Cruise to CUBA

If you're serious in your desire to immerse yourself in another culture, this is your invitation to join us. With your help, Fathom's program of cultural, artistic, and humanitarian exchanges can create new bonds between the people of the U.S. and Cuba, support increased economic activity, and encourage the Cuban people to share their stories more completely with the world. And, as you'll discover, they do have stories worth sharing.

Havana

Cuba's colorful capital is probably best known for the Spanish-influenced architecture of Old Havana. But its historic castles, fortresses, cathedrals, mansions and public buildings vie for attention with the city's lively music and entertainment scene, an eclectic and sophisticated mix of museums, art galleries, music, dance, and open-air festivals that take full advantage of the island's sunny Caribbean climate.

Cienfuegos / Trinidad

The coastal city of Cienfuegos is known to Cubans as the Pearl of the South. Near the entrance to the bay stands the imposing fortress of Castillo de Jagua, built in 1745 to protect the city against pirate attacks. Just an hour away is Trinidad, one of Cuba's best-preserved cities from the days of the sugar trade. It was from here, in 1518, that Hernán Cortés recruited men for his now-legendary expedition.

Santiago de Cuba

The distinctly Caribbean spirit of Santiago de Cuba is evident in every aspect of the city's Afro-Cuban cultural life. Cuba's second largest city is home to the popular festivals of Carnival and the Fiesta del Fuego, as well as to many of the country's most famed musicians and artists. Its diverse architecture ranges from the Spanish coastal fortress of Castillo del Morro to the red-domed towers of the Basílica de Nuestra Señora de la Caridad del Cobre, Cuba's most sacred pilgrimage site within Soberania National Park.

Your Host
Bishop Joel Martinez

Bishop Joel N. Martinez, a native of Seguin, Texas, was elected in the South Central Jurisdiction. He served from 1992-2000 in the Nebraska Area and from 2000 to 2008 in the San Antonio Area. He retired in 2008, and he and his spouse, Dr. Raquel Mora Martinez, reside in San Antonio. Bishop Martinez has traveled widely in Latin America and the Caribbean. He has visited Cuba on three occasions, 1989, 1995, and 2006. He currently serves on the Advisory Board of "Encounter With Christ", a Permanent Fund of the General Board of Global Ministries, that raises funds for the mission of the Methodist Churches in Latin America and the Caribbean. He continues to advocate for closer relationships between the United Methodist Church and the Methodist Churches in Latin America and the Caribbean.

A Message from your Host

I urge United Methodists to consider visiting Cuba. We have a long history of mission engagement with Cuba dating to the beginning of the 20th century. The Church in Cuba is deeply spiritual and growing rapidly. The nation of Cuba has a rich and diverse cultural heritage. Some of that heritage has been shared with us by immigrants who have come to the United States and shared their spirituality, their cultural gifts, including their wonderful music and literature over that last 115 years. During this time of greater understanding, educational and cultural exchange, and closer government to government cooperation, we can grow in our understanding of and appreciation for a great people, a great spiritual heritage, and explore future opportunities for mission engagement in the future. My spouse Raquel and I look forward to seeing you on the cruise this coming October!

EXCURSIONS IN CUBA

A unique part of the cruise will be your excursions in each port. All excursions are included in your cruise package and pricing. Important: Participating in the excursions is a requirement of going on this cruise.

The excursions are designed to give you a true cultural immersion experience so that you learn about the lives and aspirations of the Cuban people. The excursions will involve cultural education and cultural exchange activities with artists, musicians, small-business owners, students, health workers and others. In addition, you will have time to eat and shop on your own during the excursions. (All excursions meet the people-to-people guidelines set forth by the U.S. government.) You will not only see Cuba but have opportunity to interact with the people and you may have the chance to participate in some of their activities.

In addition, EO guests will have exclusive visits to churches and ministries to learn the history of the church in Cuba and interact with clergy and ministry workers. There are active churches and ministries from many denominations in Cuba – Catholic, United Methodist, Baptist, Pentecostal, and more. You will visit some of these churches in each port. EO can also arrange for your group to visit denomination-specific sites if groups meet minimum size requirements, all required permissions are received and the excursions are arranged well in advance.

ABOARD THE

Fathom Adonia

The modern 704-passenger Adonia, your home for the eight days of your journey, is a small adventure in itself. In addition to nourishing your hunger to make a difference, your voyage will also nourish your body with thoughtfully prepared, Cuban-inspired meals that include a variety of vegetarian options. There's a pool, a gym, a games deck, even a full-sized library. And, of course, there's the infinite mystery of the wide, wide sea around you. So your spirit gets a bit of extra nourishment too.

But, beyond its built-in amenities, what matters most about the Adonia is its size. It's small enough to let you get genuinely acquainted with your fellow travelers: the people who share your desire for meaningful human connection. And, for the Fathom voyager, that's the most important amenity of all.
