la frontera.

Considerando que: La sección superior oeste del cementerio Eli Jackson se distingue por una cruz de madera única cerca de un árbol. Se cree que la cruz fue tallada en un estilo militar diferente a otras cruces de madera talladas a mano en el cementerio. La documentación de las tumbas antes de 1896 no existe, pero son posiblemente los lugares de descanso final de soldados.

Por lo tanto, sea resuelto que la Iglesia y el Cementerio Rancho Jackson y el Cementerio Eli Jackson sean reconocidos por su lugar significativo en la historia del Movimiento Metodista en el Valle del Río Grande, así como por su lugar significativo en la historia del desarrollo del ministerio interracial e intercultural en la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Ambos sitios merecen ser reconocidos por la Comisión General de Archivos e Historia y designados como Sitios Históricos Metodistas Unidos.

OFICINA DE MINISTERIOS CONEXIONALES CONFERENCIA ANUAL AÑO 2020 SOLO PARA INFORMACIÓN

La Oficina de Ministerios Conexionales ha seguido ampliando sus capacidades de recursos para la Conferencia de Río Texas y la conexión Metodista Unida durante los últimos años. Como director, he encontrado importante seguir escuchando, discerniendo y construyendo relaciones dentro de nuestra conferencia anual, así como con nuestros socios y vecinos ecuménicos. Además de planificar estratégicamente eventos a pequeña y gran escala que apoyan, educan y brindan recursos importantes y oportunos para nuestro clero, laicos, congregaciones locales y sus campos misioneros, en 2018 esta oficina adquirió la supervisión de supervisión del Equipo de Desastre / Recuperación de Río Texas. A medida que nos acercamos al tercer aniversario del huracán Harvey y al cierre de este proyecto, nuestra conferencia celebra el excelente trabajo de este equipo y sus socios. Aprenderá más sobre el trabajo, la dedicación y las celebraciones en el informe de la conferencia pre-anual de este equipo, así como en el video y la revista preparados para la sesión del llamado AC 2020 programada para el 3 de octubre de 2020.

Convocatoria del clero: debido a la pandemia de COVID-19 (recomendaciones de los CDC y del gobierno local, es decir, distanciamiento social y número reducido de personas que podrían reunirse), la convocatoria en persona de este año con la oradora invitada Rev. Susan Beaumont se ha reprogramado para marzo de 2021. Aunque se pospone fue una decepción, las restricciones brindaron la oportunidad de reunirse y apoyarse unos a otros de formas nuevas y creativas a través de "Conversaciones con el clero", reflexión, oración y recursos utilizando una amplia gama de tecnología, como Facebook Live, Webinars y Zoom Conferencing. Los asistentes dejaron las conversaciones sintiéndose escuchados, apoyados, animados y más esperanzados durante estos tiempos difíciles.

Reunión de la Conferencia Anual (AC) - Al igual que con la Convocatoria del Clero, debido a la pandemia de COVID-19 (recomendaciones de los CDC y del gobierno local, es decir, distanciamiento social y número reducido de personas que pudieron reunirse y decisiones tomadas tanto por la Conferencia de Río Texas como por la Ciudad de Corpus Christi), la Conferencia AC en persona programada para el 10 y 13 de junio se canceló en su formato tradicional. Después de mucho discernimiento para avanzar, los componentes esenciales de los Negocios de la Conferencia Anual (BAC) se llevaron a cabo mediante el uso de tecnología, es decir, la Sesión del Clero o se llevarán a cabo en una sesión especial del AC programada para el 3 de octubre de 2020. El formato de la reunión del 3 de octubre ha pasado por varias transiciones a medida que el liderazgo de la conferencia continúa monitoreando el curso de la pandemia y las recomendaciones ofrecidas por el gobierno estatal y local, así como por los CDC. En el momento de escribir este artículo, el formato actual de la reunión del 3 de octubre se llevará a cabo virtualmente desde la Oficina de la Conferencia de Río Texas. A aquellas personas que se determine que son necesarias para informar y / o realizar negocios en persona, se les pedirá que sigan todo el protocolo de seguridad establecido por el gobierno local y nuestras políticas de Río Texas. Se enviará una carta a los delegados de la conferencia a través de la oficina del obispo antes del 3 de septiembre de 2020, en la que se describirán los asuntos esenciales que se llevarán a cabo, así como una oportunidad para adorar, informar y celebrar. Además, el registro se abrirá tras la publicación de esta carta, así como las instrucciones importantes para acceder a la reunión.

Nominaciones: la Conferencia Anual de Río Texas está profundamente comprometida con la excelencia y la diversidad en el liderazgo. Por lo tanto, el objetivo del Grupo de Liderazgo basado en aplicaciones presentado a principios de 2020 es crear un grupo de líderes calificados, con una base espiritual y comprometidos que a través del proceso de nominación de la conferencia se corresponderán con todas las necesidades de liderazgo de la conferencia anual. Como nota, aunque este es un año de elección cuatrienal, según las pautas de procedimiento presentadas en el Libro de Disciplina de la UMC, las nominaciones cuatrienales se han pospuesto hasta que la Conferencia General pueda reunirse y se anuncie una sesión especial del 2021 AC. Por lo tanto, se ha pedido a los miembros del comité y del equipo de la conferencia anual que permanezcan en sus puestos si están disponibles para hacerlo, hasta que se pueda realizar la votación cuatrienal. Mientras tanto, el proceso de nominación del grupo de líderes, disponible en el sitio web de la conferencia,

LA OFICINA DE CREAR Y VITALIZAR CONGREGACIONES Y DESARROLLAR LÍDERES

SOLO PARA INFORMACIÓN

Qué gozo ha sido trabajar este año pasado con tantas congregaciones, pastores, laicos, seminarios y ministros del campo educativo que aman a Jesús, con aquellos a quienes sirven en su comunidad o campo misionero.

Con el enfoque continuo en la productividad tanto en la vitalidad congregacional como en el desarrollo del liderazgo, ha sido un año muy laborioso. Río Texas ha iniciado 4 nuevas comunidades de fe y ha activado nuevas formas de potenciar el desarrollo de liderazgo. Tuve la alegría de caminar y trabajar con muchos líderes y pastores congregacionales, enseñando en muchas de las reuniones de profesionales del distrito, talleres de liderazgo distrital para laicos, con la vitalizada Conferencia de Siervos Laicos y Directores de Distrito, así como ayudar a los Equipos de Estrategia del distrito a idear cómo ellos podrían ayudar a alentar, enseñar y dirigir a las congregaciones a ser valerosos para alcanzar a la comunidad a la que sirven. Todas estas son estrategias por las cuales las iglesias podrán aprender, crecer y alcanzar a nuevas personas para Cristo.

Por supuesto, al escribir este informe del informe previo a la conferencia, hemos tenido que "refugiarnos en sitio" durante algo más de 4 semanas y hemos tenido que cambiar las formas en que alcanzamos y nos conectamos con las personas. Estoy muy orgullosa de que cuántos pastores y líderes de la iglesia han tomado algunos de los ejercicios innovadores y los han puesto en acción. Las congregaciones y los pastores están intentando usar cosas nuevas con valentía. Algunos funcionan muy bien y otros se están adaptando, ideando e intentando nuevamente. Hemos encontrado la agilidad de aprendizaje y la audacia que no teníamos antes de esta pandemia. Dios se está moviendo y las personas tanto dentro del código postal de la iglesia y más allá están escuchando las Buenas Nuevas de Jesús por medio de ustedes. ¡Gracias a Dios!

Creando Congregaciones: el mundo está cambiando y la iglesia necesita visualizar más allá de las formas "tradicionales" de alcanzar a nuevas personas para Cristo y los modelos a veces más atractivos de esperar a que las personas vengan de por sí. Mientras que las iglesias tradicionales nuevas y las iglesias de varios sitios y satélites siguen siendo muy importantes (y necesitamos más de ellas), también estas formas son costosas ya que están centradas en el clero cuando se inician. Hemos comenzado a enseñar e imaginar formas nuevas, más orgánicas y menos costosas para atraer aquellos que no asisten a congregaciones locales, con tales estrategias como Fresh Expressions (Nuevas Expresiones), Focused Worship (Adoración Enfocada) en la comunidad e Intentional Faith Community (Comunidad de Fe Intencional); al mismo tiempo que creamos espacio para nuevas formas aún no conocidas, de unirnos a Dios en formas creativas para alcanzar a las personas. En octubre de 2019, 24 de nuestros equipos de clérigos y laicos asistieron a la Conferencia Exponencial en Houston, seguida por un evento de dos días "Sembradores de Texas" patrocinado por un conjunto de cuatro conferencias de la IMU en Texas. Por resultado de ese evento, muchas de las iglesias están buscando nuevas formas de colaborar y comenzar nuevas iglesias o nuevos ministerios en la comunidad. La oficina de creación de congregaciones también llevó a cabo un evento de Discernimiento de Siembra de Iglesias donde 10 personas exploraron sus dones y valor para comenzar nuevas congregaciones. Creo que Dios bendecirá este tiempo de discernimiento y veremos más intentos de sembrar en el futuro.

Sobre un tema parecido, la Rda. Karen Horan fue invitada a dar una clase de Nueva Siembra de Iglesias en el otoño en el Seminario Teológico Presbiteriano de Austin (APTS). Esta clase estuvo disponible para todos los estudiantes de APTS y permitieron que cualquier otro clero auditara la clase. Este evento ayuda a promover la necesidad de que los sembradores escuchen la llamada sin importar su denominación.

¡Estoy emocionada de que en las 4 nuevas iglesias que comienzan los pastores nombrados en junio de 2019 se hayan convertido en 5 nuevas congregaciones! FUMC Pflugerville creará una nueva congregación que multiplicará al testimonio metodista en el área de East Pflugerville. El Rdo. Aarón Carter principiará una adoración semanal en la Iglesia Assurance en el otoño de 2020. Valley Praise IMU también lanzará un nuevo satélite en McAllen en el otoño de 2020 bajo el pastor del campo educativo, el Rdo. Kevin Hardin. Este será el tercer rebaño de Valley Praise IMU. El Rdo. Ray Altman (no se muestra en la foto aquí) continúa haciendo el profundo trabajo de crear comunidades de fe intencionales con New Wineskins (Nuevos Odres) en Leander. El completa su primer año de este ministerio a tiempo completo y no solo profundiza y amplía este trabajo, sino que también ha encontrado formas de compartir este ministerio de vanguardia de manera creativa a través de múltiples formas. Crestview IMU votó para convertirse en nuestra primera Iglesia de Legado, renunciando a las responsabilidades de liderazgo, propiedad y activos para que un sembrador de iglesias y su equipo puedan transformar la propiedad, enviar una afluencia de personas, para poder alcanzar a la comunidad inmediata de la congregación que estaba en declive anteriormente y comenzar una nueva comunidad. El Rdo. Jay Cooper y su equipo de la Iglesia Violet Crown City han comenzado tanto la adoración semanal (en línea) en abril como la construcción de la propiedad física. Es nuestra oración que no solo la mayoría, si no toda la comunidad de fe de la iglesia legada elija permanecer en conexión con la nueva comunidad de fe.

Finalmente, Austin New Church también está lanzando una nueva comunidad hispana llamada Amor Original con el pastor César Soto. César y su familia se mudaron aquí de Chile, donde ellos habían ayudado a comenzar nuevas comunidades de fe. Estamos entusiasmados de que haya comenzado a reunirse tanta gente en febrero y hayan principiado sus servicios de vista previa en línea en abril.

Dos iglesias más se han formado en este año anual de la Conferencia: Hope Arise IMU en San Antonio, en junio de 2019, y Austin New Church, en febrero de 2020.

Desarrollo de Liderazgo:

Se han visitado 4 seminarios para reclutar internados a la Conferencia Río Texas, seguido por visitas del Obispo en muchas ocasiones, entre ellos: la Escuela de Teología Candler, el Seminario Teológico Wesley, la Escuela de Teología Perkins y el Seminario Teológico Presbiteriano Austin. A partir de estas relaciones continuas, estamos planeando (a menos que sea interrumpido por Covid19) tener 5 internados en el seminario: 1 de Perkins, 1 de Duke, 2 de Candler y 1 del Seminario Teológico Wesley. Estas relaciones también han producido clases a corto plazo (en el término de enero o durante las vacaciones de primavera) presentadas por el obispo Schnase y otros de la Conferencia Río Texas, principalmente en la frontera. Candler envió 24 en enero de 2020, APTS tenía planeado un viaje de vacaciones de primavera, y Wesley y Perkins están planeando una clase conjunta en enero de 2021 en la frontera. Todas estas conexiones esperamos ayuden a formar y desarrollar futuros líderes de la Iglesia Metodista Unida.

También 50 personas asistieron a un evento de predicación en agosto de 2019 con un segundo evento programado en mayo de 2020. Estos eventos fueron patrocinados en par con la Escuela de Teología de Perkins y los Drs. Wes Allen y Alyce McKenzie. Estos eventos estuvieron disponibles a todos los pastores, así como a Obreros Laicos / Siervos y CLM's. Río Texas también tuvo dos cohortes de predicación que se reunieron durante 10 meses, obrando en el oficio de la predicación. El Dr. McKenzie trabajó con la cohorte bilingüe: tanto los hablantes nativos de español que desean practicar predicar más en inglés como los hablantes nativos de inglés que desean predicar más en español. El Dr. Allen trabajó con la otra cohorte. Ambos grupos estudiaron juntos, predicaron el uno para el otro y compartieron su vida de fe juntos. Esperamos continuar este modelo con Perkins el próximo año (agosto a mayo).

Ministerios de Siervos Laicos: Scott Maderer es el Director del Ministerio de Siervos Laicos de la Conferencia y ofrece este informe.

En los últimos años, el programa de Ministerios de Siervos Laicos (LSM) ha tenido, como muchos de los programas de nuestra iglesia, desafíos y éxitos. Nuestro comité actual LSM de la conferencia ha estado activo este año, intentando identificar nuevas y diferentes formas de trabajar juntos para poder ser el programa de capacitación más eficaz y mejor para los laicos en la Conferencia Río Texas. El Libro de Disciplina reconoce que para tener un Ministerio efectivo dentro de nuestra conferencia debemos desarrollar y alentar el liderazgo de los laicos; Este es el objetivo explícito del LSM. Los actuales Directores de Distrito y el Director Laico de la conferencia están trabajando juntos con un enfoque en: aumentar la comunicación y la cooperación en todos los distritos dentro de la conferencia; Desarrollar herramientas efectivas que todos podamos utilizar; Identificar nuevas clases en metodología en línea y fuera de línea; y alentar al Ministerio Laico, tanto a los Siervos Laicos como en Ministros Laicos Certificados, a ser creativos en la identificación de sus propios campos misioneros.

Los Directores de Distrito se reúnen regularmente ahora a través de Zoom en una actualización trimestral para poder compartir una metodología efectiva e información sobre los próximos cursos y lo que todos estamos intentando en nuestros propios distritos. De esta manera, vemos a los directores compartir información, aprender las mejores prácticas y alentar y permitir que surjan experimentos y nuevas visiones en cada distrito. Todavía estamos a principios del proceso y hemos tenido muchos desafíos y cambios, pero el equipo está comprometido a continuar en comunicación regular.

Cada distrito continúa llevando a cabo sus propios cursos, pero también estamos trabajando juntos para intentar a recuperar cursos efectivos del Ministerio laico de la conferencia. Al mismo tiempo, buscamos cuáles son las necesidades de los laicos e identificamos recursos de una variedad de fuentes que cubran esas necesidades en manera efectiva. El objetivo es desarrollar un liderazgo laico efectivo, en lugar de solo obtener una "certificación". Dentro de este panorama más amplio, anticipamos una mayor necesidad de un liderazgo laico efectivo dentro de la conferencia. Por lo tanto, estamos intentando trabajar proactivamente con aquellos llamados a los campos de misión únicos para proporcionar las herramientas y los recursos que ellos/as necesitan para ser más efectivos. Esto incluye estar más involucrado en el programa de Ministerio Laico Certificado y trabajar de cerca en todos los distritos para utilizar de manera efectiva los recursos limitados que proporcionen el apoyo necesario en toda la conferencia. De esta manera, los distritos no necesitarán inventar de nuevo la rueda o proporcionar recursos para un número limitado de laicos, mientras que aún pueden alentar a los laicos con apoyo y capacitación, trabajando en todos los distritos dentro de toda la conferencia. Que Dios continúe bendiciendo y haciendo crecer el liderazgo laico en la Conferencia Río Texas.

Ministerio de Universidad y Campo Educativo: El Ministerio del Campo Educativo continúa prosperando en la Conferencia Río Texas. ¡Once Ministerios del campo están en diez campos y llegan a casi mil estudiantes! La Rda. Lizzie Wright y el Rdo. Wes Cain están coordinando los Ministerios del campo junto con la Rda. Karen Horan en el centro de la conferencia. Los ministros del campo se unen en línea más regularmente entre sí, con sus equipos de estrategia del distrito y presentan informes periódicos a la oficina de la conferencia. De cierto, este semestre de primavera, con el Covid19, lanzó a todas las universidades a la enseñanza en línea, los pastores en sus propios campos han hecho un trabajo fantástico al mantenerse conectados en la adoración, la oración, el estudio e incluso la divulgación, ya que los estudiantes universitarios que no asisten a la misma escuela pueden reunirse virtualmente y seguir conectados entre sí y con Jesucristo. Todavía existe la necesidad de que las iglesias individuales se pongan en contacto con los estudiantes, especialmente cuando están en casa y van a la escuela; así que manténgase en contacto con los ministros del campus en su área. Río Texas mantiene liderazgo en el Ministerio del campo en UT Austin: The Texas Wesley y University IMU de Austin, UTSA por medio de la University IMU de San Antonio, SAC y Trinity University a través del personal del Ministerio del Campus SA y la Rda. Valerie Vogt, TLU a través de FUMC Seguin, UTRGV Wesley Center, Texas State: United Campus Annual Ministry, U of H en Victoria y Huston-Tillotson University. Se creará y se compartirá una presentación de diapositivas cuando nos reunamos en la

Congregaciones Vitalizantes:

La mayor parte del trabajo de vitalización ha sido a través de eventos de aprendizaje más grandes a nivel de distrito, así como el trabajo individual con congregaciones que repasan lo que aprendieron en el último año. Por ejemplo, después del Día de Visión de Fresh Expressions (Expresiones Nuevas) inicial (enero de 2019) y el Encuentro de Cena de la Iglesia (octubre de 2019), hemos tenido algunos ejemplos maravillosos de nuevas formas de alcanzar a nuevas personas. Aunque las iglesias no siempre informan, el Distrito de Las Misiones ha estado reuniendo números y 20 iglesias han informado que llevan a cabo reuniones regulares, estas para relacionarse con nuevas personas en el año próximo pasado. Esto incluye Teología de Cantina, reuniones de "Coro en la Calle" (como grupo extemporáneo pero de cantantes que invitan a otros a cantar y orar juntos), campamentos de fútbol para la comunidad y una variedad de otros eventos. FUMC Victoria comenzó una cena en la iglesia con gran éxito.

Kyle IMU también está haciendo un gran trabajo con su cena en la iglesia.

Muchas otras iglesias también han pedido a la Rda. Diana Phillips y al Rdo. Kendall Waller, de la oficina de la conferencia, que reciban capacitación sobre el modelo de gobierno de Estructura Simplificada, sobre la planificación estratégica de sus juntas, así como la visita de la Rda. Karen Horan en la que hable sobre cómo alcanzar a nuevas personas.

El Rdo. Ray Altman comenzó una cohorte en el Distrito Capital para alcanzar a sus vecinos e involucrarse de una manera profundamente relacional.

El Grupo Unstuck (Despegado) también ha estado trabajando con algunas de nuestras iglesias. Hasta la fecha, una iglesia ha completado su proceso Unstuck (Pflugerville IMU) y una iglesia está por completar su proceso (Asbury UMC Corpus Christi) con una iglesia más, la cual comenzará su proceso en agosto de 2020 (es decir, St. John IMU de Corpus Christi). El Grupo Unstuck lleva a cabo una evaluación intensiva de por qué la iglesia está "estancada" a nivel o en declive. Luego tienen un entrenamiento de fin de semana "con esteroides" con el clero y de 12 a 15 líderes laicos. Se crea una línea de tiempo de ritmo rápido para impulsar a la iglesia y movilizarla durante el siguiente año hasta llegar a el nivel de una iglesia que alcance a nuevas personas en sus vecindarios propios.

Finalmente, desde vísperas de la Conferencia Anual del año pasado, 11 iglesias recibieron subvenciones para el ministerio "Pueblo Nuevo, Lugares Nuevos" en un total de $ 84,689. De estas 11 subvenciones, 3 de las subvenciones de un total de $ 31,000 fueron asignadas para alcanzar específicamente a comunidades hispanas latinas. Algunas de las subvenciones eran para alcanzar nuevas formas de servir a los marginados; otros para alcanzar a unidades de apartamentos y enseñar inglés. Una subvención fue para un Ministerio de campo que enseña a los estudiantes universitarios el orden del culto principal en las congregaciones locales y en el campo, mientras que otros están reuniendo a pueblos enteros ecuménicamente para principiar una nueva comunidad de adoración,. Aún mientras que otros se acercaron a los niños en su campo misionero. ¡Qué alegría fue asociarse con tantas iglesias al alcanzar a nuevas personas para poder hacerlas más vitales en su área! Estas subvenciones se ofrecen 3 veces al año y esperamos que los fondos se puedan utilizar a lo máximo.

Respetuosamente,

Rda. Karen Horan

MESA UNIDA DE RIO TEXAS

INFORME DEL PRESIDENTE SOLAMENTE PARA INFORMACIÓN

Hace más de 20 años, Ron Heifetz y Donald Laurie escribieron un artículo en el Harvard Business Review titulado "El Trabajo del Liderazgo". Mantengo un resumen de una página de este artículo cerca de mi escritorio como un recordatorio de "Problemas Técnicos Frente a Desafíos Adaptativos". Comienza el artículo diciendo que el mayor fracaso del liderazgo es tratar los desafíos de adaptación como problemas técnicos. Permítanme repetirlo: El mayor fracaso del liderazgo es tratar los desafíos de adaptación como problemas técnicos. Este, mis amigos, es uno de los peligros que enfrentamos en el mundo de hoy. Permítanme explicar.

Los problemas técnicos tienen estas características: 1) Son fácil de identificar, 2) A menudo, se prestan a soluciones rápidas y fáciles, 3) A menudo, pueden ser resueltos por una autoridad o un experto, 4) Requieren cambios en solo uno o pocos lugares, generalmente dentro de los límites de la organización, 5) La gente es receptiva generalmente a las soluciones técnicas, y 6) Las soluciones a menudo se pueden implementar rápidamente, incluso por edicto. Sin embargo, por otro lado, los desafíos adaptativos son un poco más complejos, con estas características: 1) Difícil de identificar, pero fácil de negar, 2) Requieren cambios en los valores, creencias, roles, relaciones y enfoques del trabajo, 3) Las personas con los problemas en mano hacen el trabajo de resolverlos, 4) Requieren cambios en numerosos lugares, generalmente cruzando los límites organizacionales, 5) La gente a menudo se resisten incluso a reconocer los desafíos adaptativos, y 6) Las "soluciones" requieren experimentos y nuevos descubrimientos; su implementación puede llevar mucho tiempo y no se pueden implementar por edicto.

Sí, los desafíos de adaptación requieren trabajo y no pueden tratarse como un problema técnico. Este año ha sido un año de desafíos adaptativos. COVID-19 encerró al mundo mientras atacaba nuestra propia alma. Lamentamos la pérdida de aquellos que han muerto a causa de este temido virus. Oramos con aquellos que se han enfermado y con las familias que todavía están sufriendo una pérdida debido a las continuas luchas con esta pandemia. Abordar esta situación no es un problema técnico. Es uno de los desafíos de adaptación más complejos que jamás haya enfrentado la iglesia. Hemos pospuesto las reuniones de la Conferencia Anual, la Conferencia General y las Conferencias Jurisdiccionales. Afortunadamente, no se ha pospuesto el ministerio, porque el ministerio se ha llevado a cabo y continuará adelante, e incluso florecerá. Las congregaciones han descubierto nuevas maneras e innovadoras de adorar y alcanzar a otros con el amor de Dios. Ha creado nuevas formas para que las congregaciones y la conferencia anual conduzcan sus reuniones. Las reuniones de ZOOM se han convertido en la norma, no en la excepción. Me alientan las diversas maneras en que los ministerios de nuestra conferencia se han extendido durante esta temporada. Tuvimos que convertirnos en competentes técnicos casi de la noche a la mañana. Muchas congregaciones se han adaptado a la forma en que transmiten en vivo sus servicios de adoración. Lo que me preocupa es que con todos estos cambios, algunos pastores estén trabajando tan arduamente que no toman el tiempo para reanimar el alma. Después de todo, "Lidiar con una pandemia, 101" no es un curso de seminario. Uno de nuestros desafíos de adaptación es encontrar nuevas maneras de cuidarnos y animarnos los unos a otros: de tender la mano con amor y hacer la pregunta de Wesley: "¿Cómo se encuentra tu alma?"

La Mesa Unida se reunió en el centro de conferencias el 23 de noviembre de 2019, y a través de ZOOM el 28 de marzo de 2020 y el 6 de mayo de 2020. En nuestra reunión de noviembre discernimos y compartimos las formas en que la Conferencia Anual contendría con el tema de "En misión - En Amar: Nos Convertimos en la Palabra ". También deseábamos hacer una obra misionera in situ. Bueno, uno de nuestros desafíos de adaptación es que esos eventos no pudieron suceder como lo deseábamos, pero todavía hemos encontrado maneras en la conferencia para continuar en misión y ser amorosos y en esas acciones nos hemos convertido en la Palabra. A medida que nuestras reuniones progresaron durante el año, descubrimos que nosotros, como conferencia anual, estábamos encontrando nuevas maneras de ejercer y de permanecer en el ministerio, y encontramos nuevas formas de definir la fidelidad. Nuestras congregaciones se han mantenido fieles durante este tiempo de prueba.

Mientras continuamos liderando en esta pandemia, he descubierto que la iglesia es verdaderamente amorosa y encuentra maneras innovadoras de continuar en misión. Durante un tiempo en el que estamos divididos en tantos temas, desde la sexualidad hasta la raza y la política, tal vez podamos hacer una pausa o exhalar un suspiro de adaptación y recordar las palabras en la oración de Jesús en Juan: Y ya no estoy en el mundo; mas éstos están en el mundo, y yo voy a ti. Padre santo, a los que me has dado, guárdalos en tu nombre, para que sean uno. "(Juan 17:11, RVR 1960) Que seamos uno, esa es mi oración.

Dios los bendiga a todos y cada uno de ustedes,

Rev. Ralph D. Mann, D. Min.

DEPARTAMENTO DE MINISTERIOS TÉCNICOS

SOLAMENTE PARA INFORMACION

Después de varios años de dedicado servicio, el Rdo. Will Rice y Austin Newton han dejado el Departamento de Comunicaciones y Medios de Ministerios y la oficina de la Conferencia Río Texas. Su dedicación y servicio crearon la base de este departamento. Es una fundación muy respetada y apreciada que ha permitido que los nuevos miembros del personal (apoyados por Sylvia Treviño) asuman el importante trabajo que surge de este departamento.

La oficina de la conferencia, como muchas iglesias, tiene departamentos enfocados en diferentes áreas de ministerio y servicio. Cada departamento tiene un propósito importante en conexión a la misión general de la conferencia y, siendo así, trabajan hacia un aspecto específico de esa misión según lo define el ministerio de alcance del departamento. El Departamento de Comunicaciones y Medios de Ministerios es único en el sentido de que gran parte de su misión es servir a los departamentos dentro de la oficina de la conferencia. Esto le da al departamento el privilegio de ser parte del ministerio que se lleva a cabo en toda la conferencia. El trabajo ejecutado por los ministerios del Departamento de Comunicaciones y Medios de Ministerios se extiende más allá del trabajo de comunicaciones. Para poder ayudar a compartir el alcance completo del trabajo que desarrolla este departamento, el departamento pasó a llamarse el Departamento de Ministerios Técnicos. El trabajo del departamento se puede dividir en cuatro secciones. Comunicaciones, Tecnología, Diseño y Audio / Video / Iluminación (AVL).

En julio de 2019, Jozlin Parker aceptó el cargo de Directora de Departamento de Comunicaciones y Medios de Ministerios. Posteriormente, este puesto se nombraba Director de Ministerios Técnicos. Andrew Bradley se unió al departamento como subdirector en octubre de 2019. Con los dos de los tres nuevos miembros del equipo de Ministerios Técnicos (TechMin) en la oficina de la conferencia, se ha dedicado mucho tiempo a aprender los entresijos del trabajo de la conferencia. Durante su instalación, han habido varios proyectos que han hecho contribuciones significativas a la conferencia.

A Ministerios Técnicos se le ha encomendado la meta a largo plazo de ayudar a consolidar y simplificar la infraestructura tecnológica dura y blanda de la conferencia. Este objetivo a largo plazo se ha combinado con el movimiento hacia un entorno más colaborativo tanto dentro de la oficina de la conferencia como con los distritos e iglesias. Estos objetivos han comenzado a afectar todo, desde correos electrónicos hasta políticas de comunicaciones, flujos de trabajo, sitios web, bases de datos, hardware en sitio, experiencia del usuario, etc. Las tecnologías colaborativas permiten que las iglesias trasladen sus servicios en línea durante una pandemia, permiten que el clero de toda la conferencia se una y planifique el culto de adoración de la Conferencia Anual, y pueda ayudar a brindar un lugar en la mesa a personas que quizás no hayan sido escuchadas antes. Aunque este trabajo ha apenas comenzado recientemente, el equipo de TechMin ya ha ahorrado miles de dólares e innumerables horas de tiempo del personal.

El Departamento de Ministerios Técnicos ha continuado a mantener y facilitar el uso del Centro de Medios, ha trabajado para ayudar a las iglesias a desarrollar una presencia en línea y continúa dirigiendo comunicaciones de la oficina de la conferencia. COVID-19 cambió los planes de 2020 en organizaciones de todo el mundo. Mientras que el mundo vuelve a algo parecido a la normalidad, el equipo de TechMin espera crear una red de Ministros Técnicos en toda la conferencia. El propósito de esta red sería dar ayuda a los ministros técnicos a través de la conferencia a compartir las formas creativas que están usando en la tecnología para servir en su campo misional. Por medio de conexión y colaboración, la tecnología se puede utilizar para promover la misión de esta conferencia.

COMITÉ DE RESPUESTA A DESASTRES DE LA CONFERENCIA RIO TEXAS SOLO PARA INFORMACIÓN

El Comité de Respuesta a Desastres continúa apoyando el esfuerzo de recuperación masivo que queda del huracán Harvey, así como las inundaciones en el Valle del Río Grande, pero sigue comprometido a responder a los nuevos desastres que ocurren en la Conferencia. El año pasado fue relativamente tranquilo, pero hubo una gran inundación, por el segundo año consecutivo, en el Valle del Río Grande y un pequeño tornado en San Angelo.

Cuando ocurre un desastre, se le llama a los Equipos de Respuesta Temprana (ERT) para ayudar con la limpieza. Todos los miembros del ERT están certificados por el UMCOR (Comité Metodista Unido de Socorro) (United Methodist Committee on Relief) y deben completar un día de capacitación. Este año se capacitó a 70 personas, lo cual llega a un total de 707. Muchos de estos miembros del equipo han recibido capacitación especial adicional. Estos incluyen: 78 operadores de motosierras, 43 operadores de mini cargadoras, 83 evaluadores de sitio, 45 líderes de equipo, 12 especialistas avanzados de limpieza y 15 gerentes en sitio. La Conferencia Río Texas es un líder nacional en capacitación en línea, lo cual permite que sea más conveniente volver a certificarse a los miembros del equipo (cada tres años) y recibir capacitación avanzada especializada.

El Centro de Respuesta a Desastres Martínez continúa sirviendo como un centro de recolección de estuches UMCOR reunidos por las iglesias en la Conferencia, así como el almacenamiento de equipos de respuesta a desastres. UMCOR ahora recibe solo estuches escolares, estuches de higiene y estuches de limpieza (cubos de inundación). El centro sirve como sitio de recolección para todos los estuches, pero el inventario principal es de estuches de limpieza junto con una pequeña cantidad de estuches de higiene. En un cambio de lo de años anteriores, UMCOR envió estuches de limpieza a las instalaciones de Kerrville porque estábamos sobrecargados de ellos y teníamos espacio después de los envíos hechos a las inundaciones del Valle anteriormente mencionadas. Hay oportunidades limitadas de voluntariado en el centro de Kerrville, para que los grupos examinen los estuches de limpieza antes de entregarlos a los sobrevivientes de las inundaciones. Póngase en contacto con el gerente de almacén Jack Clarke en jack@jdc3.com para obtener información sobre oportunidades de voluntariado.

El Valle del Río Grande experimentó grandes inundaciones en junio de 2018 y 2019. Por medio de una subvención de $ 500,000 de UMCOR, la Conferencia Río Texas enfocó sus esfuerzos de recuperación en la mitigación para los sobrevivientes de repetidas inundaciones en las colonias. Muchas casas se han inundado varias veces en los últimos diez años. Con el apoyo de Roland Pecina, gerente de proyectos de construcción, y Stephanie Villareal González, gerente de casos de desastre, 57 sobrevivientes han recibido asistencia, y diez sobrevivientes recibieron compromisos de apoyo financiero, lo cual resultó en la reconstrucción completa de nuevas viviendas que se construyeron a elevación por encima de las posibles zonas de inundación. Por medio de asociaciones con AmeriCorps NCCC, Nomads RV Group, Mennonite Disaster Services, FUMC McAllen, el Distrito El Valle y otros grupos de voluntarios, se ha logrado un progreso significativo en la reconstrucción de nueve de las diez casas. La Conferencia Río Texas también fue reconocida como "Patrocinadora de la Ronda" por AmeriCorps debido al liderazgo y la tutoría brindados por Roland Pecina y el personal de la CRT. El impacto del virus Corona ha impactado severamente los esfuerzos de los voluntarios y afectará los resultados de este subsidio programado a clausurar en agosto de 2020.

El área de Highland Lakes de los condados de Burnet y Llano experimentó grandes inundaciones en octubre de 2018. UMCOR otorgó una subvención de $ 100,000 a la Conferencia Río Texas que nos permitió proporcionar servicios de administración de casos y apoyo financiero para reparaciones de viviendas dañadas a bordo de los ríos Llano y Colorado.

Esta subvención se finalizó en enero de 2020, apoyando a 63 sobrevivientes.

La recuperación del huracán Harvey, que azotó en agosto de 2017, ha sido de cierto la pieza central del Ministerio de Respuesta a Desastres. Gracias a casi cinco millones de dólares de UMCOR y la participación en el Programa de Manejo de Casos de Desastres (DCMP) financiado por FEMA, la Conferencia ha trabajado con más de 1000 familias que viven en 14 condados afectados en los distritos de Crossroads y Coastal Bend. Estamos muy orgullosos y agradecidos por el personal de construcción y administración de casos contratados localmente los cuales han desempeñado un papel clave en el servicio y la asistencia a tantos sobrevivientes de huracanes.

A partir del 1 de abril de 2020, la Conferencia ha completado aproximadamente 270 proyectos de construcción valorados en $ 5.6M que han incluido reparaciones y reemplazos de casas (casas móviles, casas rodantes y reconstrucciones completas). Cabe mencionar que los administradores de casos de la Conferencia Río Texas han aprovechado los fondos para sus clientes para reparaciones y reemplazos de viviendas de otros financiadores, además del apoyo brindado por Río Texas. Las reparaciones y los reemplazos de viviendas no serían posibles si no fuera por los fondos disponibles a través de las Tablas de Necesidades Insatisfechas patrocinadas por grupos locales de recuperación a largo plazo. Hasta la fecha, la Conferencia Río Texas ha brindado aproximadamente $ 4.6 millones de dólares de asistencia financiera para satisfacer las necesidades de los sobrevivientes del huracán Harvey, administrados por Río Texas, la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paul, el Grupo de Recuperación a Largo Plazo del condado de Victoria, el Grupo de Recuperación de Desastres de Coastal Bend, Caridades Católicas, Servicios Sociales Luteranos y BCFS. Los fondos disponibles en las mesas son proporcionados por obsequios hechos al Fondo de Respuesta a Desastres por individuos, iglesias y conferencias de la IMU. Además, los principales obsequios de UMCOR se han complementado con subvenciones a la Conferencia de la Cruz Roja Americana, Reconstrucción Texas, Bonneville Inc. y la Fundación Kronkosky. Los servicios de administración y construcción de casos de Río Texas se finalizarán el 31 de mayo con el cierre total del programa en agosto de 2020.

Todo este trabajo no sería posible sin ustedes y sus iglesias. Para obtener más información, visite www.riotexasresponse.org para comunicarse con el coordinador de Respuesta a Desastres de su distrito, o comuníquese con nosotros por medio de la oficina de la conferencia.

SOLAMENTE PARA INFORMACIÓN

La Conferencia Río Texas está bien representada por personas que responden al llamado de Dios para servir en misión. La conferencia también está bien representada en el apoyo misionero: en 2019, las congregaciones dieron $ 45,885.10 para apoyar al personal de la misión que está llevando las Buenas Nuevas en todo el país y en todo el mundo.

Actualmente, hay seis diaconisas activas de y que sirven en la Conferencia Río Texas. Ellas son

Kristen Bowdre, Coordinadora de desempeño y evaluación de justicia juvenil, Southwest Key Programs, Austin

Tara Carnesi; Cuidado directo, Sunnyglen Children's Home. San Benito

Sonia Cruz; Coordinadora, Rethink Mercy, Westlawn UMC, San Antonio

Cindy Johnson; Consultora de Discernimiento, Oficina de Diaconisas y Misionera del Hogar, Oficina Nacional de Mujeres Metodistas Unidas

Julie Smith; Directora de Alcance y Niños, primer UMC, Bastrop

Diana Woods; Administradora en Sitio, Programa de Socios Comunitarios, Buda UMC

Las diaconisas y las misioneras de Hogar son laicas y laicas llamadas por Dios para tener una relación de por vida en la Iglesia Metodista Unida en los ministerios de amor, justicia y servicio a tiempo completo. Después de su comisión, cada persona encuentra su propio lugar de trabajo. La Oficina de Diaconisas ha sido parte de nuestra tradición como iglesia desde 1888.

La Oficina del Misionero Doméstico se estableció en la Conferencia General de 2004. Actualmente, el programa Diaconisas and Misioneras de Hogar es administrado por la Oficina Nacional de Mujeres Metodistas Unidas.

Muchas congregaciones de Río Texas apoyan a uno de los casi 300 misioneros de los Ministerios Globales que sirven en más de 60 países. Una de esos 300 misioneros de la Conferencia Río Texas es la Rev. Anna Troy, que se desempeña como Directora de Ministerios de Corazón Abierto en Clarksburg, WV (<http://openheartwv.weebly.com/>).

Anticipamos recibir a la misionera Emily Everett durante su itinerario en la conferencia anual a fines de noviembre de 2020, y esperamos recibir a otros misioneros cuando finalicen sus itinerarios.

Si se siente Ud. llamado a convertirse en misionero, explore las diversas categorías de oportunidades de servicio misionero para adultos y jóvenes adultos a corto y largo plazo que se describen en el sitio web de Ministerios Globales (<https://www.umcmision.org/serve-with-us/missionaries>)

DOMINGO DE UMCOR 2019*SOLAMENTE PARA INFORMACIÓN*

El Domingo de UMCOR (UMCOR Sunday) (anteriormente llamado One Great Hour of Sharing) es uno de los seis domingos especiales reconocidos en toda la iglesia con ofrendas de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. La participación en la ofrenda dominical de UMCOR es uno de los dos requisitos básicos para las congregaciones de la Conferencia Río Texas que desean alcanzar el estatus de iglesia de Cinco Estrellas. (El otro requisito es el pago del 100% de las distribuciones).

En 2019, la oferta total del Domingo de UMCOR de las iglesias de Río Texas fue de $ 53,000.87, una disminución de $ 14,594.66 del monto recaudado en 2018.

Distrito Capital - 19 iglesias; $ 11,635.75
 Distrito Coastal Bend - 28 iglesias; $ 7,820.76
 Distrito Crossroads - 45 iglesias; $ 10,550.30
 Distrito de El Valle - 12 iglesias; $ 3,583.26
 Distrito Hill Country - 26 iglesias; $ 7,622.42
 Distrito de Las Misiones - 35 iglesias; $ 7,972.32
 Distrito Oeste - 16 iglesias; $ 3,816.06

Un agradecimiento especial a First UMC Gonzales por dar la mayor oferta congregacional:
 $ 4,686.

El Comité Metodista de Socorro (ahora UMCOR, el Comité Metodista Unido de Socorro) fue fundado en la década de 1940 para responder al sufrimiento después del inicio de la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Durante 80 años ha sido la organización global de ayuda humanitaria y desarrollo de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Todos los recibos del domingo de UMCOR ayudan a apoyar al pequeño pero impactante personal de UMCOR que son especialistas en respuesta y recuperación ante desastres. Los fondos también aseguran una capacitación adecuada para los coordinadores de respuesta a emergencias, voluntarios de construcción, administradores de casos que ayudan a las víctimas de desastres, bandas de motosierras e instaladores de hojas de yeso. El amplio alcance del trabajo de UMCOR incluye respuesta a desastres, ministerios de refugiados, programas de hambre y pobreza y proyectos sostenibles de desarrollo global.

Debido a que en Río Texas nos unimos a las ofrendas de nuestra iglesia con las de las congregaciones metodistas unidas de todo el mundo, UMCOR sigue siendo fuerte en sus operaciones diarias. Cuando las necesidades son inmediatas, UMCOR puede responder rápida y eficientemente con señales de gracia extravagante y asistencia experta.

Gracias a todas las congregaciones que apoyaron esta oferta vital en 2019 e hicieron posible que la Iglesia Metodista Unida se acercara a cuidar a nuestros vecinos necesitados.

EQUIPO DE VISIÓN DE TRANSFORMANDO COMUNIDADES / OFICINA DE MINISTERIOS DE MISIÓN, SERVICIO, Y JUSTICIA

SOLAMENTE PARA INFORMACIÓN

Desde 2015, el Equipo de Visión de Transformación de Comunidades se ha reunido dos veces al año para recordar y ensayar la visión de la oportunidad de la iglesia de transformar las comunidades. El cargo del Equipo de Visión es apoyar y aprender de los ministerios de misión, servicio y justicia dentro de la Conferencia Río Texas y como se expresó a través de las carteras de ministerio del Libro de Disciplina 2016 de UMC de Ministerios Globales y Iglesia y Sociedad - párrafos 629, 633, 654, 656 y 657 y se describen de acuerdo con la Regla 5 Reglas permanentes de RTC

El Equipo de Visión fomenta las relaciones y el diálogo con diversas entidades que reflejan los alcances y ministerios de misión, como Ministerios de Salud Metodistas, Justicia para Nuestros Vecinos, Impacto de Texas y Federación Metodista para la Acción Social. Asimismo, el Equipo de Visión y la Oficina de Misión, Servicio y Ministerios de Justicia trabajan con equipos de tareas y coordinadores en las áreas de:

- Procesamiento del personal de la misión e itinerario

- Respuestas de inmigración / migración y ministerios fronterizos
- Desarrollo comunitario a través del Programa de Praxis de Comunidades Transformadoras

- Comité de Respuesta a Desastres de la Conferencia
- Equipo de Desarrollo de Voluntarios en Misión de la Conferencia
- Domingo de Cosecha de la Conferencia Río Texas

Los informes específicos dentro de la cartera del Equipo de Visión de Comunidades Transformadoras y el Secretario de la Conferencia para los Ministerios Globales proporcionados en el Informe Previo a la Conferencia 2020 son:

CONECTANDO AL CAMPO DE LA MISIÓN

El informe estadístico de la conferencia 2019 refleja indicadores de los ministerios de misión, servicio y justicia que fluyen de la iglesia local. A continuación se muestra una reflexión sobre estos ministerios en toda la conferencia sobre la vida de los cinco años de historia de la Conferencia Río Texas.

Los datos autoinformados de la actividad de la iglesia local revelan un aumento significativo en el número de personas servidas por los ministerios comunitarios para divulgación, justicia y misericordia [Línea 23] en los últimos cinco años, de 677,004 en 2015 a 986,992 en 2019. Esto posiblemente refleja el aumento necesidades descubiertas en comunidades servidas a través de estos ministerios críticos. Para comprender esto específicamente, el tipo de ministerios y las necesidades abordadas necesitarían ser calificados.

Con respecto al número de personas de las congregaciones que sirven en los ministerios de misión y comunidad [Línea 22], mostramos un aumento de 11,027 personas involucradas durante cinco años. En 2017, 42,059 personas estuvieron involucradas, lo que representa un aumento de 16,801 personas respecto al año anterior. Aunque no está completamente justificado, se cree que este aumento dramático en la participación podría deberse a la respuesta voluntaria en diversas formas al alivio del huracán Harvey.

Cada vez más, estamos conscientes de la importancia de participar en el ministerio "con" la comunidad en lugar de llevar a cabo el ministerio "a" la comunidad y la importancia de fomentar el ministerio por medio de relaciones mutuas para transformar comunidades y congregaciones, respectivamente.

COMUNIDADES TRANSFORMACIONALES DE LA PRAXIS

Mediante el continuo apoyo financiero de Healthcare Ministerios Metodistas de Sur Texas, Inc., el programa de Comunidades Transformacionales de Praxis [TCOP], ahora en el 4º año, ha capacitado a diez equipos de iglesia y comunidad para que participen en nuevos métodos y enfoques de alcance misionero que conduzcan al desarrollo de comunidad y congregación. Durante 2020, tres equipos más se están entrenados. TCOP se basa en descubrir, conectar y aprovechar los dones y activos que fluyen de las relaciones que la iglesia construye con sus vecinos de la comunidad: residentes, organizaciones e instituciones; todos trabajando hacia una transformación mutua. Para obtener una descripción general del programa, visite www.tcoppraxis.org.

Los aprendizajes estratégicos y los primeros resultados del TCOP obtenidos de las entrevistas con los participantes de la cohorte 2017 y 2018 indicaron tres resultados iniciales: 1.) cambios dentro de las personas, 2.) cambios dentro de las congregaciones o ministerios asociados, y 3.) cambios dentro del contexto del ministerio de las congregaciones.

Con respecto a los cambios dentro de las personas, varios clérigos informaron cambios en su propio liderazgo que incluyeron una nueva apertura a las asociaciones con organizaciones fuera de la iglesia, un cambio de mentalidad de ver a las personas necesitadas como objetos del trabajo misionero a ver a las personas como socios en la misión, una nueva conciencia más profunda del contexto de su ministerio, y un cambio de estilo de liderazgo de comando y control a un estilo de líder como facilitador que libera los dones de congregantes y miembros de la comunidad y fomenta el llamado. Varios equipos informaron que surgieron nuevos líderes como resultado de la participación del TCOP. La mayoría de los equipos compartieron historias de unirse con nuevos individuos y familias en la comunidad y brindar apoyo concreto. Los ejemplos de la historia incluyen: ayudar a los vecinos con el mantenimiento diferido de jardín y la pintura de la casa, la eliminación de los piojos que infestaban a una familia y afectaban la asistencia de los niños a la escuela, y organizar horarios regularmente programados para que la comunidad envíe solicitudes de oración. La mayoría de los equipos informaron haber visto un aumento en la participación de los ciudadanos en el bienestar de su comunidad. En un caso, una persona que había sido objeto de la organización benéfica de la iglesia fue invitada a unirse al equipo de la misión como una persona de divulgación remunerada y ahora es el líder remunerado de un nuevo proyecto que surgió de la participación del TCOP llamada Tienda Gratis.

Con respecto a los cambios dentro de las congregaciones o los ministerios asociados, en varios ejemplos, los métodos, prácticas y enfoques del TCOP se comparten con otros más allá del equipo que participó en las sesiones de aprendizaje. Hay nuevos esfuerzos para equipar a los feligreses para que sean más relacionales y menos transaccionales con los vecinos de la iglesia. Se está compartiendo un enfoque relacional basado en activos con iglesias, gobiernos, escuelas y organizaciones sin fines de lucro que no pertenecen a la IMU. En el entorno grande de la iglesia, TCOP ha sido un catalizador para conectar los puntos entre los ministerios dentro de la congregación, expandir los ministerios existentes y recrear la participación en los ministerios comunitarios que brindan alivio sin el compromiso de abordar también las causas fundamentales. Una iglesia informó que la congregación había agregado miembros como resultado directo del TCOP y ha cambiado de un enfoque de misión basado en las necesidades a un enfoque basado en los activos para involucrarse con la comunidad.

Con respecto a los cambios dentro del contexto del ministerio de las congregaciones, cada equipo informó una creciente red de asociaciones, un importante impulsor del bienestar de la comunidad, que se formó como resultado del TCOP. La red de socios varía según el contexto, pero incluye escuelas, policía, instituciones de salud, otras iglesias y agencias de servicios sociales. Los equipos informaron que su iglesia es vista cada vez más como un recurso para la comunidad. Y, a medida que se le pide a la iglesia que se asocie para responder a los problemas y preocupaciones locales, la iglesia se está incrustando más profundamente en su comunidad. Los equipos están viendo cambio en el comportamiento de algunos de sus socios comunitarios de manera positiva y vital. Por ejemplo, una pequeña ciudad informa que la policía ya no cita infracciones a los propietarios de propiedades arruinadas como su primera respuesta. En cambio, esperan que la iglesia y su creciente red de socios comunitarios ofrezcan asistencia al propietario y una solución más reparadora. En otra ciudad, un oficial ausente está conectando a las familias con la iglesia y su red de socios comunitarios para abordar algunos de los problemas subyacentes del hogar que impiden la asistencia de un niño a la escuela.

En resumen, los aprendizajes y resultados estratégicos clave son: identificación de nuevos líderes, nuevas habilidades de liderazgo y cambio de mentalidad para los líderes actuales; los ministerios transaccionales existentes están haciendo esfuerzos para ser más relacionales; mayor conciencia del contexto del ministerio de la iglesia que incluye no solo problemas, sino que también incluye fortalezas, activos y recursos no explorados de la comunidad; y conciencia de un terreno común (y un nuevo lenguaje común) con el cual construir asociaciones locales para el bienestar de la comunidad.

Los resultados destacados del Año 3 describen los hallazgos de una evaluación cualitativa de fin de año (2019) con los equipos de TCOP. El método cualitativo utilizado se basa en el proceso de la historia del cambio más significativo. Los miembros del equipo de diseño de TCOP facilitaron las entrevistas y analizaron los datos. Este mismo método se utilizó en 2018 y los resultados se observaron en tres dominios: cambios dentro de los individuos, cambios dentro de las congregaciones y cambios dentro de la comunidad. Los resultados de la evaluación de 2018 condujeron al desarrollo de la Teoría de Cambio. Esta Teoría de Cambio es útil para comprender los resultados de la evaluación de 2019. Al igual que 2018 y a través de las historias compartidas por los equipos de TCOP en 2019, se sigue viendo evidencia de los siguientes resultados: 1.) capacidad de liderazgo, 2.) relaciones y colaboraciones, 3.) cambios de mentalidad y 4.) atención integral de vecinos.

Con respecto a la capacidad de liderazgo, los miembros de Bethel IMU - San Antonio (Cohorte 2019) informaron un crecimiento en sus propias habilidades de liderazgo como resultado de la capacitación básica de TCOP. Cuando llevaron sus nuevas habilidades y conocimientos a su iglesia, identificaron nuevos líderes dentro de la congregación (aproximadamente 20) que aún no se habían comprometido con su iglesia fuera del culto del domingo por la mañana. A finales de año, estas nuevas personas estaban participando en iniciativas de alcance comunitario, e incluso comenzando una nueva.

Con respecto a las relaciones y colaboraciones, First IMU - Poteet (Cohorte 2018) informa una relación creciente con la Ciudad de Poteet. Las reuniones mensuales se han trasladado de los sitios de la iglesia a los espacios de propiedad pública. El alcalde ha participado en las reuniones y en una capacitación sobre desarrollo comunitario basado en activos (ABCD). Esto ha despertado el interés del alcalde en organizar una iniciativa ABCD en toda la ciudad en colaboración con el equipo local de TCOP. El nuevo coordinador de comunicaciones de la ciudad está aprovechando activamente los activos y recursos que el equipo de TCOP ha estado descubriendo y conectando al destacarlos en las comunicaciones regulares de toda la ciudad. Finalmente, el superintendente escolar ha pedido a varios miembros de la creciente iniciativa TCOP en Poteet que sirvan en un comité del distrito escolar. Con respecto a los cambios de mentalidad, Gruene IMU - Gruene (Cohorte 2019) informa una comprensión cada vez mayor de la diferencia entre "hacer ministerio para" y "hacer ministerio con". Hicieron un pequeño cambio en un ministerio de extensión existente que ha llevado a los participantes a ayudar a entregar y dar forma al ministerio de manera que se construya comunidad y se cree un sentido más profundo de pertenencia en el ministerio entre los participantes.

El cuarto resultado que la iniciativa TCOP espera ver es la atención integral de los vecinos. La evidencia de este resultado es más fuerte en las historias compartidas por los equipos del TCOP que formaron parte de la primera cohorte. Tal vez sea porque los primeros tres resultados (enumerados anteriormente) deben estar en su lugar antes de que se realice este cuarto. First IMU - Eagle Pass (2017 Cohort) informa que en 2019 pudieron aprovechar la aplicación de los principios y prácticas del TCOP durante 2017-18. Utilizando los activos que descubrieron, los dones de las personas en su comunidad y las relaciones que habían fomentado, crearon un sistema holístico de apoyo y cuidado para los solicitantes de asilo que llegan a su comunidad y a través de ella.

El Equipo de Diseño de TCOP espera ver evidencia de los Impactos del diagrama de la Teoría del Cambio (abajo) aproximadamente 5-10 años después de que un equipo comience la capacitación básica de TCOP. Las historias compartidas en la evaluación de este año muestran evidencia de que la primera cohorte está experimentando una comunidad más conectada y cohesionada. "Conectado" se refiere a conexiones sociales entre residentes, conexiones de colaboración entre instituciones y acceso a servicios que promueven el bienestar. La "cohesión comunitaria" se refiere a los lazos sociales y los compromisos comunitarios que unen a las personas. La comunidad ya siente un sentido de interdependencia y solidaridad.

Con respecto a las comunidades conectadas y cohesivas, First IMU - Eagle Pass (Cohorte 2017), citado como un ejemplo de cuidado integral de los vecinos (arriba), también fue el resultado de la comunidad cohesiva que está surgiendo en Eagle Pass como resultado de responder a la creciente necesidad de cuidar a los vecinos residentes entre ellos. Esta comunidad usó sus fuertes lazos sociales, sus compromisos mutuos y su compromiso compartido con un objetivo común de cuidar al extranjero y construir el sistema de apoyo mencionado anteriormente. Otro ejemplo es First IMU - Brackettville (Cohorte 2017) que comparte historias de una creciente vecindad en la comunidad. Es una vecindad que surge del profundo cambio en la calidad de las relaciones en la comunidad. El cambio en la calidad de las relaciones ha estado cambiando junto con el creciente sentido de propiedad que tiene la comunidad para un "tercer espacio" llamado Hope Outreach Center que está en el corazón del trabajo del Equipo TCOP. El hecho de que el cambio más significativo reconocido por este equipo se describe como vecindad es congruente con las descripciones de una comunidad unida.

Mirando hacia el futuro para un mayor impacto, la evaluación de este año ilumina la preparación entre varios de los equipos para traer más intencionalidad a: 1.) más de la comunidad en la toma de decisiones y 2.) crear una visión y un plan compartidos para la acción colectiva de la comunidad. A fines de 2019, el equipo de diseño de TCOP comenzó a desarrollar una nueva oferta que se utilizará para apoyar a estos equipos en 2020 a medida que avanzan hacia una transformación más profunda de la comunidad. Al mismo tiempo, el equipo de diseño de TCOP continuará desarrollando nuevos equipos de TCOP, formará a los equipos existentes y ofrecerá asistencia personalizada en el sitio según sea necesario. Al concluir el año 3, los elementos del programa TCOP están en su lugar, comprobados y refinados (ver Estrategias sobre la teoría del cambio). Hay mucha emoción para pasar a la siguiente fase de TCOP, apoyando a los equipos de TCOP para un mayor impacto en sus comunidades

Iniciativa de Coalición del Condado de Kinney emerge

El condado de Kinney, Texas, es un condado fronterizo con 3,800 residentes. Brackettville, la ciudad sede del condado, tiene 1.740 residentes. Durante los últimos seis años más o menos, Hope Outreach Center, un ministerio de extensión comunitaria de First IMU de Brackettville, ha servido como un conector de varios servicios sociales para las necesidades de los residentes.

Antes del nacimiento de Hope Outreach, la iglesia se conectó y trabajó con los residentes para mejorar y climatizar sus hogares. Fue a través de esas interacciones que la iglesia comenzó a escuchar las preocupaciones de sus vecinos y nuevos amigos. Con el tiempo, al comprender las preocupaciones socioeconómicas, de salud, educación y empleo de la comunidad, se ha vuelto cada vez más evidente y urgente trabajar para obtener respuestas adecuadas.

En 2017, un equipo de FUMC / Hope Outreach se convirtió en parte de la cohorte de aprendizaje inicial en el programa de desarrollo comunitario de la conferencia. - Comunidades Transformacionales de Praxis (www.tcopraxis.org). El trabajo más profundo de desarrollo comunitario está ahora en movimiento. Mediante la convocatoria de la iglesia, los residentes de la comunidad, los funcionarios del gobierno local y las personas de fe, los residentes se unen para imaginar el desarrollo transformador del condado de Kinney.

En noviembre de 2019, unos 30 residentes se reunieron para imaginar algunas acciones que podrían tomar con el tiempo para fortalecer su comunidad, así como reflexionar sobre cómo podría ser el bienestar holístico de la comunidad [Shalom - Jeremías 29: 7]. La reunión también fue un medio de medir la voluntad de la comunidad para adoptar el desarrollo de una coalición en todo el condado para adoptar la sostenibilidad a largo plazo de la visión.

Ahora en 2020, la Coalición del Condado de Kinney comenzó a reunirse en enero para obtener las habilidades y la mentalidad de organizar y movilizar a la comunidad para un cambio sostenible y medido. La coalición está llevando a cabo conversaciones individuales con el 10% de los residentes del condado. Los datos recopilados determinarán las prioridades, los proyectos, las metas inmediatas y a largo plazo, y los intereses y compromisos de los residentes para participar y colaborar en la búsqueda del Shalom del Condado de Kinney.

RESPUESTA A LA INMIGRACIÓN Y MINISTERIOS FRONTERIZOS: 450 millas de frontera

2019 fue un año crucial para la respuesta de inmigración y los ministerios de fronteras dentro de la Conferencia Río Texas. La migración global y diversos factores de impulso son una realidad siempre presente. El contexto de nuestra misión nos llama a los ministerios de presencia y relaciones a lo largo de 450 millas de la frontera entre EE. UU. Y México, y no solo como metodistas de EE. UU., sino también trabajando binacionalmente con la Iglesia Metodista de México.

Los migrantes que buscan asilo han sido una realidad creciente en nuestro medio desde la llegada de menores no acompañados en 2014 y nuestras respuestas de hospitalidad a Cubanos en Nuevo Laredo en 2017. Durante 2019, nuestra respuesta humanitaria y sistemas de apoyo se han agudizado a medida que aumenta el flujo de migración. Los ministerios en la frontera están conversando y coordinando entre sí y con las respuestas del ministerio en San Antonio, el punto de partida para los migrantes que viajan para unirse con miembros de la familia en varias partes del país, donde se quedarán esperando su fecha en la corte de solicitud de asilo. A medida que la política de respuesta a los migrantes Permanecer en México, también conocida como Protocolos de Protección de Migrantes [MPP], se ha implementado completamente, esto requiere que aquellos que buscan asilo estén en un medio de espera en campamentos improvisados en el lado mexicano de la frontera. Como esto ha resultado en un menor número de solicitantes de asilo que cruzan a los EE. UU., los sistemas de respuesta y apoyo que han evolucionado y fortalecido a lo largo de este año respondiendo y recibiendo migrantes que llegan a los EE. UU. ahora están encontrando formas de apoyar a los ministerios de respuesta en la frontera en México, proporcionando comida, ropa y asistencia médica allí.

Ahora, COVID-19 plantea otro nivel de preocupación. Las personas estadounidenses que ayudan en los campos de migrantes fronterizos mexicanos, como en Matamoros, ahora no pueden cruzar diariamente o semanalmente, ya que hacerlo se considera no esencial.

Convocatoria Fronteriza ... Continuando la Conversación

Durante los días 20 y 21 de septiembre de 2019, aproximadamente 115 personas participaron en este evento crucial diseñado como tiempo y espacio para los profesionales y estudiantes involucrados en ofrecer respuestas humanitarias para migrantes y solicitantes de asilo y defensa de la inmigración para conectarse y compartir preocupaciones y prácticas.

Los practicantes involucrados en las respuestas directas a los migrantes que ya llegaron proporcionaron actualizaciones sobre lo que está sucediendo en los puntos a lo largo de las 450 millas de la frontera en nuestro campo de doble misión: Acuña / Del Rio, Piedras Negras / Eagle Pass, Nuevo Laredo / Laredo, Reynosa / McAllen y Matamoros / Brownsville. Los desafíos legales fueron presentados por la comunidad de Justicia para Nuestros Vecinos, particularmente los impactos de la política de Permanecer en México en la comunidad que busca asilo. La Iglesia y la Sociedad movilizaron a la comunidad reunida para escribir cartas sobre el terreno para presentarlas a los legisladores en Washington, D.C., expresando preocupación por las políticas actuales que afectan a los solicitantes de asilo que buscan refugio de las circunstancias duras y violentas que enfrentan en sus países de origen.

Las historias fronterizas compartidas reflejaron cómo el despliegue de la implementación de la política Permanecer en México entró en vigencia antes en Brownsville, McAllen y Laredo y más tarde en Eagle Pass y Del Río a lo largo de 2019. Los informes de respuesta en la frontera inferior del Río Grande reflejaron la respuesta del ministerio a las necesidades de la comunidad de migrantes en Matamoros y Nuevo Laredo, mientras que en Eagle Pass y Del Río, los solicitantes de asilo / migrantes aún cruzaban la frontera después de haber sido procesados por la Aduana y la Patrulla Fronteriza (CBP). Por lo tanto, los números de cruce en el sector inferior del valle del Río Grande disminuyeron mientras que los números en el área de Eagle Pass / Del Río aumentaron.

Durante 2019, la Interfaith Welcome Coalition distribuyó 25,577 mochilas de viaje. Durante ocho meses, 22.053 personas durmieron en la iglesia de Travis Park. El Centro de Recursos para Migrantes, a través de los recursos coordinados de la ciudad, facilitó 83,336 comidas servidas y 2,536 evaluaciones médicas. Del mismo modo, se han gastado innumerables recursos a través de nuestros puntos de hospitalidad en Del Río, Eagle Pass, Laredo, McAllen y Brownsville. La Convocatoria Fronteriza reflejó la presencia y el aporte de varios líderes de la Conferencia Río Texas, profesionales de respuesta directa a través de la Comisión Metodista de Amistad Fronteriza (líderes de la Conferencia Río Texas y la Conferencia Este de la Iglesia Metodista de México), la comunidad de Justicia para Nuestros Vecinos, representantes de las conferencias vecinas de la IMU y varias agencias: Texas Methodist Foundation, Methodist Healthcare Ministries, Interfaith Welcome Coalition, City of San Antonio, Texas Impact, Texas American Civil Liberties Union, Junta General de Ministerios Globales / UMCOR Global Migration, Junta General de la Iglesia y Sociedad, y National JFON.

Desde la Convocatoria Fronteriza, la conversación ha continuado por medio de seminarios web mensuales y sesiones de actualización fronteriza realizadas a través de ZOOM el tercer martes mensual a las 10:45 am Central. Vea a <https://riotexas.org/immigrationresponse> para obtener un resumen de las presentaciones de la Convocatoria de Fronteras y las grabaciones mensuales del seminario web.

En diciembre, la Red de Colaboración Fronteriza de Texas nació de la Coalición de Bienvenida Interreligiosa, el Impacto de Texas, los líderes del ministerio fronterizo de la Conferencia Río Texas, Justicia para Nuestros Vecinos y varios socios ecuménicos y comunitarios involucrados en respuestas fronterizas. Se reunieron en una conversación para visualizar una red que combina los esfuerzos de los ministerios y organizaciones en ambos lados de la frontera, desde El Paso / Juárez hasta Brownsville / Matamoros, apoyando a las comunidades de migrantes / solicitantes de asilo. La red recién formada intenta coordinar esfuerzos binacionalmente en las áreas de servicios directos, apoyo legal, conexiones de hospitalidad y defensa de la comunidad de migrantes y solicitantes de asilo. Los objetivos inmediatos son desarrollar una base de datos de organizaciones para coordinar las respuestas de apoyo.

HOMBRES METODISTAS UNIDOS

SOLO PARA INFORMACIÓN

Hermanos y hermanas de la Conferencia Anual Río Texas,

Saludos en nombre de nuestro Señor y Salvador. Les envío saludos y oraciones de la Dirección de la Conferencia de Hombres Metodistas Unidos de la Conferencia Río Texas.

En un mundo de incertidumbre en el que vivimos, uno puede fijarse en muchas escrituras en busca de orientación y consuelo como Isaías 41,10: "No temas, porque yo estoy contigo; No temas, porque yo soy tu Dios; Te fortaleceré, te ayudaré y te sostendré con mi mano derecha victoriosa ". Frente a la incertidumbre del resultado de la Conferencia General, la Conferencia Jurisdiccional, la pandemia del virus Covid-19, el ciclo electoral y otros eventos en nuestra vida cotidiana, nosotros, como cuerpo de creyentes, debemos continuar la misión de difundir las enseñanzas de Cristo en hechos y acciones.

Reprogramaremos el evento ministerial patrocinado por nuestros hombres "Manteniendo el Fuego Encendido" ("Keep the Fire Burning") como evento virtual el 24 de octubre de 2020. Nuestro objetivo para el evento es inspirar y brindar a nuestros hombres las detalladas herramientas necesarias para "mantener el fuego encendido" para el ministerio de los hombres y para hacer discípulos de todos los hombres y así ayudar a regenerar nuestras iglesias y hacer un cambio positivo en nuestros hogares y comunidades.

El ex "quarterback" universitario, finalista del premio Heisman, y de la NFL, el Dr. David Klingler y el Pastor Dr. Wade Powell serán nuestros oradores destacados.

Visite www.riotexasumm.org para obtener información a la fecha sobre el evento.

GOLDEN AGE HOME CELEBRA SU 60TH ANIVERSARIO EN 2020

SOLO PARA INFORMACIÓN

El 15 de noviembre de 1960, Golden Age Home abrió sus puertas para aceptar a los adultos mayores en el hogar. El hogar era un sueño convertido en realidad para un grupo de hombres y mujeres de las Iglesias Metodistas del Distrito de Austin. Durante cuatro años, este grupo dedicado trabajó para establecer el Hogar de la Edad de Oro no sólo como una estructura física y corporación legal, sino también como "el lugar para el compañerismo, la paz y la comodidad con la independencia".

Golden Age Home fue uno de los muchos hogares que formaban parte del programa Metodista, Homes for Older Persons. Para desarrollar estos hogares, personas responsables y devotas en la iglesia y la comunidad dieron libremente de su tiempo y energía, a través del liderazgo creativo, el talento y el dinero a estos edificios y operaciones. Algunos sólo estaban ligeramente relacionados con la Iglesia, pero el patrocinio de la Iglesia aseguró estabilidad, integridad, permanencia y fideicomisario responsable.

Un folleto original decía: "Aquellos sin familia vendrán y encontrarán a aquellos que los cuidan como si fueran suyos. Aquellos que tienen pocos amigos, están solos o en pena, encontrarán aquí simpatía y amor". Y así, más de 5.000 personas se han convertido en parte de la familia Golden Age Home durante los últimos 60 años. Algunos de esos miembros donde los empleados, mientras que otros residían dentro de las paredes, pero todos encontraron un lugar que se ha mantenido fiel a su misión de "proporcionar un servicio excelente y de calidad a los adultos mayores en un ambiente cristiano".

Ya este año de 2020, ha habido un aumento de los costos y una menor capacidad para las actividades normales de los residentes. La actividad social es muy importante para las personas que están aisladas de amigos y familiares. Hemos implementado procedimientos de visita "fuera de la caja" que no sólo proporcionan protección, sino que también ayudan a nuestros residentes a combatir la soledad añadida que ha venido con la crisis de salud actual. Siempre es nuestro objetivo para proporcionar a nuestros residentes con comodidad y tranquilidad. Nuestro dedicado equipo ha intensificado para asegurar que nuestros residentes están recibiendo el cuidado adicional física, mental, social y espiritualmente necesario para desestresarse durante este tiempo de descenso de salidas y visitas.

Desde la concepción de Golden Age Home, había un fondo de donación creado para ministrar a las personas que no pueden pagar el costo total de la vida en el Hogar. Golden Age Home recibió su estatus sin fines de lucro en 1964 que continúa operando bajo la actualidad. Golden Age Home se dedica a mantener su costo asequible. A finales de los años 90, se aseguró una subvención del TDCHA que permitía a GAH designar 16 habitaciones de la Vida Asistida para aquellos que necesitaban vivienda subsidiada. 20 años más tarde, GAH continúa buscando subvenciones y donaciones a través de fundaciones privadas, iglesias, empresas e individuos para mantener este programa en funcionamiento.

Actualmente, el Consejo de Administración está compuesto por 10 miembros. Estos miembros son hombres y mujeres de la zona de Lockhart, Luling, Seguin, Kyle y Elgin. Este grupo diverso sigue siendo el 90% de las iglesias metodistas. Nuestros generosos miembros de la junta proporcionan continuamente tiempo, experiencia, asesoramiento y donaciones disponibles para promover nuestra misión.

Este otoño, Golden Age Home acogerá una celebración pública por su 60th aniversario. En este momento, estamos buscando historias, fotos y otra información general del público de aquellos que han estado involucrados de alguna manera con este ministerio durante los últimos 60 años. ¿Te ofreciste como niña? ¿Tu ser querido residió en el hogar? ¿Eras empleado en Golden Age Home? ¿Tienes un recorte de periódico que resalte una actividad en Golden Age Home? Se le anima a enviar estas cosas por correo Attn: 60th Anniversary, 1505 S. Main St., Lockhart, TX 78644 o por correo electrónico a nburnett@goldenagehome.com.

Ahora más que nunca, las organizaciones sin fines de lucro necesitan su apoyo. Ha habido momentos difíciles en los últimos 60 años. Esos tiempos nos han acercado más al Señor a medida que confiamos en El para satisfacer las necesidades del hogar, de sus ocupantes y de los miembros del equipo. Estamos comprometidos a mantener el curso y emocionados de ver cómo Dios utiliza este tiempo para prepararnos para los próximos 60 años.

¿Cómo puedes estar involucrado con Golden Age Home?

Hay una variedad de maneras en que las organizaciones pueden estar involucradas directamente con los residentes o indirectamente. Estas necesidades cambian con la época del año. A continuación se enumeran algunas necesidades actuales.

HOGAR METODISTA DE NIÑOS

INFORME ANUAL A LA CONFERENCIA

Saludos desde el Hogar Metodista de Niños (Methodist Children's Home) (MCH) y los más de 5,000 niños, jóvenes y familias que atendemos en Texas y Nuevo México. Tengo el honor de informar que el MCH sigue cumpliendo y superando los estándares de mejores prácticas para el cuidado infantil establecidos por los Estados de Texas y Nuevo México y el Concilio de Acreditación (COA, una organización internacional de acreditación de bienestar infantil, salud conductual y servicios sociales basados en la comunidad).

Invito a cada miembro de la conferencia anual a visitar nuestro sitio web en MCH.org. Ahi puede explorar con más detalle los servicios que ofrecemos. También se pueden descargar historias, identificar recursos para ayudar a educar a su congregación en nuestro ministerio, ver una lista transparente de nuestros recursos financieros y servicios entregados, averiguar cómo se puede referir a un niño para su colocación u obtener más información sobre un llamado para unirse a nuestro ministerio como padre de familia, padre adoptivo o en otra capacidad.

Este verano marcará el fin de mi primer año como presidente de este maravilloso ministerio. A menudo reflexiono sobre la increíble oportunidad que se me brindó cuando fui nombrado el undécimo presidente del MCH en julio de 2019. En ese momento, recibí el privilegio de liderar una agencia ya sólida en su gobierno, prácticas financieras, medidas de resultados, transparencia general y responsabilidad. A base de mis experiencias en la supervisión de los esfuerzos de recaudación de fondos del MCH durante los últimos 17 años antes de ser su presidente, he aprendido lo importante que son estas cosas para los benefactores y las iglesias que nos apoyan a evaluar a los posibles beneficiarios en su apoyo financiero.

Al leer este informe, esperamos que se celebren las formas comprobadas en que el MCH ha influido positivamente muchas vidas en el transcurso del año pasado. También les pedimos que se unan a nosotros a pensar cómo se pueda continuar expandiendo el impacto de nuestro ministerio en todo Texas y Nuevo México. Estoy agradecido por las muchas oraciones, dones y acciones que produjeron estos grandes logros para aquellos bajo nuestro cuidado.

Estas áreas de fortaleza muestran la salud actual de la organización y también proporcionan al MCH una base para comenzar inmediatamente a explorar formas de aumentar la efectividad y el alcance de los servicios y programas que puedan marcar una diferencia positiva en la vida de los niños, jóvenes y familias afectados. Veo la tarea de liderar este esfuerzo como un llamado personal y una responsabilidad de este ministerio basado en el nivel de apoyo fiel que recibimos de nuestros patrocinadores. Me comprometo con ustedes a que este esfuerzo recibirá mi mejor esfuerzo y que involucrará muchas diversas voces, todas de las cuales se comprometerán a alcanzar los altos estándares de nuestro legado y nuestra misión.

Este año, lanzamos un nuevo plan estratégico que se llama apropiadamente, "Construir Sobre Una Base Sólida". Espero con interés a ver cómo este plan nos afirmará, desafiará y nos ayudará a avanzar. Sé que esto es posible debido al gran trabajo que se ha llevado a cabo en el MCH desde 1890 y debido a la promesa que Dios ofrece de equipar al MCH para hacer aún más por aquellos a quienes servimos en Texas y Nuevo México.

Guiado por nuestros valores centrales basados en Principios Cristianos, Relaciones, Responsabilidad, Crecimiento, Servicio y Esperanza cristianos, el MCH proporciona la atención, los programas y las personas con talento necesarios para impactar positivamente la vida de los niños, jóvenes y familias. Esto sucede todos los días en programas residenciales, así como a través de las 13 oficinas de Alcance Familiar (Family Outreach) de MCH, inclusive en San Antonio y Corpus Christi.

Aquí se incluyen algunas de las cosas que Uds. ayudaron al MCH a lograr para la gloria de Dios y para los que servimos:

- Se completó la construcción de las cuarta y quinta casas nuevas en nuestro campus de Waco como parte de la campaña Building Hope. Las Casas Nancy R. Bowen y B.R. & Helen Greathouse son nuevas casas de vanguardia diseñadas con las necesidades únicas de los niños que atendemos actualmente, junto con nuestra investigación basada en el trauma y residencias de eficiencia modernas. Además, hemos completado de recaudar fondos que construirán las casas sexta, séptima, octava y novena.
- Se sirvieron a 205 niños y jóvenes a través de nuestros programas del campus en Waco; a 5,684 niños y a sus familias a través de los programas MCH Family Outreach (Alcance Familiar del MCH); y a 174 jóvenes adultos a través de servicios de transición.
- Nuestros estudiantes participaron en múltiples viajes misioneros, incluido el EJÉRCITO M.U., en campamentos de liderazgo y otros proyectos de servicio comunitario.
- Se obtuvieron designaciones del Sello de Oro de Transparencia de Guidestar y una calificación de caridad de Cuatro Estrellas del Charity Navigator. Menos del 1 por ciento de las organizaciones sin fines de lucro incluidas en Guidestar han alcanzado el nivel de Oro. Estas designaciones reconocen nuestro compromiso con la excelencia y los esfuerzos para llevar a cabo nuestro trabajo con la máxima integridad y transparencia.
- Se graduaron 25 estudiantes de último año de la escuela secundaria y se apoyaron a 85 alumnos del MCH que cursan estudios superiores en colegios comunitarios, escuelas profesionales o instituciones de cuatro años. Al escribir este informe, nos estamos preparando para que siete alumnos del MCH se gradúen con un título o certificado de un instituto de educación superior en la primavera de 2020.

Nuestros logros en el pasado y los que están por venir están directamente relacionados con los hombres y mujeres que proporcionan su tiempo, talentos y recursos para ayudar a nuestros niños. Las siguientes personas de la Conferencia Anual Río Texas forman parte del Concilio de Administración del MCH:

Sr. Bill Bingham, Austin
 Sra. Candy Mallonee, San Antonio
 Sr. Mario Olivarez, Corpus Christi

Damos gracias de antemano por sus continuas oraciones, dones y acciones que capacitan al MCH a encontrar formas efectivas e innovadoras para cumplir nuestra misión de ofrecer esperanza a los niños, jóvenes y familias a través de una comunidad cristiana y enriquecedora. Estoy emocionado por lo que sigue para el MCH y confío en que el futuro de nuestro ministerio sea muy brillante. Que Dios continúe bendiciendo al MCH y a los ministerios de la Conferencia Anual Río Texas.

UNIVERSIDAD DE ÁFRICA INFORME ANUAL A LA CONFERENCIA

La historia de la Universidad de África fue una de recursividad, inversión firme y crecimiento del ministerio en 2019.

Gracias al Obispo Robert Schnase, al Gabinete y a los muchos líderes laicos y clérigos a nivel de la iglesia local por todo lo que hacen para afirmar la conexión Metodista Unida y la misión global. El apoyo gentil de la Conferencia Río Texas dio como resultado una inversión del 87,52 % de la solicitud de prorrateo del Fondo de la Universidad de África en 2019. Gracias por sus constantes oraciones y regalos. Son semillas de esperanza y abundancia sembradas cerca del hogar, en África subsahariana y en todo el mundo.

La generosidad de la Conferencia Río Texas le permite a la Universidad de África educar y nutrir a líderes que piensan por sí mismos, son contextualmente relevantes y tienen pasión por servir. Desde su inauguración en 1992, la Universidad de África ha formado a más de 9000 graduados que lideran y sirven en África subsahariana y más allá. Estos jóvenes son creativos y receptivos para satisfacer las necesidades de sus comunidades.

Actualización institucional:

- La Universidad de África tiene una inscripción anual de más de 2800 estudiantes, con entre 25 y 30 naciones africanas representadas en el cuerpo estudiantil cada año.
- Las tres facultades de la universidad operan como centros de enseñanza, investigación, innovación, participación comunitaria y desarrollo empresarial. La Universidad de África lidera como la única universidad de Zimbabue acreditada para ofrecer programas de grado en línea.
- Los estudiantes, los profesores y los exalumnos aportan soluciones innovadoras a los desafíos actuales de África con intervenciones que incluyen programas de posgrado en la protección de migrantes y refugiados, articulados por estudiantes refugiados, así como capacitación a nivel doctoral para capellanes militares en África.
- Las mejoras de infraestructura incluyen aumentar el uso de la energía solar en el campus principal de la universidad con el apoyo de la Junta General de Ministerios Globales de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Una residencia para mujeres y una nueva ala del edificio de la unión estudiantil serán las primeras instalaciones con energía solar en el campus. Ambos edificios son regalos de la Iglesia Metodista Unida Highland Park de Dallas, Texas, para la Universidad de África.

La Universidad de África afirma su compromiso con la Iglesia Metodista Unida, la Cruz y la Llama, y la misión global de la denominación de formar discípulos de Jesucristo para la transformación del mundo.

A través de su fidelidad, la Conferencia Río Texas invita y alienta a los nuevos socios a unirse a la misión y cambiar el mundo. Gracias a su administración de las bendiciones de Dios, la Universidad de África ha crecido más allá de lo que pensamos que era posible. "Las cosas que son imposibles con los hombres son posibles con Dios". Lucas 18:27 NKJV

FACULTAD DE TEOLOGÍA DE CANDLER

INFORME ANUAL A LA CONFERENCIA

Desde nuestra fundación en el año 1914, la Facultad de Teología de Candler en la Universidad de Emory ha educado más de 10.000 estudiantes, formando líderes cristianos atentos, de principios y valientes, dedicados a transformar el mundo en el nombre de Jesucristo.

Esto es especialmente importante notar entre la incertidumbre actual en nuestra denominación. Es un honor y un privilegio para Candler ser uno de los 13 seminarios oficiales de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Fiel a la tradición metodista de apertura ecuménica, Candler ha dado una bienvenida entusiástica a toda la familia Wesleyana en nuestra comunidad por generaciones. La facultad, el personal y los estudiantes de la Iglesia AME, la Iglesia AME Sion, la Iglesia CME, los Metodistas Libres, los nazarenos y otros han trabajado, alabado, aprendido y orado junto con los Metodistas Unidos, y han sido una parte vital de formar a Candler y nuestra misión. Esta diversidad ha sido un regalo maravilloso y una bendición rica. Mientras avanzamos, continuaremos invitando y dando la bienvenida sin reservas a la gente de toda expresión de la tradición Wesleyana. De verdad, continuaremos dando la bienvenida a todos que siguen Jesucristo.

Este año, Candler ha continuado fortalecer nuestro compromiso profundo al alivio de la deuda estudiantil y la promoción de los conocimientos financieros. En el año 2018-2019, dimos $6.3 millones en apoyo financiero, con el 100 por ciento de los estudiantes de la Maestría en Divinidad (MDiv) recibiendo apoyo y entrenamiento financiero. El otoño 2019, anunciamos una gran expansión de nuestro programa de apoyo financiero para incluir becas de matrícula completa para todos los estudiantes MDiv quienes son candidatos certificados para el ministerio ordenado en la Iglesia Metodista Unida, y nuevas becas de mérito cubriendo el 75% de la matrícula para estudiantes MDiv cualificados quienes identifican como parte de la tradición Wesleyana, y los que persiguen la capellanía a través de la concentración nueva de Candler de capellanía. Además, todos los estudiantes entrantes en los programas de la Maestría en Divinidad, la Maestría en Estudios Teológicos, y la Maestría en Liderazgo Religioso recibirán becas cubriendo al menos el 50% de la matrícula.

Este año también se lanzaron dos “comunidades de formación” piloto, viviendas estudiantiles fuera del campus que se centran en la vida intencional y la formación espiritual. Estudiantes de varios programas solicitaron participar en estos grupos piloto. Al principio del año, los compañeros de casa crearon una “regla de vida” para guiar sus días juntos, enfatizando la oración, el compañerismo y la celebración. Un capellán – un miembro de la facultad de Candler o un líder de la iglesia – les apoya y comparte el viaje. Los diez estudiantes quienes participaron este año describen un sentido más rico de comunidad y conexiones más profundas con Dios y entre sí en medio de sus vidas ocupadas. Es claro que este satisface una necesidad para nuestros seminarios, y anticipamos con entusiasmo el crecimiento del programa en los años venideros.

Nuestro alumnado sigue reflejando la diversidad y amplitud de los fieles cristianos, con 470 estudiantes inscritos de 12 países y 38 estados, con el 40 por ciento de personas de color (EE.UU.) y una edad mediana de 27 años entre los estudiantes MDiv. Los estudiantes representan 42 denominaciones, con el 45% de todos los estudiantes y el 50% de los estudiantes MDiv viniendo de la familia metodista.

Candler ofrece seis titulaciones simples y diez titulaciones dobles que se combinan la teología con la bioética, los negocios, la práctica del desarrollo, el derecho, la salud pública, y el trabajo social. Nuestro título del Doctorado en Ministerio se cumple el 90 por ciento en línea, así que los estudiantes puedan quedarse en sus lugares del ministerio mientras que completan sus títulos.

Candler adquiere su fortaleza e inspiración en gran parte por su relación con la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Nuestra capacidad para cumplir con nuestra misión de formar líderes fieles y creativos por los ministerios de la iglesia en el mundo depende de su apoyo, dones, y oraciones. Gracias por las maneras innumerables en que se avanzan este ministerio vital en la vida de nuestra denominación. Visítenos en persona en Atlanta o en línea en candler.emory.edu.

DUKE UNIVERSITY DIVINITY SCHOOL

INFORME ANUAL A LA CONFERENCIA

L. Gregory Jones, Decano de Duke Divinity School y Profesor de Teología y Ministerio, servirá en su puesto de decano por cinco años hasta el 2023.

El Duke Endowment otorgó una donación de $12 millones para apoyar tres prioridades de Duke Divinity School (DDS): Comunidades florecientes vivificadas por congregaciones saludables y pastores talentosos, sabiduría encarnada por medio de una vida intelectual rigurosa, e instituciones creativas que inspiran un liderazgo transformativo como el programa de becados para Comunidades Florecientes. Durante los próximos cuatro años, este programa proveerá 52 becas para cubrir el costo total de la matrícula de DDS.

Duke Divinity inició La Colaboración para Liderazgo Pastoral Afro-americano. Ésta utilizará los resultados de investigaciones académicas en las tradiciones eclesiales afro-americanas y ejemplos históricos de liderazgo pastoral efectivo afro-americano para entrenar y construir redes de líderes efectivos para la iglesia afro-americana de hoy y del futuro. La colaboración será dirigida por el Reverendo David Emmanuel Goatley, profesor de teología y estudios afro-americanos y director de la Oficina de Estudios Afro-americanos en Duke Divinity School.

En el 2019, Duke Divinity School recibió 215 nuevos alumnos de 33 estados y siete países: Canadá, Malasia, Singapur, Corea del Sur, Taiwán, Tailandia, y Zimbabue. El programa de Maestría en Estudios Teológicos (M.T.S) ingresó a 35 alumnos, el de Maestría de Artes en Práctica Cristiana (M.A.C.P.) a 22. Otros programas también ingresaron un buen número de nuevos alumnos: el de Maestría en Teología (Th.M., 14 alumnos), el de Doctorado en Ministerio (D.Min., 22 alumnos), y el de Doctorado en Teología (Th.D., 4). El D.Min fue nombrado el mejor programa en línea por TheBestSchools.org. Un nuevo programa, el Certificado en Teología y Medicina ingresará a 8 alumnos. Estos participaran en la iniciativa de Duke Divinity en Teología, Medicina, y Cultura (T.M.C.).

El programa de M.T.S. incluye a 8 alumnos que también son miembros del T.M.C. para un record de 16 miembros ("fellows"). El programa de Maestría en Divinidad (M.Div.) recibió 110 alumnos nuevos. Más del 32% de estos provienen de grupos minoritarios. En el cuerpo estudiantil de este nuevo grupo de alumnos, 18% son Afro-americanos, 44% son mujeres. Entre los nuevos alumnos hay 24 denominaciones cristianas representadas, 42% de estos estudiantes se identifican como miembros de la Iglesia Metodista Unida.

Dos catedráticos, Brent Straw y Brett McCarty, ingresaron en el cuerpo docente de DDS en julio 2019. Strawn es Profesor de Antiguo Testamento, y es un ministro ordenado de la Conferencia Anual de North Georgia de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Strawn tiene un nombramiento secundario como Profesor de Derechos en la Escuela de Derechos de la Universidad de Duke. Previo a su llegada a Duke, Strawn dio clases por 18 años en la Escuela de Teología de Candler en la Universidad de Emory.

McCarty es un profesor de ética teológica cuyo trabajo se enfoca en cómo actuar con fe cristiana en el mundo de la medicina. Él es también director asociado del T.M.C. y tiene también un nombramiento dentro del Departamento de Estudios de Salud Poblacional de la Escuela de Medicinas.

Tito Madrazo se unió al equipo de liderazgo administrativo de Duke Divinity como Estratega Principal de Misión para la Casa de Estudios Hispanos. También servirá como miembro suplente para la facultad.

La Iniciativa de Predicación Hispano/Latina cumple cinco años de ofrecer instrucción teológica de alta calidad a hispano/latinos que ejercen o aspiran al ministerio. 21 estudiantes de diversas denominaciones participan en nuestro programa este año.

El Duke Endowment ha otorgado una beca a Duke Divinity de $5.5 millones por los próximos cinco años para fomentar carácter y propósito en las diversas escuelas profesionales de Duke. El fondo de Lilly también ha dado becas a Duke Divinity para coordinar iniciativas sobre "Florecimiento en el Ministerio" y "Congregaciones florecientes" a través de los Estados Unidos.

Duke Divinity ha desarrollado un pacto con Huntingdon College y Virginia Wesleyan University para crear un proceso de admisión fluido con eventos especiales para equipar mejor a los estudiantes de estas instituciones para el ministerio en la iglesia. Como parte de nuestro esfuerzo en difundir formación teológica de alta calidad para estudiantes, pastores, y líderes laicos en el área episcopal de Nashville, DDS está desarrollando un convenio con el Turner Center en Martin Methodist College para ofrecer un entrenamiento teológico para un ministerio innovador y empresarial.

PERFIL UNIVERSITARIO

Inscripción

La Universidad Huston-Tillotson registró 1121 estudiantes inscribiéndose en el otoño de 2019. La segmentación de nuestra población estudiantil por género revela un factor importante con respecto a la inscripción masculina. Nuestra población estudiantil general consistía en 415 varones (37%) y 706 mujeres (63%). La población de primer año y primer año consistía en 93 hombres (45,6%) y 111 mujeres (54,4%). La segmentación de nuestra población estudiantil por género revela un factor importante con respecto a la inscripción masculina. Muchas universidades reportan menos inscripciones de estudiantes varones; nuestra población de primer año, por primera vez, continúa con una población casi igual de equilibrada.

La composición racial/étnica de nuestra población estudiantil es la siguiente: Negro, no hispano – 64.6%; Hispano – 26.3%; Blanco, no hispano – 4.7%; Extranjero no residente – 2.1%; Nativo Americano – 0.5%; Asiático/Isla del Pacífico – 0.5%; Multirracial – 0.6%; No reportado – 0.6%.

Facultad

El otoño de 2019, la Universidad empleó a 43 profesores a tiempo completo y 46 miembros de la facultad a tiempo parcial. La composición racial/étnica de la facultad es la siguiente: Hispana – 9.0%; Blanco, no hispano – 24.7%; Asiático/Isla del Pacífico – 3.4%; Negro, no hispano – 27.0%; Extranjero no residente – 4.5%; desconocido – 31.5%. Treinta y tres miembros de nuestra facultad de tiempo completo, el 76,7%, tienen un título terminal en su campo de la enseñanza.

ACTIVIDADES DE PROMOCIÓN PRESIDENCIAL E INSTITUCIONAL

El éxito de la Universidad Huston-Tillotson es el resultado de descubrimientos, visiones e ideas realizadas hace 145 años. Cuando George W. Richardson fundó Samuel Huston College en Dallas, Texas, en la Iglesia Metodista de St. Paul con seis eruditos; y Jeffrey Tillotson fundó Tillotson Collegiate y Normal Institute en Austin, Texas, sólo podían imaginar las posibilidades. Hoy en día, la Universidad Huston-Tillotson se enorgullece de varios logros, incluyendo su liderazgo en los esfuerzos de sostenibilidad.

Huston-Tillotson University celebró 145 años de proporcionar acceso a la educación superior durante la Convocación del Día del Charter celebrando la fusión de Samuel Huston College y Tillotson College en la Universidad Huston-Tillotson. El programa incluyó al ex alumno Rev. G. V. Clark, el Coro de Conciertos de HT, el Elite Combo, y el reconocimiento de estudiantes de alto rango.

El Día de la Universidad Huston-Tillotson en Wesley United Methodist Church fue un día de descubrimiento, reconocimiento y celebración para la Universidad Huston-Tillotson con música proporcionada por el coro de gospel HT. Los miembros de Wesley United Methodist Church invitaron a la comunidad a su Día anual de la Universidad Huston-Tillotson. El Coro de Conciertos HT se unió al coro de la Iglesia. La Universidad Huston-Tillotson fue una vez alojada en el sótano de Wesley.

El estudiante de HT puede ser el primero de su familia en asistir a la universidad, parte de una familia heredada con más de cinco generaciones de graduados, un residente local de Austin o un estudiante que ha viajado miles de millas para llegar al campus. Ese estudiante de HT probablemente fue referido por ex alumnos y tuvo varias cartas de aceptación de la universidad entre las que elegir. Las pasantías o los viajes al extranjero son solo dos de las oportunidades que ofrecen los estudiantes. Ya sea asistiendo a HT como parte del Programa de Honores de William Edward Burghardt DuBois, Freshmen First Year Experience, como atleta en uno de los programas deportivos, o reclutado como músico para el conjunto de jazz o vocalista con el coro de conciertos, la experiencia HT se destaca de manera única para el éxito. La responsabilidad, la responsabilidad, el desarrollo espiritual, el servicio-aprendizaje y las relaciones de apoyo son las señas de identidad de la experiencia HT.

Durante los últimos cinco años, la Universidad Huston-Tillotson trabajó agresivamente para lograr los objetivos de su Plan Maestro y para manejar problemas de mantenimiento diferido en todo el campus. Específicamente, el plan requería garantizar la seguridad, la accesibilidad y el atractivo del campus y sus instalaciones. El campus ha completado el proyecto de esgrima para garantizar la seguridad de los profesores, el personal y los estudiantes. La nueva iluminación y señalización en todo el campus ayuda con la identificación del campus y sus estructuras interiores. Los edificios de las aulas han sido pintados, los pisos despojados y pulidos, los asientos y el escritorio reemplazados y las nuevas pizarras y el equipo de instrucción audiovisual. Los profesores han sido equipados con tecnología del siglo XXI y herramientas de instrucción para gestionar el ambiente de enseñanza y aprendizaje, tanto presencial como en línea.

El espacio en el aula y las oficinas en el Branch Memorial Gymnasium han sido renovados junto con nuevos equipos de fitness e instrucción. El piso principal del gimnasio fue reemplazado, y se ha instalado un nuevo techo en el edificio. Nuevas puertas de entrada y baños junto con un nuevo cuadro de mando y acolchado protector ha dado al edificio una presencia actualizada en el

Hay dos salas residenciales en el campus de Huston-Tillotson. Ambas instalaciones tenían necesidades significativas en relación con las reparaciones. Gracias a la financiación de GHEMB, pudimos reparar y mejorar las duchas y las instalaciones de baño en ambos edificios. Estas mejoras conducen a la capacidad de las universidades para llenar ambas instalaciones por primera vez en muchos años con ocupación de los estudiantes.

La Capilla King-Seabrook ha sido equipada con un sistema audiovisual de última generación y muebles reemplazados en el escenario. Estamos buscando agresivamente apoyo para reemplazar los asientos en la capilla. Varios edificios han sido lavados de energía en el campus otras mejoras al campus, incluyendo el sindicato de estudiantes, la oficina de admisiones y el Centro de Tecnología Institucional. Las puertas de entrada se han instalado en todas las entradas del campus. Y se ha construido un nuevo marcador que identifica el campus en la parte frontal del campus para aumentar el reconocimiento y la visibilidad.

COVID-19 Impacto

La Universidad fue y continúa gestionando el impacto de COVID-19 en sus estudiantes, profesores, personal, y operaciones generales. Hemos ordenado agresivamente y recibidos fondos de varias fuentes. Estamos particularmente agradecidos por el apoyo brindado por la Iglesia Metodista Unida, División de Educación Superior, Fondo de la Universidad Negra, por los generosos fondos de Emergencia proporcionados. Estamos muy agradecidos y ya sea que se sepa que fueron los primeros en subir al plato para apoyar a la Universidad.

Nuestra administración, profesores y personal han trabajado diligentemente para buscar oportunidades de financiación y hacer contribuciones personales para ayudar a la universidad en este período extremadamente crítico en nuestra historia. Pudimos obtener fondos para proporcionar computadoras portátiles para cada uno de nuestros estudiantes inscritos en el otoño de 2020 y todos los que indicaron que necesitaban ayuda durante la primavera de 2020. No sólo pudimos proporcionar computadoras portátiles, sino que para aquellos que tenían necesidades de conexiones Wi-Fi, pudimos ayudar. Seguimos recaudando fondos y buscando financiación para necesidades continuas, ya que seguimos operando a distancia durante el semestre académico de otoño de 2020.

Asociación de Apple

La Oficina del Presidente y CEO ha establecido una asociación con Apple, Inc. Esta asociación había generado importantes recursos para la Universidad y es facilitada por la Dra. Jennifer Miles, como Gerente de Subvenciones y Líder de Proyectos a través del Centro de Innovación y Transformación Académica (CAIT) de la Universidad. La iniciativa consta de varios componentes que se describen a continuación.

Desarrollo Profesional

La iniciativa HT Golden Apple Teachers es un sólido programa de enriquecimiento, que tiene como objetivo mejorar la investigación, el desarrollo profesional y el rendimiento innovador de los estudiantes de pregrado con visión de futuro. Este programa está diseñado para inspirar y apoyar la innovación en la enseñanza y el aprendizaje, a través de la incorporación de recursos de Apple Teacher que afectan la tecnología de instrucción, la investigación, el servicio y la mejora en la participación de los estudiantes. Nueve miembros de la facultad fueron seleccionados para la primera cohorte de Maestros de Apple Dorado. Son el Sr. Tommy Mouton (Inglés), el Dr. Samuel Rowley (Música), la Sra. Eileen Slaton (Matemáticas), la Sra. Shawanda Stewart (Inglés), la Sra. Hoda Tavakoli (Matemáticas), la Dra. Wenxian Tan (biología). Ocho de estos maestros de Apple Dorado habían obtenido su Certificación de Profesor de Apple.

Siete profesores presentaron propuestas y fueron aceptados en la Academia de Codificación CAIT2. El objetivo es involucrar a los profesores para llevar la codificación, la creatividad y las experiencias de aprendizaje conectadas a la comunidad a la Universidad Huston-Tillotson. A través de múltiples academias de capacitación, estos educadores recibirán apoyo para guiar a un pequeño equipo de grupos de estudiantes para desarrollar un prototipo de aplicación para ayudar a resolver un problema del mundo real. Cada equipo presentará su trabajo durante el CAIT2 Coding Academy Community App Showcase programado para el 8 de abril de 2021. Los profesores también trabajarán para implementar un plan para integrar la codificación en sus programas académicos usando Todos pueden crear y Todos pueden código, y construir un plan de estudios basado en iOS Intro to App Development y el desarrollo de aplicaciones iOS con SWIFT. Los profesores que actualmente participan en esta iniciativa son el Sr. Dayron Bowers (Business), el Dr. Carlos Cervantes (Kinesiología), la Dra. Farzana Hussain (Matemáticas), la Dra. Mas Amandaino (Biología) Dra. Karen Magid (Sostenibilidad), el Dr. Samuel Rowley (Música), la Sra. Shawanda Stewart (Inglés), y la Dra. Jennifer Miles, Directora.

Trabajando para transformar la tecnología de vanguardia dentro y fuera del aula, Apple ha proporcionado hardware para apoyar la creación de dos nuevos laboratorios MAC. Esto incluye más de 50 iMacs, 2 Apple TV y 60 iPads. Estos laboratorios sirven a todos los estudiantes, con énfasis en dos nuevos programas académicos: The African American Male Teacher Initiative (Education tion) y Green Apple Fellows Program (Environmental Justice). Además, Apple donó Apple Watches y iPhone SE para apoyar los esfuerzos de investigación de los estudiantes alojados en el Programa de Becarios de Apple Verde.

Mejora de capital

A través de la iniciativa global de Apple, MLK Day of Service, la compañía apoyó la renovación de cinco espacios en el campus: The Business Office Suite, The Center for Academic Excellence (CAE Main Office, CAE Writer's Studio, CAE Math Lab y el nuevo Green Apple Fellows Lab. El 20 de enero, más de 121 empleados voluntarios de Apple. Bajo la dirección de Give to Get, se realizaron mejoras en las instalaciones e instalaron nuevos muebles.

Becas

La Universidad Huston-Tillotson ha sido galardonada recientemente con un Certificado de Encomienda de la Agencia de Educación de Texas (TEA) por su desempeño ejemplar. Esta mención de TEA destaca específicamente el trabajo que la Universidad ha realizado relacionado con la preparación de candidatos a maestros afroamericanos. Los varones afroamericanos representan menos del 2% de todos los educadores a nivel nacional. HT tiene la meta de certificar al menos 25 hombres afroamericanos como maestros de aula para el año 2025. Esta asociación de Apple proporciona fondos para apoyar el deseo de las instituciones de lograr este objetivo con la beca para cubrir la matrícula, las tasas, la habitación y la pensión para estos académicos.

El programa de Becas Apple Diversity & Inclusion se estableció para capacitar a los estudiantes de color para alcanzar sus metas profesionales en los campos de negocios, ciencias de la computación y matemáticas. Los estudiantes seleccionados de HT recibirán hasta $5,000 en dinero para becas de Apple, Inc. para el año 2020-21 académico. Estos premios se otorgan en base a la fortaleza del impacto de cada candidato en la diversidad, liderazgo demostrado, necesidad financiera. Y antecedentes académicos.

INSTITUTO LYDIA PATTERSON

INFORME ANUAL A LA CONFERENCIA

El Instituto Lydia Patterson, mejor conocido como "La Lydia", es una institución que ha enfrentado y sobrevivido a numerosos desafíos a lo largo de sus 107 años de existencia. En 1913, la escuela fue establecida en parte por ministros metodistas y misioneros que huían de la revolución mexicana y respondían a su llamado al ministerio en la frontera entre Estados Unidos y México. Desde su origen, la escuela ha sufrido los efectos de dos guerras mundiales, la gran depresión, numerosas devaluaciones del peso y actualmente, la violencia y las guerras de drogas en la frontera. La Lydia ha sobrevivido y florecido en medio de todo esto.

El 3 de agosto de 2019, nuestra fe se vio desafiada cuando un extraño viajó más de 600 millas a El Paso para erradicar a los mexicanos en la peor masacre de la historia moderna. El Paso es una ciudad con una población de más del 80% de hispanos. Eso sin mencionar la cantidad de mexicanos que cruzan diariamente desde nuestra ciudad hermana, Juárez, México. En el tiroteo, perdimos al padre de tres de nuestros exalumnos.

Durante generaciones, Lydia Patterson se ha comprometido a enseñar inglés a estudiantes que no hablan inglés, predominantemente de origen hispano. Obviamente, el incidente causó pánico y estrés en El Paso y Lydia Patterson no fue la excepción. Íbamos a comenzar clases el lunes siguiente, y los padres estaban preocupados y asustados. Por primera vez en la historia de La Lydia, nos vimos obligados a contratar seguridad para patrullar nuestro campus. Fue desgarrador, pero los estudiantes y los padres estaban seguros de que las acciones malvadas de un racista demente no nos definirían. Les recordamos que el poder de la oración y la mano de Dios no nos abandonarían.

En una nota positiva, Lydia Patterson avanza con su compromiso de proporcionar una educación de calidad a sus estudiantes y brinda oportunidades que de otro modo no existirían. Mi agradecimiento a los colegios y universidades de la Iglesia Metodista Unida por continuar nuestro ministerio al proporcionar becas para que el 100% de nuestros estudiantes asistan a la universidad.

A medida que la iglesia lucha con ciertas identidades, Lydia Patterson se mantiene fiel a todos en sus principios y trayecto para cambiar vidas, independientemente del color, el origen nacional, las posiciones económicas y cualquier otra preferencia dada por Dios. Nuestro objetivo es ser el puente que una a todos los metodistas en el ministerio según lo ordenado por nuestro Padre y hacer discípulos de cada uno de sus estudiantes para la transformación del mundo.

Hacemos un llamado a todas las iglesias en su conferencia y esta jurisdicción para que se mantengan fieles al ministerio de Lydia Patterson y sigan colaborando con nosotros para hacer lo mejor de la obra de Dios. Todos los días, las vidas de hombres y mujeres jóvenes están cambiando. Quizás en una de nuestras aulas esté sentada esa persona que marcará la diferencia en nuestro mundo.

En Cristo,

Socorro de Anda, Presidenta

Durante los tres años de educación continua sin crédito, los participantes son capacitados en el arte de acompañar y guiar a otros en su trayectoria espiritual.
- En 2019, Perkins abrió su nueva Casa Bautista de Estudios (BHS) que fomenta la comunidad para los estudiantes ministeriales, la facultad y el personal que se identifican con las tradiciones de la iglesia Bautista y Libre. La Casa Bautista de Estudios es una casa espiritual, mas que física, que apoya y alienta especialmente a los estudiantes mientras realizan su formación académica y eclesial en un seminario ecuménico y universitario. En octubre de 2019, BHS recibió a Amanda Tyler, Directora Ejecutiva del Comité Unido Bautista para Libertad Religiosa, para dos eventos en el campus de Perkins. Y en marzo de 2020, BHS – junto con el Comité Unido Bautista para Libertad Religiosa – patrocinaron las conferencias Walter B. Y Kay W. Shurden sobre la Libertad Religiosa y Separación de la Iglesia y el Estado con el orador principal y líder interreligioso nacional Eboo Patel.
- Mas de 200 teólogos, artistas, músicos, académicos y miembros de la comunidad se reunieron para una conferencia de dos días del 20 al 21 de septiembre de 2019, titulada “El Arte de la Resiliencia – Proclamando Vida y Esperanza en tiempos de Agobio”. El evento, con entradas agotadas, fue patrocinado por el Centro de Estudios de Religión y Cristianismo Latino/a de Perkins, Ignite/Arts Dallas: Un Centro para Gente, Propósito, Lugar y se llevó a cabo en la escuela de Arte Meadows de SMU y la División de Teatro de Meadows de SMU, brindó a los participantes la oportunidad de interactuar con destacados académicos Latinx, artistas locales, y líderes religiosos y comunitarios para reflexionar profundamente sobre la raza, el género y la inmigración como cuestiones concertantes de moral y fe. Como parte del programa, la Escuela de Arte Meadows organizó una exhibición de arte y una actuación de la dramaturga latina de Nueva York Jessica Carmona de su obra original, “Elvira: La Obra de Teatro Migración”. La música especial presentada durante el fin de semana fue compuesta por Ars Lubilorum, un grupo de compositores Latinos – incluyendo Marcell Silva Steuernagel, director del Programa de Maestría en Música Sagrada de Perkins – que investiga la intersección de las tradiciones litúrgicas cristianas y la nueva música.
- “Las protestas de Hong Kong: ¿un Movimiento Mesianico?” es un panel de discusión centrado en las protestas estudiantiles de Hong Kong de 2019, atrajo a participantes de todo SMU y el área de Dallas el 22 de octubre de 2019. Fue patrocinado por la Escuela de Teología de Perkins, el Tower Center’s Sun & Star Program en Japón y Asia oriental, el Centro para la Fe y Aprendizaje de SMU y el Programa de Embrey de Derechos Humanos, el evento – uno de los primeros en su tipo en los Estados Unidos en examinar las protestas – contó con el Dr. Lap Yan Kung, profesor de Teología de Divinity School, de la Universidad China en Hong Kong como el orador oficial. Siguió un panel de discusión – el cual examinó los problemas religiosos y seculares que subyacen a las protestas y a las implicaciones para las comunidades religiosas en Hong Kong y en todo el mundo. El moderador del panel fue el Dr. Sze-kar Wan, profesor de Nuevo Testamento en Perkins, quien organizó el evento.

- El mundo llegó a Perkins durante la Convocatoria de Otoño de 2019, celebrada el 12 de noviembre. “Mission Quest: Finding Your Place in God’s World,” contó con el guía turístico y activista Rick Steves, quien encabezó un evento de apertura con 1,200 participantes en el auditorio Mc Farlin de SMU. Compartieron el escenario con Steves durante el evento de dos días, que también se celebró en la Iglesia Metodista Unida de Highland Park, fueron la Rev. Dr. Samira Izadi Page, nativa de Irán que dirige un ministerio para refugiados en Dallas, y el Reverendo Dr. Célestin Musekura, originario de Ruanda y fundador del Ministerio de Reconciliación y Liderazgo Africano (ALARM). Además de escuchar a oradores de tres continentes, los participantes escucharon música de alabanza en 17 idiomas diferentes e historias humanas de esperanza y lucha de todo el mundo.
- El Servicio de Adoración de Adviento de 2019, celebrado el 5 de diciembre, marcó tres aniversarios: el 60 aniversario del programa de Maestría en Música Sagrada (MSM), el 80 aniversario de los cantores del seminario, y el 60 aniversario del servicio de Adviento. El Adviento se celebró por primera vez en la Capilla de Perkins en 1959, una tradición que continua cada año desde entonces. Tres coros invitados de las iglesias del área de Dallas, dirigidos por exalumnos del programa de M.S.M, interpretaron un himno, y los tres coros interpretaron la “Canción de Simeón” de Jane Marshall. El culto siguió el formato clásico de “Lecciones y Villancicos”, y la lectura de un sermón de Martin Lutero por el Dr. Ted Campbell, Profesor de Historia de la Iglesia.
- Gracias a una asociación iniciada con Cliff College en el Reino Unido y la Iglesia Metodista de Gran Bretaña, se colocó a un interno de Perkins en Inglaterra para el año académico 2019-20. La estudiante de tercer año Cori Clevenger – cuya iglesia local es la Iglesia Metodista de Liberty, Texas – fue designada a un cargo de tres puntos de las iglesias metodistas en el área de Midland. Su internado es parte de un programa piloto que los organizadores esperan que continúe. Los internados dan a los estudiantes de Perkins una oportunidad para integrar sus estudios de Biblia, teología y ética con la práctica ministerial en el mundo real. Ahora, los estudiantes de Perkins tienen la oportunidad de hacer esto en otra cultura, ampliando su comprensión de diferentes expresiones cristianas de las que se encuentran en los Estados Unidos.
- Se firmaron dos nuevos memorándums de entendimiento mutuo (MOU) durante 2019-20, incluyendo el primero con una escuela internacional de teología, como parte de la iniciativa en curso para profundizar las relaciones entre Perkins y las universidades y los seminarios internacionales. Se llegó a un acuerdo formal con Project Transformation National, que patrocina un curso intensivo de verano para estudiantes universitarios que dirigen programas de campamentos de verano para niños y jóvenes en las iglesias metodistas urbanas en los Estados Unidos y que también exploran vocaciones en el ministerio y servicio. Además, el acuerdo con La Escuela de Teología Bishop Han (BHTS) en Mindanao, Filipinas, fomentará la colaboración y las actividades interculturales entre la facultad de teología y los estudiantes de las dos instituciones. Los memorándums de común acuerdo previos se han formalizado con instituciones metodistas históricamente unidas, como Centenary College en Shreveport, Louisiana; Southwestern University en Georgetown, Texas; McMurry University en Abilene, Texas; Hendrix College en Conway, Arkansas; Huston-Tillotson University en Austin, Texas; Philander Smith College en Little Rock, Arkansas; Texas Wesleyan University en Fort Worth, Texas; Wylie College en Marshall, Texas; y Austin College en Sherman, Texas.
- El Almuerzo de el programa de becas de Perkins de la familia Bolin en 2020 tuvo lugar el miércoles 5 de febrero de 2020, con el columnista y destacado autor del New York Times David Brooks como el orador oficial. El almuerzo, inaugurado en el 2010, sirve como un gran evento para recaudar fondos para las becas estudiantiles. El almuerzo de este año, que destacó a los becarios de Perkins de 2019-20, obtuvo aproximadamente $75,000 para nuevas becas.
- Una conferencia de dos días, “In the Face of Barbarism:” Dietrich Bonhoeffer on Culture, Humanity and the Importance of Ordinary Life,” se llevó a cabo los días 13 y 14 de febrero, 2020, e incluyó a los destacados conferencistas Victoria Barnett, Michael DeJonge, y Natalie Carnes. Patrocinado por la fundación Robinson de Perkins, la cual fomenta el trabajo de la intersección entre la teología y las artes, el evento se concentró en la importancia de la teología y la ética de Bonhoeffer en la vida cotidiana. La conferencia concluyó con una obra individual presentada basada en el legado de Dietrich y fue adaptada y presentada por Al Staggs.
- El Dr. Theodore Walker, Profesor Asociado de Ética y Sociedad en Perkins, descubrió un manuscrito perdido – escrito hace 77 años – por Ernest E. Just, con un mensaje importante para los lectores modernos. El libro inédito presenta una teoría arraigada en la Biología Celular del origen y la evolución del comportamiento ético. El Dr. Walker y su equipo están ahora en el proceso de editar el manuscrito y para enviarlo para su publicación.

Los Fondos

En el año fiscal 2019, SMU recibió $31.8 millones en fondos externos para la investigación realizada en los Estados Unidos y en todo el mundo, lo que representa un aumento de $5.2 millones con respecto al año anterior. Las agencias que proveen estos fondos en la actualidad incluyen la National Science Foundation, el Departamento de Educación de los EE. UU., El Departamento de Defensa de los EE. UU., y la Fundación Toyota. Con respecto a la recaudación de fondos privados, SMU terminó el año fiscal 2019, gracias a la generosidad de toda nuestra familia de donantes que donaron mas de $118 millones, por lo que fue un año record de donativos. Esa generosidad incluye superar nuestra meta de Pony Power por segunda ocasión de $2 millones con $52 millones en donativos recibidos para financiar nuestras necesidades mas apremiantes.

Aspectos Destacados de 2019

Donativos y Subsidios Significativos

Se instituye la Nueva Escuela de Graduados con un donativo de $100 millones

En el año de 2019 SMU celebró el donativo mas grande de su historia – una inversión sin precedentes de $100 millones de la Fundación Moody con el fin de crear la octava escuela en SMU: Moody School of Graduate and Advanced Studies. Esta nueva escuela apoya los programas de posgrado de la Universidad en educación, ingeniería, las artes, humanidades, ciencias y ciencias sociales, así como la investigación de la facultad y los programas interdisciplinarios en toda la Universidad. Permitirá a la Universidad de SMU graduar un mayor número de estudiantes de doctorado y fortalecer las colaboraciones con otras universidades, corporativos prominentes, y otras instituciones que realizan proyectos de investigación de alto impacto.

Un impacto visionario con el donativo de $50 millones de la Familia Miller

Carolyn y David Miller '72, '73 hicieron el donativo individual mas grande hecho por un exalumno y su familia en los 108 años de historia de SMU. El donativo de $50 millones respaldará el plan estratégico de la Escuela de Negocios Cox para actualizar su plan de estudios; ofrecer más y más amplias becas para atraer a los mejores estudiantes de negocios del mundo; colaborar con todo el campus de la universidad SMU a crear nuevos programas interdisciplinarios y mejorar las instalaciones de la escuela. También aspira a que la escuela extienda el alcance comunitario para desarrollar asociaciones corporativas y expandir la inclusividad.

El Inicio de la Renovación del Centro de Artes Owen inspira un nuevo desafío y donativos adicionales

El otoño pasado, cuando la Escuela de Artes Meadows celebró el 50 aniversario de su nombramiento, iniciamos la renovación del Centro de Artes Owen, con una iniciativa de $34 millones para mejorar los espacios académicos en el ala norte para las artes visuales, la historia del arte y la computación creativa, y crear una entrada accesible y acogedora al edificio. Durante la celebración, anunciamos un nuevo regalo de desafío de $1.8 millones de la filántropa y ex-padre de familia de la escuela de Meadows, G. Marlyne Sexton, originaria de Indianápolis. Este ultimo donativo eleva su compromiso total con OAC a $5 millones y crea un incentivo para que otros se unan y ayuden a la Escuela Meadows a alcanzar los $4 millones restantes necesarios para la renovación de el centro de artes.

Un donativo de $5 millones dado por los patrocinadores y coleccionistas del arte de Dallas Nancy C. and Richard R. Rogers extiende su continuo apoyo de muchos años a los artistas al establecer un centro vibrante para las artes visuales en SMU. El nuevo Centro de Artes Visuales Nancy C. y Richard R. Rogers localizado en el Centro de Artes Owen proporcionará un espacio físico que expande las oportunidades académicas y artísticas para que los estudiantes y la facultad los impulsen a la vanguardia de sus campos. Todo esto es parte de una iniciativa de $34 millones para modernizar los 250,000 pies cuadrados del ala norte del edificio. Todos los donativos para el proyecto están respaldados por un subsidio de la Fundación de Meadows.

Un Cambio de Juego Inicia en el Bulevar

El año pasado, celebramos la dedicación del Centro de Rendimiento Deportivo Interior, destacando el Armstrong Fieldhouse, que marcó una nueva era en la preparación y entrenamiento del departamento atlético para los Mustangs de SMU. Las instalaciones multiuso, tecnológicamente equipadas, también ofrecen una expansión significativa de posibilidades para la participación en el campus y la comunidad. Muchos donativos generosos hicieron posible el Centro de Rendimiento Deportivo. Además del donativo de Liz Armstrong '82 y Bill Armstrong '82, otros que contribuyeron con más de $1 millón son Gary T. Crum '69 y Sylvie P. Crum; Paul B. Loyd, Jr. '68 y Penny R. Loyd; David B. Miller '72, '73 y Carolyn L. Miller y la Fundación de la Familia David B. Miller; y Garry A. Weber '58. También hubo 17 donantes de $100,000 o más, con ocho donaciones de $1 millón cada uno y nueve promesas de seis cifras.

Un Nuevo Hogar para los Exploradores Digitales

SMU tomó un gran paso adelante en el cambio acelerado de la frontera digital con una ceremonia de inauguración de el Gerald J. Ford Hall for Research and Innovation localizado en la esquina de McFarlin Boulevard y Airline Road. El administrador de SMU Gerald J. Ford '66, '69, su esposa, Kelli O. Ford, y la Fundación de la Familia Gerald J. Ford hicieron un donativo de $15 millones que ayudará a financiar la construcción del edificio. El nuevo centro de investigación interdisciplinaria de 50,000 pies cuadrados servirá como sede del Centro de Virtualización AT&T de SMU, el Instituto Interdisciplinario de la Escuela de Dedman, la informática de alto rendimiento y la ciencia de datos, el nuevo laboratorio de Visualización y el Guildhall, el Centro electrónico de Hart, el programa digital de diseño de juegos mejor clasificado.

Alta Tecnología, Alto Impacto de Bobby B. Lyle

El empresario, líder de la industria y educador de Dallas, Bobby B. Lyle '67, se basó en la generosidad previsora que nombró a la Escuela de Ingeniería Lyle hace 11 años al designar $10 millones para impulsar una nueva visión estratégica para la escuela. El modelo, centrado en el futuro, combinará innovación, agilidad y respuestas rápidas a los cambios en las capacidades tecnológicas con un apoyo institucional duradero. Su inversión apoyara el Fondo Futuro de la escuela al establecer donativos para Acelerar la Investigación Emergente y Acelerar las Innovaciones Comerciales de Alta Tecnología. El fondo también apoyará dos expedientes estratégicos adicionales: Transforming the Engineering Education Experience y Transformative Technology for Social Good.

El Instituto de Tecnología, Innovación y Emprendimiento

Los líderes empresariales prominentes de Dallas Linda Wertheimer Hart '65 y Milledge (Mitch) A. Hart, III se encuentran entre los contribuyentes mas generosos de SMU, hicieron otra inversión considerable. El Instituto de Tecnología, Innovación y Emprendimiento Linda y Mitch Hart fusiona la sabiduría de Escuela de Negocios Cox con el conocimiento de la Escuela de Ingeniería Lyle para desarrollar las herramientas que los emprendedores necesitan para dar vida a sus conceptos. Además, la Señora Hart honró a su esposo en su cumpleaños número 85 con el fondo de becas llamado Milledge A Hart, III para veteranos de U.S. Marine Corps.

El Centro de Artes Meadows celebra su 50 Aniversario

La Escuela de Meadows inició una celebración de un año del 50 aniversario de su nombramiento, montando tres estrenos de coreógrafos reconocidos internacionalmente en su vigésimo sexto concierto anual de beneficencia, "Meadows at the Winspear." El concierto contó con la aclamada Orquesta Sinfónica de Meadows, bajo la dirección del director Paul Phillips, y los estudiantes del grupo de Danza de Meadows. También honró al líder comunitario La Fundación Meadows, que ha apoyado a la universidad de SMU y a la ciudad de Dallas por más de cinco décadas. Fue en el año de 1969 que la Escuela de Artes de SMU pasó a llamarse Meadows School of the Arts en honor de Algur H. Meadows.

Regalo amplio el Centro de Derecho, Ciencias e Innovación Tsai de Dedman

El centro Tsai de Derecho, Ciencia e Innovación, iniciado en el año de 2015 en la Escuela de Leyes Dedman, recibió un regalo adicional de $2 millones para ampliar su perfil como líder en investigación multidisciplinaria y debate académico en torno a las nuevas tecnologías. El centro académico reúne a expertos de las comunidades legal, científica y empresarial para explorar los complejos desafíos presentados por el variable ecosistema de innovación. Los proyectos actuales de investigación apoyados por el Centro Tsai incluyen estudios de la tecnología de impresión digital y las implicaciones fiscales de la inteligencia artificial, así como una herramienta digital para seguir el curso de la acción judicial relacionados con las listas de vigilancia del gobierno. El Centro Tsai también ha financiado nuevos cursos, incluyendo uno en el cual los estudiantes de derecho crean aplicaciones legales basadas en la red para organizaciones de ayuda legal de Texas.

El subsidio NSF de $1.5 Millones ayuda a financiar Minecraft

La Escuela de Lyle de SMU, Guildhall y la Escuela de Educación y Desarrollo Humano Simmons utilizarán un subsidio $1,521,615 de la National Science Foundation para investigar la enseñanza de las ciencias de la computación y el pensamiento computacional a través del popular videojuego Minecraft. La investigación abarcará los campos de diseño de juegos, interacción humano-computadora, aprendizaje mecánico, diseño curricular y evaluación educativa integrando el plan de estudios STEM+C (computación) directamente en Minecraft. El juego y la infraestructura producidos a través de la investigación servirán como un recurso informático vital para los educadores de secundaria y preparatoria. La beca fue otorgada a Corey Clark, subdirector de investigación en SMU Guildhall y profesor asistente de Ciencias Computacionales en la Escuela Lyle; Eric Larson, profesor asociado en Ciencias de la Computación en la Escuela Lyle; y Leanne Ketterlin Geller, profesora y catedra en Educación subsidiada por Texas Instruments en la Escuela de Simmons.

Profesora Reúne a las personas para Conversar sobre Temas Difíciles

Jill DeTemple, profesora asociada de estudios religiosos en Dedman College, ha desarrollado una herramienta de discusión – diálogo estructurado reflexivo – que esta utilizando en su propio salón de clases y compartiendo con profesores de SMU y de la toda la nación. La idea es tomar temas que separan a la gente – derecho a portar armas, aborto, pena de muerte, y la existencia de Dios – y replantear la conversación en torno a experiencias personales. En esencia, estas conversaciones, están centradas en la curiosidad de las vidas de otros y sus valores.

Científicos de SMU Identifican un Nuevo Dinosaurio en Texas

La becaria postdoctoral Kate Andrzejewski, junto con los paleontólogos de la Universidad Dale Winkler y Louis Jacobs, han identificado Convolosaurus marri de fósiles recolectados en el Lago de Proctor, al suroeste de Fort Worth. Los restos de varios dinosaurios se encontraron por primera vez en el lago del Condado de Comanche en 1985, y la mayoría de los fósiles han estado almacenados por años en el Museo de Paleontología Shuler en SMU. Pero no fue hasta que Andrzejewski, Winkler y Jacobs examinaron los fósiles más recientemente que se identificó el nuevo dinosaurio. Convolosaurus marri está en exhibición en el Museo de Naturaleza y Ciencia Perot en la galería de T. Boone Pickens Life Then and Now como "Proctor Lake Ornithopod." El dinosaurio recientemente identificado fue nombrado en honor a Ray H. Marr '51, un ex alumno de SMU que es presidente de Marr Oil & Gas LTD y un firme defensor de los estudiantes de SMU.

Estudio de SMU Encuentra Posible Nueva Forma de Curar el Virus “primo” del HIV Un estudio dirigido por SMU sugiere que la oleandrina – un medicamento derivado de la planta de Nerium oleander – podría evitar que el virus HTLV-1 se propague al enfocarse en una etapa del proceso de reproducción que actualmente no es el enfoque de los medicamentos existentes. Eso es significativo porque actualmente no existe una cura o tratamiento para el virus – un “primo” del HIV menos conocido que afecta a entre 10 y 15 millones de personas en todo el mundo. “Los resultados de nuestra investigación sugieren que la oleandrina podría limitar la transmisión y propagación del HTLV-1 al enfocarse en una etapa única en el ciclo de la vida retroviral”, dijo Robert Harrod, profesor asociado y director de estudios de posgrado en el Departamento de Ciencias Biológicas de SMU. Harrod es coautor del estudio publicado en el Journal of Antivirals & Antiretrovirals.

La Estación de DART renombrada La Estación de SMU/Mockingbird

La Estación de Mockingbird de Dallas Área Rapid Transit’s (DART) fue renombrada la Estación SMU/Mockingbird después de que el Consejo de DART aprobó un acuerdo de derechos de nombres con SMU, lo que facilita a los visitantes a encontrar el campus y consolidando el papel de la estación como puerta de entrada a la Universidad de SMU. Inaugurada en 1997, la Estación Mockingbird se convirtió rápidamente en un importante recurso de transporte para estudiantes, profesores, personal y visitantes de SMU.

El servicio de transporte Mustang Express conecta la estación DART con el campus Universitario en una poca distancia.

Estamos entusiasmados con el impacto que nuestra Universidad y sus programas continúan teniendo en el mundo que nos rodea, y estamos agradecidos de continuar nuestro trabajo a través de la Escuela de Teología Perkins en la educación y capacitación de todas las ramas de la Tradición Wesleyana. Pedimos sus continuas oraciones y apoyo.

Saludos afectuosos,

R. Gerald Turner, Presidente

Shannon Hancock, ex alumno y Director de Admisiones, trajo el mensaje en el Recinto de Kansas durante la Celebración de Adoración MLK Jr mientras el Rev. Bryan Lampkins predicó en el Recinto de Oklahoma. El pasado enero, Saint Paul se enorgulleció de acoger la Reunión de Educadores Teológicos Metodistas Unidos en el Recinto de Kansas. El tema de este año fue "Vicisitud: Navegando el Llamado y Misión como Educadores Contextuales en el 2020. En abril, la Sociedad Evangélica organizó una conferencia con la Dra. Kimberly Alexander, autora de Pentecostal Healing: Models of Theology and Practice y coautor de Women in Leadership: A Pentecostal Perspective and What Women Want: Pentecostal Women Ministers Speak for Themselves

Honrando el largo compromiso de Saint Paul con el aprendizaje de la praxis y el ministerio, parte del plan de estudios 2019-2020 incluyó prácticas que son seminarios de estilo taller que enseñan habilidades ministeriales. Para la Semana FOCUS Week de primavera del 2020, el ex alumno Rev. Dr. Emanuel Cleaver III, Pastor General de St. James UMC, enseñó el curso Iglesia Urbana en el Siglo XXI que explora la Iglesia Urbana y su contexto en relación con prácticas ministeriales y entendimientos teológicos.

Para el año fiscal 2019-2020, Saint Paul Course of Study (COS) School educó a 265 estudiantes individuales con un total de 650 clases; ofreciendo un total de 53 cursos ubicados en Leawood, KS; Hays, KS; Oklahoma City, OK; Columbia, MO; y Springfield, MO. Saint Paul está en el segundo año de ofrecer un programa híbrido (en línea y en el recinto) de seis cursos durante el período de invierno. Se están elaborando planes para aumentar el número de cursos híbridos. Saint Paul inauguró un programa piloto acelerado a tiempo parcial del satélite COS (PML, por sus siglas en inglés) en Colombia, MO en el 2018 y agregó una segunda pista en el 2019. Compuesta por nueve cursos de teología práctica, esta opción COS está diseñada específicamente para pastores locales a tiempo parcial o ministros laicos certificados que entran en el ministerio después que completan la Missouri Conference Licensing School. El programa de satélite PML es un programa colaborativo del Saint Paul Course of Study Regional School con la Conferencia de Missouri. Desde septiembre de 2018, COS ha ofrecido seis cursos y matriculado a 30 estudiantes individuales en el programa satélite PML.

Saint Paul School of Theology tiene la bendición de estar en el ministerio en el nombre de Jesucristo y para ayudar a otros a responder a la llamada de Dios. Somos un seminario que ofrece clases y experiencias a personas de varias denominaciones y caminatas de fe. Nuestro trabajo como facultad y personal es proporcionar excelencia en la educación y práctica teológica para TODAS las personas llamadas y capaces de asistir. Recuerde "Donde se reúnen dos o más", Cristo está con nosotros. El Presidente Neil Blair, los fideicomisarios, la facultad, el personal, los ex alumnos y los estudiantes de Saint Paul agradecen su interés, sus oraciones y su apoyo.

LA ASOCIACIÓN DE UNIVERSIDADES METODISTAS UNIDAS DE TEXAS

Durante esta época de cambio significativo en nuestra iglesia, La Asociación de Universidades Metodistas Unidas de Texas (TUMCA) mantiene el rumbo de más de setenta años sirviendo las necesidades becarias de los estudiantes Metodistas que desean asistir a una de nuestras instituciones de enseñanza superior en Texas. Continuamos con la creencia que el apoyo de nuestras iglesias y conferencias es imprescindible en la continuación de la tradición pedagógica establecida por John Wesley. Es una educación que está bien adaptada a los desafíos y cambios en la vida moderna.

Los fondos otorgados por TUMCA a Southwestern University, Southern Methodist University, McMurry University y Texas Wesleyan University están limitados a las becas para los estudiantes que los merecen de las congregaciones de las iglesias Metodistas en Texas. En el otoño del año académico, los estudiantes representando todas las cinco conferencias de Metodistas Unidas de Texas reciben becas de TUMCA para el año escolar (2019-2020).

Estos estudiantes se unen a miles de otros que por muchos años han recibido el apoyo de nuestra familia Metodista Unida. Como siempre, se prohíben usar los fondos para dotación o proyectos capitales. Todo el apoyo va a financiar becas en nuestras universidades Metodistas Unidas en Texas.

Los becarios de TUMCA, los del pasado y del presente, se desarrollan intelectualmente y espiritualmente en preparación para confrontar los temas importantes de la iglesia y de la sociedad. Creemos que esos que llegan a ser clero, laicado, profesores o líderes de la comunidad ayudarán a proyectar el curso de nuestra iglesia.

Nosotros nos quedamos agradecidos y humildes gracias al consorcio que refleja la gran comisión y ayuda a crear discípulos de Jesucristo para la transformación del mundo.

Le damos gracias a Dios por el ministerio que compartimos con la Conferencia de Río Texas. Juntos, en el servicio a generaciones futuras dejamos abiertas las puertas de aprendizaje a muchos estudiantes que forman parte de nuestra variada familia eclesial. Apreciamos la oportunidad de servirles.

Respetuosamente,
Dr. Darrell M. Loyless, President

REPORTE 2020 DE LA TMF (FUNDACIÓN METODISTA DE TEXAS POR SUS SIGLAS EN INGLÉS)

INFORME ANUAL A LA CONFERENCIA

Las relaciones son el centro del ministerio de la TMF. Ya sea que estemos reuniendo recursos a través de filantropía e inversiones o administrando recursos a través de préstamos, subvenciones, ministerio de liderazgo o discernimiento de Conversaciones Santas, creemos que las relaciones que formamos son transformadoras para todos los involucrados y conducen a un cambio intencionado.

Durante el 2019, la TMF continuó construyendo relaciones con ex constituyentes de Heartspring, constituyentes del Fondo de Desarrollo Metodista Unido y nuevos clérigos y líderes laicos que participan en nuestra iniciativa de Liderazgo Imperativo Valiente. Estamos comprometidos en construir nuevas asociaciones, colaboraciones y conexiones para apoyar nuestro objetivo de ayudar a las congregaciones a unir sus recursos financieros y de liderazgo en un plan con propósito para vivir el llamado único de Dios en ellos para servir a sus comunidades.

Tom Stanton, Representante Principal de Área de la TMF para la Conferencia de Rio Texas, es el principal punto de encuentro entre las congregaciones (clérigos y laicos) y la TMF. El conecta a los constituyentes de la Conferencia Rio Texas con recursos relevantes para sus metas únicas de crecimiento misional en sus congregaciones y comunidades.

La TMF, con sede en Austin, sirve a individuos, iglesias y agencias Metodistas Unidas dentro de las seis conferencias anuales en Texas y Nuevo México. Agradecemos la oportunidad de reportarles algunas de las formas en las que en el transcurso del año pasado servimos a los Metodistas Unidos.

Dentro de la Conferencia Río Texas:

- Préstamos a iglesias en la Conferencia Río Texas totalizaron en $52.5 millones a fines de 2019.
- Iglesias y agencias, sin incluir individuos, dentro de la Conferencia Río Texas tuvieron $49.8 millones invertidos en el Fondo de Préstamos Metodistas.

A lo largo de Texas y Nuevo México:

- Al 31 de diciembre de 2019, el total de activos administrados por la TMF fueron aproximadamente $672.9 millones.
- Las inversiones de la Methodist Loan Fund (Fondos de Prestamos Metodistas) terminaron el año en $340.1 millones, y nuestra cartera de préstamos en $317.7 millones.
- Las Fundaciones No Designadas de la TMF terminaron el año en $58.1 millones.
- Nuestra Fundación al Ministerio de Liderazgo fue de $9.1 millones al cierre de 2019.
- Destacando un año significativo de apoyo financiero para la TMF fue una donación de $ 6 millones del Patrimonio de Lemuel Richard Keller: $500,000 de la donación del patrimonio se dirigió al Fondo del Ministerio de Liderazgo de la TMF, una porción totalmente financio Launch 2.0, un foro conjunto de aprendizaje para clérigos y laicos en Little Rock, AR, y el saldo se dirigió a la Fundación No Designada de la TMF. Adicionalmente, la TMF recibió una desafiante donación de $250,000 para fundar al Fondo de Innovación John Thornburg. El fondo fue creado para ayudar a lanzar nuevos ministerios que emerjan de los corazones y mentes de clérigos que participan en el Ministerio de Liderazgo de la TMF. Hasta el 12/31/19, la TMF había recibido $225 mil en regalos y promesas para las donaciones de desafío.
- Durante el 2019, el Ministerio de Donaciones de la TMF otorgó $1.4 millones en apoyo de 28 iglesias y organizaciones sin fines de lucro. De ese total, un estimado de $704,000 proviene de fundaciones restringidas y $725,000 de operaciones de la TMF. Otorgamos aproximadamente $125,000 a iglesias y organizaciones sin fines de lucro que brindan ayuda a los afectados por la tormenta tropical Imelda, la inmigración y los incendios. El Comité de Donaciones de la Junta Directiva de la TMF determina las decisiones de distribución de los fondos discrecionales. En el 2019, los fondos de donaciones se distribuyeron de la siguiente manera: 48% a ministerios de alcance y evangelismo dirigidos al cambio sistémico; 37% a ministerios que benefician sistemáticamente a familias que viven en la pobreza; 15% para becas.
- La TMF continua su trabajo con individuos y familias para apoyar sus objetivos filantrópicos. En el 2019, la TMF recibió $4.2 millones en obsequios (donaciones, fondos asesorados por donantes, anualidades de donaciones benéficas y fideicomisos) para apoyar a los ministerios y causas.
- La TMF distribuyó aproximadamente $2.4 millones de 405 fondos permanentes durante el 2019.
- Durante el 2019, el Ministerio de Liderazgo de la TMF organizó 14 grupos de aprendizaje entre colegas y una gran reunión de innovación, que involucró a casi 300 clérigos y líderes laicos de todo Texas y Nuevo México, como así también de las otras conferencias de la Jurisdicción Sur Central y más allá. La TMF sigue profundamente comprometida en crear espacios para que líderes descubran, exploren, cuestionen y aprendan con sus colegas para así poder ampliar su capacidad de liderar en este momento de profundo cambio. Entre estos grupos hubo dos nuevas unidades lanzadas a través del Liderazgo Imperativo Valiente (CLI). EL CLI busca reunir líderes valientes en toda la SCJ (Jurisdicción Sur Central) con el fin de establecer una red de contactos entre estos líderes valientes, fortalecer su liderazgo y desarrollar su capacidad de valentía, resiliencia, liderazgo adaptativo, agilidad de aprendizaje e innovación. El CLI también organizó Launch 2.0 en Little Rock, que ofreció a equipos de líderes, laicos y clérigos, el espacio y las herramientas para llevar una idea desde la etapa de lluvia de ideas a un prototipo real que tenga forma y planes para los pasos iniciales en la implementación.
- A lo largo de este año de cambio en la denominación, el equipo de Representantes de Área de la TMF mantuvo el enfoque en su propósito central: capacitar a las congregaciones para reclamar y vivir en sus misiones distintivas designadas por Dios. Los ocho representantes viajaron por Texas y Nuevo México, realizando más de 2500 visitas. El equipo hace el doble trabajo de mejoramiento e innovación. El trabajo de mejoramiento incluye las mejores prácticas financieras, el desarrollo de planes de administración para todo el año y la planificación de generosidad para el final de la vida. El trabajo de innovación se centra en la pregunta: "Dios, ¿qué diferencia nos llamas a hacer en la próxima temporada de vida de la iglesia?" Ellos exploran esa pregunta con el clero y líderes laicos, tanto en conversaciones informales como en servicios contratados llamadas Conversaciones Santas (de 6-9 meses con un equipo de 7-9) y Excavaciones Santas (taller de un día con 20-25 personas).

MEMOIRS

GUIDELINES FOR MEMOIRS

In the Rio Texas Conference it is the responsibility of the minister who conducts the funeral of a deceased minister, or spouse of a minister, to write the memoir for the conference journal. The memoir is not designed to be either a eulogy or a memorial sermon, and is not the place for sentimentality; but this brief and specialized biographical account can be a document suitable as a historical record and a portrayal of personality and spirit.

Certain facts are basic and essential for inclusion in a memoir. The style of writing and the method and order of presentation may differ but a memoir should contain the following information, either within the body of the memoir or listed at the end:

1. Personal life, early period: complete name of the deceased; date and place of birth; names of parents, including mother's maiden name.
2. Educational background: schools and colleges attended, with years noted; degrees and honors received, with dates.
3. Ecclesiastical data: first church membership (name of church, location, date); dates of ordination and admission to annual conference; appointments served; special areas of service on conference boards and agencies; retirement date; residence following retirement; and any service after retirement. (This paragraph is to be adapted to the spouse.)
4. Personal life, late period: date of marriage and name of spouse (including maiden name of wife); full names of children (including married names); date and circumstances of death; date and place of funeral and burial; names of officiating clergy; and address of surviving partner or nearest relative.

It shall be the responsibility of the annual conference secretary, as editor of the journal, to see that this basic biographical information is contained in the memoirs that are printed in the conference journal. When the conference secretary is informed as to who will write a memoir, he/she will send to the writer of the memoir a copy of these guidelines, and instruct the writer to make sure that the memoir that is written is complete with the necessary biographical information. It should not be more than 300 words in length.

Writers of memoirs should present a copy of the memoir to a member or members of the family of the deceased so that it may be checked for accuracy before it is sent to the conference secretary. Memoirs should be received by the conference secretary within one month after the death of the person who has served the conference as minister or minister's spouse.

A glossy photograph, preferably black and white, secured if possible from the family, should be made available for publication with the memoir.

MEMORIALES

INSTRUCCIONES PARA MEMORIALES

En la Conferencia Río Texas, es la responsabilidad del Ministro quien lleva a cabo el funeral de un difunto Ministro, o cónyuge de un ministro, escribir un memorial para el diario de la Conferencia. El memorial no está diseñado para ser un elogio o un sermón conmemorativo y no es el lugar para sentimentalismo; pero este relato biográfico breve y especializado puede ser un documento adecuado como un registro histórico y un retrato de la personalidad y espíritu del difunto.

Hay ciertos datos básicos y esenciales para inclusión en un memorial. El estilo de escritura y el método y orden de presentación pueden variar pero deben contener la siguiente información, ya sea dentro del cuerpo del memorial o al final:

1. Vida personal, nombre completo del difunto, datos del período de edad temprana; fecha y lugar de nacimiento; nombres de sus padres, incluyendo el apellido soltero de la madre.
2. Educación: escuelas y colegios atendidos, con años señalados; diplomas y honores recibidos, con las fechas.
3. Datos eclesiásticos: Membresía de primera iglesia (nombre de la iglesia, lugar, fecha); fechas de ordenación y de admisión a la conferencia anual; nombramientos servidos; áreas especiales de servicio en juntas y agencias de la conferencia; fecha de retiro; residencia después de su retiro; y cualquier servicio después de jubilación. (Este párrafo debe ser adaptado para el/la cónyuge).
4. Datos de vida personal posterior: fecha del matrimonio y nombre del cónyuge (incluyendo el apellido de la esposa o el esposo); nombres y apellidos de los niños (incluyendo apellidos de los casados); fecha y circunstancias de fallecimiento; fecha y lugar del funeral y entierro; nombres del clero que oficiaron; y dirección del cónyuge sobreviviente o el pariente más cercano.

Será la responsabilidad del Secretario de la conferencia anual, como editor del diario, ver que esta información biográfica básica esté contenida en los memoriales que se imprimen en el diario de la Conferencia. Cuando el Secretario de la Conferencia se informe de quién va a escribir un memorial, debe enviar al escritor del memorial una copia de estas instrucciones e indicar el escritor que se asegure que en el memorial escrito está completa la información biográfica. No debe ser más de 300 palabras en su total.

Los escritores de memoriales deben presentar una copia del memorial a un miembro o a miembros de la familia de los difuntos para que ellos puedan verificar su exactitud antes de enviarlo al Secretario de la Conferencia. Memoriales deben ser recibidos por el Secretario de la Conferencia dentro de un mes después de la muerte de la persona que sirvió en la Conferencia como ministro o esposa/o del ministro.

ABRAHAM LAZARO CABRALESMARCH 16, 1934 - NOVEMBER 6, 2019

The Rev. Abraham Lazaro Cabrales, 85, of Port Arthur, Texas passed away November 6, 2019. He was born in Lerdo, Durango Mexico to the late Jose Guadalupe Cabrales and Maria Luisa Garnica. He is preceded in death by his wife Rosemarie Millice and his grand-daughter Victoria Elizabeth Avendano.

Those left to cherish Abraham's memory are his daughters, Rose Marie Chavira (Javier) of Houston, Eunice Contreras (Tony) of Galveston Island, Smirna C. Avendano (Carlos) of Port Arthur, Miriam Cardona (Juan) of Groves, Amada Reyes (Benny) of Groves and Christina Cabrales-Marquez (Everardo) of Port Arthur; 14 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren; brother, Arnulfo Cabrales; and his sisters Maria Luisa Saldivar and Rebecca Briones. Along with numerous nieces and nephews whom he loved very much.

Rev. Abraham was an avid hunter and fisherman. He enjoyed deer, rabbit and even bear hunting. As a fisherman his most memorable catch was a three-foot shark off a pier on Galveston Island. He enjoyed spending time with his family, and although he worked hard, he made sure his Saturdays were free to spend with his daughters. Being of adventurous and inquisitive nature he took his family on adventurous getaways and taught them to appreciate God's wonderful creation. Together the family went fishing, hiking, cave exploring, and visited national parks and various historical and art museums throughout the states of Texas and New Mexico.

In his latter years he enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren and hearing the laughter of his great-grandchildren. Although his sight was diminishing, he would enjoy it when the family got together, and he could hear laughter throughout the home. His favorite game with the family was 'Loteria', which he usually won with his favorite card.

Rev. Abraham's love of his life was his wife, Rosemarie, to whom he was married to for 56 wonderful years. He lovingly called her "Mi Reyna" (my queen). His favorite song to sing to her was "Preciosa". Throughout their life they worked as a team serving the Lord and the church.

Most importantly Rev. Abraham was a fisher of men dedicating his life to the service of the Lord alongside his loving wife. Together they worked in the ministry for 46 years serving God in the United Methodist with the Rio Grande Conference in churches throughout Texas and New Mexico. He continued to service by preaching and testifying the good news even after retirement. His whole life was a testimony of his walk of faith with God. He touched the lives of many parishioners through his inspiring sermons which emphasized the Spirit of love and unity.

He left a great inheritance to his family and congregations: The Word of God to live by. He left a legacy of faithful living that will inspire generations to come. He will be greatly missed by all those who knew and loved him. "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of the Lord" (Matt. 25:21). In lieu of flowers the family request that you please make a contribution to his beloved church "Getsemani United Methodist Church" at 1901 Williams Avenue, Port Arthur, TX 77642. Rev. Abraham was a true believer in tithing and always said 'God first'.

A memorial service will be held at Getsemani United Methodist Church of Port Arthur on Saturday, November 30, 2019 at 2:00 p.m.

El Reverendo Abraham Lázaro Cabrales, de 85 años, de Port Arthur, Texas, falleció el 6 de noviembre de 2019. Nació en Lerdo, Durango México de sus fallecidos padres José Guadalupe Cabrales y María Luisa Garnica. Le precedieron en la muerte su esposa Rosemarie Millice y su nieta Victoria Elizabeth Avendano. Los que quedan para apreciar la memoria de Abraham son sus hijas, Rose Marie Chavira (Javier) de Houston, Eunice Contreras (Tony) de Galveston Island, Smirna C. Avendaño (Carlos) de Port Arthur, Miriam Cardona (Juan) de Groves, Amada Reyes (Benny) de Groves y Christina Cabrales-Marquez (Everardo) de Port Arthur; 14 nietos y 15 bisnietos; hermano, Arnulfo Cabrales; y sus hermanas María Luisa Saldivar y Rebecca Briones, además de a numerosas sobrinas y sobrinos a quienes amaba mucho. El Rdo. Abraham era un ávido cazador y pescador. Disfrutaba de la caza de venados, conejos e incluso osos. Como pescador, su captura más memorable fue un tiburón de medida de un metro en un muelle en la isla de Galveston. Disfrutaba pasar tiempo con su familia y, aunque trabajaba duro, se aseguraba de que sus sábados fueran libres para pasarlos con sus hijas. Siendo de naturaleza aventurera e inquisitiva, llevó a su familia a escapadas aventureras y les enseñó a apreciar la maravillosa creación de Dios. Juntos, la familia fue a pescar, ir en caminatas, explorar cuevas y visitar parques nacionales y varios museos históricos y de arte en los estados de Texas y Nuevo México. En sus últimos años disfrutó pasar tiempo con sus nietos y escuchar las risas de sus bisnietos. Aunque su vista estaba disminuyendo, disfrutaba cuando la familia se reunía y podía escuchar risas en toda la casa. Su juego favorito con la familia era la “Lotería”, que solía ganar con su carta favorita. El amor de su vida del Reverendo Abraham fue su esposa, Rosemarie, con quien estuvo casado durante 56 maravillosos años. Cariñosamente la llamó “Mi Reyna” (mi reina). Su canción favorita para cantarle era “Preciosa”. A lo largo de su vida trabajaron en equipo sirviendo al Señor y a la iglesia.

Lo más importante es que el Rdo. Abraham fue un pescador de hombres que dedicó su vida al servicio del Señor junto a su amada esposa. Juntos trabajaron en el ministerio durante 46 años sirviendo a Dios en la Iglesia Metodista Unida con la Conferencia Río Grande en iglesias en todo Texas y Nuevo México. Continuó sirviendo predicando y testificando las buenas nuevas incluso después de jubilarse. Toda su vida fue un testimonio de su caminar de fe con Dios. Tocó las vidas de muchos feligreses a través de sus sermones inspiradores que enfatizaron el Espíritu de amor y unidad. Dejó una gran herencia a su familia y congregaciones: la Palabra de Dios para vivir. Dejó un legado de vida fiel que inspirará a las generaciones venideras. Todos los que lo conocieron y amaron lo extrañarán mucho. “Bien hecho, buen y fiel sirviente; en lo poco has sido fiel, sobre mucho te pondré. Entra en el gozo de tu Señor.” (Mateo 25:21). Se llevó a cabo un servicio conmemorativo en la Iglesia Metodista Unida Getsemaní de Port Arthur el sábado 30 de noviembre de 2019 a las 2:00 p.m.

CHARLES ALLEN CAMP

AUGUST 30, 1934 – JANUARY 10, 2020

Charles Allen Camp was born in Houston Texas August 30, 1934 to Cecil Sanders Camp and Margaret Feser Camp. He died January 10, 2020 in Austin, Texas. Chuck, as he was often called, spent his life as a Methodist minister and was known for his dedication to theology.

In 1955, he married Jere Louise Townley in San Angelo, Texas. He served as pastor at Veribest and Midkiff United Methodist Churches in Texas.

He was ordained in San Antonio at Trinity United Methodist Church in 1962. He graduated from Perkins Theological Institute with a Masters in Theology and later received another Masters in Education from Pepperdine University.

He joined the military early in his career as a minister. First serving in the Air Force, he transferred to the US Navy to enter the Chaplain Corps. He and Jere had three children and were stationed on the East Coast from Maine to South Carolina, with tours of duty in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba and Guam. While Chaplain Camp did not see duty in a war zone, a military chaplain serves the troops in various and difficult ways.

The chaplain must be confident in their theology so that they can work alongside and support others with different backgrounds and beliefs. In addition to providing church services for the troops, the chaplain organizes lay leadership for other religious faiths, is a marriage counselor, spiritual adviser, grief counselor, leader, and resource for other social services. Charles excelled and loved being a Navy Chaplain. He had a beautiful tenor voice that he shared often from the pulpit.

After retiring from the Navy he worked in San Angelo, Texas as Safety Engineer for Goodyear Tire Proving Grounds and was a key figure establishing the San Angelo Detox Center.

Chuck later married Jane Wiley and they enjoyed traveling in semi-retirement. He again served the Methodist Church in and around San Angelo until Jane’s death. He married Brenda Kay Boatler. They moved to Bastrop where he ministered at Haynie Chapel United Methodist Church. Following the wildfires that destroyed their home in Bastrop, Chuck and Brenda settled in Georgetown, Texas.

He is preceded in death by his parents; his first wife Jere; his second wife Jane; his sons Charles A. Camp, II and David Wesley Camp; and, Jane’s son Michael Stephen Hollway.

He is survived by his wife, Brenda, his daughter Robin Ann Camp and her partner Randell E. Burt; his sons Ralph Jay Hollway, Wiley Kevin Hollway, and Travis Scott Hollway; his daughter-in-law Gail Denson Camp; his grandson John Bailey White and fiancé Sydney Tankersley; and, his great granddaughter Spencer Jolene White, newest addition to the family, Porter Frey White born September 7, 2020.

Graveside services were held 1:00 p.m. on Monday, January 27th at Calvary Cemetery, 1400 W Avenue N, San Angelo.

Charles Allen Camp nació en Houston Texas el 30 de agosto de 1934 de padres Cecil Sanders Camp y Margaret Feser Camp. Murió el 10 de enero de 2020 en Austin, Texas. Chuck, como lo llamaban a menudo, pasó su vida como ministro metodista y fue conocido por su dedicación a la teología. En 1955, se casó con Jere Louise Townley en San Angelo, Texas. Se desempeñó como pastor en las Iglesias Metodistas Unidas Veribest y Midkiff en Texas. Fue ordenado en San Antonio en la Trinity United Methodist Church en 1962. Se graduó del Instituto Teológico Perkins con una Maestría en Teología y luego recibió otra Maestría en Educación de la Universidad Pepperdine. Se unió al ejército al principio de su carrera como capellán. Primero sirvió en la Fuerza Aérea, se transfirió a la Marina de los Estados Unidos para ingresar al Cuerpo de Capellanes. Él y Jere tuvieron tres hijos y estaban estacionados en la costa este desde Maine hasta Carolina del Sur, con turnos de servicio en la Bahía de Guantánamo, Cuba y Guam. Mientras que Chaplain Camp no veía el deber en una zona de guerra, un capellán militar sirve a las tropas de diversas y difíciles formas. El capellán debe tener confianza en su teología para poder trabajar junto con otros y apoyar a otros con diferentes antecedentes y creencias. Además de proporcionar servicios eclesiásticos a las tropas, el capellán organiza el liderazgo laico para otras religiones, es consejero matrimonial, consejero espiritual, consejero de duelo, líder y recurso para otros servicios sociales. Charles sobresalió y le encantaba ser capellán de la Marina. Tenía una hermosa voz de tenor que solía compartir desde el púlpito. Después de retirarse de la Marina, trabajó en San Angelo, Texas como ingeniero de seguridad para Goodyear Tire Proving Grounds y fue una figura clave en el establecimiento del San Angelo Detox Center. Posteriormente, Chuck se casó con Jane Wiley y disfrutaron de viajar semi-jubilados. De nuevo sirvió a la Iglesia Metodista en San Angelo y sus alrededores hasta la muerte de Jane. Se casó con Brenda Kay Boatler. Se mudaron a Bastrop donde ministró en la Iglesia Metodista Unida Haynie Chapel. Después de los incendios forestales que destruyeron su hogar en Bastrop, Chuck y Brenda se establecieron en Georgetown, Texas. Le anteceden en la muerte sus padres; su primera esposa Jere; su segunda esposa Jane; sus hijos Charles A. Camp, II y David Wesley Camp; y el hijo de Jane, Michael Stephen Hollway. Le sobreviven su esposa, Brenda, su hija Robin Ann Camp y su compañero Randell E. Burt; sus hijos Ralph Jay Hollway, Wiley Kevin Hollway y Travis Scott Hollway; su nuera Gail Denson Camp; su nieto John Bailey White y su prometido Sydney Tankersley; su bisnieta Spencer Jolene White y la más reciente incorporación a la familia, Porter Frey White, nacida el 7 de septiembre de 2020. Los servicios de sepulcro se llevaron a cabo a la 1:00 p.m. el lunes 27 de enero en Calvary Cemetery, 1400 W Avenue N, San Angelo.

CLIFFORD CHARLES EDGE, JR.FEBRUARY 20, 1933 - AUGUST 12, 2020

Clifford Charles Edge, Jr. should have written his own obituary. He was one of the finest writers I have known. He was born to Clifford Charles Edge, Sr. and Grace Brown Edge in Bryan, Texas on February 20th, 1933. He was their only child, and I won't say he was spoiled, but he told me once that he cried when his mother took down the Christmas Tree so she left it up and just re-decorated it every month with themed ornaments. His mother also wrote and self-published two books filled with her son's precocious witticisms called "Let there Be Laughter" and "Let There Be Laughter 2". He was a cherished and beloved child.

As a young man, Clifford found that his writing talent and capacity to learn served him well in pursuit of his career choice, a Methodist pastor. He achieved two Master's degrees and a Doctorate of Philosophy from University of Texas.

He always had a plan for his life which included meeting and marrying a lovely Methodist woman, who turned out to be a superb pianist as well: Carla Ehlers. They were a handsome young couple ready to serve in the Methodist church wherever God sent them.

Clifford and Carla were told they would not be able to have children, but the children apparently thought otherwise. I can honestly say Clifford's children were the light of his life. They came in rapid succession: Clifford Charles (Kippy) in 1962, David Carl in 1963, Craig Martin in 1967, James Christian in 1969 and Cara Diane in 1972. He was a dad who played with his kids, loved to travel to amusement parks with them, enjoyed cooking for them, loved to plan parties for them and just loved being with them.

Being a Methodist pastor meant moving many times; Clifford served in many Methodist churches including appointments in: Alvin, Bryan, Utopia, Houston, Fredericksburg, Brownsville, Llano, and Robstown until 1979 when he took sabbatical so that his kids could complete high school without having to move. He worked at Del Mar College, Texas A & I Kingsville, Robstown High School and the Robstown Record using his writing skills and his penchant for history in his new careers. He later rejoined the ministry and commuted to smaller rural Methodist churches so that his family could stay put.

Clifford loved historical buildings; his specialty was old movie theaters, particularly those which still housed pipe organs. He belonged to the national historical theater society and often used his planning skills to set up trips for the group's summer conventions. He coordinated and made agendas for the hundreds of members with ease. And he had a map in his head of the entire U.S. including where the historic theaters were in the cities. I know his kids and even his grandkids liked to "test" this map with: "What street is the theater in Lexington Kentucky located on, Daddy?" His reply: "You mean the one downtown, or the one on the east side?" This type of exchange happened many, many times in the course of our conversations with Clifford.

Clifford loved to have his family all together. When his kids started marrying and having kids, he was a very happy man. He was Granddaddy to his grandkids. They knew he would sit with them for hours reading a book or playing Pick a Patch, Uncle Wiggly or Candyland without losing patience. When the grandkids were old enough, he loved to take them to movies, plays and concerts. A particular favorite activity was taking the family out to a restaurant. He loved seeing a table of 16 to 20 people including his kids, grandkids and friends who tagged along sitting in a restaurant at several tables pushed together. And he always footed the bill; no question that he'd do so.

Family Christmas-tide was full of fun "traditions" that Clifford created; for years he would bring a full-size advent wreath with candles and an advent calendar to every family meal during the time of Advent. Those at other tables in restaurants may have looked sideways as he lit the candles, but he didn't care. He loved reading from the prayer book or having one of the kids do it and then passing out treats to everyone after the ceremony.

Clifford also kept track of birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, and any other notable milestones and always made a point to send a card or treat a group to dinner to honor those special occasions in our lives. For him, any excuse to get together as a family was important.

His intelligence was astounding, but you would only find that out if you took the time to ask him something. If you had interest in: movies, historic buildings, downtown revitalization, politics, history, rock music, electricity, or most any topic, you could easily write a school essay on the information you gleaned from a conversation with Clifford. In fact, some kids may have done just that...But, he was always humble in his interactions with others and never belittled anyone in any way. He loved learning new things and often commented that something was “interesting” or “highly entertaining” if he particularly liked it.

Clifford, we know you had no allergies or ailments and you never complained about being uncomfortable. We know your family was your joy in life. We just wish you were here to write this and then join us for dinner after the service. We will miss you so much.

Clifford is now with his wife of 59 years, Carla Diane Ehlers Edge as well as his loving parents, uncles and aunts; he is survived by his five kids: Kippy (Debbie) of Portland, Texas; Carl of San Luis Obispo California; Craig (Michelle) of Andover, Kansas; Chris (Mimi) of Los Fresnos, Texas; Cara (Louis) of Cedar Park, Texas. He is also survived by his twelve grandkids: Chelsea, Caitlin (Hunter), Courtney, Camber, Caven, Cora, Cenna, Camie, Carly, Casey, Jacques and Emile.

Clifford Charles Edge, Jr. debería haber escrito su propio obituario. Fue uno de los mejores escritores que he conocido. Sus padres son Clifford Charles Edge, Sr. y Grace Brown Edge y nació en Bryan, Texas, el 20 de febrero de 1933. Era su único hijo, y no diré que fue malcriado, pero me dijo una vez que lloró cuando su madre quitó el árbol de Navidad, así que lo dejó y lo volvió a decorar todos los meses con adornos temáticos. Su madre también escribió y autoeditó dos libros llenos de las precoces ocurrencias de su hijo titulados “Let There Be Laughter” y “Let There Be Laughter 2”. Era un niño querido y anhelado. Cuando era joven, Clifford descubrió que su talento para escribir y su capacidad para aprender le sirvieron bien en la búsqueda de su elección de carrera de pastor metodista. Obtuvo dos maestrías y un doctorado en filosofía de la Universidad de Texas. Siempre tuvo un plan para su vida que incluía conocer y casarse con una hermosa mujer metodista, que resultó ser una excelente pianista también: Carla Ehlers. Eran una pareja joven y hermosa, lista para servir en la iglesia metodista dondequiera que Dios los enviaba. A Clifford y Carla se les dijo que no podrían tener hijos, pero sus hijos aparentemente pensaron lo contrario. Honestamente puedo decir que los hijos de Clifford fueron la luz de su vida. Vinieron en rápida sucesión: Clifford Charles (Kippy) en 1962, David Carl en 1963, Craig Martin en 1967, James Christian en 1969 y Cara Diane en 1972. Era un padre que jugaba con sus hijos, le encantaba viajar a los parques de atracciones. con ellos, disfrutaba cocinar para ellos, amaba planificar fiestas para ellos y simplemente amaba estar con ellos. Ser pastor metodista significó mudarse muchas veces; Clifford sirvió en muchas iglesias metodistas, inclusive nombramientos en: Alvin, Bryan, Utopia, Houston, Fredericksburg, Brownsville, Llano y Robstown hasta 1979, cuando tomó un año sabático para que sus hijos pudieran completar la escuela secundaria sin tener que mudarse. Trabajó en Del Mar College, Texas A & I Kingsville, Robstown High School y Robstown Record usando sus habilidades de escritura y su inclinación por la historia en sus nuevas carreras. Más tarde se reincorporó al ministerio y se trasladó a iglesias metodistas rurales más pequeñas para que su familia pudiera quedarse.

Clifford amaba los edificios históricos; su especialidad eran las antiguas salas de cine, especialmente las que aún albergaban órganos de tubos. Perteneía a la sociedad nacional de teatro histórico y a menudo utilizaba sus habilidades de planificación para organizar viajes para las convenciones de verano del grupo. Coordinó e hizo agendas para los cientos de miembros con facilidad. Y tenía un mapa en su cabeza de todo Estados Unidos, incluyendo dónde estaban los teatros históricos en las ciudades. Sé que a sus hijos e incluso a sus nietos les gustaba “probar” este mapa mental con: “¿En qué calle está ubicado el teatro en Lexington Kentucky, papá?” Su respuesta: “¿Te refieres al del centro o al del lado este?” Este tipo de intercambio ocurrió muchas, muchas veces en el curso de nuestras conversaciones con Clifford. A Clifford le encantaba tener toda su familia junta. Cuando sus hijos comenzaron a casarse y a tener hijos, él era un hombre muy feliz. Era el abuelo de sus nietos. Sabían que se sentaría con ellos durante horas leyendo un libro o jugando Pick a Patch, Uncle Wiggly o Candyland sin perder la paciencia. Cuando los nietos tuvieron la edad suficiente, le encantaba llevarlos al cine, a obras de teatro y a conciertos. Una actividad favorita en particular fue llevar a la familia a un restaurante. Le encantaba ver una mesa de 16 a 20 personas, incluyendo sus hijos, nietos y amigos que lo acompañaban sentados en un restaurante en varias mesas juntas. Y siempre pagó la cuenta; no hay duda de que lo haría. La celebración navideña familiar estuvo siempre llena de “tradiciones” divertidas que creó Clifford. Durante muchos años, traía una corona de Adviento de tamaño completo con velas y un calendario de Adviento a cada comida familiar durante la temporada de Adviento. Los que estaban en otras mesas de los restaurantes pueden haber mirado de reojo mientras encendía las velas, pero no le importaba. Le encantaba leer el libro de oraciones o que uno de los niños lo hiciera y luego repartir golosinas a todos después de la ceremonia.

KENNETH LEROY GREENE, JR.NOVEMBER 25, 1942 – JULY 7, 2020

Happy are those whose delight is in the law of the LORD, and on the LORD'S law they meditate day and night. They are like trees planted by streams of water, which yield their fruit in its season, and their leaves do not wither. In all that they do, they prosper. Psalm 1:1-3

Ken's last words to his beloved wife, Margot, were, "I love you, and I love the Lord," shortly before he took his flight to heaven on Tuesday, July 7, at the age of 77 years and after 32 years of marriage to Margot. In Ken's last three weeks, Ken and Margot were able to spend the days filled with loving kindnesses and expressions of appreciation for much blessing in their lives. They relished in memories of ministry together, traveling the world, long walks and talks, listening to gospel music, pure enjoyment of each other's company and on their commitment to build a relationship anchored in the Lord and with each other. Ken was called to ministry in his early teens and served faithfully for the rest of his life. He was ordained in the Baptist tradition and later became an Associate Member in the United Methodist Church. He served churches in Germany (while serving in the US Army during the Viet Nam War), Michigan, Arizona, Iowa and retired from vocational ministry in Texas in 2017. A parishioner reflected, "Ken gave us hope," to which Margot responded, "Yes, he gave me hope every day for 32-plus years." Others regarded Ken as winsome, fun, thoughtful, an outstanding leader, passionate and gift for ministry, practical, relatable and likeable, a wonderful pastoral presence, sensible, and a gentleman with a great personality. He had a remarkable gift of making things happen—no task ever seemed too great. He fulfilled his work and life with thanksgiving and gratitude. In Ken's retirement years, he dedicated all that he did to support Margot in her work at SMU|Perkins School of Theology; they were hardly ever apart. Ken graduated from Grand Rapids Bible College and Seminary. Ken leaves behind his sweetheart, Margot; daughter, Kelly Romirowsky (Scott); son, Lance Martin (Shanda); sisters and a brother; grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. A private service to celebrate Ken's life held at the Weed-Corley-Fish Chapel, 3125 N. Lamar Blvd., Austin. The Rev. Dr. Neil Thomas, Senior Pastor, Cathedral of Hope United Church of Christ, Dallas, will officiate; Rev. Lance Richards, Senior Pastor, Tarrytown United Methodist Church, Austin, will assist. Contributions can be made in Ken's honor to Perkins School of Theology Scholarship Fund and Tarrytown United Methodist Church. Grown men weep at this loss. Truly words cannot convey adequately the loss of Ken Greene. When he left us, he practically had a smile upon his beautiful face. He told Margot that he would be waiting for her at the river. Until then, rest my beautiful Ken. I'll be seeing you, and I will forever love you.

We will never be the same as we were before this loss but are ever so much better for having had something so great to lose.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the worship service was private. The worship service was livestreamed on the Weed-Corley-Fish North Chapel Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/WCFFunerals>.

Bienaventurados los que se deleitan en la ley del SEÑOR, y en la ley del SEÑOR meditan día y noche. Son como árboles plantados junto a corrientes de agua, que dan su fruto a su tiempo y sus hojas no se marchitan. En todo lo que hacen, prosperan. (Salmo 1: 1-3) Las últimas palabras de Ken a su amada esposa, Margot, fueron: "Te amo y amo al Señor", poco antes de emprender su vuelo al cielo el martes 7 de julio, a la edad de 77 años y después de 32 años de matrimonio con Margot. En las últimas tres semanas de Ken, Ken y Margot pudieron pasar los días llenos de bondad amorosa y expresiones de agradecimiento por muchas bendiciones en sus vidas. Disfrutaron de los recuerdos del ministerio juntos, viajando por el mundo, en largas caminatas y charlas, escuchando música gospel, disfrute puro de la compañía del otro y de su compromiso de construir una relación anclada en el Señor y entre ellos. Ken fue llamado al ministerio en su adolescencia y sirvió fielmente por el resto de su vida. Fue ordenado en la tradición bautista y más tarde se convirtió en miembro asociado de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Sirvió en iglesias en Alemania (mientras servía en el ejército de los EE. UU. Durante la Guerra de Vietnam), Michigan, Arizona, Iowa y se jubiló del ministerio vocacional en Texas en 2017. Un feligrés reflexionó: "Ken nos dio esperanza", a lo que Margot respondió: "Sí, me dio esperanza todos los días durante más de 32 años". Otros consideraban a Ken como atractivo, divertido, reflexivo, un líder sobresaliente, apasionado y con talento para el ministerio, práctico, identificable y agradable, una presencia pastoral maravillosa, sensible y un caballero con una gran personalidad. Tenía un don extraordinario para hacer que las cosas sucedieran; ninguna tarea parecía demasiado grande. Cumplió su trabajo y su vida con acción de gracias y gratitud. En los años de jubilación de Ken, dedicó todo lo que hizo para apoyar a Margot en su trabajo en SMU | Escuela de Teología Perkins; casi nunca estaban separados. Ken se graduó de Grand Rapids Bible College and Seminary. Ken deja atrás a su amada, Margot; hija, Kelly Romirowsky (Scott); hijo, Lance Martin (Shanda); hermanas y un hermano; nietos, sobrinas y sobrinos. En un servicio privado se celebrará la vida de Ken en la Capilla Weed-Corley-Fish, 3125 N. Lamar Blvd., Austin. El Reverendo Dr. Neil Thomas, pastor principal de la Catedral de la Esperanza de la Iglesia Unida de Cristo, Dallas, ofició; El Reverendo Lance Richards, pastor principal de la Iglesia Metodista Unida de Tarrytown, Austin, asistió. Se pueden hacer contribuciones en honor de Ken al Fondo de Becas de la Escuela de Teología Perkins y la Iglesia Metodista Unida de Tarrytown. Los hombres adultos lloran su pérdida. Verdaderamente, las palabras no pueden transmitir adecuadamente la pérdida de Ken Greene. Cuando nos dejó, prácticamente tenía una sonrisa en su hermoso rostro. Le dijo a Margot que la estaría esperando al otro lado del río. Hasta entonces, descansa mi hermoso Ken. Te veré y te amaré por siempre. Nunca volveremos a ser los mismos que éramos antes de esta pérdida, pero somos mucho mejores por haber tenido algo tan grande que perder. Debido a la pandemia de COVID-19, el servicio de adoración fue privado. El servicio de adoración se transmitió en vivo en la página de Facebook de Weed-Corley-Fish North Chapel.

CHARLES FREDERICK HAHN

SEPTEMBER 9, 1930 – MARCH 27, 2020

Charles Frederick Hahn, 89, of Bloomington, Indiana, completed his journey on earth on Friday, March 27, 2020, at Richland Bean-Blossom Healthcare Center. He was born on September 9, 1930, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, the son of Nell (King) Hahn and Fred W. Hahn.

From his earliest days as president of his Oklahoma City District Methodist Youth Fellowship, Charles's life was defined by his calling as a pastor. Charles received his undergraduate degree from Southern Methodist University and his Master of Divinity from Perkins School of Theology at SMU, and was ordained in 1956. While at Perkins, Charles met Doris Schulze, also a graduate student there. They married in 1955.

After serving as pastor for several churches in the United Methodist Church Southwest Texas Conference, Charles requested a special assignment to work with the Ecumenical Institute and then the Institute of Cultural Affairs, initially teaching courses in religious and cultural studies and later doing community development work around the world. During their work with these organizations, Charles and Doris lived in: Chicago, IL; Los Angeles, CA; London and Yorkshire, England; Brussels, Belgium; Mumbai, India; and Houston, TX. While Charles was always proud to be an "Okie," he enjoyed making every place he lived his home.

After twenty-two years working with the EI and ICA, Charles returned to local church ministry in Texas. Charles loved all aspects of pastoring, but especially ministering to those most in pain, in need, and in despair. He was at his best making hospital visits, performing funerals, and advocating for society's most vulnerable and marginalized. He was committed to social justice and was not afraid to speak out. After retiring from the ministry, Charles volunteered with the Indigent Healthcare Program in Bastrop, Texas, where he eventually became director before retiring a second time in 2001.

Charles and Doris embraced Bloomington as their home after moving here in 2004 to be closer to their daughters. Charles enjoyed volunteering for the First United Methodist Church Wednesday Pantry, which led to his connection to Hoosier Hills Food Bank. He was also devoted to Hoosiers for a Common Sense Health Plan, believing that good healthcare should be a right for all.

Charles was a gracious man who loved humanity, family, community, the United Methodist Church, the planet, music of all kinds, all creatures (especially dogs), and pancakes.

Charles is survived by his wife, Doris, daughters Marsha Hahn (Pat Moriarty) of Everett, WA, and Shelley Hahn (Greg Simon) of Bloomington, IN, grandson Erin Stansbury (Kelly Woznicki) and great grandchildren Sam, Margo and Annalee Stansbury of Seattle, WA.

Charles Frederick Hahn, de 89 años, de Bloomington, Indiana, completó su jornada en esta tierra el viernes 27 de marzo de 2020 en Richland Bean-Blossom Healthcare Center. Nació el 9 de septiembre de 1930 en Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, hijo de Nell (King) Hahn y Fred W. Hahn. Desde sus primeros días como presidente de su Comunidad Juvenil Metodista del Distrito de la Ciudad de Oklahoma, la vida de Charles se definió por su llamado como pastor. Charles recibió su licenciatura de la Universidad Metodista del Sur y su Maestría en Divinidad de la Escuela de Teología de Perkins en SMU, y fue ordenado Presbítero en 1956. Mientras estaba en Perkins, Charles conoció a Doris Schulze, también una estudiante graduada allí. Se casaron en 1955. Después de servir como pastor de varias iglesias en la Conferencia del Suroeste de Texas de la Iglesia Metodista Unida, Charles solicitó una asignación especial para trabajar con el Instituto Ecuménico y luego con el Instituto de Asuntos Culturales, inicialmente enseñando cursos de estudios religiosos y culturales y luego haciendo trabajo de desarrollo comunitario en torno al mundo. Durante su trabajo con estas organizaciones, Charles y Doris vivieron en: Chicago, IL; Los Ángeles, California; Londres y Yorkshire, Inglaterra; Bruselas, Bélgica; Mumbai, India; y Houston, TX. Aunque Charles siempre estuvo orgulloso de ser un “Okie”, disfrutaba hacer de cada lugar donde vivía su hogar. Después de veintidós años trabajando con la IE y la ICA, Charles regresó al ministerio de la iglesia local en Texas. Charles amaba todos los aspectos del pastorado, pero especialmente el ministrar a los más dolorosos, necesitados y desamparados. Estaba en su mejor momento haciendo visitas al hospital, oficiando funerales y defendiendo a los más vulnerables y marginados de la sociedad. Estaba comprometido con la justicia social y no tenía temor de hablar. Después de jubilarse del ministerio, Charles se ofreció como voluntario en el Programa de Atención Médica para Indigentes en Bastrop, Texas, donde finalmente se convirtió en director antes de jubilarse por segunda vez en 2001. Charles y Doris adoptaron a Bloomington como su hogar después de mudarse allí en 2004 para estar más cerca de sus hijas. Charles disfrutó de ser voluntario para la despensa de miércoles de la Primera Iglesia Metodista Unida, lo que lo llevó a conectarse con el Banco de Alimentos de Hoosier Hills. También se dedicó a Hoosiers for a Common Sense Health Plan, creyendo que una buena atención médica debería ser un derecho para todos. Charles era un hombre amable que amaba a la humanidad, la familia, la comunidad, la Iglesia Metodista Unida, el planeta, la música de todo tipo, todas las criaturas (especialmente los perros) y los panqueques. A Charles le sobreviven su esposa, Doris, sus hijas Marsha Hahn (Pat Moriarty) de Everett, WA, y Shelley Hahn (Greg Simon) de Bloomington, IN, su nieto Erin Stansbury (Kelly Woznicki) y sus bisnietos Sam, Margo y Annalee Stansbury de Seattle, WA.

Bob, as he was known to friends, met Lois at church and after 6 months of dating they married in 1970 on Valentine’s Day and were married for 49 years. Bob attended Howard Payne University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. While in college, he began pastoring, which he would do for 34 years throughout Texas. Four years later, the family grew as Sharon Hahn was born while Bob was pastoring First Baptist Church Fredericksburg.

In 1980, he became the pastor at Dellview Baptist Church in San Antonio. After this, Bob left full time ministry for a season and worked for John Hancock Financial Services for 6 years. During this time, the family started attending University UMC in San Antonio where Bob continued to teach Sunday School and be involved as a lay minister. In 1989, Bob went back into full time ministry, this time as a Methodist where he would spend the next 23 years. He pastored FUMC at Schulenburg, FUMC at Liberty Hill, St. Luke UMC in Austin and then First United Methodist Church in Lockhart where he would spend the final 10 years before retiring in 2012.

Bob loved his family, his pets, teaching a weekly Bible study, supply preaching, and loved to laugh. One of his greatest joys was being Opa to his four grandchildren: Rachel Beth, Caroline, Isaiah & Sara Faith, the children of James and his wife Shelly. Bob touched many lives as a pastor and friend.

MALFORD COTHAM HIERHOLZERNOVEMBER 17, 1933 – APRIL 8, 2020

“Pastor, Warrior, Evangelist, and Friend”

I met Mal in 1976 when my family moved to San Antonio. As soon as we found St. Matthews UMC and Mal Hierholzer, we knew we had found a church home. Mal was unlike any pastor we had ever known. There was no false piety, no pretense, nor posturing. Mal was the kind of preacher who’s soul rested with God yet his heart and eyes were fixed on life in the real world. Mal lived between the ground and God. Though full of faith and heaven’s hope Mal kept his feet fixed firmly on earth. He spoke of a hope that can be found in God and in Christian community as well as the heartaches, thorns and thistles that are common to all made of flesh and bone. Mal was the first preacher we ever heard who shared his own life’s struggles, even struggles with faith. This truth-telling brought comfort and hope to us all.

If you knew Mal and were blessed to also experience his preaching, you surely noticed this willingness to share his own foibles. Mal had a strong sense of self and a healthy ego, yet as one of my colleagues noted “Outside the pulpit Mal could tell a story where he was the hero, yet in his preaching he was more than willing to be the goat!”

There’s no doubt that I would not have become a pastor had I not known Mal, Caroline, and their sons Rob and John. The meals they fed me and the love they demonstrated, all helped me answer the call to ministry. As pastor at Canyon Lake I was happy to bring Mal on as associate and just as happy to know that he would allow me to lead as senior pastor.

Together, pushed by the engine of Mal’s evangelistic tendencies and natural tenacity, Canyon Lake was able to birth the North Shore UMC. Without Mal and Caroline, that would have never happened as quickly and gracefully as it did.

Life without him will never be the same. I miss my friend.

Even in grief I smile when I remember Natalie Sleeth’s “Hymn of Promise” which Mal often quoted when preaching funerals. “In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed an apple tree; in cocoons , a hidden promise, butterflies will soon be free!” Mal is free. Imagine his adventures!

Rev. Jim Roberts

Rev. Malford Cotham Hierholzer served in the Southwest Texas Conference after he completed his studies at Perkins School of Theology. He became an Elder in 1961 and served in many churches: Paint Rock/Eola/Millersview, Woodsboro, CC: Trinity, Fredericksburg, Lockhart, St. Matthews SA, St. John’s Austin, SWTX Conference as District Superintendent, Canyon Lake. After his retirement in 2002 he continued his ministry at Canyon Lake North Shore, Hilda, Jefferson San Antonio and Pettus/Pawnee. He served in these churches from 1959 – 2017, also serving at Rio Texas Conference upon transition from SWTX Conference.

“Pastor, guerrero, evangelista y amigo” Conocí a Mal en 1976 cuando mi familia se mudó a San Antonio. Tan pronto como encontramos a St. Matthews UMC y a Mal Hierholzer, supimos que habíamos encontrado una iglesia familiar. Mal era diferente a cualquier pastor que habíamos conocido. No hubo piedad falsa, sin pretensiones ni poses. Mal era el tipo de predicador cuya alma descansaba con Dios, pero su corazón y sus ojos estaban fijos en la vida en el mundo real. Mal vivía entre la tierra y Dios. Aunque estaba lleno de fe y de la esperanza del cielo, Mal mantuvo los pies firmes en la tierra. Habló de una esperanza que se puede encontrar en Dios y en la comunidad cristiana, así como en los dolores de cabeza, los espinos y los cardos que son comunes a todos los hechos de carne y hueso. Mal fue el primer predicador que escuchamos que compartió las luchas de su propia vida, incluso las luchas con la fe. Este decir la verdad nos trajo consuelo y esperanza a todos. Si conoció uno a Mal y tuvo la bendición de experimentar también su predicación, seguramente notó esta voluntad de compartir sus propias debilidades. Mal tenía un fuerte sentido de sí mismo y un ego sano, sin embargo, como señaló uno de mis colaboradores: “Fuera del púlpito, Mal podía contar una historia en la que él era el héroe, pero en su predicación estaba más que dispuesto a ser la cabra”. No hay duda de que no me habría convertido en pastor si no hubiera conocido a Mal, a Caroline y a sus hijos Rob y John. Las comidas que me sirvieron y el amor que me demonstraron me ayudaron a responder al llamado al ministerio. Como pastor en Canyon Lake, estuve feliz de traer a Mal como asociado y también feliz de saber que me permitiría liderar como pastor principal. Juntos, impulsados por el motor de las tendencias evangélicas y la tenacidad natural de Mal, Canyon Lake pudo dar a luz al North Shore UMC. Sin Mal y Caroline, eso nunca hubiera sucedido tan rápido y con tanta gracia como lo hicieron. La vida sin él nunca volverá a ser la misma. Extraño a mi amigo. Incluso en el dolor, sonrió cuando recuerdo el “Himno de la promesa” de Natalie Sleeth que Mal citaba a menudo cuando predicaba funerales. “En el bulbo hay una flor; en la semilla un manzano; en capullos, una promesa oculta, ¡las mariposas pronto estarán libres! “ Mal es libre. ¡Imaginamos sus aventuras! Rdo. Jim Roberts: El Reverendo Malford Cotham Hierholzer sirvió en la Conferencia del Sudoeste de Texas después de completar sus estudios en la Escuela de Teología Perkins. Se ordenó de presbítero en 1961 y sirvió en muchas iglesias: Paint Rock / Eola / Millersview, Woodsboro, CC: Trinity, Fredericksburg, Lockhart, St. Matthews SA, St. John’s Austin, SWTX Conference como superintendente de distrito, Canyon Lake. Después de su júbilo en 2002, continuó su ministerio en Canyon Lake North Shore, Hilda, Jefferson San Antonio y Pettus / Pawnee. Sirvió en estas iglesias desde 1959 hasta 2017, también sirvió en la Conferencia Río Texas después de la transición de la Conferencia SWTX.

Born in Central, Indiana his boyhood was in Alexandria, Indiana where he graduated from High School in 1949. Charles D. “Chuck” McCullough, pastor jubilado de la Iglesia Metodista Unida, murió el domingo 9 de junio de 2019 después de una larga enfermedad. Nacido en Central, Indiana, su niñez fue en Alexandria, Indiana, donde se graduó de la escuela secundaria en 1949. Su hogar fue asilo amoroso y temeroso de Dios, con un gran énfasis en el juicio de Dios y la necesidad de que uno descubriera “la voluntad de Dios” y cumplirla en cada etapa de la vida. La educación siendo una parte importante en la vida de Chuck, asistió a la Universidad Olivet Nazarene en Bourbonnais, Illinois; el Seminario Teológico Nazareno en Kansas City, Missouri; Universidad Fisk en Nashville, Tennessee; Universidad Estatal de Kansas en Manhattan, Kansas; El Estado Central de Missouri en Warrensburg, Missouri; la Universidad de California en Santa Bárbara; y la Universidad Estatal de Kent en Kent, Ohio. Después de varios años en los puestos de capellán del ministerio de campus ecuménico, regresó al pastorado local, pastoreando en la Primera Iglesia Metodista Unida en Mission, Texas de 1985 a 1995 y en la Iglesia Metodista Unida de Oxford en San Antonio, Texas, de 1994 a 1995. En el mismo mes de su jubilación (junio de 1995), el Sr. McCullough ingresó al programa de Educación Pastoral Clínica (C.P.E) en el Baptist Hospital System en San Antonio. Un año y medio después, cuando cumplió los 65 años, se jubiló por completo. Su amor por los deportes no fue alentado durante su niñez y continuó durante toda su vida adulta. Si bien el baloncesto era el único deporte en el que realmente se destacó, también disfrutaba del golf, los bolos, el tenis de mesa y la raqueta. Durante 20 años de participación en las Olimpiadas Mayores, nunca dejó de obtener al menos una medalla, acumulando, en baloncesto: 32 medallas de oro, 4 de plata y 3 de bronce. Y en tenis de mesa, 2 de oro. Le precedieron a Chuck en entrar en paz sus padres; Herman y Bertha; y hermanos, Arvil (Al) y Paul McCullough. También le precedieron en paz sus hijastros, David y Jim Spalding; y su yerno, Todd Morrison. A McCullough le sobreviven su esposa, Jean, de quien a menudo decía que es la persona más cariñosa que se ha conocido. También sobreviven dos hijas: la Sra. Kira Ciupek de Temple, Texas, y la Sra. Dana Morrison de Pipe Creek, Texas. Era el orgulloso abuelo de los 6 hijos de sus hijas: Evangeline, Clyde y Joy Ciupek; y Tiffany Lopez, Jessica Buikema y Ryan Stevenson. Sus bisnietos: Zoe y Bradly Lopez; Dylan, Joshua y Jasmine Buikema; y Mia y Layla Stevenson. Fue el padrastro de Trish Martinez de Helotes; y la Sra. Jenne Duerler también de Helotes. También hay en la familia de Jean 10 nietos, 20 bisnietos y 6 tataranietos. Le sobreviven de su familia de origen los hermanos: Lee McCullough de Rochester, Minnesota; Doyle McCullough de Brasil, Tennessee; y una hermana, Eileen Morgan de Peoria, Arizona, junto con un gran número de sobrinas y sobrinos. El sábado 22 de junio de 2019 se llevó a cabo un servicio conmemorativo en Helotes UMC, presidido por el Reverendo Jim Sweet.

GUADALUPE RAMOS PALOS

AUGUST 3, 1949 – JANUARY 2, 2020

Guadalupe Ramos Palos, daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, friend, and colleague went before the presence of God on Tuesday, January 2, 2020. She was preceded in death by her parents, Manuel Ramos and Elisa Muñoz, her brother, David, and her first husband Roberto Ballinas.

Guadalupe was born and grew up in Villaflores, Chiapas, Mexico. Raised in a Nazarene family, she was called into the ordained ministry after finishing her secondary education. She attended the Nazarene Seminary in San Antonio, Texas where she graduated. She returned to her home country to serve in a number of churches there. When she married the photographer Roberto Ballinas, she left the ministry to raise a boy and a girl that accompanied this union and helped support their family by working outside the home in a bank and as photographer. After their children grew up and married, her husband died. She then decided to immigrate to U.S. in 1996 and to return to active ministry in in the Rio Grande Conference of the United Methodist Church, where two of her uncles were serving.

Rev. Ballinas (as she was known then) served as the pastor of churches in La Mesa, Big Springs, Wichita Falls, Bay City, Kingsville, Tulia, Principe de Paz in San Antonio, Texas, in Mesquite, New Mexico, and as an associate pastor in El Divino Salvador UMC in San Antonio. In La Mesa, Texas, she was able to lead a declining church with limited resources to grow, purchase property, build a sanctuary and buy a parsonage. Throughout her ministry she was able to relate to and motivate people of all social classes, and was particularly effective in working with children and youth.

In the United Methodist Church, she continued her theological studies at the Course of Study School in Perkins School of Theology in Dallas, and later in UBILA (Universidad Bíblica Latinoamericana of Costa Rica). She served in the United Methodist for 18 years before she went on disability leave because she was diagnosed with cancer.

Rev. Guadalupe Palos was very active in the conference and national clergywomen organization in the United Methodist Church. She made and cultivated friends all her life, some since her childhood. She had friends in various parts of Mexico, Costa Rica and in this country: from California to New Jersey, from Texas to Florida. She liked to travel and was able to travel to the Holy Land, Turkey, Greece, Italy, France, Spain, Morocco, and England.

Fue precedida en muerte por sus padres, Manuel Ramos y Elisa Muñoz, su hermano David y su primer esposo Roberto Ballinas. Guadalupe nació y creció en Villaflores, Chiapas, México. Criada en una familia nazarena, fue llamada al ministerio ordenado después de terminar su educación secundaria. Asistió al Seminario Nazareno en San Antonio, Texas, donde se graduó. Regresó a su país de origen para servir en varias iglesias allí. Cuando se casó con el fotógrafo Roberto Ballinas, dejó el ministerio para criar a un niño y una niña que acompañaban a esta unión y ayudaba a mantener a su familia trabajando fuera de casa en un banco y como fotógrafa. Después de que sus hijos crecieron y se casaron, su esposo murió. Luego decidió emigrar a los EE. UU. En 1996 y regresar al ministerio activo en la Conferencia Río Grande de la Iglesia Metodista Unida, donde dos de sus tíos estaban sirviendo. La Reverenda Ballinas (como se la conocía entonces) se desempeñó como pastora de iglesias en La Mesa, Big Springs, Wichita Falls, Bay City, Kingsville, Tulia, Principe de Paz en San Antonio, Texas, en Mesquite, Nuevo México, y como pastora asociada en El Divino Salvador UMC en San Antonio. En La Mesa, Texas, pudo liderar una iglesia en declive con recursos limitados para crecer, comprar propiedades, construir un santuario nuevo y comprar una casa parroquial. A lo largo de su ministerio, pudo relacionarse y motivar a personas de todas clases sociales, y fue particularmente eficaz en el trabajo con niños y jóvenes. En la Iglesia Metodista Unida, continuó sus estudios teológicos en la Escuela de Estudios de la Escuela de Teología Perkins en Dallas, y luego en la UBILA (Universidad Bíblica Latinoamericana de Costa Rica). Ella sirvió en los ministerios Metodistas Unidos durante 18 años antes de tomar una licencia por discapacidad después que le diagnosticaron cáncer. La Rda. FLORENCE MAURINE PEREZ

JUNE 10, 1932 ~ MARCH 4, 2020 (AGE 87)

Florence (Flo) Maurine Perez lived life like few other women of her time, and she managed to do so with a kind heart, keeping her moral bearings, staying true to her beliefs, loyal to her family and always giving to everyone around, without judgement or prejudice. Her life was not defined by a given moment, a particular job, or even a long and successful marriage — her life was defined by herself — she lived it fully, with grace elegance, and with dignity. Flo brought love, peace and joy to everyone she encountered up until her last day upon this earth with us. In her youth, she worked at summer camps and developed a love for being outdoors and for living unafraid. Upon graduation from college she departed for Okinawa Japan via troop carrier ship and taught English there for two years before returning to the US. Upon returning she taught at a school for troubled young men near Houston, Texas where she met her husband, Nestor Perez (deceased). She was an educator for over 30 years working as a teacher, student advocate, teacher advocate and an administrator. Upon retirement Flo turned back to school and earned a third college degree with a degree from SMU to become a Methodist minister. She served as a pastor in Melvin and Eden Texas and would fill in for other locations when there was a need. However, her unstoppable quest for adventure in life lead her to once again move overseas to teach English and she spent two years doing so in China where she made new friends and touched more peoples' lives. Never one to slow down, Flo came back to West Texas and continued to serve the community by working as a prison chaplain. Like most everyone, Flo reached a point in her life where she wanted to smell a few more flowers and work a few less hours so she fully retired and took the time to shower friends and family with her wit, cooking, stories, generosity and love. She lived a full Christian life, with the heart of a servant, the courage of a lion and the sweetest soul. Flo was an inspiration to many and was beloved by her family who will never be able to fill the hole in our hearts and souls left by her passing. She will forever be in our prayers, memories and hearts.

Florence (Flo) Maurine Pérez vivió la vida como pocas mujeres de su tiempo y logró hacerlo con buen corazón, manteniendo su moral, manteniéndose fiel a sus creencias, siempre leal a su familia y dando a todos a su alrededor, sin juicio o prejuicio. Su vida no fue definida por un momento dado, un trabajo en particular, o incluso un matrimonio largo y exitoso - su vida la definió ella misma - la vivió plenamente, con gracia, elegancia y dignidad. Flo trajo amor, paz y alegría a todos los que encontró hasta su último día en esta tierra con nosotros. En su juventud, trabajó en campamentos de verano y desarrolló un amor por estar al aire libre y vivir sin temor. Después de graduarse de la universidad, partió hacia Okinawa, Japón, en un barco de transporte de tropas y enseñó inglés allí durante dos años antes de regresar a los Estados Unidos. Al regresar enseñó en una escuela para jóvenes con problemas cerca de Houston, Texas, donde conoció a su esposo, Néstor Pérez (fallecido). Fue educadora por más de 30 años trabajando como maestra, advocante de estudiantes, advocante de maestros y administradora. Al jubilarse, Flo regresó a la escuela y obtuvo un tercer título universitario con un título de SMU para convertirse en ministro metodista. Ella sirvió como pastora en Melvin y Eden Texas y reemplazaba otros lugares cuando era necesario. Sin embargo, su imparable búsqueda de aventuras en la vida la llevó una vez más a mudarse al extranjero para enseñar inglés y pasó dos años haciéndolo en China, donde hizo nuevos amigos y tocó la vida de más personas. Flo regresó al oeste de Texas y continuó sirviendo a la comunidad trabajando como capellán de prisión. Como casi todo el mundo, Flo llegó a un punto en su vida en el que quería oler algunas flores más y trabajar unas horas menos, así que se jubiló por completo y se tomó el tiempo para colmar a sus amigos y familiares con su ingenio, cocina, historias, generosidad y amor. Vivió una plena vida cristiana, con corazón de sierva, coraje de león y el alma más dulce. Flo fue una inspiración para muchos y fue amada por su familia, que nunca podrá llenar el vacío en nuestros corazones y almas que nos dejó su fallecimiento. Ella estará por siempre en nuestras oraciones, recuerdos y corazones.

Daniel accepted the call to ministry in the Rio Grande Conference United Methodist Church. He attended Southwestern University, SMU Perkins School of Theology and received an Honorary Doctor Degree from Southwestern University.

His church appointments spanned South Texas. He also served in San Antonio as Northern District Superintendent, Conference Council Director and Director of MARCHA. His final appointment was pastor of La Trinidad UMC where he served for 19 years. Daniel's ministry spanned over 50 years. In his final years, having his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren live in San Antonio where they could gather on a regular basis as a "family" filled him with great joy. He was truly thankful for this blessing from God. Memorial Service was held on August 9, 2020 at 2:00 p.m. at La Trinidad United Methodist Church; this service was limited to family members only. Daniel Rodríguez left legacy of servant leadership

By Bishop Joel N. Martinez

The Rev. Daniel Z. Rodríguez, a widely known and beloved United Methodist Hispanic/Latino leader, died July 19 in San Antonio. With his passing, The United Methodist Church lost a caring pastor, advocate for justice and facilitator of dialogue.

I was blessed to work closely with Dan as we shared in ministry within our conference and in the wider church for over 40 years. He was a good friend, a thoughtful mentor and a wise counselor to me throughout my ministry.

Dan, who was 88, had a 50-year ministry as a pastor, district superintendent, conference council director and executive director of MARCHA, the Hispanic/Latino caucus in The United Methodist Church. He influenced three generations of lay and clergy leaders in mission with Hispanic/Latino communities in the United States and Puerto Rico.

A lifelong clergy member of the Rio Grande Conference, he was a graduate of Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas, and the Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. Southwestern conferred the honorary doctor of divinity degree in recognition of outstanding leadership as a pastor and denominational leader.

Dan's voice and advocacy for the mission of United Methodism with the growing Hispanic/Latino community were key in the denominational effort to develop and approve the Ethnic Local Church Missional Priority in the 1980s.

As a director on the United Methodist Board of Global Ministries in the late 1970s and early 1980s, he worked for the support of a stronger commitment to congregational development in Hispanic/Latino communities and the implementing of financial stewardship development programs in the missionary and ethnic language conferences.

While serving as council director of the Rio Grande Conference, he made a commitment to participate in the ongoing work of MARCHA. His ability as a facilitator and his relational style led the caucus board to invite him to serve as executive director from 1980-83. His three-year tenure helped MARCHA to regain momentum as it advocated for a more inclusive United Methodism and for the strengthening of the Ethnic Minority Local Church. The caucus also advocated for more Hispanic/Latino staff in the general agencies, for the election of Hispanic/Latino leaders to the Council of Bishops and for cultivating closer relationships with the Methodist Churches in Latin America and the Caribbean.

Dan once told me that "for me the annual conference comes first." So, while he answered the call to wider service in the general church, he was most devoted to serving as a pastor and other appointments in his beloved home conference of Rio Grande. This helps explain his return to the pastorate in 1983, when he was appointed to the historic La Trinidad United Methodist Church in San Antonio. He would serve the longest tenure – 19 years – as pastor in the 144-year history of the congregation. He came from a family of preachers, preceded by his father, Amado, and several cousins. This was part of his spiritual legacy.

Laity that he pastored appreciated his warm and caring approach to ministry with the flock. He also encouraged younger laity to embrace and affirm their roles as leaders of the present and the future. Youth ministry was important in his work.

His preaching was informed by his involvement in community and the social teachings of The United Methodist Church. As pastor in the Rio Grande Valley at Mission in 1966, he walked with and supported the striking farmworkers of the valley in their 400-mile march to the state capitol in Austin seeking justice, fair wages and improved working conditions.

At La Trinidad, he engaged in community organizing efforts in the heavily Mexican American west and south sides of San Antonio. He supported the work of Communities Organized for Public Service and The Metro Alliance, two groups affiliated with the Industrial Areas Network of Community Organizations. Transformative efforts by these organizations corrected some of the decades-old discriminatory practices of the San Antonio power structure toward these areas of the city.

Jesus sent out the disciples two by two. Ministry is always a team ministry. Dan's spouse, Evelí Rodríguez, was a caring and supportive team member in their ministry. Her own labors as staff in the conference council office, including serving as associate council director, and her work as a certified Christian educator, left a lasting imprint on the lives of countless persons in the conference and local churches where they served. Her 34-year tenure on the conference office staff is also a record.

For many of us who were privileged to share in ministry with the Rev. Daniel Z. Rodríguez, our fondest memory of him is as a caring mentor and role model. His good counsel, his honest feedback, and his smiles and laughter were gifts we can never repay.

El Rdo. Dr. Daniel Z. Rodríguez, nacido el 5 de julio de 1932 en Alice, Texas, hijo del Rdo. Amado Rodríguez y Magdalena Benítez, falleció el 19 de julio de 2020 a la edad de 88 años. Le sobreviven su esposa Eveli Rodríguez; los hijos Michael, Mark y Denise Rodríguez; numerosos nietos y bisnietos. Daniel aceptó el llamado al ministerio en la Iglesia Metodista Unida de la Conferencia Río Grande. Asistió a Southwestern University, SMU Perkins School of Theology y recibió un Doctorado Honorario de Southwestern University. Sus nombramientos en la iglesia abarcaron el sur de Texas. También se desempeñó en San Antonio como superintendente del Distrito Norte, director del concilio de conferencias y director de MARCHA. Su nombramiento final fue pastor de La Trinidad UMC donde sirvió durante 19 años. El ministerio de Daniel se extendió por más de 50 años. En sus últimos años, al tener a sus hijos, nietos y bisnietos viviendo en San Antonio donde podían reunirse de manera regular como una “familia”, esto lo llenaba de gran alegría. Estaba realmente agradecido por esta bendición de Dios. El Servicio Conmemorativo se llevó a cabo el 9 de agosto de 2020 a las 2:00 p.m. en la Iglesia Metodista Unida La Trinidad; este servicio se limitó únicamente a miembros de la familia. Los miembros de la iglesia pueden ver el servicio en YouTube. En lugar de flores, se solicitan donaciones a La Trinidad UMC, 300 San Fernando, San Antonio, Texas. Daniel Rodríguez dejó un legado de liderazgo de servicio.

Por medio del Obispo Joel N. Martinez: El Reverendo Daniel Z. Rodríguez, un líder hispano / latino metodista unido ampliamente conocido y querido, murió el 19 de julio en San Antonio. Con su fallecimiento, la Iglesia Metodista Unida perdió a un pastor cariñoso, defensor de la justicia y facilitador del diálogo. Tuve la fortuna de trabajar estrechamente con Dan mientras compartíamos el ministerio dentro de nuestra conferencia y en la iglesia en general durante más de 40 años. Fue un buen amigo, un mentor atento y un consejero sabio para mí durante todo mi ministerio. Dan, que tenía 88 años, tuvo un ministerio de 50 años como pastor, superintendente de distrito, director del concilio de conferencias y director ejecutivo de MARCHA, el grupo hispano / latino de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Influyó a tres generaciones de líderes laicos y del clero en misión con comunidades hispanas / latinas en los Estados Unidos y Puerto Rico. Un miembro del clero de toda la vida en la Conferencia Río Grande, Dan se graduó de la Universidad Southwestern en Georgetown, Texas, y de la Escuela de Teología Perkins de la Universidad Metodista del Sur en Dallas. Southwestern le otorgó el título de doctor honorario en teología en reconocimiento de su liderazgo sobresaliente como pastor y líder denominacional.

La voz de Dan y su defensa de la misión del Metodismo Unido con la creciente comunidad hispana / latina fueron clave en el esfuerzo denominacional para desarrollar y aprobar la Prioridad Misional de la Iglesia Local Étnica en la década de 1980. Como director de la Junta Metodista Unida de Ministerios Globales a fines de la década de 1970 y principios de la de 1980, trabajó para el apoyo de un compromiso más fuerte con el desarrollo congregacional en las comunidades hispanas / latinas y la implementación de programas de desarrollo de mayordomía financiera en el idioma misionero y étnico. conferencias. Mientras se desempeñaba como director del consejo de la Conferencia de Río Grande, se comprometió a participar en el trabajo continuo de MARCHA. Su habilidad como facilitador y su estilo relacional llevaron a la junta del caucus a invitarlo a servir como director ejecutivo de 1980 a 1983. Su mandato de tres años ayudó a MARCHA a recuperar el impulso mientras abogaba por un Metodismo Unido más inclusivo y por el fortalecimiento de la Iglesia Local de Minorías Étnicas. El caucus también abogó por más personal hispano / latino en las agencias generales, por la elección de líderes hispanos / latinos para el Concilio de Obispos y por cultivar relaciones más estrechas con las Iglesias Metodistas en América Latina y el Caribe. Dan me dijo una vez que “para mí, la conferencia anual es lo primero”. Entonces, aunque respondió al llamado a un servicio más amplio en la iglesia en general, estaba más dedicado a servir como pastor y otros nombramientos en su amada Conferencia local de Río Grande. Esto ayuda a explicar su regreso al pastorado en 1983, cuando fue nombrado miembro de la histórica Iglesia Metodista Unida La Trinidad en San Antonio. Serviría el mandato más largo - 19 años - como pastor en los 144 años de historia de la congregación. Provenía de una familia de predicadores, precedido por su padre, Amado, y varios primos. Esto fue parte de su legado espiritual. Los laicos que pastoreaba apreciaban su enfoque cálido y cariñoso del ministerio con el rebaño. También animó a los laicos más jóvenes a abrazar y afirmar sus roles como líderes del presente y del futuro. El ministerio juvenil fue importante en su trabajo. Su predicación fue informada por su participación en la comunidad y las enseñanzas sociales de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Como pastor en el Valle del Río Grande en Mission en 1966, caminó y apoyó a los trabajadores agrícolas en huelga del Valle en su marcha de 400 millas hacia el capitolio estatal en Austin en busca de justicia, salarios justos y mejores condiciones laborales. En La Trinidad, participó en esfuerzos de organización comunitaria en los lados oeste y sur de San Antonio, predominantemente mexicano-americanos. Apoyó el trabajo de Comunidades Organizadas para el Servicio Público y The Metro Alliance, dos grupos afiliados a la Red de Organizaciones Comunitarias de Áreas Industriales. Los esfuerzos transformadores de estas organizaciones corrigieron algunas de las prácticas discriminatorias de décadas de la estructura de poder de San Antonio hacia estas áreas de la ciudad. Jesús envió a los discípulos de dos en dos. El ministerio es siempre un ministerio en equipo. La esposa de Dan, Evelí Rodríguez, fue un miembro del equipo cariñoso y comprensivo en su ministerio. Su propio trabajo como personal en la oficina del consejo de la conferencia, incluida su labor como directora asociada del consejo, y su trabajo como educadora cristiana certificada, dejaron una huella duradera en las vidas de innumerables personas en la conferencia y en las iglesias locales donde sirvieron. Su permanencia de 34 años en el personal de la oficina de conferencias también es un récord. Para muchos de nosotros que tuvimos el privilegio de compartir el ministerio con el Rdo. Daniel Z. Rodríguez, nuestro recuerdo más entrañable de él es como un mentor cariñoso y un modelo por seguir. Su buen consejo, sus comentarios honestos y sus sonrisas y risas fueron regalos que nunca podremos pagarle.

WILLIE GEORGE THOMAS JR.

JUNE 10, 1966 – NOVEMBER 28, 2019

Our dearly loved husband, father, brother and uncle, the oldest of nine children, was born to Willie George and Alabama Thomas Sr, on June 10, 1966 and departed to be in the presence of Our Lord and Savior on November 29, 2019.

Willie was born in Montgomery, Alabama and raised in Detroit, Michigan where he attended grade school and graduated high school from Northeastern High School in 1984. Willie obtained a Business Degree from University of Phoenix. Willie subsequently followed his godparents, Charles and “Bobbie” Crenshaw (both deceased) to Texas where he began his new life here in Austin. Over the years he worked for a local distribution company and Austin Community College. His passion was mentoring young people and he was well known for the time he spent coaching football and mentoring youth.

Willie accepted Christ at the age of 9 and was baptized at Zion Hope Missionary Baptist Church in Detroit where he sang in the Star Light Choir. His wife recently discovered a letter he wrote that said he earnestly “re-dedicated his life” to God on June 12, 2010. On December 31, 2017, he received licensure from Rock Quarry Missionary Baptist Church under Pastor Harold Taylor. On May 18, 2018, he was ordained into the Rio Texas Conference through Simpson United Methodist Church under the leadership of Pastor Robert C. Waddle. On July 1, 2018, Willie received the honor of being appointed pastor of William Taylor United Methodist Church in Luling, TX, where he was joyously serving at the time of his passing. He absolutely loved being WTUMC pastor!

Willie frequently reminded his congregation to show God's love to others through words and deeds. He demonstrated this every chance he got by being an enthusiastic cheerleader, counselor, mentor and friend to anyone he encountered; he never hesitated to reach out and help someone in need. His big smile and willingness to laugh were the calling cards that allowed him to share the living gospel in the simplest of interactions.

Willie loved life, Willie loved his wife, children, grandchildren, and Willie particularly loved his calling to share the Word of God. If you know him, you also know he never met a stranger. In addition to his parents, Willie and Alabama (stepmother, Jessie), he leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife, Cheryl (Williams) Thomas who he married on March 14, 2015, blending their families of 5 children and 5 grandchildren. His daughters: Khasavria "Kassie" Thomas, Jessica Wade-Thomas, and sons Ja'Mionn Fletcher-Thomas, Brazhon Thomas and Willie B. Thomas cherished their father's love and guidance. His grandchildren Khamari, Robert, Caleb, Raymond and Cristian will miss their grandpa's playful hugs. Willie also leaves behind his siblings: brothers, Roderick (Rachel) Thomas, Deon (Kenya) Thomas, Joe Thomas, Jonathan Thomas and Michael Thomas; and sisters, Kenyetta Thomas, Paushaunn (Corey) Thomas, and Monica Steen. As well, he leaves behind his step sisters and brothers: Brenda, Barbara, Sandra, Patricia and Rodney; and many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and his wonderful church families at William Taylor United Methodist Church in Luling, TX and Simpson United Methodist Church and Rock Quarry Missionary Baptist Church in Austin.

Willie's wife, children, parents, siblings, nieces, nephews, cousins, congregation and many close friends will miss his presence on earth. God's Promise is that we will hear him sing and laugh again when we are reunited in Heaven. His favorite song was "Going Up Yonder". Well, Willie has gone up yonder to be with the Lord, and may he rest in peace in God's merciful and everlasting care.

Funeral services were held at Simpson United Methodist Church in Austin, TX, officiated by Pastor Robert Waddle.

Nuestro amado esposo, padre, hermano y tío, el mayor de nueve hijos, nació de padres Willie George y Alabama Thomas Sr, el 10 de junio de 1966 y partió para estar en la presencia de Nuestro Señor y Salvador el 29 de noviembre de 2019. Willie nació en Montgomery, Alabama y se crió en Detroit, Michigan, donde asistió a la escuela primaria y se graduó de la preparatoria Northeastern High School en 1984. Willie obtuvo un título en Negocios de la Universidad de Phoenix. Willie siguió posteriormente a sus padrinos, Charles y "Bobbie" Crenshaw (ambos fallecidos) a Texas, donde comenzó su nueva vida aquí en Austin. A lo largo de los años, trabajó para una empresa de distribución local y Austin Community College. Su pasión era la tutoría de jóvenes y era bien conocido por el tiempo que pasó entrenando fútbol y siendo mentor de jóvenes. Willie aceptó a Cristo a la edad de 9 años y se bautizó en la Iglesia Bautista Misionera Zion Hope en Detroit, donde cantó en el Coro Star Light. Su esposa descubrió recientemente una carta que él escribió en la que decía que "volvió a dedicar su vida" a Dios el 12 de junio de 2010. El 31 de diciembre de 2017, recibió la licencia de la Iglesia Bautista Misionera Rock Quarry bajo el pastor Harold Taylor. El 18 de mayo de 2018, fue ordenado miembro de la Conferencia Río Texas por medio de la Iglesia Metodista Unida Simpson, bajo el liderazgo del pastor Robert C. Waddle. El 1 de julio de 2018, Willie recibió el honor de ser nombrado pastor de la Iglesia Metodista Unida William Taylor en Luling, TX, donde estaba sirviendo con alegría en el momento de su fallecimiento. ¡Le encantaba ser pastor de WTUMC! Willie le recordaba con frecuencia a su congregación que mostrara el amor de Dios a los demás a través de palabras y hechos. Demostró esto en cada oportunidad que tuvo al ser un entusiasta animador, consejero, mentor y amigo de cualquiera que encontrara; nunca dudó en acercarse y ayudar a alguien que lo necesitaba. Su gran sonrisa y su disposición a reír fueron las tarjetas de presentación que le permitieron compartir el evangelio viviente en las interacciones más simples.

Willie amaba la vida, Willie amaba a su esposa, hijos, nietos y Willie amaba particularmente su llamado a compartir la Palabra de Dios. Si lo conociste, también sabes que nunca conoció a un extraño. Además de sus padres, Willie y Alabama (madrastra, Jessie), deja para apreciar su memoria a su amada esposa, Cheryl (Williams) Thomas, con quien se casó el 14 de marzo de 2015, mezclando a sus familias de 5 hijos y 5 nietos. Sus hijas: Khasavria "Kassie" Thomas, Jessica Wade-Thomas y sus hijos Ja'Mionn Fletcher-Thomas, Brazhon Thomas y Willie B. Thomas apreciaron el amor y la guía de su padre. Sus nietos Khamari, Robert, Caleb, Raymond y Cristian extrañarán los divertidos abrazos de su abuelo. Willie también deja atrás a sus hermanos: hermanos, Roderick (Rachel) Thomas, Deon (Kenia) Thomas, Joe Thomas, Jonathan Thomas y Michael Thomas; y hermanas, Kenyetta Thomas, Paushaunn (Corey) Thomas y Monica Steen. Además, deja atrás a sus hermanastras y hermanos: Brenda, Barbara, Sandra, Patricia y Rodney; y muchas tías, tíos, sobrinas, primos y sus maravillosas familias de la iglesia en la Iglesia Metodista Unida William Taylor en Luling, TX, la Iglesia Metodista Unida Simpson y la Iglesia Bautista Misionera Rock Quarry en Austin. Su esposa, sus hijos, sus padres, sus hermanos, sus sobrinas, sus primos, su congregación y muchos amigos íntimos de Willie extrañarán su presencia en la tierra. La promesa de Dios es que lo escucharemos cantar y reír nuevamente cuando nos reunamos en el cielo. Su canción favorita fue “Going Up Yonder”. Bueno, Willie se ha ido más allá para estar con el Señor; que descanse en paz en el cuidado misericordioso y eterno de Dios. El funeral se llevó a cabo en la Iglesia Metodista Unida Simpson en Austin, TX, oficiado por el Pastor Robert Waddle.

CLERGY SPOUSESELIZABETH ALMAGUEL*MAY 6, 1925 ~ JULY 26, 2020 (AGE 95)

Elizabeth Almaguel Perez (“Eli” to family and friends) transitioned peacefully from her home to a heavenly mansion on the evening of July 26, 2020. She was born on May 6, 1925 in Banes, Oriente, Cuba – the youngest daughter of eight children. Her Cuban mother and Galician Spaniard father encouraged her to study, tutor neighborhood children, and teach Sunday School. Her love for learning and teaching led her to pursue higher education, and to begin her career as a teacher of Spanish language and literature. She taught in private schools in Cuba and in public schools after emigrating to the U.S in 1970. Elizabeth often stated that her greatest joy had been teaching Special Education to pre-K children in an early intervention pilot program.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her soulmate and life partner of 59 ½ years, Rev. Ramon Almaguel. Jointly they ministered in the Methodist Church both in Cuba and in the U.S. In the U.S., they served with the Rio Grande Conference in New Mexico and Texas.

Elizabeth is survived by her daughters, Loida Almaguel and Ana Almaguel, who were forged by Elizabeth's deep and abiding love as well as the strong feminist and egalitarian beliefs that she embodied. One of Elizabeth's favorite maxims was "Only God is above you. No one is below you."

Elizabeth was cared for by her niece Hilda Caridad Batista for the past seven years. The love and attention she received from Cary will never be forgotten nor can it be repaid. Nevertheless, the family is very grateful for Cary's love and attention to Elizabeth.

Given the constraints of COVID-19, the family held a private and small graveside interment.

Elizabeth Almaguel Pérez ("Eli" para familiares y amigos) hizo una transición pacífica de su hogar a una mansión celestial en la noche del 26 de julio de 2020. Nació el 6 de mayo de 1925 en Banes, Oriente, Cuba, la hija menor de ocho hijos. Su madre cubana y su padre español gallego la alentaron a estudiar, enseñar a los niños del vecindario y enseñar la escuela dominical. Su amor por el aprendizaje y la enseñanza la llevó a seguir una educación superior y comenzar su carrera como profesora de lengua y literatura españolas. Ella enseñó en escuelas privadas en Cuba y en escuelas públicas después de emigrar a los Estados Unidos en 1970. Elizabeth a menudo dijo que su mayor alegría había sido enseñar Educación Especial a niños de pre-K en un programa piloto de intervención temprana.

Elizabeth fue precedida en la muerte por su alma gemela y compañero de vida de 59 años y medio, el Reverendo Ramón Almaguel. Juntos ministraron en la Iglesia Metodista tanto en Cuba como en los Estados Unidos. En los Estados Unidos, sirvieron en la Conferencia de Río Grande en Nuevo México y Texas.

A Elizabeth le sobreviven sus hijas, Loida Almaguel y Ana Almaguel, que fueron forjadas por el amor profundo y permanente de Elizabeth, así como por las fuertes creencias feministas e igualitarias que ella encarnaba. Una de las máximas favoritas de Elizabeth fue "Solo Dios está por encima de ti. Nadie está debajo de ti."

Elizabeth fue cuidada por su sobrina Hilda Caridad Batista durante los últimos siete años. El amor y la atención que recibió de Cary nunca serán olvidados ni reembolsables. Sin embargo, la familia está muy agradecida por el amor y la atención de Cary hacia Elizabeth.

Dadas las limitaciones de COVID-19, la familia llevará a cabo un internamiento privado y pequeño junto a la tumba.

REBECCA MERCADO CANALES

JANUARY 6, 1927 – MAY 3, 2020

Rebecca Mercado Canales, age 93, passed away May 3, 2020. She was born Jan 6, 1927 to Victorico and Manuela Mercado in Laredo, Texas. She moved to Corpus Christi in 1937 and graduated from Miller High School in 1945. Rebecca retired after a long successful teaching career in Corpus. Until her retirement, she was a Kindergarten teacher in CCISD.

She was proud of all the accomplishments of her family, but her family was most proud of her accomplishments. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in Elem. Ed., from Pan American University, and her Master's Degree from UTPA in Edinburg. What was so surprising is that she did this after her children received their degrees. She challenged the family to follow their dreams and proved that it's never too late.

Rebecca and her husband Juan followed their calling in the ministry of the United Methodist Church. They served churches in Odem, Robstown, Raymondville, Kingsville, Pharr, Edinburg, Corpus Christi, Austin, and Laredo where they retired and proceeded to live out their retirement in Corpus Christi still serving the Lord at Kelsey Memorial.

Rebecca was preceded in death by her husband Juan of 49 years, her sisters Dolores, Guadalupe, Ernestina, and her brothers Ismael and Martin.

Left to cherish her memories are her five children. Irma Canales, Minerva Canales, Eva (Connie) Silva (Juan), Irene Soliz (Alfredo), and John Richard Canales (Nancy). Rebecca was a wonderful and proud grandmother to ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind her one sister Consuelo Estrada and brother Alfonso Mercado.

A special word of thanks to Dr. Frank Martinez and staff, a warm appreciation for her loving, dedicated caregivers, Terri Alvarez and Sharron Adams. Most importantly we express our gratitude and love to Kelsey Memorial, her beloved church family.

Abiding by restrictions for social distancing, a Visitation was offered to friends and loved ones on Friday, May 8, 2020 at Kelsey Memorial UMC on Comanche St. followed by a praise service at 6 p.m. that same evening. A Funeral Service, for immediate family only, was celebrated at Kelsey Memorial UMC on Saturday, Interment followed at Seaside Memorial Park.

Rebecca Mercado Canales, de 93 años, falleció el 3 de mayo de 2020. Nació el 6 de enero de 1927 de padres Victorico y Manuela Mercado en Laredo, Texas. Se mudó a Corpus Christi en 1937 y se graduó de Miller High School en 1945. Rebecca se jubiló después de una larga y exitosa carrera docente en Corpus. Hasta su jubilación, fue maestra de jardín de infantes en CCISD. Ella estaba orgullosa de todos los logros de su familia, pero su familia estaba más orgullosa de sus logros. Recibió su licenciatura en Ciencias en Elem. Ed., De la Universidad Panamericana, y su Maestría de UTPA en Edinburg. Lo que fue tan sorprendente es que hizo esto después de que sus hijos recibieron sus títulos. Desafió a la familia a seguir sus sueños y demostró que nunca es demasiado tarde. Rebecca y su esposo Juan siguieron su llamado en el ministerio de la Iglesia Metodista Unida. Sirvieron en iglesias en Odem, Robstown, Raymondville, Kingsville, Pharr, Edinburg, Corpus Christi, Austin y Laredo, donde se jubilaron y procedieron a vivir su jubilación en Corpus Christi todavía sirviendo al Señor en Kelsey Memorial. Rebecca fue precedida en la muerte por su esposo Juan de 49 años, sus hermanas Dolores, Guadalupe, Ernestina y sus hermanos Ismael y Martín. Para apreciar sus recuerdos están sus cinco hijos Irma Canales, Minerva Canales, Eva (Connie) Silva (Juan), Irene Soliz (Alfredo) y John Richard Canales (Nancy). Rebecca fue una abuela maravillosa y orgullosa de diez nietos y siete bisnietos. También le sobrevive su hermana Consuelo Estrada y a su hermano Alfonso Mercado. Un agradecimiento especial al Dr. Frank Martínez y al personal, un cálido agradecimiento por sus cariñosas y dedicadas asistentes, Terri Alvarez y Sharron Adams. Lo más importante es que expresamos nuestra gratitud y amor a Kelsey Memorial, su amada familia de iglesia. Cumpliendo con las restricciones de distanciamiento social, se ofreció una visitación a amigos y seres queridos el viernes 8 de mayo de 2020 en Kelsey Memorial UMC en Comanche St. seguido por un servicio de alabanza a las 6 p.m. esa misma noche. El sábado se celebró un funeral, solo para familiares directos, en Kelsey Memorial UMC, seguido por el sepelio en Seaside Memorial Park.

CARLA DIANE EHLERS EDGE

SEPTEMBER 15, 1937 - JANUARY 4, 2020

Carla Diane Ehlers Edge Sept. 15th, 1937 — January 4th, 2020 We have lost our wonderful Carla (a.k.a. Muzzy) and don't know how to express in words all the gaps she leaves in our lives: wife, mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, friend, neighbor, teacher, choir director, singer, pianist...the list goes on and on. Carla was born and raised in Palacios, Texas. Her parents, Mildred Martin Ehlers and Karl Ehlers were so proud of her and her numerous achievements, honors and awards all through school and childhood. She showed a gift for music at a very early age. She continued to play and sing throughout her life; (we heard her singing from her bed just days before she passed). We are all so grateful that she not only shared her talents as a performer and teacher, but she also passed on her love of music to her family and many, many students, friends and church members. Carla is survived by her devoted husband, Clifford Edge, Jr. and her five children: Kippy (Debbie) Edge of Portland, TX; Carl Edge of San Luis Obispo, CA; Craig (Michelle) Edge of Andover, KS; Chris (Mimi) Edge of Los Fresnos, TX; and Cara (Louis) Salin-Edge of Cedar Park, TX.

All five of the kids have Carla's wonderful sense of humor and talent for music. Carla also has twelve of the most amazing and talented grandkids in the world (according to her): Chelsea, Caitlin (Hunter), Courtney, Camber, Caven, Cora, Cenna, Camie, Carly, Casey, Jacques and Emile. Other survivors include lots of students, friends, choir members and people who might have heard her sing and play in a restaurant or a church. We will all miss her dearly. Viewing for Carla was held on Thursday, January 9th at the Sawyer George Funeral Home from 2:00-7:00pm. The funeral service was held on Friday, January 10th at 3:00pm at the old First Methodist Church building on 4th and Avenue B in Robstown; family graveside service followed on Saturday, January 11th at 11:00am in Palacios, Tx. She was laid laid to rest right by her parents.

Carla Diane Ehlers Edge: 15 de septiembre de 1937 - 4 de enero de 2020. Hemos perdido a nuestra maravillosa Carla (también conocida como Muzzy) y no sabemos cómo expresar con palabras todos los huecos que deja en nuestras vidas: esposa, madre, madrastra, abuela, amiga, vecina, maestra, directora de coro, cantante, pianista ... la lista sigue y sigue. Carla nació y se crió en Palacios, Texas. Sus padres, Mildred Martin Ehlers y Karl Ehlers estaban muy orgullosos de ella y de sus numerosos logros, honores y premios a lo largo de la escuela y su infancia. Mostró un don por la música a una edad muy temprana. Continuó tocando y cantando durante toda su vida; (la escuchamos cantar desde su cama pocos días antes de su muerte). Todos estamos muy agradecidos de que no solo compartiera sus talentos como intérprete y maestra, sino que también transmitió su amor por la música a su familia y a muchos, muchos estudiantes, amigos y miembros de la iglesia. A Carla le sobreviven su devoto esposo, Clifford Edge, Jr. y sus cinco hijos: Kippy (Debbie) Edge de Portland, TX; Carl Edge de San Luis Obispo, CA; Craig (Michelle) Edge de Andover, KS; Chris (Mimi) Edge de Los Fresnos, TX; y Cara (Louis) Salin-Edge de Cedar Park, TX. Los cinco hijos tienen el maravilloso sentido del humor y el talento de Carla para la música. Carla también tiene doce de los nietos más increíbles y talentosos del mundo (según ella): Chelsea, Caitlin (Hunter), Courtney, Camber, Caven, Cora, Cenna, Camie, Carly, Casey, Jacques y Emile. Otros sobrevivientes incluyen a muchos estudiantes, amigos, miembros del coro y personas que podrían haberla escuchado cantar y tocar en un restaurante o en una iglesia. Todos la extrañaremos mucho. La visitación de Carla se llevó a cabo el jueves 9 de enero en la funeraria Sawyer George de 2: 00-7: 00pm. El funeral se llevó a cabo el viernes 10 de enero a las 3:00 pm en el antiguo edificio de la iglesia First Methodist en 4th y Avenue B en Robstown; El servicio familiar junto al sepulcro siguió el sábado 11 de enero a las 11:00 am en Palacios, Tx. HELEN GALLOWAY EDKINSFEBRUARY 25, 1927 – JANUARY 10, 2020

Helen Christine Ziegler Galloway Edkins died January 10, 2020, at the age of 92 years and 10 months. She was born February 25, 1927, in Kansas City, Missouri to Dr. William H. and Olga H. Ziegler. Growing up in Boonville, MO, Helen developed a love of music. From the age of six, Helen played the organ and piano for special occasions at her Methodist Church. Throughout her life she would accompany countless numbers of people and direct many choirs. Helen attended Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa, St. Luke's School of Nursing in St. Louis, MO, where she became an RN, and Culver-Stockton University, graduating with a BSN. She worked as an RN until marrying Methodist preacher, the Rev. Bruce Galloway, of San Antonio. She became the consummate preacher's wife. To the Galloways three children, Gretchen Elaine, Barbara Ruth and George Ziegler were born while they served in San Antonio. The family traveled South Texas as appointed by bishops of The United Methodist Church until settling once again in San Antonio. After her husband's untimely death in 1976, Helen went back to teaching nursing and piano in Alice, Texas. It was there that in 1982, she met and married Russell R. Edkins. In 1984, Russell and Helen moved to San Antonio where they joined St. John's United Methodist Church. Soon after, she became the church organist, but she found real happiness in teaching piano.

Over the years she had well over 100 students, and she continued to teach until she was 90 years old. Following Russell's death, Helen moved to The Meadows at Morningside and over the years she developed many lasting relationships, especially with the staff. She was a great encourager to them, and all called her the Lady with the Smile. And smile she did, right up until her death. Helen's greatest joy - and the role she enjoyed most in life - was as mother and grandmother. She is survived by her three children, Gretchen (Stuart Willis), Barbara, and George (Lien Dang Galloway). Also surviving her are her grandchildren, Mitchell Galloway-Edgar, Meghan Laughlin (Jennifer), Lani Galloway and Christine Galloway. Connor and Edyth Laughlin, her great grandchildren, also survive their Gigi. Continuing her love of teaching and interest in all things medical, Helen donated her body to the UT Health Science Center in order to be a part of the education of young medical students. A celebration of Helen's life was held on Leap Year Day, February 29, at 2:00, in the Activity Room of the Meadows at Morningside, 630 Babcock Road. A reception followed.

Helen Christine Ziegler Galloway Edkins falleció el 10 de enero de 2020 a la edad de 92 años y 10 meses. Nació el 25 de febrero de 1927 en Kansas City, Missouri, hija del Dr. William H. y la Sra. Olga H. Ziegler. Al crecer en Boonville, MO, Helen desarrolló un amor por la música. Desde los seis años, Helen tocaba el órgano y el piano en ocasiones especiales en su Iglesia Metodista. A lo largo de su vida acompañaría a innumerables personas y dirigiría numerosos coros. Helen asistió a Grinnell College en Grinnell, Iowa, a la Escuela de Enfermería de St. Luke en St. Louis, MO, donde se recibió de Enfermera Registrada, y a la Universidad de Culver-Stockton, donde se graduó con un BSN. Trabajó como enfermera registrada hasta que se casó con el predicador metodista, el Reverendo Bruce Galloway de San Antonio. Ella se convirtió en la prima esposa del predicador. A los Galloway les nacieron tres hijos, Gretchen Elaine, Barbara Ruth y George Ziegler mientras servían en San Antonio. La familia viajó por el sur de Texas según lo designado por los obispos de la Iglesia Metodista Unida hasta establecerse una vez más en San Antonio. Después de la prematura muerte de su esposo en 1976, Helen volvió a enseñar enfermería y piano en Alice, Texas. Fue allí donde en 1982 conoció y se casó con Russell R. Edkins. En 1984, Russell y Helen se mudaron a San Antonio, donde se unieron a la Iglesia Metodista Unida de St. John. Poco después, se convirtió en la organista de la iglesia, pero encontró una verdadera felicidad en la enseñanza de piano. A lo largo de los años, tuvo más de 100 estudiantes y continuó enseñando hasta los 90 años de edad. Después de la muerte de Russell, Helen se mudó a The Meadows en Morningside y con los años desarrolló muchas relaciones duraderas, especialmente con el personal. Ella fue una gran animadora para ellos, y todos la llamaron la Dama de la Sonrisa. Y sonreírse es lo que hizo, hasta su muerte. La mayor alegría de Helen, y el papel que más disfrutó en la vida, fue el de madre y abuela. Le sobreviven sus tres hijos, Gretchen (Stuart Willis), Barbara y George (Lien Dang Galloway). También le sobreviven sus nietos, Mitchell Galloway-Edgar, Meghan Laughlin (Jennifer), Lani Galloway y Christine Galloway. Connor y Edyth Laughlin, sus bisnietos, también sobreviven a su Gigi. Continuando con su amor por la enseñanza y su interés en todo lo relacionado con la medicina, Helen donó su cuerpo al Centro de Ciencias de la Salud de UT para ser parte de la educación de los jóvenes estudiantes de medicina. Una celebración de la vida de Helen se llevó a cabo el día del año bisiesto, el 29 de febrero, a las 2:00, en la Sala de Actividades de Meadows en Morningside, 630 Babcock Road. Siguió una recepción.

Kelly played the trumpet in the marching band at Pearland High School, graduated in 1974, and went to the University of Houston where he also was a member of the marching band. He graduated from UH with a Bachelor of Science in Biology. After working in a research laboratory at the University of Texas Health Science Center (UTHSC) in Houston for a while, Kelly applied to and was accepted into the University of Texas Medical School in Houston. During the summer between first and second years in medical school, Kelly continued to work in the lab of physiologist Dr. Frank

Booth. It was in 1981 that he met his life's love, Jenny Lynn Cravey, a research technologist in another lab. They married June 17, 1983 in Houston, Texas and honeymooned in Grande Teton and Yellowstone National Parks. Shortly before his graduation from medical school in 1985, their first child, Kristopher, was born. Kelly and Jenny stayed in Houston while Kelly completed a Family Medicine Residency Program through Southwest Memorial Hospital. In February of 1988 their second child, Heather, was born. That summer Kelly's residency was complete and the family packed up to move to Llano, Texas. Kelly, and close friends Dr. John Frederick and Dr. Janice Pruessner, joined the Hoerster Clinic partnership of family medicine doctors. In December of 1991 Jenny gave birth to their third child, Clare. Immediately upon moving to Llano, the Tuckers joined Lutie Watkins Memorial United Methodist Church. The kids (and Jenny) were active in the Logos program, and Kelly began his lifetime participation in the church choir. He loved music and enjoyed singing, especially in the Christmas Cantatas and Concerts for Epiphany. Kelly and Jenny both enjoyed the outdoors and took the family camping and hiking as often as they could, often with their longtime friends Mark and Sheryl Millsap and kids, or Janice Pruessner and John Frederick and their kids. Kelly was also a rocketry and NASA space program enthusiast, collecting and building model rockets in his spare time. In addition, he loved fireworks and started making his own several years ago. He looked forward to indulging his hobbies further in retirement. Kelly continued to practice medicine over 30 years, as the Hoerster Clinic became the Scott & White Hoerster Clinic, and eventually the Baylor Scott & White Hoerster Clinic. Kelly is pre-deceased by his parents, Lewis and Rosie, and by his older brother Lewis Edwin Tucker Jr., known to family as Bo. Kelly is survived by his wife of 36 years, Jenny, and his children: son Kristopher Tucker of Austin, daughter Heather Tucker and daughter-in-law Ruby Tucker of Portland, Oregon, and daughter Clare Tucker Bretton and son-in-law Will Bretton of Austin, as well as his sister Claudia Mansbridge of Llano. Between Kelly and Jenny there are many nieces and nephews and family members on both sides whom they love and treasure. A memorial service for Dr. Kelly Rush Tucker was held Monday June 17, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. at Lutie Watkins Memorial United Methodist Church, 800 Wright St., Llano, Texas 78643, presided over by Rev. Leslie Tomlinson.

La Dra. Kelly Rush Tucker, de 63 años, murió el viernes 7 de junio de 2019 de un carcinoma de células renales en etapa cuatro. Kelly nació el 16 de diciembre de 1955 del Reverendo Lewis Edwin Tucker y la Sra. Ethel Kring Godbey Tucker (Rosie) en Orange, Texas. La familia vivió en varios pueblos del este de Texas durante la infancia de Kelly, ya que el Reverendo Tucker, un predicador metodista unido, servía en iglesias en Dickenson, Center y otras. Kelly tocó la trompeta en la banda de música de la Pearland High School, se graduó en 1974 y fue a la Universidad de Houston, donde también fue miembro de la banda de música. Se graduó de la UH con una licenciatura en biología. Después de trabajar en un laboratorio de investigación en el Centro de Ciencias de la Salud de la Universidad de Texas (UTHSC) en Houston por un tiempo, Kelly solicitó y fue aceptada en la Facultad de Medicina de la Universidad de Texas en Houston. Durante el verano entre el primer y segundo año de la escuela de medicina, Kelly continuó trabajando en el laboratorio del fisiólogo Dr. Frank Booth. Fue en 1981 cuando conoció al amor de su vida, Jenny Lynn Cravey, una tecnóloga de investigación en otro laboratorio. Se casaron el 17 de junio de 1983 en Houston, Texas y pasaron su luna de miel en los parques nacionales de Grande Teton y Yellowstone. Poco antes de graduarse de la escuela de medicina en 1985, nació su primer hijo, Kristopher. Kelly y Jenny se quedaron en Houston mientras Kelly completaba un programa de residencia en medicina familiar en el Southwest Memorial Hospital. En febrero de 1988 nació su segunda hija, Heather. Ese verano, la residencia de Kelly se completó y la familia empacó para mudarse a Llano, Texas. Kelly y sus amigos cercanos, el Dr. John Frederick y la Dra. Janice Pruessner, se unieron a la asociación de médicos de medicina familiar de la Clínica Hoerster. En diciembre de 1991 Jenny dio a luz a su tercer hija, Clare. Inmediatamente después de mudarse a Llano, los Tucker se unieron a la Iglesia Metodista Unida Lutie Watkins Memorial. Los hijos (y Jenny) participaron activamente en el programa Logos y Kelly comenzó su participación de por vida en el coro de la iglesia. Amaba la música y se disfrutaba cantando, especialmente en las Cantatas de Navidad y Conciertos para la Epifanía. Kelly y Jenny disfrutaron del aire libre y llevaron a la familia a acampar y hacer caminatas tan a menudo como pudieron, a menudo con sus amigos de toda la vida Mark y Sheryl Millsap y sus hijos, o Janice Pruessner y John Frederick y sus hijos. Kelly también era un entusiasta de los cohetes y los programas espaciales de la NASA, y coleccionaba y construía modelos de cohetes en su tiempo libre. Además, amaba los cohetes y comenzó a hacer los suyos desde hacía varios años. Esperaba poder seguir disfrutando de sus pasatiempos en la jubilación. Kelly continuó practicando la medicina durante 30 años, cuando la Clínica Hoerster se convirtió en la Clínica Scott & White Hoerster y, finalmente, en la Clínica Baylor Scott & White Hoerster. Kelly fue precidido en muerte por sus padres, Lewis y Rosie, y por su hermano mayor Lewis Edwin Tucker Jr., conocido en la familia como Bo. A Kelly le sobreviven su esposa de 36 años, Jenny, y sus hijos: su hijo Kristopher Tucker de Austin, su hija Heather Tucker y su nuera Ruby Tucker de Portland, Oregon, su hija Clare Tucker Bretton y su yerno Will Bretton de Austin, así como su hermana Claudia Mansbridge de Llano. Entre Kelly y Jenny hay muchas sobrinas y sobrinos y familiares de ambos lados a quienes aman y atesoran. Un servicio conmemorativo para el Dr. Kelly Rush Tucker se llevó a cabo el lunes 17 de junio de 2019 a las 2:00 p.m. en la Iglesia Metodista Unida Lutie Watkins Memorial, 800 Wright St., Llano, Texas 78643, presidida por la Rda. Leslie Tomlinson.
